W. E. FORBES.

MEETINGS.—Mr J. B. Lade will conduct a Gospel Temperance meeting in Chalmers' Church, Richibucto, on Thursday evening at 7 o'clock, and in Nicholas River Hall, on Friday evening at 6.30 o'clock.

A BOUQUET FOR D. G.—The last issue of the Chatham World contains the following: "What a phenomenal, what an abnormal liar! He seems to glory in that kind of lying that anybody can expose who takes the trouble. An airy, breezy, picturesque liar! Or does he call his lies fish stories, and regard them as proofs of his qualification for the office he has succeeded in getting? Fred Coleman made no mistake when he handed over the symbol of office as Champion Liar of New Brunswick to D. G. Smith. He knew the man."

HE THROTTLED HIM.—Sir Richard Cartwright is threatened with an action for assault. There was difficulty in getting into the House on Friday last and Rudolph Laferriere, of Le Canada, declares Sir Richard seized him by the throat, nearly strangling him, and then calling out "Policeman, why do you allow these ruffians to interfere with the entrance of members?" Laferriere says Sir Richard then let go and that they walked together in the Press Gallery, but that Sir Richard did not and has not yet apologized.

CHURCH SERVICES.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—Rev. Wm. Hamilton, pastor. The usual services will be held on Sabbath first, viz:—Kingston at 11 o'clock a. m., and Richibucto at 7 o'clock p. m.

Rev. J. S. Allen will preach on Friday, at Mill Creek, at 6.30; Sunday, Richibucto, 11 a. m., Molus River, 3 p. m., Kingston, 7 p. m.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Kingston Notes.

Owing to a severe cold we were unable to be about to glean news for last week but we trust our friends did not blame the dance. The weather has changed and now we rejoice to hear the jingle of the bells once more; our cold has left us and we'll smile no more.

Boys don't drink, the committee are after it.

Miss Mitchell left for Moncton on the 11th.

Mr. Edmund Bowser looks well after his trip to the far West.

Mr. McGowan spent Sunday 12th in town.

Miss Cummings and Miss Price are visiting Dr. Doherty.

Miss Annie Smith is confined to her house with an attack of neuralgia.

Mrs. Bell of Galloway, was buried on Saturday. She was 79 years of age.

Mrs. Dr. Olloqui is ill.

Mr. Jonathan Dickinson is home from the Old Country and expects to spend the winter with his mother. We welcome him home again and we trust that his visit may be a pleasant one.

Miss McInerney left on Thursday to spend a few days with friends in Moncton. We tremble with fear every time we hear of her departure and are always glad when we hear of her return in a few days.

The fishermen have moved further down the river.

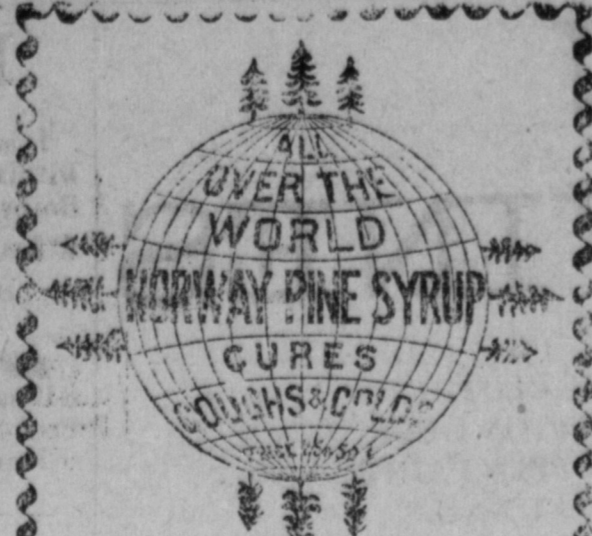

Service was held in the R. C. Chapel last Sunday, the first time in three months.

We understand that a movement is on foot to revive one of the Temperance Societies and we trust it may be a success.

Several of our prominent citizens are attending court in Richibucto, and we know that with their assistance Judge Wells will have no trouble in disposing of the docket.

Saturday was a very pleasant day and many took advantage of the opportunity. In fact so much so that it stormed on Sunday. We were pleased to see many friends from Richibucto and Buctouche enjoying the day. Judging from some of the turnouts Kingston should be proud of its sleigh-builder who drove a lovely sleigh. Of course we would warn him not to try to pass John with his team.

Truly the dancing fever has struck Kingston notwithstanding all that divines have said. We often hear of a few gathered here and a few there to "practice" and sometimes dance a little. Pleasant strains came from the residence of Mr. McAlmon on Friday evening and from the residence of Mr. Trainor on Monday evening. And that is not all, for there are whispings of more, and best of all a drive in large teams to visit friends when the moon shines brightly. Miss Florence Jardine celebrated her fifteenth birthday on Wednesday, 15th, by entertaining her friends. Dances and games were thoroughly enjoyed by all, and now we hear of desires to know how to swing and dance.

The most prompt, pleasant and perfect cure for Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Pain in the Chest and all Throat, Bronchial and Lung Diseases.

The healing anti-consumptive virtues of the Norway Pine are combined in this medicine with Wild Cherry and other pectoral Herbs and Balsams to make a true specific for all forms of disease originating from colds.

LAST FALL THE GREAT COMPANIES

making printed cottons forced all the wholesale houses to sign an agreement to sell prints only at certain advanced prices after Oct. 1st last.

We were warned of this in time to secure a very large quantity at the old prices. To make a January rush we are putting a portion of our purchases on sale now.

Our selling prices are just about what the wholesale houses are now asking for the same goods.

By sending at once you will get print dresses 25 per cent lower than dealers will have to ask for them later on.

—Dwelling house and lot in Buctouche for sale. See ad. elsewhere.

—The Democratic Presidential Convention will be held at Chicago July 7th.

—The Joggins mines are closed, the men having declined to accept a cut in wages.

—A recount has been ordered by Judge Wells in the recent Scott Act election in Westmorland.

—Remember fresh sausages always on hand at W. W. Short's, Richibucto. Fresh tinned haddie.

—There seems to be a disposition on the part of the electors of Northumberland to give the Hon. Peter another chance.

—Mr. Powell, in moving the address in reply to the speech from the throne made a splendid impression on the house.

—You can get Oil of Tar, Blands Iron Pills, Dr. Seiler's Antiseptic Tablets in any quantity required at W. W. Short's, Richibucto.

—A bargain sale is now on at Mrs. J. W. Harnett's store. Goods have been marked away down to clear out the stock. This is a good opportunity for bargains.

—George Johnstone Robb, city treasurer of Moncton, is short in his accounts over nine thousand dollars. Stock gambling is said to be the cause of his downfall.

—The rise in printed cotton was caused by the colored cotton syndicate forcing the wholesale houses to sell at certain set prices. Daniel & Robertson have some information on the subject in this issue.

—Don't you want something to read? In order to clear out an accumulation of stock we are making a cheap sale of story books—10c. each or 3 for 25c. Come early before the best are picked out. W. W. Short, Richibucto.

—A writ has been issued for an election in Northumberland N. B. to fill the vacancy caused by the calling of Hon. Michael Adams to the Senate. Nomination takes place on the twenty-eighth instant and polling on the fourth of February.

—A barn belonging to Coun. Thos. Atkinson, Harcourt, was burned to the ground on Wednesday evening. A quantity of hay and other crops was destroyed, bringing Mr. Atkinson's loss, above insurance, up to over $400.00.

—Mr. Keady O'Leary, overseer of the poor for district No. 1, Richibucto, is a financier of no mean ability. Besides paying for overseer Forster $37.18 to J. & T. Jardine, $27.50 to Dr. Doherty, and to overseer Myers, Lower Village, $23.78, he has a surplus of $177.59 on hand.

—The young of Harcourt, taking advantage of the excellent roads, had a driving party on Friday. After driving around the village they betook themselves to the house of Mr. J. N. Wathen, of Mortimore. There a very merry evening was passed with music and all the favorite games.

—Mrs. Maclean, Bass River, who is at present living with her son—the blacksmith—met with a painful accident a few days since. By mistaking a door she stepped down cellar, supposing it to be the pantry. Her right arm is broken and left side very much injured. Dr. Keith is in attendance.

—H. M. Ferguson, J. P., who was recently appointed notary public is receiving the congratulations of his friends. Mr. Ferguson has always been a faithful Blairite and naturally feels that it is no more than his due that he should be loaded with such honors. As Mr. Ferguson is a man of parts it is quite natural that he should come to the front.

—The Chicago Times publishes a fine portrait of Mr. Laurier, whom it describes as the "probable premier of Canada." The flattering sketch of his life, which accompanies the picture, closes with these words: "One thing about him will make him dear perhaps some day to Americans. He is an ardent annexationist." Mr. Laurier will get the solid Chicago vote.—Sun.

—The case of H. M. Ferguson vs. Theophile Doiron occupied the attention of Justice James Stothart at Kingston, Friday. The action was for money lent. Mr. Ferguson conducted his case in person and the defendant was represented by Mr. C. J. Sayre. Some lively scraps took place between Counsel during the trial. The Justice returned a verdict of $5.00 and costs in favor of plaintiff.

—Mrs Thomas bell, one of the oldest and most respected inhabitants in East Galloway, died on the morning of Thursday last week. She had not been well for some time past but her death which was due to heart disease was somewhat sudden. She was a native of Scotland and came to this country nearly sixty years ago. Her funeral on Saturday was largely attended. Service in the house and at the grave was conducted by Rev. Mr Hamilton.

latter feared a still worse defeat. During the time in which the fate of the Conservative party was trembling in the balance, the Reformers were showering admiration and sympathy on the Premier. They evidently wished, above all things, that he should win in this contest. They wanted any man but Sir Charles Tupper at the head of the Conservatives. When the Govt. was announced, all this vanished, and it was seen how little real sympathy they had for their old antagonist.

However, it is but fair to state that on the whole the Reformers behaved in an admirable manner. There was an absence of that personal aggressiveness that sometimes marks all parties when in opposition. Hon. Mr. Laurier has won golden opinions among the Conservatives, and is in fact, more personally popular among them than among his own followers, where a great deal of jealousy is often shown toward him. There are no less than five factions in the ranks of the Reformers and they all show a preference for leaders other than Laurier, but are not able to agree among themselves.

The delivery of the speech on moving the reply to the announcement from the throne was intrusted to H. A. Powell, M. P., of Westmorland, and never was the task better performed. The fine presence of Mr. Powell gave a dignity and force to his chaste and elegant diction, which enunciated by his fine voice, held the galleries as well as the house so that a pin could be heard drop during the half hour Mr. Powell held the undivided attention of his audience, a difficult task in a legislative assembly like that of Ottawa. However, the repeated and sustained applause coming, not only from the Conservatives, but from the Opposition benches, that ever and anon greeted the manly and patriotic sentiments enunciated, and the gems of poetry quoted, as ornamentation, together with the attention by the galleries were sure signs that a master mind was holding the attention of the house.

The opinion is universal here that the corner has been turned, and that under Sir Charles Tupper a Govt. will be formed and a policy inaugurated that will recall and even rival the most brilliant, even of those of the Great Chief—Sir John A. McDonald.

Many changes will be made. Many now in must go out, and it may be that surprises of a gratifying nature are in store for Kent Co.

Ottawa, Jan. 18, 1896.

Rev. John M. Wathen.

[New Hampshire Congregational Record.]
With a surprising unanimity the men whom the Record has introduced to its readers in the last issues have been men of New England birth. The subject of our sketch this week breaks the succession, for the Rev. John M. Wathen was born in Richibucto, New Brunswick. He is one of our youngest pastors, being born in 1867. He speaks with resignation of being deprived of the choice, recommended by Dr. Hale, of being born at an equal distance from either end of the family. The place assigned him was next to the youngest in a family of eleven. His father was a farmer, and both his parents were Christians. Until 1887 he was engaged in preparatory work as a student and in teaching. He graduated from Bangor Theological Seminary in 1890, and in 1892 received the degree of B. A. from Bowdoin he acted as pastor of the Congregational church in Oxford Maine, and immediately after graduating at Harvard he became pastor of the church in Lisbon, N. H. He was married to Miss Jennie E. French of Stockton, Maine, June 28, 1893.

Mr. Wathen found President Hyde and Professor Palmer especially helpful and inspiring in his experience as a student. He has shown himself a vigorous leader in his parish and an earnest pastor.

A Commissioner in B. R.

GENTLEMEN.—Having used Hagvard's Pectoral Balsam in our family for years I have no hesitation in saying that it beats everything else we ever tried for coughs relieves that tight binding sensation in the chest. We would not be without it for anything, as we have a large family.

WILLIAM ANDREW, Commissioner in B. R., Balmoral, Man.

County Court.

The January term of the Kent County Court opened here Tuesday, Judge Wells presiding. The only cause tried was the case of Thomas D. Clark vs. Fred W. Sumner, an action of trover for the conversion of a quantity of oats seized by the Sheriff under an execution at the suit of the Merchants Bank of Halifax. Clark claimed the oats and brought action for their value. Verdict for plaintiff for $137.00. J. D. Phinney for plaintiff, C. J. Sayre for defendant.

In the case of Glendenning vs. Forster, a review from the Court of John T. Cate, Esq., parish Court Commissioner, court considers. Wm. D. Carter for plaintiff, H. H. James for defendant.

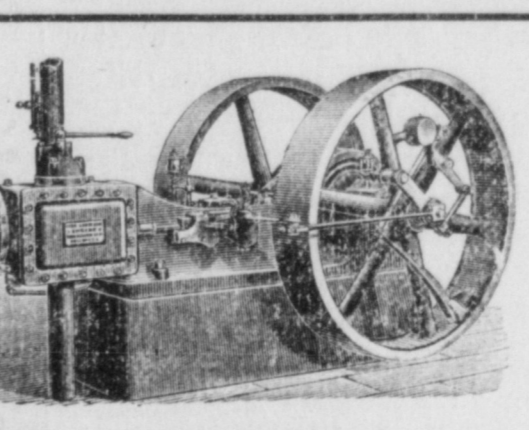

The following jurymen were in attendance: Joseph Bernard, Hédulpe Barribeau, Pierre L. Richard, Adam Coates, Archibald Patterson, Henry Berthe, Abraham Dickinson, Richard Poirier, Jaddus Robicheau, Robert Murphy, Alexander Robertson, Alexander Murray.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

What is CASTORIA
Castoria is Dr. Samuel Mather's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrups, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhea and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.
"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."
Dr. G. C. Osmond, Lowell, Mass.
"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quick nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
Dr. J. F. Kitchener, Conway, Ark.
Castoria.
"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."
H. A. Ancker, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.
"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular product, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."
