A Leaf Out of My Book.

Now I (who write these lines) am going to give you (who read them) a leaf out of my book. And I want you to remember what I tell you, for I can't keep on repeating it every day or two.

I am a man of about fifty-six years. I inherited a good constitution, and for the latter half of my life, thus far, have taken common-sense care of it. Yet I have coddled myself: I am not cranky on heat, cold, sleeping, eating, drinking, or anything. I am out in all sorts of weather, and the more it storms the better I like it. I have many times been exposed to contagious and infectious diseases—from typhus fever and consumption to influenza and pneumonia. Yet I have never "caught" any of them, and—mark me now!—I never "take cold." Haven't had a cold in twenty-five years. How do you explain that? Wait a minute, and I'll explain it myself.

But first read this, and learn a lesson from it. And be particular to notice and compare the dates. It is a woman's letter. I wish she had said more, but it is enough to throw light on the point I want to bring out.

"In November, 1867," she says, "I took a violent cold which brought me into a low, weak way. I felt tired, heavy, and weary, having no energy or ambition. I had a bad taste in the mouth, my tongue being thickly coated, I had no relish for food, and after everything I ate I had weight and pain at the chest, and also tightness around the chest and sides. There was a gnawing pain at the pit of the stomach, and I was constantly belching up wind."

"After a time my skin became sallow, and the whites of the eyes tinged of a yellow colour. I was much troubled with giddiness and sick headache, and often vomited a green, bitter fluid. At night I was very restless, and my sleep was disturbed with horrid dreams, so that I frequently awoke in great fright and excitement. I felt more weak and tired in the morning than when I went to bed."

"As time went on I got extremely weak, being barely able to go about the house. Year after year I continued in this miserable state—sometimes better, sometimes worse, but never well. From time to time I was under the doctors' treatment, but their medicines did me little good. In June, 1892, Mrs. Coe, a neighbour of mine, urged me to take Mother Seigel's Curative Syrup, and I got a bottle from Mr. W. Cole, the chemist in High Street, West Cowes. After taking that one bottle I felt much better, having less pain, and finding my food agree with me. I continued taking the Syrup, and gradually gained strength until I was able to walk a distance of five miles. By taking an occasional dose I have since kept in good health. (Signed) (Mrs.) Emily Hutchings, Florence Cottage, Gurnard, Cowes, Isle of Wight, December 12th, 1894."

Now cipher! 1867 from 1892 leaves 25. Twenty-five years' continual illness—finally cured in a few weeks by Mother Seigel's Curative Syrup! Here is a fact to make you ask, How? Why? Wait another minute.

I have told you that I never take cold. Why not? Because I keep my conscience clear, my feet warm, my head cool, and my bowels open—the old-fashioned precautions which make me a healthy man. Mrs. Hutchings will pardon me. She did not fall ill because she took cold. No; it was the other way about. She took cold because she was already ill, with the seeds and obscure causes of indigestion and dyspepsia. Her vitality, her resisting power, was lower than she imagined. Then, and for that reason, she took the cold which developed the disease and all that followed. Had she taken a course of Mother Seigel's Curative Syrup in October, 1867, she never would have caught the cold in November. Happy the syrup was able to cure what it could more easily have prevented. But she hadn't heard of it then—we mustn't forget that.

Remember, keep yourself healthy. Use Seigel's Syrup to ward off disease. Have it on the shelf. Take a dose now and then to keep the body clear and regular. Be wise and fear nothing.

Without Advertising, Too—"Ah good morning," said the early bird to the worm. "Looking for a job?" "That's what. Anything I can do for you?" "Yes, you'll about fill the bill, I think."—Harlem Life.

Following Instructions—"Why, Jimmie," said the gracious hostess, "you have taken half a pie on your plate." "Yes'm. Mamma said I mustn't have but one piece when I was visitin'."—Detroit Free Press.

Ruling Passion—Sympathizer (to prostrate bicyclist)—"Any serious damage from the accident?" Fallen Bicyclist (feebly)—"I don't know yet. I have—have—haven't looked at my wheel." (Faints away.)—Life.

"What is the matter with the dinner, Mary?" asked Mrs. Hicks, impatiently. "It's an hour late." "Yes, said to have cold roast beef for dinner, ma'am; it's cookin' it's been up to twenty minutes ago."—Harper's Bazar.

It Deals in Dollars—"This is a dollar store, isn't it?" asked Gargyle, as he presented himself at the counter of a prominent bank. "No, sir," replied the teller, severely, "this is a bank." "Well, what's the difference?"—Harlem Life.

Bigson—"I once possessed a splendid dog, who could always distinguish between a vagabond and a respectable person." Jigson—"Well, what's become of him?" Bigson—"Oh, I was obliged to give him away. He bit me."—Tit-Bits.

Mother (at a party)—"Why did you allow young Saphead to kiss you in the conservatory?" Daughter—"Why, ma!" Mother—"Oh, you needn't 'why' ma' me. One side of his nose is powdered, and one side of yours isn't, and the people have noticed it."—Tit-Bits.

With Certain Distinguished Senators—First Trump—"What d'yer tink of dis here election, anyway?" Second Trump—"Aw! between dat blanket ballot an' de way de p'eece watch de loigins'-houses, it tings keeps on like dat, we might as well git outer politics!"—Puck.

Arthur—"You think I don't love you, darling; why, I would die for you. Arethusa—Yes; and it would be just like you to do it so that your funeral would come on a day when I had to give up a real nice engagement to attend it. Oh, you men are so selfish!"—Boston Transcript.

Merchant Tailor—"I am sorry to say it, Mr. Goodheart, but as this is to be your wedding suit, I must demand cash on delivery." Mr. Goodheart—"Eh? Why, I've had an account with you for years, and I've always paid promptly to the hour, the very hour, sir." "Yes, Mr. Goodheart, but you were a bachelor, and had the handling of your own money."—Tit-Bits.

He was whistling and she didn't like it. "I wish," she said, "when you are walking with me you wouldn't whistle. It is extremely rude." "I am whistling for the want of thought," he replied, with evident intent to be very crushing. "If that's what it's for," she remarked, "I think I may say, without fear of successful contradiction by anyone who knows you, that you don't have to." Then he stopped.—Texas sifter.

Pure blood is their proper food, and pure blood comes by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which is thus the greatest and best nerve tonic, it also builds up the whole system.

Hood's Pills are the favourite cathartic easy to take, easy to operate.

What you want when you are ailing is a medicine that will cure you. Try Hood's Sarsaparilla and be convinced of its merit.

Newcastle, P. O. Case

CHATHAM, Sept. 29.—The examination into the charges against ex-postmaster Jno. Fish was continued to-day. Mr. Davidson, counsel for the accused, stated that he had no evidence to offer for the defence. The prisoner was committed by the magistrate, Jno. Nevin, to stand trial at the next sitting of the Supreme Court. An application made to the magistrate to admit the accused to bail was refused and Judge Wilkinson on application of the counsel made the necessary order fixing the amount of bail of two sureties at 3,000. Dr. Pedolin and Chas. E. Fish put up the necessary bail.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

MOTHERS, Do You Know that Paregoric, Bateman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, many so-called Soothing Syrups, and most remedies for children are composed of opium or morphine?

Do You Know that opium and morphine are stupefying narcotic poisons?

Do You Know that in most countries druggists are not permitted to sell narcotics without labeling them poisons?

Do You Know that you should not permit any medicine to be given your child unless you or your physician know of what it is composed?

Do You Know that Castoria is a purely vegetable preparation, and that a list of its ingredients is published with every bottle?

Do You Know that Castoria is the prescription of the famous Dr. Samuel Pitcher. That it has been in use for nearly thirty years, and that more Castoria is now sold than of all other remedies for children combined?

Do You Know that the Patent Office Department of the United States, and of other countries, have issued exclusive right to Dr. Pitcher and his assigns to use the word "Castoria" and its formula, and that to imitate them is a state prison offense?

Do You Know that one of the reasons for granting this government protection was because Castoria had been proven to be absolutely harmless?

Do You Know that 35 average doses of Castoria are furnished for 35 cents, or one cent a dose?

Do You Know that when possessed of this perfect preparation, your children may be kept well, and that you may have unbroken rest?

Well, these things are worth knowing. They are facts.

The fac-simile signature of Dr. H. Pitcher is on every wrapper.
