

ANOTHER MAN MADE HAPPY.—Mr. Robert Loggie, of the enterprising firm of A. & R. Loggie, Loggieville, was married on Tuesday to Miss May Flett, of Nelson. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. T. W. Flett. The happy pair started for a southern tour. The Loggies of Loggieville will capture all the fairest of the Newcastle and Nelson maidens if they keep on as they have begun.—World.

OBITUARY.—Mrs. W. W. Short, after an illness of some months, died of consumption at her home on the evening of Friday last. She was much beloved by all who knew her and much sympathy is felt for Mr. Short and his four children. She was buried on Monday in the Protestant Burying Ground. Rev. W. Hamilton, her pastor, conducted the services in the house and at the grave assisted by Rev. A. Meek.

KOUCHIBOUQUAC.—The communion was recently dispensed in the Presbyterian congregation here. On the Friday an addition was made to the session when Messrs. Edward Clark and John Potter were ordained to the eldership. Twenty-six new communicants were received into the fellowship of the church. There is a likelihood that Mr. W. R. Robinson, a student in connection with the church, and who has labored here so successfully during the past two summers will remain during the winter months. Rev. William Hamilton dispensed the communion. The services were solemn and impressive and will be long remembered.

NEW COMMISSION FIRM.—Mr. J. P. Caie, so well known all over the North Shore, has formed a partnership with Mr. T. H. Wilson, as Caie & Wilson, and opened a commission house in St. John. Mr. Caie has travelled the North Shore for years, and is known by everybody as a hustler. Mr. Wilson is a business man of means. The new firm will receive consignments of all kinds of country produce, oysters, etc., and will fill orders for everything in dry goods, groceries, hardware and other lines. In fact they will sell anything anybody sends them to be sold, and buy anything that anybody may want. Their arrangements with wholesale houses are such that they can sell goods as cheaply as the wholesalers themselves.—World.

THE MEADOW BROOK TRAGEDY.—The Datcher child continues to improve quite rapidly but is still very weak. It may be two or three weeks yet before she is able to give evidence. In the meantime she is in her new quarters in a section of the almshouse, which is used in the absence of a hospital, receiving the best of attention. She takes nourishment freely and the injuries on the head are healing nicely, though there is still some flow from the wound. She recognizes all who are allowed to see her, but strict orders have been given that nothing shall be said to her that would influence her mind in any way in regard to the crime of which she came so near being the third victim. Her attendants do not know what light, if any, she may be able to throw upon the crime, for while some of her remarks seem to indicate that she has a knowledge of what took place in her mother's house on that awful night in September, others do not. She has, it is said, at one time dropped the remark that she would never see her poor mother any more, and at another time has asked to be taken home. On one occasion within a few days, when the nurse desired to leave her for a few moments, she expressed a desire not to be left alone, fearing that "he might come upstairs." She did not say who was meant by "he," and of course she was not questioned on the point.

Geo. V. McInerney, M. P., returned from St. John, on Friday.

Mr. W. H. McLeod went to St. John Saturday last.

Mrs. John Cochrane went to Boston on Friday last.

Mr. E. W. B. Scovil representing Messrs W. E. Thorne & Co., St. John, was in town yesterday.

Mr. Fred Tharrott, who has been residing in the United States for the past ten years, is visiting friends in Kent.

Hon. O. J. LeBlanc was in town Sunday.

PAIN AND MISERY

HARCOURT, N. B., June 17th, 1896.

DUNN MEDICINE CO.—

I have used your Dr. Kilburn's Blood and Nerve Pills and your Dr. Raymond's Rheumatic Liniment for rheumatism in my arms, shoulders and neck. I was so bad with rheumatism that for a long time I could not put on my coat without help, but now, thanks to your valuable medicine, all is changed. I can dress without help and I feel better in many ways and the rheumatism is completely gone, and that with the use of only one box of pills and one bottle of Liniment. I am an old man, seventy-seven years old, and have been troubled with rheumatism for seven years and latterly I hardly expected to get anything to help me, but your medicine has done the work for me in good shape. I have tried many different kinds of medicine and was attended by a doctor for six months in Vancouver, B. C., but nothing helped me until I got your medicine. I am yours, etc.,

FOUND IN OLD SHIPS.

Secret Treasures Hidden No One Knows By Whom or How Long Ago—Two Mummified Hands.

The utilization of apparent waste is well exemplified in the breaking up of ships of various kinds, for every nail and every chip are put aside for sale; but in the case of vessels of considerable tonnage, and especially of very old craft, finds both curious and valuable are by no means rare. To give a recent instance, an old wooden vessel that was broken up near Greenwich only a few months back revealed a very curious sight when some old planking in the fore-castle had been torn down. Here, nailed up, were the two mummified hands of a negro, and in the palm of each hand, and transfixed by the same nails that held the hands, were two counterfeit silver dollars. The hands had been hacked off roughly.

A year or two ago the breaking up of an old schooner near Sheerness brought to light beneath the inner "skin" of the hull quite an elaborate armament of a very old-fashioned kind, and a friend of the writer's secured, from among the many weapons included, a splendidly made bell-mouthed flint-lock musket, the stock being marked with a representation of arm and leg fetters, and the name "Philip Steyne, Boston, Lincolnshire." The most curious part of this find was a set of books—a privateer's books, evidently—showing the capture of various French vessels.

Tied up in a canvas bag 190 guineas in gold were found a year or two back, during the breaking up of an old vessel plying between Birkenhead and New Brighton. With the money were found, too, a most curious and unique set of foreign playing cards, some loaded dice and three magnificent pieces of amber. All these were found in the false bottom of a wooden bunk.—Chambers's Journal.

—The October term of the Kent County Court opened here Tuesday, Judge Wells presiding. There were no causes for trial and after two chambers motions had been heard, the Court adjourned. The hearing on review in the case of Stewart vs. Woods took place before Judge Wells, Tuesday. This was an action tried before Commissioner John T. Caie. The claim was for trover for conversion of a wagon, and defendant justified the taking as agent of Van Meter, Butcher & Co., under a lien note. Verdict for plaintiff for $32.00 Judgment reserved. C Richardson for plaintiff and H. H. James for defendant.

—A public meeting in the interest of the I. O. F., will be held in the Temperance hall, Richibucto, on Thursday evening, Oct. 29th, at 7 o'clock. The meeting will be open to the public for one hour and thirty minutes, after which the Court will be organized. Persons who have not had an opportunity to sign the application for Charter may do so if they wish to become members.

Weak

Worn out, nervous women, receive criticism where they should have sympathy. They cannot help being nervous, if their blood is impure. When the blood fails to feed the nerves upon proper nourishment what can you expect but nervous prostration, debility and nervous headaches? If the cause is found and in impure blood, the cure must be in making the blood pure. This is just what Hood's Sarsaparilla does, and it has proved the true nerve tonic because it is the true blood purifier, and the solace, comfort and defender of thousands of housewives, teachers, clerks and other sufferers of both sexes. Just read this letter:

Nervous

"I think it is my duty to tell what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for me and my family. Two years ago I was in a weak, nervous condition and had dreadful palpitations or jumping of my heart, followed by sinking spells, which would last for several minutes. Sometimes it would seem as though I would never come out of them. I was treated by the best physicians, but only for a little time did they help me. I seemed to be growing worse instead of better. I would often seem hungry, but when I ate, no matter how little, it would cause me such misery that I was often wicked enough to wish myself dead. I had that languid, all-gone feeling and suffered awful distress in my stomach. I had given up all hopes of ever being well, when my mother wished me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. I consented, to please her, and before I had taken the whole of one bottle I could see I was improving, and soon was indeed very much better. Its effects have been truly wonderful and I hope this letter may be the means of helping other suffering men and to try Hood's Sarsaparilla and be benefited by it. We have used Hood's Pills in our family and find them very excellent, especially for constipation. We give Hood's medicines great praise, and if anyone complains of feeling badly, I say 'You should take Hood's and only Hood's.' Mrs. KITTIE SAIRN, 323 Duane Street, Waterloo, Iowa. Remember that

Tired

Women

Dear Sir.—I have been informed that there is a bye law in town to prevent cattle and horses from running at large in the town district that is between the Mooney and Weldon Bridges. How is it that so many of our cows are to be seen feeding on the street and walking on the sidewalk to the inconvenience of persons who have a right to walk on them. What are hogreves doing that they do not attend to their business and put them in pound as the law directs.

PINY-PECTORAL

Positively Cures COUGHS and COLDS

In a surprisingly short time. It's a scientific certainty, tried and true, soothing and healing in its effects.

W. C. McCORMACK & Son, Bouchette, Que., report in a letter that Piny-Pectoral cured Mrs. C. G. G. of chronic cold in chest and bronchial tubes, and also cured W. G. McCormack of a long-standing cold.

Mrs. J. H. HURTY, Chemist, 528 Yonge St., Toronto, writes: "As a general cough and lung syrup Piny-Pectoral is a most invaluable preparation. It has given the utmost satisfaction to all who have tried it, many having spoken to me of the benefits derived from its use in their families. It is suitable for old or young, being pleasant to the taste. Its sale with me has been wonderful, and I can always recommend it as a safe and reliable cough medicine."
