village shall be rebuilt, and every pang of hunger be fed, and every wound of cruelty be healed, and Armenia stand with as much liberty to serve God in its own way as in this the best land of all the earth we, the descendants of the Puritans and Hollanders, and Huguenots, are free to worship the Christ who came to set all nations free.

It has been said that if we go over there to interfere on another continent that will imply the right for other nations to interfere with affairs on this continent, and so the Monroe doctrine be jeopardized. No, no! President Cleveland expressed the sentiment of every intelligent and patriotic American when he thundered from the White House a warning to all nations that there is not one acre or one inch more of ground on this continent for any transatlantic government to occupy. And by that doctrine we stand now and shall forever stand.

But there is a doctrine as much higher than the Monroe doctrine as the heavens are higher than the earth, and that is the doctrine of humanitarianism and sympathy and Christian helpfulness which one cold December midnight, with loud and multitudinous chant, awakened the shepherds. Wherever there is a wound it is our duty to ward off the blade. Wherever men are persecuted for their religion it is our duty to break that arm of power whether it be thrust forth from a Protestant Church or a Catholic Cathedral or a Jewish synagogue or a Mosque of Islam. We all recognize the right on a small scale. If, going down the road, we find a ruffian maltreating a child, or a human brute insulting a woman we take a hand in the contest if we are not cowards, and though we be slight in personal presence, because of our indignation we come to weigh about twenty tons, and the harder we punish the villain the louder our conscience applauds us. In such cases we do not keep our hands in our pockets, arguing that if we interfere with the brute the brute might think he would have a right to interfere with us and so jeopardize the Monroe doctrine.

The fact is that the persecution of the Armenians by the Turks must be stopped, or God Almighty will curse all Christendom for its damnable indifference and apathy. But the trumpet of resurrection is about to sound for Armenia. Did I say in opening that on one of the peaks of Armenia, this very Armenia of which we speak, in Noah's time the ark landed, according to the myth, as some think, but according to God's "say so," as I know, and that it was after a long storm of 40 days and 40 nights, called the deluge, and that afterwards a dove went forth from that ark and returned with an olive leaf in her beak? Even so now there is another ark being launched, but this one goes sailing, not over a deluge of water, but a deluge of blood—the ark of Armenian sympathy—and that ark landing on Ararat, from its window shall fly the dove of kindness and peace, to find the olive leaf of returning prosperity, while all the mountains of Moslem prejudice, oppression and cruelty shall stand fifteen cubits under. Meanwhile we would like to gather all the dying groans of all the 500,000 victims of Mohammedan oppression and intone them into one prayer that would move the earth and the heavens—hundreds of millions of Christians' voices American and European, crying out: "O God Most High! Spare thy children. With mandate from the throne hurl back upon their haunches the horses of the Kurdish cavalry. Stop the rivers of blood. With the earthquakes of Thy wrath shake the foundations of the palace of the Sultan. Move all the nations of Europe to command cessation of cruelty. If need be, let the warships of civilized nations boom their indignation. Let the crescent go down before the cross, and the Mighty One who bath on His vesture and on his thigh a name written 'King of Kings and Lord of Lords, go forth, conquering and to conquer. Thine, O Lord, is the kingdom! Hallelujah! Amen!"

"I Took One-half Bottle of South American Rheumatic Cure and Obtained Perfect Relief!—This Remedy Gives Relief in a Few Hours, and Usually Cures in One to Three Days."

J. H. Garret, a prominent politician of Liverpool, N. S., makes, for the benefit of the public, the following statement: "I was greatly troubled with rheumatic pains for a number of years. On several occasions I could not walk, nor even put my feet on the floor. I tried everything and all local physicians, but my suffering continued. At last I was prevailed upon to try South American Rheumatic Cure. I obtained perfect relief before I had taken half a bottle of the remedy, and to-day regard it the only radical cure for rheumatism." Sold by W. W. Short.

Last year there were 1,787,775 letters, cards, and newspapers delivered in Halifax by letters carrier, and in St. John 1,939,697. The total amount of railway mail travel last year was 30,351,115 miles, a decrease of half a million, due to a reduction in the train services. The total number of letters posted in Canada last year was 110,500,000; postcards, 24,500,000; newspapers, etc., 53,000,000. The revenue of the department for the year was $2,792,782; expenditure, $2,593,647.

AN IMPORTANT CASE

A VICTORIA COUNTY (ONT.) PEDLER BEFORE THE COURTS.

Detected in Selling a Pink Color Pill Which He Represented to be Dr. Williams' Pink Pills—The Court Grants a Perpetual Injunction Restraining him From Offering an Imitation of This Great Medicine—Some Facts the Public Will Do Well to Bear in Mind.

In the High Court of Justice yesterday morning, before Mr. Justice Meredith, the case of Fulford v. McGahey was heard. It consisted of a motion for an injunction to restrain Fred McGahey from selling a pill which he claimed to be Dr. Williams' Pink Pill for Pale People. Mr. Douglas E. Armour appeared for the plaintiffs and stated that the defendant had been peddling these goods about Victoria County, claiming them to be Dr. Williams' genuine Pink Pills. "It was impossible, however, on the face of it, that they could be genuine, as he sold them greatly below what they cost at wholesale prices. The defendant had given consent. Mr. Armour said that the motion should be changed to one for judgment against him. No defence was offered, and his Lordship gave an order for judgment restraining McGahey from continuing to vend the article as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

The above paragraph, taken from the legal columns of the Toronto Globe of the 15th inst., contains a warning which every person in Canada in need of a medicine will do well to heed, and shows the care and pains the Dr. Williams Medicine Company takes to protect the public from imposition, and to preserve the reputation of these famous Pink Pills.

It is only a medicine that possesses more than usual merit that is worth imitation. Ordinary medicines are not subjected to that kind of treatment, as there is not sufficient demand for such medicine worth while.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People have achieved a reputation for sterling merit unparalleled in the history of medical science. In every part of the Dominion the remarkable cures wrought by the use of this great medicine have given it a name and a fame which has made the sale of Pink Pills simply wonderful.

It is because of this great merit, and the consequent enormous demand for the medicine, that it is being imitated by unscrupulous persons in various parts of the country. The imitation is cheap, usually worthless, and is only pushed because the imitator can make much more money by its sale than he can by the sale of the genuine Pink Pill. Hence the pains he takes to sell the imitation.

The Dr. Williams' Medicine Company annually spends thousands of dollars endeavoring to impress upon the public that the genuine Pink Pills can only be purchased in one form—namely in packages enclosed in a wrapper (or label), which bears the full trade mark, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People." No one can buy them in any other form not even if they offered many times their weight in gold for them. And yet in the face of these continuous warnings there are people confiding enough to permit some unscrupulous dealer to convince them that he can supply them with the genuine Pink Pill in loose form by the dozen or hundred, or ounce, or in some other kind of a box. Any one who pretends to be able to do this is telling an untruth. Bear this in mind and refuse all pills that do not bear the full trade mark, no matter if they are colored pink and no matter what the dealer says.

Please bear in mind that the formula from which Dr. Williams' Pill is compounded is a secret known only to the company, and any one who claims he can supply you with some other pill "just as good" is guilty of misrepresentation, for he does not know the ingredients of the genuine Pink Pills and is only trying to sell you some other pill, because he makes more money on its sale.

Dr. Williams' Medicine Company is determined to spare no expense in protecting, both the public and themselves against these unscrupulous imitators, and will always be thankful to receive information concerning any one who offers to sell an imitation Pink Pills purporting to be Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, or "the same as" the genuine Pink Pill. Such cases will be investigated by the company's detective and the name of the person giving the information will not be made public, while any expense entailed in sending the information will be promptly refunded.

Ask for Dr. Williams' Pink Pill for Pale People and take nothing else. They cure when all other medicines fail.

The three-year-old daughter of Gilbert Smith, of Gagetown, was burned to death Friday afternoon. Mr. Smith was away from home and while Mrs. Smith was out in the yard a spark from the kitchen fire, it is supposed, ignited the child's clothes. The little one's cries brought Mrs. Smith hurriedly in from the yard to find her enveloped in flames. Mrs. Smith made a heroic but unavailing attempt to save the little one's life and in doing so was badly burned herself. The child died in a few minutes in terrible agony.

Farm for Sale!

That valuable farm at Bass River, Kent Co., known as the Robert Brown farm, is offered for sale or rent.

The farm contains about 186 acres of the best land in the County, over 100 acres of which are cleared and under a high state of cultivation.

There is a large first-class, two-story dwelling house, two large barns, one stage house, grainery and stable combined, and other out buildings. It is situated in the most thriving and popular part of Kent County, within two minutes walk of the post-office, where daily mail is received, and quite close to the superior school and within half a mile of Mr. E. Walker's lumber and grist mills.

For further information and particulars address the undersigned at Harcourt Station.

JAMES BROWN.
