RICHIBUCTO, N. B., JUNE 3, 1897.

AN OLD SCHEME REVIVED.

A few years ago a proposal to dam the Strait of Belle Isle and thus shut off the cold Arctic current from entering the Gulf of St. Lawrence was seriously discussed.

The roads throughout the county are in a shocking condition, partly owing to the wet weather and partly to their want of repair.

The Richibucto Brass Band propose making a big time for the people of this town and vicinity on June 22nd.

CHURCH SERVICES.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—Services will be held on Sabbath first as follows:—Kingston, at 11 a. m., Richibucto, 7 p. m.

LOCAL POLITICS.

The local Government have obtained another supporter in lieu of Mr. Killam, by the election, without opposition, of Mr. Clifford Robinson, of Moncton.

The result was that when the dominion election came on they found themselves heavily handicapped. It was supposed that, profiting by that lesson they would have perfected their organization in New Brunswick and prepared to meet such an issue as was presented to them in Westmorland.

DIPLOMATIC AUCTIONS.

Bric-a-brac Bargains Eagerly Sought at the Shrine of the Red Flag.

There is a graceful custom among foreign diplomats at the capital that we may as well trench upon.

For two weeks before their excellencies decamp the local papers revel in a long and lurid "ad," recounting the recall of the ambassador or minister and declaring how on a certain day all people so minded are invited to appear and contest at public vendue for a dazzling list of plunder in said "ad," set forth.

Prime among the properties for sale you will notice wines and many a thing besides that are as articles of commerce highly tariffed. But in these cases courtesy has held the tariff at bay.

At these sales snobdom turns stoutly out. The bidding is hot and fast and high. There is nothing so lusted for by a certain sort of American, cringingly numerous hereabout, as a wine which has been justified by an ambassador's taste, or a piece of furniture or bric-a-brac which has been soiled by noble and titled contact.

It is also to be remarked that these sales string out in endless fashion, day following day, as fools flock to be bunked. The stock, whether of wine or furniture or cast off noble garments, never runs low.

For, mark you, rather than disappoint or send any full hearted alien chaser away from this sale with aching heart and empty hands the auctioneer each night moves in a new stock to replace the disappearances of the day before.

LAFAYETTE'S FAMOUS VISIT.

There was Great Excitement Over His Trip to the United States.

Jean Fraley Hallowell, who writes in The Ladies Home Journal of "When Lafayette Rode Into Philadelphia," says that "it is difficult to understand at this late day what a furore of excitement passed over this country when Lafayette arrived once more in America."

"Lafayette was 67 years old when he visited America as the nation's guest and carried his years lightly. His head was shaped like that of Burns. He had a high forehead, long, aquiline nose and a rather thin face."

Oliver Optic's Will.

There were no public bequests in the will of William T. Adams (Oliver Optic). It was very brief and was written in the author's own hand, under date of April 21, 1885.

Up to Date.

Johnson—Man alive, you've only been wasting your talents. The play is execrable, the worst I ever saw. How could you write such rubbish? There's not an idea in it.

Daniel Lambert, the most noted example of obesity recorded in medical annals, was born in 1770 and died at the age of 40 of excessive fat. His weight was 739 pounds.

As early as the time of Alexander II of Scotland a man who let weeds go to seed on a farm was declared to be the king's enemy.

One pound of learning requires ten pounds of common sense to apply it.—Russian Proverb.

Educational Item

A Texas gentleman took his rather obtuse son to school to enter him as a pupil. The child was the blackboard, as the would-be pupil could not do it himself, remarking:

"Now that I have shown you how to do that sum, I'll prove it to you, to show you that it is correct."

"No need of proof, professor. I will take your word for it. I know you wouldn't tell a lie," replied the pupil, much to the disgust of his parent.

THE FIRST DIRECTORY.

Some Quaint Olden Time New York Business and Social Addresses.

In the first directory of New York city, which was issued in 1786, there are some peculiar and quaint entries.

Clergymen of that period were exceedingly precise regarding their titles. Thus, "Abraham Bache, reverend of the Church of England, 29 Smith street," and "Joze Phelan, clergyman of the Church of Rome, 1 Beekman street."

In those days, too, there were a great many "gentlewomen" and a few "wash-women." All teachers were then addressed either as "schoolmasters" or "schoolmistresses."

Where She Couldn't Go. The spinster on the platform grew more vehement. She drank two glasses of water from the big white pitcher and pounded the table until the display of glass and crockery were leaped again.

"I thank heaven," she cried, "that I am free from all matrimonial chains! What use have I for a husband? I want neither a slave nor a tyrant. I am free—free as air. I can go and come as I please. No door is shut to me; no assembly bars me out. Is there a solitary gathering to which I may not have free and unrestrained access?"

"Yes," cried a shrill voice in the rear of the hall.

"And what is it?" sternly demanded the spinster.

"The convention of mothers!" shrieked the voice.

Then the orator turned pale and went and sat down.—Washington Star.

"I AM NOW A CHANGED MAN."

"I Am Convinced That Paine's Celery Compound Has No Equal"

The Only Medicine That Produces Positive and Permanent Cures.

The declarations above are made by Mr. Charles B. Holman, 262 King Street, West, Hamilton, Ont., a young man known to hundreds in the ambitious city.

He writes about his cure as follows: "In the spring of 1895 I was troubled with a cough, debility, and general depression of spirits. During the summer and autumn I used a number of medicines, but received no benefit from them.

To the Editor of The Review: DEAR SIR.—It is reported that Mr. Douglas H. C. Thompson the Evangelist, who has been so successful in Boston in rescue Mission work for the last two years, is about to take a trip through his native county and home about the first of June.

Christian work and a little later feeling that he must give more of his time into the blessed work, he became connected with the Union Rescue Mission on Kneeland st. Boston. Working at his business in Brookline and giving all his evenings and Sundays to the work, and continued in this way for over two years, until at last all broken down in health, he was compelled to give up his business, and feeling that God had called him to the work, he went out into the world to preach, and since that he has devoted all of his time to preaching the gospel with marvelous success, being still in poor health. He intends to return to his native climate to remain until improved, and to preach the gospel wherever he may find an opportunity.

DEAR SIRS,—I have used Hagar's Yellow Oil for my children when they had bronchitis and always with great success. I use it also for sore throat, and can say there is nothing to equal it as a sure cure. MRS. JAMES O'BRIEN, Huntsville, Ont.
