No Monroe Doctrine For Him.

Uncle Ben Cobb is one of the old-time negroes of Chattanooga. He has a mighty poor opinion of all n-groes who were born since the war, and the fact that his son Lysander affects the style and manner of a colored dude is a source of no little vexation and annoyance to the old man.

Last week Lysander came in from the "High Gee" Club and excitedly announced, as he took his accustomed seat at the table, that a big war was going to begin right away.

"What sort of a war?" asked Uncle Ben. "War wid England," said Lysander. "Hain't you done heard how de President of the United States have sounded his war horn so loud dat he done roused up de British Tammany Tiger?"

"No," said Uncle Ben. "What dey gwine to fight about?" "About de Monroe Doctrine," said Lysander. "Dem Britishers don't believe in dat doctrine an' de President say he gwine to enforce it if it take all de fightin men in de country to do it.

"Hold on, Lysander, hold on," said the old man with agitation; "let you' ole daddy speak. Doan let me heah you hab any mo' sich talk as dat under dis parliamentary roof."

Then the old man paused for a moment and, as tears began to gather in his eyes, he went on: "Lysander Cobb, I've worked hard to raise you, an' it breaks de ole man's heart to heah you talk about fightin fo' de Munnerro Doctrine. You know I've a Baptis' an' I've tried to raise you up in de right faith; an' yo' ole mudder libed and died a Baptis'. But den I reckon I couldn't 'spect any better ob you, Lysander. I've allers said dese young niggers bound to go to de debbel. Dey doan know what religion am at all."

"But said Lysander, 'let me 'plain de Monroe doctrine.'" Then the old man grew wrathly and said, as he brought his fist down upon the table:

"No, no, Lysander Cobb, no! You doan 'plain in dis house. Nobody's gwine to be 'lowed to 'plain any doctrine befo' dese chillern 'cep'in' de Baptis' doctrine as long as dis ole man's on top ob de dirt."

Again Lysander tried to explain and again the old man stopped him, and dismissed the subject by saying: "Doan you try any mo' to 'plain dat Munnerro doctrine' at dis table. I's boss heah and I means what I says. I've a democrat an' I stood up against all de niggers an' voted for Grober Cleblan', but I've not gwine to stan' by him in dis wah. If he want to fight to enfo'ce de Baptis' doctrine, I've wid him, but when he go to runnin' off after dese heah Munnerro doctrine I've dead agin him, an' (shaking his finger at Lysander) I notofy you right now Lysander Cobb, dat you gwine to get 'quainted wid de toe ob dis ole man's boot an' 'fin yo'self landed headfo' most through dat do' de very nex time you 'tempt to mention dis subject in dis house."

RESCUED FROM INSANITY.

GENTLEMEN,—To say all I ought to in favor of B. B. B. would be impossible. It has been a great health restorer to me and I do swear by it. I am a different man to what I was ten years ago when it was expected I would be in the asylum, but now I am in perfect robust health and it was the B. B. B. that did it.

I tried various doctors, both in the country and in the city, and took medicines too numerous to mention, but everything failed to have the desired effect. When I used Burdock Blood Bitters it succeeded beyond all expectations, requiring only two bottles to cure me.

To make it still more certain that B. B. B. is the real cure for constipation, I may say that some two years afterwards I felt the symptoms returning and took one bottle more and from that time to this present day (over eight years) I have never had any returns of the disease.

I never knew any medicine to work so well. It does not seem to be a mere reliever but a sure and certain cure as I can testify to, for hundreds of dollars worth of medicine and advice failed to do me any good, but three dollars worth of B. B. B. made a permanent cure that has given me years of health and comfort.

Yours truly, C. L. KILMER, Toronto.

MAR. 5.—Mansfield Elliot, a bright little lad of fourteen years, and the youngest son of Mrs. Thos. Elliott, died of congestion of the liver last Saturday. The remains were interred in the Episcopal church burying grounds here. Much sympathy is expressed for the afflicted mother and family, who, by this death, have lost a noble and generous boy, and the hope and pride of his widowed mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Sorby, of Dorchester Road, spent a few days with Mrs. Elliott this week.

Mrs. John Kinnear and her little daughter Dora, have returned from Newton, Mass.

Digue.

Mrs. Frank Connors, of Grand Digue, spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. McFadden, Euctouche.

Mr. Chas. Wood is out again after a short illness.

Mr. Damien Goguen is recovering from a severe attack of inflammation of the lungs. Dr. Ellis, of Shediac, is attending him.

Dr. F. J. White, of Moncton, paid us a short, professional visit last week.

Mr. Hugh D. Cutter, a student of St. Joseph's College, paid us a short visit last week.

Miss Annie St. Peter, teacher of the St. Paul's school, spent Sunday at home.

A number of families will shortly leave for the States.

To Sunday School Workers.

Dear Brethern,—The time is coming for all our schools to awake to renewed effort. I have sent cards to all the Supts. of dormant schools urging them to open by the 1st Sunday in April. Can you not assist the Supt. in this? Subscribe the necessary funds to get Lesson Helps, cheerfully. Get good Lesson Helps. Get quarterlies if you can. The children will like them better than lesson sheets. They are better in many ways. Especially are the maps valuable. Each school should have Primary quarterlies for the small children, Intermediates for children from 9 to 15, and Senior quarterlies for those over 15 and perhaps for some under that age. I would strongly urge all schools to make this effort.

I have also sent blanks to County officers. They in turn will send them to the Supts. to secure statistics. I wish to secure returns by May 15th, as my own return sheet has to be in by June 1st in order that the Provincial returns can be presented at the International Convention which meets in Boston June 23-26. Those who cannot give figures for present year, can return the figures of last year. But every school should be in good running order and therefore able to give statistics by May 1st.

Our County had the credit of presenting the best statistical report that was handed in last year. We can keep the ground we have gained if every Supt. and every County officer will do his best, and they all will.

The fine weather will soon be here brethern. Let us all make ready for the greatest summer's work we have ever done in the Sunday Schools. Enlist a lot of new workers.

New Sunday Schools. Is there any person who can open one? I trust there will be some new schools in this County this summer. They are needed in every day school district. Has your district got one? If not, why?

Yours very truly, F. W. MURRAY, County Secy. "The Manse," Bass River, Mar. 12, '96.

Hands and Ankles Raw.

For years I have been a great sufferer from itchy skin trouble and salt rheum. My hands and ankles were literally raw. The first application of Dr. Chase's Ointment allayed the burning, itching sensation. One box and a half entirely cured me. It is also instant relief for chilblains. Henry A. Do Not Do This

Do not be induced to buy any other if you have made up your mind to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. Remember that Hood's Sarsaparilla cures when all others fail. Do not give up in despair because other medicines have failed to help you. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla faithfully and you may reasonably expect to be cured.

USE PELEE ISLAND WINES FOR DEBILITY NATURE'S TONIC.

E. G. SCOVIL, AGENT PELEE ISLAND GRAPE JUICE. ST. JOHN, N. B. MARCH 15th, 1896.

DEAR SIR,—My family have received great benefits from the use of the PELEE ISLAND GRAPE JUICE during the past four years. It is the best tonic and sedative for debility, nervousness and weak legs we have ever tried. It is much cheaper and pleasanter than medicines. I would not be without it in the house. Yours, JAMES H.
