REV. MUNGO FRASER, D. D.,

OF Hamilton, Ont.—This Well-known Presbyterian Divine, Pastor of Knox Church, Hamilton, Ont., has used Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder, and Tells its Virtues.

Few ministers in the Presbyterian Church of Canada, are better known than the Rev. Mungo Fraser, D. D., of Hamilton. His great talents have been over and over again recognized in the church courts. As a preacher he has few equals, and the people of Knox Church, one of the largest Presbyterian churches in Canada, believe he stands at the head of the list. He had suffered, as so many in his profession suffer, from a cold in the head—a serious hindrance to those who have mental work to do. Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder was brought under his notice, and over his own signature he has told of the great benefits it has conferred on him, as it does on all who use it.

One short puff of the breath through the Blower, supplied with each bottle of Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder, diffuses this Powder over the surface of the nasal passages. Painless and delightful to use, it relieves in ten minutes, and permanently cures Catarrh. Hay Fever, Colds, Headache, Sore Throat, Tonsillitis and deafness, 60 cents. Sold by W. W. Short.

Queer Last Bequests.

A merchant of Aberdeen bequeathed a portion of his wearing apparel to his wife recently, because, as the will said, "She had been accustomed to wearing them during their married life."

A French medical paper states that on opening a short time ago the will of a member the following clause was found: "I request that my body be delivered to the Paris Gas Company for the purpose of being placed in a retort. I always used my mental powers for the enlightenment of the population at large, and I desire that my body be used to enlighten the people after my death."

Squire Hawley, of the village of Hatfield, near Doncaster, left the whole of his estate to his groom, on the condition that his funeral should be conducted in a certain way. He died on a Christmas day and was buried in his own garden in the center of the graves of his cattle which had died during the rinderpest. He was laid out in full hunting costume, including spurs and whip, and was carried from the house to the grave on a coffin board, when he was placed in a stone coffin, which, weighing more than a ton, had to be lowered by means of a crane. His pony was shot and buried at his feet in bridle and saddle, and his dog and an old fox were buried at his head.

Hood's is Wonderful.

No less than wonderful are the cures accomplished by Hood's Sarsaparilla, even after other preparations and physicians' prescriptions have failed. The reason, however, is simple. When the blood is enriched and purified, disease disappears and good health returns, and Hood's Sarsaparilla is the one true blood purifier.

Hood's Pills are prompt and efficient and do not purge, pain or gripe. 25c.

About The Eye.

Blue eyes are said to be the weakest. The upturned eye is typical of devotion. Wide open eyes are indicative of rashness.

Cæsar Borgia had prominent half-closed eyes.

The eye is really a self-adjustable telescope.

Side-glancing eyes are always to be distrusted.

Brown eyes are said by oculists to be the strongest.

The eyes should not be used in weakness or sickness.

Small eyes are commonly supposed to indicate cunning.

Near-sighted people almost always have prominent eyes.

The downcast eye has in all ages been typical of modesty.

The proper distance between the eyes is the width of one eye.

Many eyes supposed to be black are only a deep orange brown.

People of melancholic temperament rarely have clear blue eyes.

The chameleon is almost the only reptile provided with an eyelid.

The eyes of fish and birds are round, with no angles at the corners.

There are from four to six grains of aqueous humor in the eye.

Eyes in rapid and constant motion betoken anxiety, fear or care.

The deer really weeps, its eyes being provided with lachrymal glands.

Whenever blue occurs in the iris it is generally the predominant color.

Eyes with long, sharp corners indicate great discernment and penetration.

Homer attributed a protruding eye to Juno. He called her the ox-eyed Juno.

The eye of the octopus is said to be black, large, and as vicious as that of a snake.

In mythology, Pluto, and the malevolent deities were represented with small eyes.

The white of the eye showing beneath the iris is indicative of nobility of character.

A bit of gold leaf 1-1125th part of an inch square can be perceived by the naked eye.

In all nocturnal animals the eyes are placed to look forward, as in the case of man.

The eye of the serpent seems to have an expression of intense hatred and malignity.

Mme. de Brinvilliers had large blue eyes, the upper lid of which almost concealed the pupils.

Belisarius, the Roman general, lost his eyes through dust thrown into them during a siege.

The eyes of a cat do not shine in the dark, but by reflection from the light behind the observer.

When the upper lid covers half or more of the pupil the indication is of cool deliberation.

Gray eyes are said by some physiognomists to indicate deceit and instability of character.

An eye, the upper lid of which passes horizontally across the pupil indicates mental ability.

Gray eyes turning green in anger or excitement are indicative of a choleric temperament.

Eyes which turn green are generally supposed to belong to persons of a treacherous disposition.

Colored races never have blue eyes. Their eyes are always dark brown, brownish yellow or black.

"Cold Water to a Thirsty Soul."

Rev. Isaac Baird, Templeton, Cal., well known in Canada: "I have tried K. D. C. and also the Pills, and find them just the thing—vastly better than what the doctor ordered. The very first dose of K. D. C. helped me, and now that miserable headache is all gone, and that oppressive feeling that I have suffered from for months. I never mean to be without K. D. C. again; no medicine I have ever taken worked liked it; it is like cold water to a thirsty soul. This is the second time I have tried K. D. C. and there is no failure or disappointment."

K. D. C. brings solid comfort to those suffering from sick headache and that oppressive feeling. Test its merits now. Free sample to any address. K. D. C. Co; Ltd., New Glasgow, N. S., and 127 State street, Boston, Mass.

A Very Honest Coal Dealer.

Mr. Black, the eminent and wealthy coal dealer, called one of his oldest drivers into the office the other morning and tendered him quite a large sum of money.

"What is this for?" asked the astonished driver.

"Merely a token of appreciation for services rendered," replied Mr. Black, kindly.

"But you've always paid me well for my services, and that was appreciation enough."

"There is certainly more than that in it, John," continued Mr. Black; "I really owe you the money."

"I don't understand."

"Let me tell you," and he dropped his voice to a whisper: "You have been with me for 20 years, working 300 days every year, and averaging three loads a day; that makes 18,000 loads. You weigh 150 pounds, John, and we have never failed to weigh you with every load; that makes 2,700,000 pounds, or 1,200 tons. This at an average of £1 per ton, John, represents £1,200. The package you hold in your hand contains £120, or ten per cent., which we think is yours by right. We are honest men, John, and don't desire to defraud anybody out of what is justly his."

John bowed in humble submission, and is now waiting for the next dividend.—Tit-Bits.

BENOT DECEIVED.

The Unparalleled Success of Dodd's Kidney Pills excites the Envy and Greed of Unscrupulous Imitators.

A kidney treatment in pill form was unknown until Dodd's Kidney Pills came into use.

If Dodd's Kidney Pills were not indeed "the best in the world," no one would imitate them.

Who is defrauded and who pockets the proceeds when a counterfeit coin is passed upon you?

Never let any one persuade you to buy a substitute or imitation of the real article you need.

The genuine are put up in round, flat wooden boxes, white lettering on blue label with red band.

You can get the genuine Dodd's Kidney Pills from any druggist or dealer in Canada at 50c. a box, or by mail from the Dodd's Medicine Co., Toronto, Ont.

"Come Unto Me."

Fatherhood of God and the great truth—its direct and irresistible inference—that immortality is not only the endowment of every human soul, but at death leads the children of God forth, not to the world where the legend of despair is written o'er the gates, but to a land where the solemn and gracious invitation, "Come unto me," will be heard until the last prodigal shall have returned in humility and penitence to his Father's house. This appeals to human reason, answers the objections of head and heart, silences doubt, brings true comfort to the sorrowing, gives meaning to existence, shows retribution and judgment to be consistent with Divine goodness, and, intelligently cherished, brings the child to an immediate and loving surrender unto his Father's commandment and to such submission that he is enabled to say, in the mysteries of human experience, "Thy will, not mine, be done."—Rev. J. K. Mason.

An Extended Experience.

Writes a well known chemist; permits me to say that Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor never fails. It makes no sore spots in the flesh, and consequently is painless. Don't you forget to get Putnam's Corn Extractor, now for sale by medicine dealers everywhere. Substitutes are everywhere offered as just as good. Take "Putnam's" only.

The new "Maxim Gun," about which there is a good deal of newspaper reference these times, is said to be a terrible instrument of destruction. It weighs complete, with all necessary fittings, about forty-five pounds, and can be carried easily on a man's back. When in use the gun is mounted on a tripod stand, and it will fire from six to seven hundred shots per minute, at an effective range of nearly two miles. It was used very effectually by the Japanese army during the late war.

The body must be well nourished now, to prevent sickness. If your appetite is poor take Hood's Sarsaparilla.

The committee now sitting in Moscow upon the arrangements for the coronation next spring, has placed orders for 400,000 mugs bearing a portrait of the Czar, and over 400,000 gallons of meal, to be distributed to the poor people in celebration of the occasion.
