CHARLES.

the late government which the governor case. general declined to sanction is both interesting and instructive. From the first | for opposing the two ministers in question His Excellency seems to have assumed is in the fact that Mr. Blair was not elected that the Tupper admir istration was beat- in the general election and Mr. Paterson en at the polls. Such was, indeed, the was then defeated. But this is not a very fact, but how could the governor general substantial ground. As we have said the Moncton, visited friends in Kingston last then have had official knowledge of it? election of the ministers was from the first week. Doubtless he read the newspaper reports almost a foregone conclusion, and it now but they could hardly have formed a seems a mistake on the part of the opsufficient basis for so prompt and energet- position to have enabled the ministerial tion. ic a decision on a matter of the utmost party to place these by election victories importance and gravity.

Sir Charles was able to quote many recognized authorities on the constitution to shew that the government, though defeated at the polls had still free power to carry on the affairs of the country until an adverse vote of the peoples' representa tives in parliament was recorded. The precedents cited, both English and Cana. dian showed that ministries outvoted at the polls had still claimed and been alother efficials, and to reward the cevotion of their friends.

this case to permit the outgoing government to appoint either judges or senators for by the parties to be superannuated, or cies had existed for a year or upwards. In parted from the precedents set down in excuse that both the senate and the justiciary were now very largely composed of Conservative material. Here again he was right in fict. though how he could officially know, as he asserted, that there were no more than five or six Liberals then in the senate, may be ques tioned. Common report gives a number nearly twice as great, though still probably under one fifth of the total membership of the Red Chamber. But we fail to see that it is any part of the duties of Her Maj- ty's representative to strengthen or weaken either of the parties in either of the two houses of parliam int. His duries are to bold the scales impartially between parties and to termit to an outgoing government all the printeges usual to their case without regard to par . advartage We do not say that his action will not meet with the approval of the m j rite in the cuntry. But we do say that as he we an parties the Liberals have much more occasion for gratifule to III. Excellency than the Comerca iva.

We are if opinion that in one point of his answer to L rd A Thom, Sir Charles Tupper weakened rather than strength ened his case. This was in citing by nama number of judges who were Liberals at the time of their appointment 511 Charles was able to name twenty-even judges of the superior a d county courts | He found no relief until he made the ac who were tormerly Liberals. There ar in fact some 176 superior and counts court judges in Canada, so that unive than five-sixths of the whole number were for merly Conservative. Sir Charles would have done letter to have avoided the Graves of Laguard, Out, says: M question of proportionate numbers. The little daughter Exa, ag d thirteen years, strength of his case rested in constitutional precidents. It is to be per-umed that when the people, during a long term keep the hist physicians i.e. are three years either a Conservative or a L . ral government in power, they mean that the gov. ernment shall go on filling the vacant . . . . . . . . . . antaa- possesser. public the swith their triends. And we take outer, and a must contes to fail to see that the fact of one parts have at east an bottles my child was coming been a long time in power shot dop- plet dy our -erate to restrict their right to make appointments at the close of their e m.

If we are to extend lart Aberdone's Trata. . ( netion to its legitimate and by cal result, the governor general would have to give a shart term g verament i er ased powers of appointment in their last hours solely 'eca use the r term o and how as is cured, and her with a ty. effi sares Shart. If M. L. ur er should bed ... a it foll live years hence there will st it probably be a minority of to a like extension of the power of appointment, because Liberal senators and judges are still in a minority. His Excellency's new departure is wholly oppor tunist, based on present expediency but incapable of good defence on either constitutional or logical grounds. It savors of the impartiality of the dying Hibernian who wished to be bur ed between his two Notices of Births, Marriages, and Deaths insert- deceased partner-, but "with a cant towards Biddy."

BLAIR AND PATERSON.

The opposition offered to the return of Hon. Messes. Blair and Patterson only resulted in their return by large maj rities. This was to be expected. The Community of the Holy Family founded 20 years ago at Memramionk by Rev. Sister Marie-Leonie, under the guidance of the late Father Lefebyre. has prospered in a wonderful manner thanks to the clever management of its founder. The object of the institution was to help St. I seph's dollege in attending to the household duties of that great establishment. The Sisters of the Holy Family have been so succ s-ful in this work at Memramook, that other colleges of the same congregation have asked for their assistance. Some years since the college at Van Buren applied f.r. a branch of their community, and Sister Leonie managel to comply wish that riquest.
