some cases the growers found themselves in debt to the commission merchants after the latter had sold a consignment of peaches.

James Louis Washington, a negro boy of New Orleans 8 years of age, is known as the boy preacher. The New Orleans Picayune says that he can repeat nearly the whole of the Bible from memory.

A Rockford, Ill., woman asked a burglar whom she found in her room if he had ever had a mother, which for some reason so embarrassed the visitor that he retired without further deprecations.

It is noted as remarkable coincidence that George W. L. age, treasurer of Pike county, O., and George R. Legge, treasurer of Pike county, Ark., defaulted and fled almost simultaneously within a few days recently.

A Thing That Can't Be Done.

How are you going to work and rest at the same time? Why, you can't, of course. There's where it is. They must come by turns. And when you can have your own way about it nothing is easier.

But here comes a woman who says, "I was so exhausted and done up that I was only fit to lie down and be quiet." For all that, however, she couldn't be quiet.

"Up to November, 1882," she says, "I was healthy, but then I began to feel good for nothing. I felt weak, languid, and weary, as though the life were running out of me. I could eat almost nothing; I had no desire to eat, no appetite. Still I was obliged to force down some food to keep me alive, and what little I did eat gave me pain and tightness at the chest. My stomach turned sour and I was all the while belching up some sort of fluid that tasted like a bitterish acid, and made me sick.

"Then came a severe pain low down in the back caused by gravel. With all these things together I was so exhausted and done up that I was only fit to lie down and be quiet. But I had a shop to attend to, so I was obliged to keep going. It was with great pain and difficulty.

"After suffering great agony for over two months, a neighbor, Mrs. Seldon, said she knew what would cure me, and she told me about Mother Seigel's Curative Syrup. So I got a bottle from Mr. Thornber, Blackburn Road, and after taking half of it I was wonderfully relieved. The pains in my back and chest were easier, and I could eat without feeling any distress about it.

"I kept on taking the medicine and got stronger and stronger, and by the time I had used up two bottles I was cured.

"That is twelve years ago now, and I have kept in good health ever since. Whenever I feel out of sorts for a day or two, as the best of us will, I take a dose of Mother Seigel's and it puts me right. I always keep a bottle on hand for use in the family. I know many persons who have been helped by the Syrup. If you think this hasty letter may do good, you have my free consent to publish it.

(Signed) Ellen Hargreaves, 38, Burnley Road, Accrington, Lancashire, Sept 13th, 1894.

Another woman's letter—very short. "Early in 1889, I lost my appetite. What little I ate gave me horrible pain in the stomach, chest and side. My inside seemed all of a work. No medicine made me any better. Month after month I grew more feeble. After suffering two years I heard of Mother Seigel's Syrup, and began to use it. In a few days I could eat better and my food agreed with me, and by continuing with this medicine I was soon in good health again. I am eighty years old, and feel light, active and strong. I am thankful for the blessing this remedy has conferred upon me.

(Signed) (Mrs.) Martha Burroughs, Bulkley, Malpas, Cheshire, Sept. 19th 1894."

Yes, yes; we all know it; health in everything. Yet the old old story of illness and pain—dear Mercy, the world seems full of it. And so much of it from the fevered lips of patient, loving women! And nearly always about the same disease—indigestion and dyspepsia—as in the instances quoted here. But Mother Seigel's Curative Syrup is doing a good work among them—a grand work. And it will do more as fast as pen and tongue can spread the knowledge of its merits abroad.
