

TEACHERS' PARLIAMENT.

WESTMORLAND AND KENT INSTITUTES IN SESSION.

[Moncton Times-Friday.]

The united meeting of the Westmorland and Kent county teachers' institute opened in Victoria school hall at ten o'clock yesterday morning.

Messrs. Amos O'Bienes and Boyd Anderson were appointed to assist the secretary in the matter of enrollment.

The entertainment committee from the Moncton teachers consists of Messrs. S. W. Irons and W. W. Black.

Previous to the opening of the united institutes, the teachers of Kent held a meeting in Principal Irons' room for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year.

Dr. Inch added a few remarks on the new edition of Canadian history. He said the new book had only come into his hands a week or two before the course of study was marked out and the plan for study arranged by the board of education.

At the close of the afternoon session, the visiting teachers were entertained at tea by the Moncton teachers in the Victoria School room.

Following is a list of the Kent County Teachers:— Grace A. Warman, Flora J. Oulton, Maggie A. Warman, Nora A. M. Bourque, Ella B. Warman, Minnie Buckley, Minnie L. Sullivan, Mina B. Farrer, Ella F. Sneath, Lucy Chrystal, Nessie Ferguson, Mary A. Carruthers, L. B. Welling, Mrs. Allanach, Mary Chrystal, Hattie O. Ramsay, Geo. A. Hutchinson, Ada Warman, W. A. Cowperthwaite, Isabella Wheten, Ella McNairn.

The report of the financial secretary showed a balance of $19 93 in the bank to the credit of the Westmorland institute, the receipts being $39.25 and the expenditure $19.35.

Boyd Anderson, auditor, reported accounts correct.

PAPERS.

The first paper of the session was read by Miss Harriet Ramsay, of Kent county, whose subject was "Natural History."

W. W. Anderson, Moncton, continued the discussion on this paper and was followed by H. L. Brittain, of the Moncton High school.

The institute next listened to an excellent paper on "English literature," by Miss Kate Willis, of Moncton.

The discussion on Miss Ramsay's paper was continued by N. W. Brown, principal of the Dorchester schools.

H. L. Brittain, A. E., of the Moncton High School, opened the discussion on this paper, dealing very ably with the subject.

R. D. Hanson, of Petitcodiac, and E. Estabrooks, of Sackville, differed from this idea and the discussion grew quite animated, Dr. Inch making an observation which called forth a brief reply from Mr. Brittain.

W. A. Cowperthwaite, A. B., of Kent, read an interesting paper on "Canadian history," which dealt with the progress of Canada particularly since confederation.

N. W. Brown, A. B., of Dorchester, opened the discussion in an eloquent and exhaustive address on the importance of the true method of teaching history.

Dr. Inch added a few remarks on the new edition of Canadian history. He said the new book had only come into his hands a week or two before the course of study was marked out and the plan for study arranged by the board of education.

The president and Miss Mary Fawcett also spoke on Canadian history. S. W. Irons, Moncton, Miss Ramsay and Geo. Hutchinson, Kent, were appointed a committee to draft the usual resolution passed at the close of the institute.

At the close of the afternoon session, the visiting teachers were entertained at tea by the Moncton teachers in the Victoria School room.

HOLMES' EVIL EYE. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 14.—Once more the evil eye of Murderer H. H. Holmes would seem to have been at work.

The only articles saved were, curiously enough, the original warrants for Holmes' arrest, and two pictures of the murderer.
