

LOST.—A vest, on the way from Mr Donald McBeath's to Kingston, on the hot Wednesday about three weeks ago. Finder kindly leave it at Mr. Brait's, Kingston.

REV. W. LAWSON.

CLAIRVOYANCE.—Madame Kinkade, the greatest living clairvoyant, will be at the Royal Hotel, Kingston, for the next two weeks. Persons desiring to have their past, present and future revealed should not fail to call on this lady. Hidden things are to her as an open book. It is a passion with human nature to pry into the future. Go and have your passion gratified. Hours of consultation from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. Advt.

BARREAU-BUCKLEY.—The residence of Mr. J. Buckley, Harcourt, was the scene of an interesting event yesterday when his daughter, Miss Lizzie Buckley was united in marriage to Mr. Harry Barrean, conductor on the I. C. R. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Herbert. The bride, who looked charming in a travelling costume, was attended by her sister, while the groom was supported by Mr. E. McQuillan, of Campbellton. Mr. Barrean and his bride were registered at the Brunswick last evening, and left on the Quebec express on a bridal trip to the Upper Provinces.

TIMES 9th.

FROM BRITISH COLUMBIA.—Mr. E. E. Phair arrived here this afternoon from Nelson, B. C. Mr. Phair went west about 6 years ago, and will be remembered as Superintendent of the Kent Northern Railway, and latterly as proprietor of the hotel called the Beaches at Richibucto. He is now running the Hotel Phair at Nelson, B. C., and is doing well. He is a native of this city, being a son of the late J. Henry Phair, and a brother-in-law of Mrs. David Hatt. His daughter, Gretchen Phair, has been living with Mrs. Hatt since her mother's death, and attends Model School here. Mr. Phair expects to remain a week or two.—Fredericton Gleaner.

DENTIST LOST A JOB.—Correspondence of the Moncton Times: Mrs. J. J. Warman, of Molus River, appears to be having a very singular experience. Some months ago she had her upper teeth extracted for the purpose of having a plate of artificial teeth replace them. Some time after the teeth were extracted she was attacked with what appeared to be neuralgia in the face. However, it has turned out that nature, jealous of the success of the dentist, has undertaken to beat him out of at least one customer and is providing the lady with a brand new set of natural teeth. While it is not uncommon to hear of old people cutting more or less of a third set of teeth, the fact that Mrs. Warman is only twenty years of age gives her case a position of great interest.

BOWSER-DOHERTY.—A quiet, but pretty wedding took place at South Branch, on Wednesday, Sept. 9th, when Rev. F. W. Murray, Bass River, united in marriage Miss Lorinda, second daughter of Mr. R. N. Doherty, and Mr. W. J. Bowser, Barrister, Vancouver, B. C. Only the immediate relatives were present. The bride looked charming in a gown of ivory moire silk, trimmed with pearls and chiffon. After a sumptuous repast, the bride changed her gown for a travelling suit of brown with velvet and mink trimmings and becoming hat to match, and accompanied by a few of the friends, drove to Harcourt where they took the train for Quebec, en route for Vancouver. Among the numerous wedding presents was a handsome gold watch and chain, set with diamonds from the groom, and $260.00 in gold from friends.

CHURCH SERVICES.

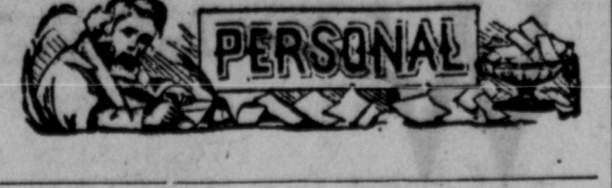

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—Rev. Wm Hamilton, pastor. The following services will be held on Sabbath first, viz: Kingston, at 11 o'clock a. m., Richibucto, at 7 o'clock p. m.

METHODIST SERVICES.—Rev. W. Lawson, pastor. Sabbath, Sept. 20., Richibucto, 11 a. m., S. School 3 p. m., Molus River 3 p. m., Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, Kingston 7 p. m., Prayer meeting Tuesday 7.30 p. m. All welcome to these services.

The Return of the Oyster.

I remember, I remember, There's an "R" in sweet September, When the very luscious oyster comes again; Fat with flavor quite delicious, succulent and most nutritious, With equally enticing, fried or plain! Aith of catsup just a swallow, And a lemon squeeze to follow, To my decayed digestion 'tis a salve! And, if condiments you cherish, Salt and pepper lend a relish To this extremely savory bivalve! You might take a "baker's dozen" With your sister or your cousin (That is, if there's no monetary bar). Add stout, brown bread and butter, And I'm sure your thoughts will utter: "Oh, that the months had every one an "R"!"

FALL DRESS STUFFS. A word of some of the dress stuffs that popped out of their cases the last day or so—fresh, new, cheery, stuffs that you'll be as glad to see as we are to tell of:

Cycling Tweeds. A snowflake mixture in browns and greys with little flecks of coloring scattered through it. A soft, warm, durable cloth, fearless of dust or dirt, 42 in. wide, 60c.

Mattesse Curl. Self color mixed grounds with an over-netting of bright, black mohair that seem vainly to try to hide the brighter colors beneath, 42 in. wide, 68c.

Yeddo Curl. A wavy, soft cloth, in two-toned combinations of black with color, 42 in. wide, 75c.

Bourette Curl. A very handsome material in two-toned combinations with a heavy, black, mohair curl appearing fantastic figures on the surface, 42 in. wide, 85c.

Bochmann Cloth. An odd looking weave showing a broken, zigzag pattern, fine color, in six different colorings, 42 in. wide, 85c.

Warmus Tweed. In plays of two or three colors with a haphazard result that's more than pleasing. Six resulting mixtures, 42 in. wide, 90c.

SAMPLES OF THESE AND LOTS OF OTHERS SENT ON REQUEST.

DUNN MEDICINE CO.—

I have used your Dr. Kilburn's Blood and Nerve Pills and your Dr. Raymond's Rheumatic Liniment for rheumatism in my arms, shoulders and neck. I was so bad with rheumatism that for a long time I could not put on my coat without help, but now, thanks to your valuable medicine, all is changed. I can dress without help and I feel better in many ways and the rheumatism is completely gone, and that with the use of only one box of pills.

To

and one bottle of Liniment. I am an old man, seventy-seven years old, and have been troubled with rheumatism for seven years and latterly I hardly expected to get anything to help me, but your medicine has done the work for me in good shape. I have tried many different kinds of medicine and was attended by a doctor for six months in Vancouver, B. C., but nothing helped me until I got your medicine. I am yours, etc.,
