

The Review.

Best Advertising Medium in North-western New Brunswick.

SICHIBUCTO, N. B., JUNE 1, 1896

As an experiment we commence the publication of THE REVIEW to-day as a semi-weekly. If the change should meet with the approval of our subscribers we will make it permanent. The subscription price of a semi-weekly, the size of THE REVIEW, is usually $2.00, but, although the cost of publication will be necessarily greater, the price will remain as at present, viz. $1.00. A week seems too long a period between the issues of a newspaper and ere long we hope to see our way clear to publish three times a week.

HE IS A GOOD LOOKING MAN TOO!

Mr. McInerney, whose portrait appears above, is again soliciting the support of the electors of Kent, and his claims are admittedly many. Mr. McInerney is one of the most gifted public men that our County has produced. As a public speaker he stands in the front rank. As the representative of our mixed population he has the great advantage of speaking both the English and French languages with fluency and precision. This is not only an advantage so far as his intercourse with the electors and learning their wants and requirements are concerned, but it is an undoubted advantage also, to a member of a parliament in which both languages are spoken. His knowledge of public questions is extensive and indisputably he has attended carefully to his public duties and holds a good position among the men who sit in the national parliament. He has been in the past a moderate man rather than an extreme partisan, and is admittedly free from sectarian bigotry. These qualifications will no doubt bear due weight with the electors in making their choice of a representative in the new parliament.

THE POLITICAL OUTLOOK IN KENT.

It has always been customary—and we suppose it always will be customary—for political parties to exaggerate the prospects of their favourite candidates before elections. There are some people so wise—in their own estimation—as to be able to foreshadow political events. Their predictions must, of course, be taken for what they are worth. There is no way of either contradicting or verifying their statements till the ballots have been counted; and if those who shall be doomed to disappointment on the 23rd of June derive any enjoyment from the hope that their respective candidate or party will win, it were a pity to dispel the delusion.

Hertofore in this County a French-speaking candidate possessed, on account of his nationality, a decided advantage over an opponent of the English tongue, provided, of course, that other things were about equal. The Acadians of this County are a wide-awake, intelligent people, and it is not at all probable that a man of Mr. LeBlanc's ability will receive a majority over a man of Mr. McInerney's well known standing and abilities. Mr. LeBlanc, is a straw blown about by every political wind. At one time or place he is a Liberal, at another he is an independent and it is quite probable that he could be a Conservative if his chances of success looked brighter in that political creed. We have nothing to say personally of Mr. LeBlanc, and if the majority of the electors think fit to honor him with the position of Kent's representative, we can have no objection.

Mr. McInerney is a man of high education who has made politics a life study. He is a fluent speaker—an orator, some would say—capable of taking part in any discussion, or filling any place, even in the cabinet. He is in the prime of manhood, and being a Roman Catholic, himself, his interest in religious matters are identical with those of the French people who are all Roman Catholics. Why then should the intelligent electors of Kent support Mr. LeBlanc over Mr. McInerney. So far as can be judged at present Mr. Geo. V. McInerney will be our next representative.

He Made a Sale.

He was a very small boy and very ragged, but there was a look in his eyes of shrewd intelligence beyond his years. His left hand he held behind his back, but his right was extended, and between two grimy fingers he held a half-smoked stump of a cigarette. He had his eye on a well-dressed man who was walking jauntily along the street swinging his cane.

"Say, mister," said the boy, "gimme a match, will yer, please?"

The man stopped good-naturedly and smiled when he saw the dirty cigarette stump. He made a pretence of searching his pockets for a match, and finally said,—"I haven't one, bub."

The boy hastily slipped the stump into his pocket, and withdrawing his left hand from behind his back displayed a large box containing an assortment of small boxes.

"If yer ain't got no matches," said he, "now's a good time for yer ter buy. I got 'em all wax and wood, and some what won't blow out in the wind and udders what will. Yer takes yer pick."

He sold two boxes for a nickel.

To Tell The Age of a Horse.

To tell the age of any horse, inspect the lower jaw, of course, The six front teeth the tale will tell And every doubt and fear dispel.

Two middle "nippers" you behold, Before the colt is two weeks' old, Before eight weeks two more will come Eight months the "corners" cut the gum.

The outside grooves will disappear From middle two in just one year, In two years, fr-m the second pair; In three, the corners too are bare.

At two the middle "nippers" drop, At three three the second pair can't stop, When four years old the third pair goes, At five a full new set he shows.

The deep black spots will pass from view At six years from the middle two; The second pair, at seven years, At eight the spot each "corner" clears.

From middle "nippers" upper jaw, At nine the black spots will withdraw, The second pair at ten are white; Eleven finds the "corners" light.

As time goes on the horsemen know The oval teeth three-sided grow; They longer get, project before, Till twenty; when we know no more.

A Question.

How can we raise more corn to the acher? Why, of course by using Putnam's Corn Extractor. Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor has given universal satisfaction, for it is sure, safe and painless. Like every article of real merit it has a host of imitators, and we would specially warn the public to guard against those dangerous substitutes offered for the genuine Putnam's Extractor. N. C. Polson & Co., proprietors, Kingston.

Dazed.

A highwayman, named Boulter, who was hanged in 1778, once met a young woman weeping as he was riding on horseback. Learning that her distress was caused by the presence of a creditor and a bailiff in a neighboring house to take her husband to prison for a debt of thirty guineas, the highwayman gave her money to pay the debt. Then, when the creditor came along the road, he took back the thirty guineas and rode off, much pleased with his inexpensive charity.

On another occasion this same highwayman was "bluffed" by an imperious, rough nobleman, who was also deaf. Lord O—, the nobleman, while travelling in his post-chaise, was roused from a nap by the stopping of the carriage. Seeing a man on horseback, pistol in hand the nobleman angrily asked,—

"What do you want?"

"Money, my lord," answered the man.

"What money? Are you the rascal who has just awoke me so suddenly?"

"Be quick, my lord! I've no time to lose: hand over your purse?"

"My purse? You shall not have it. You carry on a fine trade don't you?"

Lord O—Then quietly pulled out a full purse, and with his finger and thumb deliberately took out three guineas, which he handed to the highwayman, saying,—

"There, that's enough for a scoundrel like you. I hope I may live to see you hanged."

The robber was so surprised by the nobleman's indifference that he did not insist in his demand of the purse.

Neglects and the Result.

Neglect cold in the head and you will surely have catarrh. Neglect nasal catarrh and you will as surely induce pulmonary disease or catarrh of the stomach with its disgusting attendants, foul breath, hawking, spitting, blowing, &c. Stop it all by using Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure, 25 cents a box cures.

—The fine rain Sunday night was highly welcomed by the farmers. Vegetation has taken on a thrifty appearance.

"Why did you break off you engagement with Miss Bertha?" "Because her parrot was always saying, 'Stop that George,'" "But what difference did that make? Your engagement was not a secret." "But my name is not George."

OUR MAIL.

Our mail brings us every day dozens of letters about Burdock Blood Bitters. Some from merchants who want to buy it, some from people who want to know about it, and more from people who do know about it because they have tried it and been cured. One of them was from Mr. J. Gillan, B. A., 39 Gould Street, Toronto. Read how he writes:

GENTLEMEN,—During the winter of 1892 my blood became impure on account of the hearty food I ate in the cold weather. Ambition, energy and success forsook me, and all my efforts were in vain. My skin became yellow, my bowels became inactive, my liver was lumpy and hard, my eyes became inflamed, my appetite was gone, and the days and nights passed in unhappiness and restlessness.

For some months I tried doctors' and patent medicines of every description, but received no benefit. Being advised by a friend to try B.B.B., I am glad to have the opportunity of testifying to the marvellous result. After using three bottles I felt much better, and when the fifth bottle was finished I enjoyed health in the greatest degree, and have done so from that day up to date. Therefore I have much pleasure in recommending B. B. B. to all poor suffering humanity who suffer from impure blood, which is the beginning and seat of all diseases.

J. GILLAN, B. A., 39 Gould St., Toronto.

CARD.

To the Electors of the County of Kent: GENTLEMEN,—Parliament being dissolved, the people are again asked to choose representatives to see after their interests at Ottawa: the day appointed for said choice will be on the 23rd day of June, next.

Having been chosen as candidate at a convention held at Buctouche, in March, 1895, I then accepted the candidature, I have since so often been requested by a large number of electors to be their standard-bearer, that I felt it my duty to offer them an opportunity of ratifying, by their votes on polling day, the choice made of me at that convention.

One of the conditions imposed upon the successful candidate, was his independence of either political party, and in consequence of that, I to-day present myself to the electors of this county as an independent candidate.

If I have the honor of being elected as your representative at Ottawa, I will endeavor by all constitutional means to aid in bringing a satisfactory settlement of the "Manitoba School Question."

I will do all that lies in my power to favor, assist and encourage the agricultural class—the fundamental life of the present and future of this beautiful and fertile Canada of ours.

I pledge myself to support all measures tending to prevent the emigration of our people to the United States and to induce those who are already gone to return—sooner than to spend millions in foreign immigration.

To facilitate the lumbering industry I will try to obtain harbor amelioration without neglecting the wharves and breakwaters.

I will watch, with great solicitude, the fisherman's interests and have a certain system of licenses abolished as I believe it to be unjust and despotic.

Local measures for the County.

I favor: The construction of light houses and necessary reparation to our public wharves.

The continuation of the M. & B. railway, North so as to "bring about the realization of a project familiar to the electors of this County, viz: "The ferry between Richibucto Cape and P. E. I."

The combined construction of a "Post-office and Custom House" at Richibucto.

Gentlemen, in conclusion I have my past experience and political career to offer you as a safe-guard for the above pledges. With the help of my constituents, I hope to fulfill satisfactorily the aforesaid promises advantageous both to you and me.

I therefore, most respectfully ask the hearty support of all the electors who will judge me worthy of their confidence. In return, I will strenuously endeavor to obtain equal justice for all creeds and nationalities, in order to preserve the union and good will in this country, inhabited by a mixed but loyal population.

I will attempt, at public meetings to discuss the political issues of the day, and endeavor to see as many of you, personally, as possible.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your Obedient Servant,
O. J. LEBLANC.
