

LOCALS

LOST, STRAYED OR STOLEN.—A red and white beef cow, with top clipped off right ear and a piece the shape of a V out of the side of the left ear. Anyone knowing the whereabouts of same will please inform Mr. E. HANNAY, Kingston.

DROPPED DEAD.—William Lawton, one of Richibucto's oldest and most respected citizens dropped dead about 8.30 o'clock Monday morning while at work in Mr. R. Phinney's tin shop. Deceased gentleman was a native of Lancashire, Eng., and came to this country about 50 years ago. He worked for a number of years in Kouchibouguac and then came to Richibucto where he has resided ever since. He was a tin-smith by trade, which he learned before he came to this country, and was working at that trade when he died. Deceased has always been in fairly good health, and has been working at times for Mr. Phinney for a number of years. Monday morning he got up at his usual time and ate a hearty breakfast after which he went to work and about an hour and a half afterwards was taken home dead. Heart failure was supposed to have been the cause of death. He leaves surviving a wife and three children, two daughters and one son. The daughters are Mrs. David Thompson, who resides here and Mrs. Alex. McDonald, living in the United States. Edward, the only son, also resides here. Deceased was 79 years of age. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon at two o'clock in the Episcopal burying ground and was largely attended. Rev. H. A. Meek officiated.

HARVEST SUPPER AND ENTERTAINMENT.—The Harvest Supper and Musical Entertainment held by the ladies of the Presbyterian Church of Richibucto and Kingston in the Public Hall, Kingston, last Wednesday evening was largely attended and was a success financially and otherwise. Supper was served from five until 7.30 o'clock, after which the entertainment was given and was pronounced by all as one of the best of its kind that has been held in Kingston for some time. The following programme was successfully carried out:

- Chorus—Choir.
- Duet—"What do the wild waves say"—Misses Dickinson and Lennox.
- Solo—"The Holy City"—Mrs. R. Y. Dimock.
- Recitation—Dr. Doherty.
- Comic Solo—"I guess I'll have to telegraph my baby"—R. G. Girvan.
- Solo—"Because"—Miss Black.
- Reading from Longfellow—Rev. D. Fraser.
- Quartette—"Row Boatman Row"—Misses Black and McMinn, Messrs. Girvan and McMinn.
- Solo—"Dreamland Faces"—Miss Phinney.
- Chorus—Choir.
- Tableau.

The several numbers of the programme were well received. The soloists who were well known to the audience acquitted themselves in their usual creditable manner. The duet and quartette were heartily applauded as also were the choruses. The latter by general consent were acknowledged to have been the best ever heard in the hall, owing partly no doubt to the careful training which the performers have undergone, and also to the fact that the choirs of both churches took part. After the concert the ice-cream and refreshment stands in the lower hall were well patronized. The net proceeds amounted to $1.44.

—Our Buctouche correspondent writes the following: Mr. James M. Kennedy, who has been for some time in the employ of J. D. Irving in the capacity of book keeper, was on the eve of his departure from Buctouche entertained by his friends at an oyster supper, served in suitable style by the genial proprietor of the Bay View Hotel. During the evening he was presented by R. A. Irving, Barrister, on behalf of Mr. J. D. Irving and employees, with an address and beautiful gold headed cane. Mr. Kennedy will be sincerely missed by his numerous friends in Buctouche.

—An accident occurred to the K. N. R. train last Wednesday morning which might have been serious, but as it was, not much damage was done nor anyone hurt. The train consisting of an engine, a box car loaded with freight, and a van left here for St. Louis, and on her way there came in contact with a broken rail, which threw the box car, which was in front of the engine, into the ditch, and derailed the engine. The cowcatcher of the engine was driven into the ground about a foot, and the headlight was broken off which badly disfigured the engine. It is very seldom that an accident happens on the K. N. R. This is the first for some time.
