LEGAL NEWSPAPER DECISIONS.

1. Any person who takes a paper regularly from the Post Office—whether directed to his address or another, or whether he has subscribed or not—is responsible for the pay. 2. If any person orders his paper discontinued he must pay all arrears, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made and collect the whole amount, whether it is taken from the office or not.

RICHIBUCTO, N. B., FEB. 18, 1897.

The report comes from Fredericton that Mr. Caleb Richardson of this town is to be dismissed from the office of Stipendiary magistrate and that of Registrar of Probate for the County of Kent and the two positions given to one Mr. R. H. Davis, barrister, of St. George, Charlotte County, who in that event will remove to the County of Kent. It is further reported that Messrs Barnes and Leger, two of our representatives, have recommended the appointment of Mr. Davis to these positions. We can scarcely believe that these two gentlemen would assent to such a proposition. The lawyers of Kent have always taken a foremost place at the Bar of this province and any one of our practicing attorneys takes as high if not a higher place in the profession than Mr. Davis. Yet it is proposed to pass them all over and give two of our county offices to an outsider, a stranger, and a gentleman who has never paid a dollar into the treasury of the county. Such an appointment would be condemned by the entire county and we do not believe our representatives will so far disregard the wishes of their constituents as to sanction it. We believe that the electors of the county would take the first opportunity offered of showing in a most emphatic manner their want of confidence in any representative or any government that would be a party to such an arrangement.

THE EASTERN WAR-CLOUD.

When the world's long peace was broken by the Crimean war of forty odd years ago, the first cause was a trivial one. So was that of the great Indian rebellion of a few years later. And the Franco-German war of 1870 was equally without any sufficient cause, though so stupendous in its results. These incidents give an air of gravity to the present disturbances in Crete. The island is small, and its total population is not equal to that of New Brunswick. They are Christians of the Greek church and speaking the Greek language. But they are not a high-class of Christians. Some modern writers claim that Paul's indictment of them, framed nearly 1900 years ago, is still true. "The Creteans were always liars, slow bellies, etc." But indifferent as may be their reputation for truth and probity they are probably better than their Turkish rulers. They are certainly desirous to throw off the Moslem yoke. Greece strongly sympathizes with them and King George would like to add to his little kingdom of two millions a third of a million more. Of course the great powers, which have undertaken the control of Turkish affairs, will have all to say about what shall take place. Neither Greece or Turkey can move without their permission, but the powers are divided in sympathy, are mutually maneuvering for advantage, and may at any moment break into hostilities with each other. The present danger is that some act may array the great powers in a struggle such as the world has not yet seen. Or the war-cloud may blow over harmlessly as so many threatening clouds have done before.

That such a fire could occur in such a place as occurred last week in the Western Departmental Block at Ottawa is one of the things no fellow can understand. The building is as near fireproof as it could be made, well supplied with water, hose and night watchmen, and yet two thirds of the vast block appears to have been gutted by fire or deluged with water in a few hours. The loss will be very heavy and there is no insurance carried on any federal building. The incident calls for a careful inquiry and greater precautions in future for the guardianship of our public edifices.

Mr. McInerney, M. P., having been awarded costs against the petitioner in his election case, is in a position to be congratulated. In so far as this province has been concerned "the ways of petitioners are hard." The same was remarked long ago of the general body of transgressors.

President McKinley was formally declared elected last week after a solemn counting of the votes by the two houses of Congress. Everybody outside of congress knew the result long ago. It will not be till 4th March next, four months after the election that the President will be inaugurated. But for this long delay he will be compensated by holding office four months after his successor is elected. Still the system is a century behind our brisk and up-to-date Canadian methods.

It appears that an attempt has been made to further settle the Manitoba school settlement. This time, if report speaks true, further concessions are to be made to the Catholic minority of Manitoba with a view to conciliate Mgr. Langevin and his people. Possibly a shrewd outlook toward the coming federal by-elections and the general provincial elections in Quebec may have also something to do with the latest phase of the "sunny ways" progress. The Ontario by-election being over the new concessions appear to be very well timed, if there is anything in them.

The provincial deficit was not so large this year as in some past years of the present regime, but still the debt grows from year to year. This would not be so regrettable if our population and wealth were increasing, but with these at a standstill, or very nearly so, there is every reason why the province should live within its income.

A Prominent Citizen.

Mr. Thos. Bennett, for over 22 years in business as a wholesale and retail butcher, gives his experience with the new famous remedy, Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. "Gentlemen,—I have for a long time been afflicted with extreme nervousness, and ailments resulting therefrom. Frequently I had sharp pains under my heart. At times my memory was clouded, which was a great annoyance to me in my business, causing me to forget orders which were given to me, and my attention had to be called to such matters frequently. Very often there was a sort of mist came before my eyes, and I was extremely dizzy. One of the worst features was that business matters of small importance assumed exaggerated forms, and I brooded over them unnecessarily. At length I would often wake up with a start and it would be a long time before I could again compose myself to sleep. So unstrung were my nerves that I had fits of trembling occasionally, and cold sensations would run down my limbs. The least excitement or noise startled me and set my heart fluttering. I have taken a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, which I got at Mr. H. W. Love's drug store, corner Broadview and Danforth-avenues. They restored my nerves to their normal condition, and freed up my system to such an extent that all the distressing ailments I have mentioned have completely disappeared. I say it without any qualification whatever that they are a splendid medicine for shattered nerves and their attending evils. I cannot too highly praise the wonderful virtues of these pills in all cases of heart trouble." (Sgd.) THOMAS BENNETT, Doncaster, Ont.
