

With Years WISDOM.

The answer to that old query, "What's in a name?" was not hard to define in the case of one justly celebrated Family Remedy that had its origin away down in Maine, which proves that with age comes wisdom about

JOHNSON'S ANODYNE LINIMENT

An old lady called at a store and asked for a bottle of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment; the clerk said "they were out, but could supply her with another just as good." The engaging smile that accompanied this information was frozen stiff when she replied: Young Man, there is only one Liniment, and that is Johnson's.

Originated in 1840 by an old Family Physician. There is not a remedy in use which has the confidence of the public to a greater extent. Could a remedy have existed for nearly a century, except that it possess extraordinary merit?

THE CORK WENT OFF.

DEAR SIR.—I never thought that in "the Devil and his Ratepayer," I had written a cork-screw. Nevertheless, I see that Ratepayer is not only making licenses "void" but that he must also feel "void" after having thrown at me that pile of insulting trash. Poor Ratepayer! you think you can make the people believe that we are afraid of your questions. You complain that we leave them unanswered! Didn't you notice that Mr. Atkinson denied clearly and openly, two of your assertions; and didn't you overlook them in your reply to drag him to a new, long list of false questions in "the Devil and his Ratepayer." Did I not reply to one of those in particular which contained three distinct, dishonest falsehoods? (Call it questions or whatever you like; a sure thing is that it is not true.) And what was the result? As predicted, the cork went off, and down came that thundering and suffocating shower of new slanders and personal attacks. Yes, you came back—not only to deceive, but to prove your false and slanderous assertions by new falsehoods; to put your untruths on other shoulders, to blacken the soul of another man with your own sins, giving a new meaning to your writing in order to deny your own assertion which was not true, and call liars those who took it for what it was.

Is it possible that Ratepayer makes his writings obscure on purpose to be able to call liar any one who gives them any meaning? Take for instance No. 2 of his last Satan. At first he denies that Mr. James Thompson applied for a license. Then he seems to doubt, "that he applied some time ago," and at last, "if that be not correct, then I am not to blame, and let it go for what it is worth." What does all that mean?

Nevertheless, with these, he gave the most emphatic and insulting denial. Now Ratepayer, it is needless to try to gain your point by making me overlook it and jump with you at new questions. Come back to your why's and who's of old, viz: "Why, the only man who was refused a license and sold without one was James Thompson, a protestant, etc.," with 'half an eye' or "no eye at all" and see who is a liar.

Now you must have meant something. It must be that Mr. James Thompson was refused a license, either by us present commissioners, or by somebody else. If by us, you can't deny the first meaning of your words. If by somebody else, why do you run into ridicule to accuse of bigotry those who had nothing to do with the matter? That way, with your license law, you could accuse us of all the crime in the world.

"Mr. Babineau, to speak even with mildness, either well knows or is too ignorant to discern that he is both misrepresenting and lying, etc." Let it go for what it is worth. As to Mr. Pascal Hebert, be it understood that I am ready to prove that we, the present commissioners, never granted a license to Mr. P. Hebert, that

BRAIN FAG

Is the result of Overwork and an Exhausted Nervous System. Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food creates New Brain and Nerve Tissue.

Business and professional men, accountants, stenographers, teachers, students and all brain workers know only too well what it means to have the brain so tired out that concentration of thought is almost impossible.

One-fifth of all the blood in the human body is found in the brain, and unless the blood is pure and rich the brain becomes exhausted for want of proper nourishment.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Blood Food creates new brain and nerve tissue, and produces rich red blood, "the vital fluid" of the body.

All brain workers quickly recognize the merits of this great food cure, and after a few doses enter on their work with new energy and ambition.

Brain fag is unknown to persons whose brain and nerve have been invigorated by the use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food, which is for sale by all dealers at 50c. a box.

we refused him one. Is that plain enough? What is the use for Ratepayer to make an assertion which he knows is utterly false, and which we all know can be proved at any time; for if Ratepayer hides under a mask, the commissioners can always be found and are responsible for what they say and do. Mr. P. Hebert and others can also be taken as witnesses.

Leaving aside all the false assertions and misrepresentations of which his letters are full, see readers of THE REVIEW, what we have found in his last up-to-date Satan, which is certainly worse than the blackest devil he has ever made before. "There was not a single falsehood or misrepresentation in my letter," he says, "I will appear and take oath to the truth of every word I say."

Oh, Ratepayer! you will swear to all that! It is just what we fear, that you crown that monument of shame by that horrible oath; for everybody knows that if you dare make out those slanderous falsehoods to ruin public officers, you would swear to them. (Let it go for what it is worth.) Oh, indeed, the people take your writing and oath for what they are worth, you are the only one mistaken about them.

If instead of trying to justify your attacks, and clinging to a straw to save yourself from getting drowned in that Ocean of dishonesty you have dug under your feet, you only look at yourself with your half eye, you would at least save falling into ridicule. Listen! "Did you not rather grant him (P. Hebert) one (a license) which by protest of Ratepayer and others was rendered null and void." "Null" and "void", what a farce! Ratepayer is not only making license law but giving or refusing licenses. What would be the use of commissioners if Dick and Harry could refuse or grant licenses against their will. Ratepayer must take his readers for fools since he tries to make them believe that everybody can undo what public officers have done. If it is so easy for you to make everything "void", why don't you make Mrs. LeBlanc's license "void" also. Why don't you give one to Mr. Thompson? Why don't you make "void" heavens, earth and everything else?

Remember that it has been said that a good cause is sometimes more injured by a pious fool than by its most bitter enemy! Take away pious and see if you don't hurt the beautiful cause, of Temperance.

I can't "carry two faces," but you do that to perfection. You have a mask, (Ratepayer), to cover horns and hoofs, to insult, slander and vilify more freely. A natural one, I presume, to smile to your few friends. Do you want to fool the public in calling "a meeting" Who are you? We can't even get your name. You may be the blackest negro in creation, ready to say again, "Let it go for what it is worth."

Now, come as a man, give your name, put down that mask, show your face. I can't, will you say, the face is worse than the mask! Yes! but why don't you stop and let honest, or at least people of common sense, correct us.

You seem to be astonished because I sympathize with Mr. Atkinson. Indeed I do, and ask the sympathy of every one who sees our awful position. We don't fear a man, but we are afraid of you.

For some time Mr. Atkinson seemed to be insensible to all that. I think it is the best way; I will follow that example and leave Ratepayer as he is, since he has no name, no heart, and his soul permits him to swear to falsehoods. "Don't make an apology for your language," says he. He doesn't understand that people in general have respect for their names and character. He does not even dream that he is the only man on earth in whose chest the only heart to be found is a great, big, black, empty hole. Yes, let the people know that I am in distress, and I really apologize for my language and hope never to be forced again to that more than humble task of replying to Ratepayer.

Yours in distress,
URBAIN BABINEAU.

St. Louis, Aug. 28, '99.
P. S. Never mind aiming any longer at what you call "questions." Those and the slanderous attack already made are sufficient—if they were true—to send to hell all the commissioners in the world. Before I answer to new attacks I want to finish with that one about our bigotry and therefore you lose your time in inventing new ones.

BAD FORM, BUT GOOD SENSE.
(Brockton Enterprise.)

A recent wedding invitation sent out in Maine was accompanied by the following note: "If you can conveniently arrange it, we should prefer to have your present in the form of cash."

That couple had the courage of their convictions, and frankly said what a good many people think, but do not consider it good form to express.

WOMAN'S TROUBLES

Are usually the result of an exhausted nervous system which can be fully restored by the use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food. Women made nervous and irritable by the wasting diseases which drain their system find new life, new vigor, new energy, in Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food, the world's greatest blood and nerve builder.

Scrofula.

Another permanent cure by B.B.B. after two doctors failed.

Ask any doctor and he will tell you that, next to cancer, scrofula is one of the hardest diseases to cure.

Yet Burdock Blood Bitters applied externally to the parts affected and taken internally cured Rev. Wm. Stout, of Kirkton, Ont., permanently, after many prominent physicians failed; Cured Mrs. W. Bennet, of Crewson's Corners, Ont., permanently, when everyone thought she would die. Now Mr. H. H. Forest, Windsor Mills, P. Q., states his case as follows:

"After having used Burdock Blood Bitters for scrofula in the blood, I feel it my duty to make known the results. I was treated by two skilled physicians, but they failed to cure me. I had running sores on my hands and legs which I could get nothing to heal until I tried B.B.B. This remedy healed them completely and permanently, leaving the skin and flesh sound and whole."

FELL FIFTY FEET.

PARRSBORO, N. S., August 26.—While the large iron steamer Miacnac, from Liverpool, Eng., was coming up the bay and nearing West Bay, where she was to load deal for M. L. Tucker, a Belgian sailor by the name of George Rowland, who was aloft fixing the derricks with which they load deal, fell on the iron deck below, a distance of forty or fifty feet, breaking both his legs, one in three places, the other in two. He also received a bad scalp wound, and his body was terribly mutilated. It is probable that he will lose one of his legs, even if he recovers at all.

We guarantee that these Plasters will relieve pain quicker than any other. Put up only in 25c. tin boxes and $1.00 yard rolls. The latter allows you to cut the Plaster any size.

Every family should have one ready for an emergency.

RATEPAYER'S FAREWELL WORD TO "REVIEW" RE LICENSE COMMISSIONERS.

Dear Editor:

Thank you for myself and for a large number of your readers for the space you have given me.

The Ratepayers generally say they did not think it necessary to undertake my cause as it was very satisfactory to them and they were too disgusted with the writings of the Commissioners to notice them.

Now since Mr. Babineau claims a special right to a place in your columns this week for the "last time", and since he has not dealt in any letter with the subject matter of mine and the more he writes the further he steers from the real matters at issue, refusing to answer one single question and since the end of my writing namely the exposure of the frauds of our Commissioners, has been answered I am well satisfied. And since these gentlemen will be henceforth known and well-looked after, the community and county will be the better. I am infinitely less concerned what they and their coadjutor the "esteemed" member of the "Supreme Court" think of me than they should be to know what we think of them.

THE IMPROVED OLDS HORSE POWER AND SEPARATOR.

manufactured by J. B. Dore & Son, of Laprairie, P. Q., is recognized as the leading Threshing Machine of Canada. The power is longer and wider than any other in the market, thus giving the horses plenty of room to walk. The links are a combination of wrought and cast iron and are practically unbreakable. The rollers are six inches in diameter and positively will not slide on the track as small ones are sure to do. Anyone who has ever used a power with three inch rollers will appreciate this.

The Separator which gave excellent satisfaction in 1898 has been still further improved for the season of 1899 and is strictly first-class in every respect.

These machines were first introduced in this province in 1897 when I brought a carload here. In 1898 the demand was so far beyond my expectations that I was only able to supply about half of my customers. I have just received a carload of them and have arranged for more to follow. Price as low as is consistent with quality of goods.

Terms of payment easy.
