

THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING

The Celebration of Sir Charles and Lady Tupper Yesterday.

(From the Sun.)

OTTAWA, Oct. 8.—It is not every day that the newspapers have to chronicle a golden wedding, but when this interesting anniversary happens to be that of a few remaining fathers of confederation and a former premier of Canada it assumes a measure of importance far beyond ordinary. Few events of a social nature that have taken place in Ottawa in the past have been attended with more general interest or looked upon with more kindness than the celebration to-day by Sir Charles Tupper, bart., and Lady Tupper of their golden wedding. Sir Charles may have some political enemies, but he has none socially, and to-day political matters are buried from sight, and the veteran leader of the conservative party and his worthy wife are receiving congratulations from all quarters. None, indeed, were heartier in their congratulations to the opposition leader and his good lady than Mr. and Mrs. Laurier, and the same remark applies with equal force to Sir Oliver Mowat. Between the hours of four and seven p. m., there was a continuous stream of callers at 123 Cooper street, where Sir Charles and Lady Tupper was "at home" to their friends. It had been arranged that the guests were to be received in the handsome drawing room on the east side of the house, where, owing to the large number expected, it had been found necessary to remove some of the furniture.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell headed the senatorial delegation, which numbered eight or ten. They presented an appropriately worded address. About a dozen members of the commons, including Hon. Messrs. Costigan, Foster and Dimock, presented the offering from the conservatives of the lower house with a complimentary address. The gift from the conservative members of the house of commons is a magnificent gold salver of beautiful design. The outer edge is surmounted by a wreath of dull gold of oak leaves and maple leaves, the representative trees of England and Canada. The upper side bears a shield with Sir Charles' monogram and the date 1846, while on the lower side is the crest of the Tupper family, in blue enamel on gold—a bound white Mayflower in its mouth—and the family motto: "Lespoir est ma force" (Hope is my strength), with the present date, 1896. On one end a gold shield bears the British coat of arms in enamelled colors, while the opposite end is occupied by the Canadian coat of arms. A large and very handsome shield on the centre of the salver bears this inscription: "Presented to Sir Charles Tupper, bart., and Lady Tupper on the occasion of the celebration of their golden wedding, October 8, 1896, by the liberal conservative members of the house of commons." The salver is in brightly burnished gold, while the trimmings are of dull gold, and cost upwards of $1,000. The plate is enclosed in a massive case of polished Canadian oak lined with dark blue velvet.

Congratulatory messages have been pouring in on Sir Charles and Lady Tupper by post and telegraph since Monday. These come from all parts of Canada, and many from England, sent by dignitaries of church and state, by political organizations, as well as by private friends. Many of the congratulatory messages contain references to Sir Charles Tupper's eminent services to the dominion as well as to the empire at large. The archbishop of Halifax, Mgr. O'Brien, telegraphed as follows: "Sincere congratulations to Lady Tupper and yourself. May the years wax bright as you journey onwards, until the hue of the golden be transmitted into the crystal sheen of your diamond wedding."

Bishop Courtney of Nova Scotia also wired his hearty congratulations and warm wishes.

From Archbishop Langevin of Manitoba came the following: "The Archbishop of St. Boniface congratulates the worthy couple and wishes them many golden days." Congratulatory cables from England included the following from Baron de Renner: "Please accept both our best congratulations; letter follows."

Sir Donald Smith, Canadian high commissioner, cabled a congratulatory message from Bellachullish, and from the staff of the high commissioner's office messages were also received.

Gov. Dewdney of British Columbia Gov. Kirkpatrick of Ontario, Gov. Patterson of Manitoba, Gov. Fraser of New Brunswick, Gov. Daly of Nova Scotia and Gov. Howland of Prince Edward Island showered their congratulations also by telegraph, and from the leading members of the Canadian judiciary in all parts of the dominion similar messages were received by Sir Charles and Lady Tupper.

Among the telegrams which reached Sir Charles from political organizations were the following: Sent by the Club Conservateur of Montreal: "The rejoicings of your golden wedding cannot be limited to the blessed home of a family which illustrates so vividly the word of God; memoratio extarum benedictum, but must include all the members of the conservative party, cherishing the ideas of being followers of a great chief, who will bring them again to victory, and to the fraternal idea of confederation, of which you are the father. Please accept the respectful and warm, hearty greetings of the juniors to the old chief who adds to the wisdom of experience all the vigor enthusiasm and combativeness of youth."

Chairman J. E. Masters wired from Moncton, N. B.: "On behalf of the liberal conservatives of Moncton I congratulate you and Lady Tupper upon attaining the fiftieth anniversary of your wedded life and the many favorable and pleasant conditions under which you enjoy the same. We trust you may long be spared to the country and the conservative party and that you and Lady Tupper may enjoy many more years of health and happiness together."

President Geo. M. Campbell telegraphed from Halifax: "The junior liberal conservative association of Halifax city and county extend earnest congratulations to Lady Tupper and yourself on the fiftieth anniversary of your married life, and trust that you both may be spared for many years and that Canada may continue to enjoy the advantages of your wide experience, distinguished abilities and statesmanship."

Congratulatory messages were also sent by the Albany club of Toronto, the Liberal Conservative association of Halifax and many other similar organizations. One of the heartiest expressions of congratulations was that of an old political opponent, the Hon. A. G. Jones of Halifax. A message was also received from the Medical Society of Nova Scotia, of which Sir Charles was for many years the president. Dr. Lewis Johnson of Nova Scotia, who was one of Sir Charles Tupper's groomsmen, wired the following: "Heartiest congratulations and best wishes to Lady Tupper and yourself on this happy jubilee anniversary of Oct. 8th, 1846."

To-night there was a family reunion, at which Sir Charles and Lady Tupper, with their three sons and their wives and General and Mrs. Cameron and fourteen grandchildren were present.

The lists of gifts received by the happy couple would occupy two columns of newspaper space.

Envy—First Tramp—Did yer see Li Hung-Chang? Second Tramp—Yes. It was a touchin' sight to see a man what kin git carried when he don't feel like walkin'.—Puck.

Miss Fiance—Are you sure you would love me just as tenderly if our conditions were reversed—if you were rich and I were poor? He—Reverse our conditions and try me.—Harlem Life.

Lulu—We girls are getting up a secret society of our own. George—Indeed! What's the object? Lulu—I don't know yet, but I'll tell you all about it after I'm initiated.—Household Words.

Bridget, this is altogether too much; you have a new follower in the kitchen every week. "Well, ma'am, you see, the food in this house is so bad that no one will come here for longer than a week."—Tit Bits.

Teacher—Billy, can you tell me the difference between caution and cowardice? Billy—Yes ma'am. When you're afraid yourself, then that's caution. But when the other fellow's afraid, that's cowardice.—Harper's Bazar.

Richard—They say that kissing is dangerous. Do you believe it? Robert—It is when any third person happens to see you. It is more than likely if that woman over there had not been witness to a transaction of that kind, I should not have been her son-in-law.—Boston Transcript.

"Who is that man who calls on you so frequently?" "He's an inventor."

"Indeed! What has he invented?" "Oh, ever so many things." "Any of them practical?" "Yes; he has had a good deal of success in inventing reasons why I should lend him anything from 10 cents to $5.—Washington Star.

Counsel for the Defence—You have heard the testimony of Mr. Brown for the prosecution. Now, did you ever hear Mr. Brown's reputation for truth and veracity questioned? Witness—Not directly; but he has a baby at his house, he owns a dog and rides a bicycle, and he is an amateur fisherman. Counsel—That will do, sir. Counsel for the prosecution—We do not care to cross-examine the witness, your honour.—Boston Transcript.

Only Two Men Saved

INGONISH, C. B., Oct. 9.—Norwegian barque Ariadne, Captain Paulsen, in ballast for Bay Verte ran ashore below Green Cove, five miles east of here yesterday morning at three o'clock during the easterly gale, and went to pieces immediately. The captain and nine of the crew were drowned.

Christian Johnson, second mate, and a youth named Johannes Ravenburg, are the only survivors of the crew of 12. The first mate's body was found to-day. Two bodies are reported as washing in and out of the wreck with the sea, but they could not be secured.

The Apple Trade.

MONTREAL, Oct. 8.—On Saturday the Allan Line steamship Numidian, took out the largest cargo of apples shipped from this or any other Canadian port this year. It consisted of 14,500 barrels. At the present rate of freight, which is 3 shillings per barrel to Liverpool, this is the best paying freight a steamship can have. The total shipments of apples to London, Liverpool and Glasgow last week from this port were upwards of sixty thousand barrels.

Dr. Abernethy, the famous Scotch surgeon, was a man of few words, but he once met his match. A woman called in his office at Edinburgh and showed a hand badly inflamed and swollen, when the following dialogue, opened by the doctor, took place: "Burn?" "Bruise." "Poultice." The next day the woman called again, and the dialogue was as follows: "Better?" "Worse." "More poultice." Two days later the woman made another call and this conversation occurred: "Better?" "Well. Fee?" "Nothing," exclaimed the doctor; "most sensible woman I ever met!"

In Kingston penitentiary on Tuesday a negro named George Hewett was shot by a guard and died in a few moments. He had been acting disorderly in his cell and when being removed to the dark cell he made an attack with a pair of shears on the guard, who fired on him, the ball entering the convict's head below the eye.

Blind

Sometimes persons become blind from impure blood, which develops scrofulous ulcers on the eyeballs, Iritis, granulated eyelids, etc. In such cases Hood's Sarsaparilla has been marvelously successful in restoring sight. It shows its powers as a blood purifier and radical cure for scrofula, by removing the cause, thus curing the eyes and restoring all the affected parts to healthy condition. Read this: "As an act of justice and for the benefit of other mothers who may have afflicted children, I write this. About the first of February, 1892, my daughter Zola, then three years old, contracted sore eyes of the worst form and in a few weeks was entirely blind, being unable to tolerate light of any kind. She suffered and cried until I was almost heartbroken. The best eye specialist in the county treated her for months, but the became worse. Then I took her to a specialist in Indianapolis, who said he could do nothing. I came away with a heavy heart. I met my father's physician, Dr. Berryman, who examined Zola's eyes, and told me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. I began to give it as directed and wash her eyes with warm water. Soon I began to notice improvement, and now, having given the child over a half dozen bottles, her eyes are greatly improved and she can see as well as any one. She is five years of age, and goes to school. When she began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, she had to eat her meals in a darkened room, but now she is able to sit at the table with the rest of the family." MRS. OLLIE BUSER, Colfax, Indiana.

Leading Citizens
Of Colfax, including John D. Blacker, Township Trustee, W. H. Coon, Druggist, and Dr. J. A. Berryman, cordially endorse this statement. This and many other similar cures prove that

HAVE YOU CATARRH?

But One Sure Remedy—Obtain It for 25 Cents. Blower Included, and be Cured.

Catarrh is a disagreeable and offensive disease. It usually results from a cold and often ends in consumption and death. The one effective remedy so far discovered for it is Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure.

Physicians failed to cure Geo. Belfrey, toll-gate keeper, Holland Landing road. Chase's Catarrh Cure did it.

One box cured William Kneeshaw and two boxes James T. Stoddard, both of West Gwillimbury.

Division Court Clerk Joel Rogers, Robert J. Hoover and Geo. Taylor, all of Beeton, voluntarily certify to the efficacy of Chase's Catarrh Cure.

J. W. Jennison, of Gifford, spent nearly $300 on doctors, but found no permanent relief until he tried a 25-cent box of Chase's.

Miss Dwyer, of Alliston, got rid of a cold in the head in 12 hours.

Henry R. Nicholls, 176 Rectory street, London, tried a box with excellent effect.

Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure is for sale by any dealer, or by Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto. Price 25 cents including blower.

Coughs, colds and bronchial troubles readily cured by the latest discovery, Chase's Lanced and Turpentine. Pleasant and easy to take. 25 cents.

Pyny-Pectoral

Positively Cures COUGHS AND COLDS in a surprisingly short time. It's a scientific certainty, tried and true, soothing and healing in its effects.

W. C. McCombs & Son, Bouchette, Que., report in a letter that Pyny-Pectoral cured Mrs. C. Gervais of chronic cold in chest and bronchial tubes, and also cured W. G. McCombs of a long-standing cold.

Me. J. H. Hutter, Chemist, 528 Yonge St., Toronto, writes: "As a general cough and lung syrup Pyny-Pectoral is a most invaluable preparation. It has given the strongest satisfaction to all who have tried it, many having spoken to me of the benefit derived from its use in their families. It is suitable for old or young, being pleasant to the taste. Its sale with me has been wonderful, and I can always recommend it as a safe and reliable cough medicine."
