FARMERS PROSPECTS—COLD STORAGE.

Abundant crops and low prices sum up the condition of Canadian farmers at present. Grain of all kinds, notwithstanding the recent advance in wheat, is cheap, beyond all precedent in former years.

The late Canadian government made a promising start in encouraging the dairy industry and brought Canada quite to the front as a cheese producer. They were also rapidly bringing the Canadian butter industry into notice by establishing creameries throughout the land and encouraging winter dairying.

Grain growing for export is something in which our farmers cannot compete with the western prairies. The development of the dairy, poultry and fresh meat export trade will open a new outlet for the farmers, and at the same time give profitable home consumption for his cereal and root crops.

It is admitted that provincial exhibitions are a good thing for the towns in which they are held. The hotels, boarding houses, street cars, cabs and livery stables reap a harvest and the merchants sell their goods.

Mr. F. S. Spence, a prominent temperance man of Toronto, contends that there need be no loss of revenue from the adoption of a prohibitory law. He says the liquors now consumed as beverages in Canada cost the consumers $40,000,000.

Spain has fallen upon evil days. Her largest colony, Cuba, is in hopeless revolt, notwithstanding 100,000 men engaged in the task of quelling the rebellion, and now an insurrection in the Philippine Islands renders it necessary to send a Spanish force of 15,000 men thither.

The senate bar is to run through the session, we are told, but under certain restrictions. The wines and other beverages are to be sold only to members of parliament.

The Czar and Czarina are visiting his uncles by marriage, Wales and Edinburgh, also her grandmother Victoria. There are a lot of other royalties in the family connexion, that are not present, including the Queen's grandson, the Kaiser of Germany.

The independents in parliament, even so good a Conservative as John Ross Robertson, of Toronto, did not share Mr. Foster's belief that the government should fully declare their tariff policy during the present session.

John Bull doesn't like to take a bluff but he appears to have got it pretty straight at Constantinople when Sir Philip Currie proposed to take independent action to bring the Sultan to terms.

Acting on the advice of a New York specialist, Premier Mitchell will proceed to London next week to be treated for his throat affection. R. S. Barker, of the Crown Land Department, will accompany him.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clare have been recently called upon to mourn the loss of their eldest son, Geo. F. Clare, who died of consumption on September 20, aged 26 years and 9 mos. Being uncommonly thoughtful and industrious, his death leaves a blank in the home-circle not soon to be filled.

Mr. R. Sutherland, wife and family of Maine, U. S. are visiting friends in this locality. Miss Maggie Graham, Oak Point has returned to Sackville College.

Our friend Will has joined the order of Benedicts. We extend best wishes to his bride and himself.

Parties and weddings have been the order of the day and still "there's more to follow."

K D C the household remedy for stomach troubles

OTTAWA, Sept. 25.—Before the orders of the day were called it was decided that it would be a fitting thing for Parliament to pass an address to Her Majesty congratulating her on having passed the limit of the longest occupancy of the British throne.

The minister of agriculture introduced a bill relating to the branding of cheese. Mr. Fisher said it was not the intention of the government to pass the bill this session, but only to give it its second reading.

On going into committee of supply Col Tisdale, minister of militia in the late administration, explained that the three years' contract entered into for military clothing by the late government just before going out of office was to facilitate the manufacture of the cloth in Canada as he said could not be done if the contract was given for only one year.

The minister of militia justified the government's course in cancelling the contracts as being in the public interest. Supplementary estimates brought down to-night amount to $2,837,457, of which $1,719,015 is chargeable to the capital and $1,118,441 to the consolidated funds.

These estimates are to pay debts actually due by the late government or to carry out works to which they had agreed.

Among the principal items is $844,466 to pay for arms, ammunition and stores purchased in England in March last; $100,000 for artillery guns; increased accommodation at Intercolonial at Halifax. $45,000; wharf improvements at Dalhousie, $3,000; St. John Marine Hospital, $2,000.

Under the heading of harbors and rivers in the Maritime Provinces the following amounts are provided for: Nova Scotia—Boulevard, wharf at Ross Ferry, $2,800; Church Point, extension of breakwater, $4,000; Hansport, wharf, $6,000; Margareville, reconstruction of pier, $3,000; Morden, repairs to wharf, $4,000; Oyster Pond, repairs to breakwater, $700; Port Hood, repairs to wharf, $1,500; Port Maitland, Yarmouth Co., repairs to breakwater, $3,500; Trout Cove, repairs to breakwater, $4,000; Yarmouth harbor, repairs to protection works, $3,000.

New Brunswick—Anderson's Hollow, repairs to breakwater, $1,100; St. John harbor, repairs to and extension of protection work at base of Fort Dufferin, $3,400; Herring Cove, repairs to breakwater, $1,000.

Prince Edward Island—China Point, repairs to pier, $600; New London, repairs, $750; Port Selkirk, repairs to wharf, $600; Summerside harbor, protection works, $7,500; Tignish, repairs to breakwater, $2,500.

Under the head of mail subsidies and steamship subventions appear: Steam communication daily between St. John, N. B., and Digby, N. S., from 1st July, 1896, to 30th June, 1897, $12,500; steam communication fortnightly between Liverpool G. B., and St. John, N. B., during the winter season of 1896-7, not less than ten round trips, $25,000; for fortnightly service between Halifax, St. John's, Nfld., and Liverpool, G. B., from 1st July, 1896, to 30th June, 1897, $25,000.

Authorized by statute: Steam communication between Canada and Antwerp, $50,000; to defray the expenses of delimiting the boundary between Canada and the United States along the frontier of New Brunswick, Quebec Ontario and British Columbia, $75,000.

Mr. Borden asked if the recommendation that H. H. Grant should succeed Mr. Borraidaile as inspector of inland revenue had been approved.

Mr. Joly replied that it had. Mr. Borden then asked if Grant had been notified of his promotion.

Mr. Joly replied in the negative. Grant would not be notified until he (Joly) had opportunity of looking into the position of affairs. His purpose was to re-organize the entire inland revenue service with a view to retrenchment. His idea was to let one chief inspector act for the three maritime provinces.

A Mile in 2 Min. and 1-2 Sec.

John R. Gentry last Thursday at Rigby Park, Portland, paced the fastest mile ever made in harness and placed the world's record at 2:00 1-2. W. S. Andrews was the driver. After John R. Gentry's great mile Robert J. came out to beat his record of 2:01 1-2, but only succeeded in making the mile in 2:03 1 2.

A Chicago Horror

CHICAGO, Sept 26.—A morning paper says startling developments surrounding the mysterious death of Emma Bartels at the home of Dr. C. W. Winters, 108 South California avenue, Sept. 10, resulted yesterday in the arrest of the physician on the charge of murder and his indictment by the grand jury. The evidence now in the possession of the police bids fair, Lieut. Beard, of the Warren avenue police station, says, to develop conditions at the California avenue house similar to those of the Holmes Castle in Englewood, with the swindling motive omitted. Ever since the death of Emma Bartels letters have been coming to the police and the relatives of the dead girl, bearing upon the alleged criminal practices of Dr. Winters. In them he was charged with crime, and the names of some of his supposed victims were signed to the missives. The police have found two young women who entered Dr. Winters home under similar conditions, it is supposed as Miss Bartels did, and it was upon their testimony before the grand jury yesterday that the indictment was returned. One of these is Tilly Taddy, who now lives at 99 West 26th street, and the other is Bertha Clayton, an inmate of the Industrial School for Girls at Evanston. When their experiences with Dr. Winters were related to the police Lieut. Beard made formal charges against the physician before the grand jury for the murder of Emma Bartels. The latter was found in a dying condition in the house shortly before midnight, on Sept. 10, under mysterious circumstances. She had gone to Dr. Winters house in search of employment, Dr. Winters having advertised for a servant. It has also been learned by the police that Dr. Winters has taken young girls from employment bureaus in the city. Neighbors along California avenue say that the home of the Winters has been regarded with suspicion. Before the mysterious death there of Miss Bartels young girls made frequent visits. Since then, however, only one has continued to call, and yesterday a police officer watched the house all day in order to get a talk with her, but she did not come. The doctor at first took his arrest very coolly, but when the warrant charging him with murder was read to him by Detective Buggie he quailed and whitened. He was not told that he had also been indicted for two alleged crimes. He refused to make any statement to the police or the reporters. Dr. Winters is forty years of age. Where he lived before locating on California avenue is not known to the police.

Meadow Brook Tragedy

The coroner's inquest into the Meadow Brook tragedy closed Saturday evening, when the jury found that Eliza and Harris Dutcher came to their deaths by foul means, with reasonable grounds to believe, from the evidence submitted, that John E. Sullivan, now under arrest, was implicated in the same. The evidence Saturday afternoon was important. Moses Steeves swore that on Friday following the fire he saw Sullivan in the Brunswick hotel bar take from his pocket a roll of bills as large as his wrist and turn over bills to find a one dollar bill with which to pay for the drinks. There were five and tens in the roll and witness thought twenties. His opinion is the roll contained between two and three hundred dollars. His attention had been called to Sullivan as the man suspected of being implicated in the fire and he positively identified the prisoner as the man. John McDonald, who lives alone in the part of the old Moncton Hotel, testified that on Thursday night on which the fire occurred, Bruce McDougall, who also had sworn to seeing Sullivan in Moncton that night, had come to his place and stayed until morning. McDougall had been in the habit of calling on him when on a booze, and this night he was very nervous and he talked with him till morning. The night clerk of the American house, A. J. Woods, where McDougall swore he and Sullivan were early Friday morning, said the bar had been closed that night before 12 o'clock and had remained closed. The verdict of the coroner's jury gives general satisfaction. The inquest lasted nine days, sixty-four witnesses being examined. The only parallel in this part of the province was the famous McCarthy-Osborne case of eighteen years ago. The Dutcher child rescued from the burning building still lies in a comatose condition and her recovery is extremely doubtful.
