THE GOVERNMENT DEFEATED.

The big fight is over, and the government of Sir Charles Tupper is defeated.
A tidal wave swept over the big central provinces and accomplished this result.
No man can predict what the people will do in times of a great upheaval such as this has been, and the result astonishes those who had relied upon the predictions of the Conservative party leaders and press. They honestly believed that the old party would carry the country, just as Hon. Alexander Mackenzie believed he and his government would carry the dominion in 1878. The flood then came and swept away the hopes of the Liberal party.
Now it is the Conservative's turn.

The remedial bill was a potent factor in producing the defeat, notably in Ontario, the Northwest and British Columbia. In the Maritime Provinces it had not much effect one way or the other in affecting the general result, and in Quebec it utterly failed to break the hold which Mr. Laurier has upon his compatriots of that province.
In fact Quebec is a surprise to all. The Catholic bishops and clergy there made a strong effort to persuade their people to vote for the government candidates because of the remedial bill. But race feeling is strong among them, and admiration for a brilliant leader is almost a passion.
They seem to have become intoxicated with the idea of making their compatriot Laurier premier of Canada, and the result is a majority for him of 35 in the province of Quebec alone!

Ontario, Quebec, Manitoba, Nova Scotia and British Columbia appear all to have given Liberal majorities, while New Brunswick and P. E. Island alone stand by the old party. Four cabinet ministers are among the politically slain:—Hon.
Messrs. Angers, Taitton and Desjardins in Quebec, and Hon. Mr. Dickey in Nova Scotia.

In New Brunswick there seemed excellent prospects of a full Conservative delegation. It turns out that Hon. Mr. Foster has swept York by an overwhelming vote; Hon. Mr. Costigan has retained with a good majority his life long seat in Victoria and Mr. McInerney, as THE REVIEW predicted, has retained his hold upon Kent.
Even the Liberal strongholds of Charlotte and Carleton have been captured, but all in vain in face of the general defeat. We regret the defeat of brilliant men like Messrs. Hazen, of St. John, and Weldon, of Albert, but of these and others it may be said that though they have fallen they will rise again.

The people have spoken, and now, as always, THE REVIEW accepts the verdict!

It is yet early to predict the precise complexion of the new cabinet, but it is safe to predict that at least four men will be in it—Hon. Mr. Laurier, Sir Oliver Mowat, Sir Richard Cartwright, and Hon.
L. H. Davies. In addition it is thought an effort will be made to secure the accession of Hon. Messrs. Blair and Fielding of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. It may be found that the colleagues of Sir Oliver and Sir Richard from Ontario will be Messrs. Mills and Edgar. As Quebec colleagues of Mr. Laurier we shall not be surprised to see Mr. Fisher, of Bromie representing the Eastern Townships, and Messrs. Langeheiser and Sir Henry Joly as French speaking members. Col. Domville will have strong claims to a New Brunswick cabinet seat and has earned it.
D. C. Fraser, of Guysboro, or Dr. Borden, of Kings, or both of them, will not improbably come in from Nova Scotia.

The verdict of the country will be taken as not only against remedial legislation but against protection as well. It is not likely that the new government will be ready with their tariff legislation before the winter session. Then it is hoped and anticipated that they will not make such radical or sweeping changes as will seriously shock the business interests of the country. THE REVIEW, as in duty bound, will give the new administration a fair trial and judge them by their measures and acts of administration. Having won their way to the treasury by popular favor expressed at the polls they are entitled to this.

Sir Charles Tupper has given out that he accepts the verdict of the people and will shortly resign to make room for Mr.
Laurier to form the new administration.
In 1878, when the MacKenzie government was defeated in September they took month to wind up their official business before resigning. Sir Charles might, if he chose, follow this precedent, but probably will not take so long as the new parliament will meet on the 16th July, and the new government must have some time to get their measures ready. Probably there will be an early adjournment or at most a few votes of supply be passed to enable the business of the country to go on.

The independent candidates were rather unfortunate in New Brunswick. Four of them, Pugsley and McLaughlin in St.

John, Young, Gloucester and Morrissey in Northumberland lost their deposits, having failed to poll half as many votes as the successful candidates. Mr. LeBlanc, the independent, was defeated in Kent, notwithstanding the material assistance he brought to his aid while in Moncton a few days before polling, and Dr. Lewis only of Albert polls a majority.

Declaration.

On Saturday at 2 p. m., Returning officer Carlyle opened court and read statements of the votes cast in the different districts, a corrected statement of which follows:

	McInerney	LeBlanc

Acadieville 29	90	65
Totals	2046	1514

The attendance was not large. Mr.
Carlyle thanked the deputy returning officers and clerks for the efficient manner in which they had performed their duties; he also thanked both the candidates, the sheriff and the general agents for the kindness shown him in the discharge of his duties as returning officer. He eulogized both Sir Charles Tupper and Mr.
Laurier, and said that both were brilliant men and Canadians might feel proud of either as premier.

Mr. McInerney then thanked the electors for the handsome majority given him in this election. He was proud of the fact that he had received the largest vote ever polled in Kent County in a Federal election. He thanked the people in every district of the county for the hospitable manner in which he had been received by them.

He said that he had often been here as a defeated candidate and he knew how it felt. He was therefore not going to say anything to hurt the feelings of anyone who had opposed him.

He said that Mr. Laurier would not make any perceptible change in the national policy. He (McInerney) would not oppose the Liberal party on any measure which in his opinion was to benefit the country. He again thanked the electors for the large vote given him and said that he hoped the next time it would reach 3000.

Mr. LeBlanc thanked his friends for their support but, of course he could not thank those who had opposed him. He said that it was likely that this was the last time he would be before them as a candidate.

He thanked Mr. McInerney for the fairness shown him during the campaign.
As regards being independent, he said that Mr. McInerney probably wished that he had been an independent. There was nothing but expressions of good feeling between opposing parties.

Terrible Accident.

Chatham, Ont., June 23.—During the political excitement tonight a balcony of the Royal Exchange hotel collapsed while a crowd stood underneath. The following persons were severely and probably fatally injured: Mrs. McLendish, Mrs.
D. E. Spencer, James Brown, Angus Sick-lester, Mrs. Kitchen, Mrs. McEwan, Miss McEwan, Miss Eastham, James McArthur, Miss Newcombe, a small boy named Olden-shaw, all of Chatham. James Brown, Mrs. Thomas and George McClintock of Flint, Mich.

New York, June 22.—Upper New York generally gets a share of the weather whenever a tornado starts from Jersey up to the Hudson Valley, and it got a plenty yesterday, with a scouring wind, violent lightning and sheets of rain. One freak of the lightning was to strike a pair of newly reconciled lovers as they were kissing each other in an orchard in Tippet's Brook lane, Kingsbridge. The man was instantly killed and the woman stunned and paralyzed.

The many friends of William C. Atkinson, of Harcourt, will regret to learn of his continued severe illness. Little hope is entertained of his recovery.

Mr. John G. Miller, postal clerk on the I. C. R. is spending the holidays at home.

Some interesting matter unavoidably crowded out of this issue.

Another War Imminent.

LONDON, June 22.—A despatch to the Daily Mail from Madrid, says: "The platform adopted in St. Louis causes great uneasiness in Spain, and it is feared that a conflict with the United States has now almost a fixed date. The government has hastened to buy two 14,000 tons iron-clads at Genoa, whose price a few days ago was thought to be excessive. A great part of the loan of 100,000,000 placed as made by Rothschilds on the Almidon quick-silver mines will probably be immediately applied to such war ships as are now for sale. The government responding to the undoubted national sentiment, and trusting probably to the help other powers, seems resolved to restrict American oppositions."

The majority Report of the Royal Commission, presented to the late Parliament, estimates that the cost of the intoxicating liquor annually consumed in Canada, at average retail prices, would amount to $39,579,854, and the amount paid therefor by the consumers is "considerably in excess of that amount."

In the sailing race to take place on Dominion Day, it will be seen that it is intended for the boats to go over the old course from town around Marsh Point buoy, thence up around the picket opposite Platt's Point and return to place of starting. This course leaves the boats to pass the town only once—on their way up.
The course which was sailed over last year year, i. e. going over the course twice, was far preferable as the boats were under the eyes of the spectators during the whole course which made it more interesting. The course could be changed, however, and we think it would be better for all concerned to have the race over the same course as was sailed over last year.

Laurier's Victory

Chicago, June 25.—An impromptu banquet was held last evening by prominent Canadians of this city to celebrate Laurier's victory on Tuesday. Arthur Christian presided and Alphonse LeDuc acted as toastmaster. Great enthusiasm prevailed.
Sir Oliver Mowat, Canada and the United States were toasted. Every mention of the friendly commercial relations which should exist between the two countries were cheered, and when Daniel Bergevin referred in eloquent terms to the era of perpetuity that should follow commercial reciprocity the auditors expressed their approval which lasted several minutes.
