

CORRESPONDENCE

Mr. Editor:

As it has been some time since we have read any notes from here perhaps a few might interest some of your readers.

Your correspondent, Mayflower, represents this place as very unruly which is rather a libel on this community as this is one of the quietest and most peaceable places in the county, and the cry for shillalah and law is never heard among its residents. If Mayflower had written from her own village instead of Coatesville, her letter would not have made any false impressions.

The McLean Bros., are doing good work with their threshers. The oat crop is very poor, other grain crops are about the average.

The spiritual wants of the place are well looked after by Rev. Mr. Manaton, of Buctouche.

Is there any election on hand? as our representative Mr. Barnes, in company with R. A. Irving Esq., paid us a flying visit to-day.

Rev. E. Ramsay, of Bayfield paid his daughter a flying visit last week, his many friends were much pleased to see him.

The Coates Bros., have been running their grist mill day and night for some time, she is giving first class satisfaction under the new manager.

J. U., J. A. and A. F. Coates all have Government contracts at present, they must be Government pets.

Riverside Division appears to be in a flourishing condition. We are sorry to lose one of our popular members, Mr. Nelson Coates, who has gone to N. S. for the winter.

The ploughing and quilting party at Mr. J. B. Coates was a decided success.

We are sorry that our present teacher Miss Ramsay is going to leave us at Xmas. She intends taking another course at normal school.

Our disappointed candidates for the councillorship are thinking of going to the Klondike.

Yours truly,
A RESIDENT.

Coatesville, Nov. 9 '97.

Mr. Editor:—I would like to ask the overseer of the poor for Richibucto parish district No. 1, what influence was brought to bear on him, thereby causing him to "shell" out so readily the sum of twenty-two dollars to help transport a family from Kingston to P. E. Island, when the people here, who pay taxes for years want parish aid for themselves or their friends, they are met with all kinds of objections. But in this case we find a family, who were induced to come to Kingston from Montague, P. E. Island, a few months ago rendered immediate assistance. Further I understand that certain members of this family were offered a chance to earn their living in Kingston but refused to work. The next time that a family are imported from P. E. Island to get stranded they should be sent back by the people who were the means of bringing them. I fear that the overseer has established a bad precedent and next season may find a lot of summer visitors in Kingston from P. E. Island, who will expect to be sent home in state by the overseer of the poor whenever they wish to return.

NORTH END.

PADDY AND THE TERRAPIN.

The chief of the Lindell Hotel, St. Louis, sent Paddy Brennan, a recent importation, into the cellar for a couple of terrapin. Paddy hadn't heard the name before, but thought they must be some new kind of birds. The cellar was dark, and he lighted a candle, dribbled a little grease on a thing that looked like a stone and set his candle in the grease. Then he turned to look for the birds. To his horror the "stone" walked off with the candle. He called for help, and they found him on his knees praying for his sins. The laugh was on Paddy, and now when asked if he knows what terrapin are he replies: "Be gobs, I does."

COMBINE ORGANIZING.

NEW YORK, November 11.—The Herald to-day says: One of the biggest combinations in the country is being quietly organized and is expected to be formally announced within a few days. It is an alliance of the companies engaged in manufacturing insulated wires and cables for electric purposes. Among the companies interested is the General Electric.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 13.—An opinion handed down in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals held that the boycott is not a legal weapon. The decision will be of interest to the labor organizations all over the country, inasmuch as it upholds the right of corporations to introduce their saving devices into their establishments. Two judges concurred in the prevailing opinion and one judge dissented, scoring the trusts.

A NEW THORN JURY.

IT IS NECESSITATED BY SICKNESS OF LARSEN.

LONG ISLAND CITY, N. Y., Nov. 12.—Judge Smith arrived at the court house at 9:30 o'clock to-day to take up the Guldensuppe case.

The eleven jurors had already taken their places in the box and Martin Thorn was in his accustomed seat immediately behind his lawyers.

Dr. Bennett was called to the stand and testified that Juror Larsen would not be able to attend court for at least a month. As soon as the physician had made this statement, Judge Smith said:

"I think the jury ought to be discharged."

Mr. Youngs turned to Mr. Howe and the latter addressed the court: "If your honor please," said he, "nearly all the evidence is in and the case is nearly finished. If your honor should not conclude that it would be proper to adjourn for a month, then I have this suggestion to make:

"That the eleven jurors be retained, that an additional juror be impanelled to make the constitutional twelve and that then by my consent and the consent of the district attorney and by the order and with the approbation of the court have the evidence read so that the twelfth or new juror could listen to it. I think that would save time. I put myself on record agreeing to that. It is just as legal to read all the evidence in this way as it is to read two or three lines.

Mr. Youngs, in the afternoon, said that after carefully considering the suggestions made by Mr. Howe in the morning, he and his colleagues had decided not to accept the suggestions and would respectfully prefer that the jury would be discharged and a new panel ordered.

The court agreed to this and discharged the jury.

Mr. Youngs asked that the new trial be proceeded with next Monday, but Mr. Howe asked for a longer adjournment. After some discussion Judge Smith decided that a new panel should be called at once and in deference to Mr. Howe's request he set the case down for trial on next Monday week, Nov. 22.

KELLEY TO PRISON.

SOMERSWORTH'S MURDERER BEGINS HIS SENTENCE.

DOVER, N. H., Nov. 15.—Joseph E. Kelley the murderer of Cashier Stickney, of the Great Falls National bank, was taken to Concord Saturday morning by Sheriff Hayes and Deputy Sheriff George W. Parker to begin the 30 years term in the state prison, to which he was sentenced in the Strafford county supreme court yesterday.

Kelley arose early and immediately began preparations for his journey. He appeared as cool as usual and said he was glad he was going to leave the jail. He said that he knew the sentence was a long one, but he did not care as when he gained his freedom he would be free from his compact with the devil.

Sheriff Hayes and Deputy Sheriff Parker were waiting for Kelley at the appointed hour for his leaving and all along the streets from the jail to the railroad station groups of people had gathered to get a last glimpse of the murderer. Just before leaving the jail Kelley gave a letter to Sheriff Hayes for his junior counsel, James Ryan Jr.

It took only a few minutes for the trip from the jail to the station. The crowds of curious people who had lined the streets followed the carriage and augmented the throng gathered about the place where the murderer was to take the train.

When Kelley stepped from the carriage there was a fierce struggle among the spectators to get a view of him. A force of police officers kept them under control and in a few minutes the murderer was inside of the smoking car of the train.

The arrival of the party had been well timed and almost as soon as Kelley and his custodians were on board, the train moved out. At least 2000 people watched the train as it disappeared in the distance.

MR. TWEEDIE'S MONTREAL TRIP.

Provincial Secretary Tweedie returned Friday from Montreal, and went to Chatham over the Canada Eastern Railway on the (Friday) afternoon express. Mr. Tweedie's mission to Montreal was in connection with the refunding of Provincial debentures to the amount of $900,000, which can be paid off at the end of this year under the provisions of the acts of the Legislature under authority of which they were issued. Mr. Tweedie expects to retire the old debentures by an issue of three per cent. debentures, and thinks that his trip to Montreal will bear the desired fruit.—Fredericton Herald.

Thoroughly Cured.

MR. STEPHEN BELISLE GLADLY TELLS HOW HE WAS CURED.

After other Remedies Failed to Help Him, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Made Him a Healthy Man.

From the Montreal Herald.

Down on William's street the bulk of the butter and cheese trade is done and it is there that the Montreal cold storage and freezing company's mammoth building is located. In the summer time, when extensive shipments are being made, the big block is a veritable beehive. Several well known exporting firms have their warehouses in this building and one of them is Wm. T. Ware & Co. Their head warehouse man is Mr. Stephen Belisle, who, as his name indicates, is a French Canadian and in the prime of life. If ever there was a grateful man on the face of the earth to-day that man is Stephen Belisle. After suffering indescribable agonies for several months, he is now the picture of health and feels that it is his duty to tell all the world how he was restored to health and happiness. Mr. Belisle explained his troubles, now fortunately a thing of the past, to a reporter of the Herald recently. "My work called me to all parts of the warehouse," said he, "and sometimes I went into the freezing room without my coat or cap on and then back to the other parts of the warehouse to the warmer atmosphere. About a year ago I became very ill with a complication of diseases. I was suffering with indigestion, biliousness and the resulting nervous disorders such as sick headache and loss of appetite, I began doctoring, but I seemed to grow worse every day. I slept very little, and as time went on I was not able to do any work, and even the exertion of moving about would tire me out. I had a very poor appetite and what food I ate did not agree with me. I also suffered from a severe pain in my back and side. During that time I had tried many medicines but they gave me no relief. I had become so weak and my system was so run down that life was a burden to me. I was advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which I did with extremely beneficial results. I commenced taking the pills about Christmas time and now I am feeling so good that I thought it my duty to write the proprietors of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and let them know how extremely grateful I am for the cure their medicine has effected in me. I had taken only six boxes when my condition of health was a paradise to what it had been for some months previous. Mr. Belisle is a quiet unassuming man and evidently not given to over enthusiasm, but there was no mistaking his earnestness when recounting his experiences to the reporter. He will always be a firm believer in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure by going to the root of the disease. They renew and build up the blood, and strengthen the nerves, thus driving disease from the system. Avoid imitations by insisting that every box you purchase is enclosed in a wrapper bearing the full trade mark, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

MONTREAL, Nov. 13.—Norman Mitchell a son of the late Robert Mitchell, of the well-known brass finishing firm, committed suicide in his home in Westmount last night. He had visited a young lady during the evening, and on his return wrote a letter which he mailed. Returning to his room he took a Flobert rifle and fired through his heart.

When Joseph E. Kelly was arrested in Montreal for the murder of Cashier Stickney, of the Great Falls National Bank of Somersworth, N. H., over $3,000 of the bank's money was found on him and in the culvert where he had left the silver. On Friday it was turned over by him to the bank authorities. The question as to who should receive the reward of $2,000 offered for the capture and conviction of Kelly will be decided at the next term of the Supreme Court.

Officer Greenham, of the game protection service, returned here to-day after a fruitless chase for Henri Ladouceur, the Megantic game poacher, who has dodged across the Maine border. Ladouceur's quarters were raided and a lot of skins seized but warned by friends the outlaw had fled. Heavy storms rendered the country impassable for the police, who have temporarily given over the search. The Maine authorities have been asked to proceed against the poacher.

The first man accepted on the jury to try, in Dover N. H., a man accused of the murder of a bank clerk, freely admitted when questioned, it is said, that he had formed an opinion and had conscientious scruples against capital punishment, but that, despite these, he felt confident of his ability to render a verdict according to the law and the evidence. The State did not challenge and the defense accepted him. Kelley was found guilty and sentenced to 15 years imprisonment for a premeditated and cold blooded murder.

GENERAL NEWS.

John Bagnold Burgess, a distinguished painter, died at London on Friday in his 68th year.

The Bryan Democrats have nominated Thomas Riley, a well-known lawyer, as candidate for Mayor of Boston.

There were twenty-four failures in the Dominion the past week, against forty-six in the corresponding week last year.

The order for the appointment of Mr. McInnes as Lieut.-Governor of British Columbia, and Mr. Templeton as Senator in his place, was signed by Lord Aberdeen on Tuesday.

Recognized as a jail bird at the detective headquarters to-day, Adolphe Graves put a revolver to his head, snapped it and only owes his life to the failure of the cartridge. Chief Detective Carpenter dashed the weapon from his hand and secured the desperate man.

A heavily-armed body of men are searching the woods in the vicinity of Megantic for Ladouceur, a game poacher who defied local authorities to arrest him at the point of a rifle's muzzle. He shot deer out of season and then defied the authorities. The Quebec government, which has two provincial police in the party, ordered his arrest dead or alive.

As John Kemp and a boy were crossing the Ottawa River at Montebello, the saw dust in the stream exploded twice in rapid succession, and Kemp, who is an old man was drowned. The boy escaped. There is a huge mass of dust here and the action of the water generates acids which lead to combustion.

Georgia has this year upon its State pension roll the names of 10,437 men and women entitled to enjoy its privileges. They include 3,803 widows of Confederate soldiers, and 3,173 old Confederates who are indigent. The widows are cared for by an annual appropriation of $240,000, the invalids get $190,000 and the indigents $150,000, making a total of $580,000.

Sir Charles Dilke, M. P., addressing a meeting in London on Friday evening alluded to Sir Wilfrid Laurier's presence in Washington. He reminded his hearers that Lord Dufferin, governor general of Canada in 1874, at that time opposed a reciprocity treaty between Canada and the United States on the ground that it would be detrimental to the trade of the empire.

A full representation of the Orakzai tribes met Gen. Lockhart, the British commander, Friday and heard the terms which he insists upon for their submission, namely, the restitution of all the rifles captured since the outbreak, the disarmament by another 500 rifles, the payment of a fine of 3,000 rupees and the formal submission of the tribes to General Lockhart within a fortnight.

The receivers of the Bay State Beneficiary Association of Westfield, Mass., have broken the deadlock which the recent injunction caused and have agreed to a transfer of the members. There were several bids and the business was closely completed. Receivers Hyde and Bliss chose the Mutual Reserve Fund of New York, as its bid was the best, and this was subject to the approval of the commissioner of insurance at Boston.

Many negro citizens of Philadelphia are now endeavoring to have carried into speedy execution a long-cherished wish to have erected there a monument to Prof. Octavius V. Catto, one of their race who was killed in an election day riot in that city twenty-six years ago. He was long an instructor in the institute for Colored Youth, and the plan is to erect a mausoleum, and that the work be done by the pupils of the school as far as possible.
