TRUSTEE AND TRANSFER AGENT:
STUART S. ARNOLDI, Esq., North British and Mercantile Co., Toronto.

This Syndicate has been formed for the purpose of manufacturing knitted goods cheaper than any existing company, to keep down prices, and to oppose the large knitting combines and companies which have joined hands to raise prices. To do this successfully it will be necessary to get yarn at the first cost and to manufacture the goods with the least possible expense. Therefore—

1. The Syndicate will manufacture its own yarn and machines for which it has a mill and every facility.
2. The Syndicate will have all goods made by its shareholders knitting at their own homes.
3. The Syndicate will pay for all properly made goods at once upon receipt of same, and besides paying for the work when sent in will semi-annually divide with its working shareholders the net profits from the sale of all goods made by its shareholders.
4. The Syndicate will sell all goods made by its working shareholders.

To become a shareholder, a worker, the owner of one of the machines, to be paid for the work you do, and also to participate in the equal division of the net profits, you have only to become a member of the Syndicate and take twenty $1.00 shares which will cost you twenty dollars.

The following extract from the Toronto Mail and Empire shows the efforts of some combines now in operation in Canada.

THE BUSINESS OF THE SYNDICATE
The following extract from the Toronto Mail and Empire shows the efforts of some combines now in operation in Canada. Special to the Mail and Empire. HAMILTON, December 8th. Knitting Factory Trust. John Moodie, of the Eagle Knitting Company, has given an option to a Toronto company, which is acting for a syndicate interested in buying up all the knitting factories in Canada. In an interview, Mr. Moodie said the trust was backed by English and American capitalists to the extent of four or five million dollars. Options have been obtained on a number of factories already. He said that if the proposed deal went through the Hamilton factory would be enlarged. It is expected that the trust will take in all the big factories, giving the proprietors a share of preference stock in the amalgamated business. There are between thirty and forty knitting businesses in Canada at the present time.

THE FACTORY OR MILL. Shown in this cut is for the manufacture of machines and the yarn only, all knitted goods being made by our shareholders at their own homes, no knitting factories being done on the premises. It will be seen that to manufacture goods on so large a scale it would be necessary to have a number of knitting factories, which would mean the investment of thousands of dollars, besides taxes, insurance and interest on same. We can, therefore, not only manufacture goods cheaper and in larger quantities, but down the Combination and pay our shareholders a handsome dividend semi-annually.

THE MACHINE the Syndicate furnishes a high speed family seamless knitting machine, and will last a lifetime with ordinary usage, in fact the Syndicate will guarantee the machine for twenty years. It will knit from the finest of imported yarns to the coarsest of Canadian wool yarn the same as hand work, but eighty times faster. With each machine a full outfit is sent together with a supply of yarn to commence at once. The guide accompanying machine is so plain and the operation so simple that any one of ordinary intelligence can make any of the knitted goods required by the Syndicate such as Gents' Socks, Ladies' Stockings, Golf and Bicycle Hose, Knickers, Leggings and Toggles for Children.

THE PRICES the Syndicate pays for knitting these goods are—Socks, $5.00 per 100 pairs; Ladies' Stockings, $10.00 per 100 pairs; Gents' Golf and Bicycle Hose complete, $10.00 per 100 pairs; Leggings and Footless Bicycle Hose, $5.00 per 100 pairs; fine Toggles, $5.00 per 100. All these goods are quickly made on the machine and at these prices any person willing to work can make good pay, much more than clerking in store, working in shop or laboring on farm. Shareholders can devote all or part of their time knitting, but at all times they are expected to work for the interests of the Syndicate.

WHO CAN JOIN. All persons willing to accept and honestly knit the yarn entrusted to them, and to return made goods promptly to the Syndicate.
WHAT YOU MUST DO TO JOIN. Each person desiring to become a shareholder of stock, participating in the semi-annual dividends, and to do knitting for the Syndicate, receiving pay as fast as work is sent in, must cut out the following APPLICATION FORM, sign their name to it, fill in address and reference, and enclose it with Express or Post Office Money Order for $20.00 to the Syndicate's Secretary, Stuart S. Arnoldi, 26 Wellington Street, Toronto, Ontario, to whom all money orders are to be made payable.

APPLICATION FORM FOR STOCK AND MACHINE.

STUART S. ARNOLDI, Trustee and Transfer Agent, 26 Wellington Street, TORONTO, ONT.

DEAR SIR: I enclose you herewith $20.00 in FULL PAYMENT for twenty shares of stock (subject to no other calls), in The People's Knitting Syndicate, Limited, which I wish allotted to me, and in FULL PAYMENT of my share of the preliminary expenses of the Syndicate, and one of your machines, with samples, instructions and yarn, which I wish sent me as soon as possible to enable me to begin work for the Syndicate at once upon receipt of same. The said stock to entitle me to participate in the semi-annual dividends of the Syndicate in addition to being paid cash on delivery for all the Knitting I do for the Syndicate.

ACCIDENT ON THE I. C. R.

NEW GLASGOW, N. S., Dec. 18.—A misplaced switch was the cause of an accident on the I. C. R. at Trenton, Saturday evening, which resulted in some damage to rolling stock. When the accommodation train was coming into Trenton about 17 o'clock Saturday evening, the engine and one car left the track, caused by a misplaced switch. The engine toppled over on its side in the ditch and a second-class car was badly damaged. No person, however, was injured. It is not known who turned the switch.

BULLER'S DEFEAT COMPLETE BUT NOT FINAL.

LONDON, Dec. 18.—The morning Post to day prints the following from its military expert. "Buller's battle cannot be followed except in a vague general way. His despatch does not pretend to give more than a statement of results. Buller's purpose at present is to relieve Ladysmith and join hands with General White. To do that he must cross the Tugela. His failure on Friday was complete but not final. An advance will probably be delayed until fresh arrivals of artillery."

After sustaining the struggle for seven months the Trades and Labour Council of London, Ont., has declared of the strike against the Street Railway Company.

PROBABLY A "STORY."

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—Paris despatches tell of the arrival there of Mr. DeLong, manager of the dynamite factory at Modderfontein, Transvaal, who says the British government has no idea of the vast extent of the preparations the Boers made for the war that they knew would come. He characterizes the forts at Pretoria and Johannesburg and Edelfer as being as strong as any in the world, and says that the Boers have plenty of artillery. He says also that there are in the Boer army 60,000 well trained German volunteers, who so far have been held in reserve.

PLEGDED VOTERS—TRUE TO A GREAT PRINCIPLE.

THE TWENTIETH CENTURY CAMPAIGN TO DEAL A DEATH BLOW TO THE RUINOUS LIQUOR TRAFFIC.

The need of the Temperance Cause now is an enrolled army of pledged voters, who will stand firmly by principle in the coming elections for the Provinces and the Dominion. We want a contingent of this pledged army in every province, ready to be mobilized on the shortest notice at the ballot-box. The Dominion Alliance has opened a plan of campaign for this purpose, proposing to secure a pledged league of 160,000 voters, who promise that at the next general election for the Dominion Parliament, they will vote only for such candidates as will agree to do all in their power, if elected, to obtain the immediate enactment of such legislation as will secure the total prohibition of the liquor traffic in at least those Provinces and Territories that gave majorities for prohibition in the plebiscite. These contingents of pledged voters should compel the respect of every statesman and every aspiring politician, and be a mighty political force, continually telling for righteousness and progress in public affairs.

WHAT IT MEANS.

Temperance in action, not mere sentimentality, but death to the drink traffic—it means that.

An army of actual voters, not merely for parade of drill, but for the supreme test of a soldier, for a fight—it means that.

Clean, wholesome political organization, the enrolling of thousands of young electors, whose first vote will be for principle, not party—it means that.

A union of loyal and determined workers that will do what they desire to have done—it means that.

Under the sanction and protection of law the liquor traffic now wages its relentless warfare against all that is pure and good, filling thousands of hearts and homes with unutterable sorrow and shame. It debauches young manhood, crushes sorrowing womanhood, and pitilessly robs childhood of all innocence, joy and hope. Everywhere it spreads its seductive snares, luring our bright and promising boys to vice, and hurrying them on to degradation and destruction. It fosters all physical, moral and political uncleanness and crime. It is the potent ally of all that drags men down to wickedness, woe, and despair, and the worst hindrance in the way of every effort to help humanity upwards to goodness, happiness and success.

We thank God that the Christian sentiment of Canada was strong enough to record a substantial majority of our voting electorate in favour of putting this foul evil under the ban of law.

MAKING NOBLE SACRIFICES.

Some are called upon to make large sacrifices for the good of others and for some principle of righteousness. When this is the case the Judge of all the earth sets his approval upon the heroic act and makes it contribute largely to the public good. There are as genuine instances of true devotion to principle in our age as during any of the ages of the past, and many are still prepared to do right whatever it may cost. In some cases it is a very heroic thing to wear a ribbon of blue.

A young man in a London omnibus noticed the blue ribbon total abstinence badge on a fellow passenger's coat, and asked him in a bantering tone, how much he got for wearing it. The young man, who was not ashamed to be seen with a sign of total abstinence upon him, replied, "That I can't exactly say, but it costs me about twenty thousands pounds a year." The wearer of the badge was Frederick Charrington, son of a rich brewer, and the one whom his rich father had intended to make his successor in the business. Frederick had become fully convinced of the evil of the ale and beer trade, and had positively refused to continue in it, though it would have brought him an income of twenty thousand pounds a year. He had learned to prefer a life of Christian philanthropy to a career of money making. His activity in a noble cause soon made him well and favorably known as a most successful Temperance worker and evangelist. His work was organized in the tent meetings on Mile-End-road, and has grown steadily for a number of years and now fills one of the largest mission halls in the world. This is a striking instance of a young man making a noble sacrifice for a good cause. It is not an isolated case. There are some around us in our own province who have given up a remunerative business and sacrificed what might have been to them a source of wealth that they might put themselves in a line with Temperance and philanthropic movements, and they have thereby become examples to others and a great blessing to their fellow men. A man may sacrifice the source of his worldly wealth and in so doing become richer in good works, and his life be an inestimable blessing to all about him.

Agony of Eczema.

Couldn't sleep at night with the torture.

Eczema, or Salt Rheum as it is often called, is one of the most agonizing of skin diseases, nothing but torture during the day and two-fold torture at night.

But there's a remedy permanently cures the worst kind of Eczema—relieves the itching, burning and smarting and soon leaves the skin smooth and healthy.

It is Burdock Blood Bitters.

Mrs. Welch, Greenbank, Ont., tried it and here is what she says:

"B.B.B. cured me of Eczema three years ago and I have had no return of it since. I was so bad that I could not sleep at night with it."

"Being told of B.B.B. I tried it, and two bottles made a perfect and permanent cure."

THE DELINEATOR.

The January number of The Delineator which is called the Century Number, begins the fifty-fifth volume, and it exhibits a marked advancement in many details. There is, as usual, a complete representation of the Season's Fashionable Modes, a varied selection of brilliant Literary Features, and a generous amount of general Household matter. Conspicuous among the literary articles is An Affair of Violet by Harriet Riddle Davis, a delightful story of happy results following the tragic ending of a young woman's efforts in a business venture. In this number also is presented the first of a series of practical papers on Children and Their Ills, by Dr. Grace Peckham Murray. Cornelia Atwood Pratt contributes the first of three papers on The Young Girl, dealing with the last of her school days and the first years at home. Particularly appropriate just now is the article, seen in shops, suggesting desirable articles for gifts. The Cradles of the World, by Laura E. Starr, is an admirably illustrated article descriptive of babyhood among many peoples. College News, by Carolyn Halsted, reviews the many features that mark the new year at the educational centres. Note and comment on important events in the club movement make Club Women and Club Life, by Helen M. Winslow, an inviting chapter. The Tableau for the children, entitled Mistress Mary's Garden, and the two entertainments will prove thoroughly enjoyable. A pertinent article at this time is the household topic New Year's Resolutions, as considered by N. E. May; other Domestic subjects of worth are: Mending, by Mary Foster Snider, and an attractive group of receipts by Nanbie Moore. An article on Ecclesiastical Embroidery is contributed by Emma Haywood, Social Observances, conducted by Mrs. Frank Learned, is a valuable feature of the magazine, and in addition are the various Departments: Croquet, Lace-Making, Tatting, Knitting, the Dressmaker, the Milliner, The Holiday Books, etc., etc.

Subscription price of The Delineator $1.00 a year, Single Copies, 15 cents.

Masons of high degree from all over Canada and the United States met at the tomb of Washington in Mount Vernon on Thursday in services commemorating the 100th anniversary of the death of the first American President. President McKinley delivered an oration, and many public men participated in the services.

The Beginning of . . . Heart Failure

Thin, watery blood, and weak, exhausted nerves the real cause—Dr. Chase's Nerve Food the preventative.

Persons subject to thin blood and nervous exhaustion may well tremble at the mention of heart failure, as they have in their system the beginnings which lead to weakness of the heart. The vitality of the heart is amazing considering the immense amount of work it does, and so long as it is supplied with plenty of rich, red blood it plods on untiringly, rebuilding its waste as the blood passes through.

Once the blood gets thin and the nerves starved and exhausted the waste gradually becomes more rapid than the restoring process and finally some nervous shock or over-exertion causes the beating to cease and life departs.

Headaches, pains in the back and limbs, sleeplessness, weakness and irregularities of the feminine organs, palpitation of the heart and nervous disorders are sure indications of thin, weak blood.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food forms new red corpuscles in the blood, puts vital energy into the nerves, and stops the wasting process that would ultimately end in heart failure, nervous prostration or paralysis.

It is the world's greatest restorative for men, women and children. In pill form, 50c a box, at all dealers or EDMANSON, BATES & CO., Toronto. Book free.
