SUTTON—PRUE.—At St. Mary's church this afternoon at 2 o'clock Miss Alice B., daughter of Mr and Mrs. J. M. Sutton, was married to George H. Prue by Rev Timothy Brosnahan, in the presence of a large number. The bridesmaid, Miss Jennie Doherty was attired in a dress of blue silk, trimmed with lace and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. Charles J., brother of the bride, was groomsmen. The bride was gowned in pearl silk with lace and ribbon trimmings, and carried a bouquet of pinks. A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on River street from 2 till 4 and the guests present from Boston, Lowell and Newton were received by Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Sutton and bridesmaid. A wedding lunch was served by Caterer Kelly. After a trip through New Hampshire Mr. and Mrs. Prue will reside in their newly furnished home on Hammer street. The gifts were very numerous.—Waltham Evening News. [The bride is a niece of Miss Kate Sutton, of Richibucto.]

CHATHAM LAWYERS LOOKING FOR LODGINGS.—Messrs. Winslow and Lawlor drove through to Buctouche the other day, to attend a hearing of the everlasting Elizabeth Walls case before H. H. James, Referee in Equity, one of the heirs having idiotically authorized an attorney in search of spoils to begin proceedings in Equity that will last till the remainder of the estate is eaten up. The two lawyers reached Richibucto about midnight, and drove to the Kent Hotel, which Mrs Wheten made famous 11 days of old, and which they supposed to be still the best in that town. Darkness reigned. They knocked, and there was no response. They knocked, one at a time and both together, and finally a nightcapped head appeared at a window. "We want rooms for the night," explained the travellers, "and send out a man to take care of a pair of horses, please." The old lady in the nightcap replied, shortly and emphatically, that she didn't propose to give them rooms or care for their horses, and closed the window and the interview without waiting for a reply. The lawyers, in humbled mood, meekly asked for lodgings elsewhere, and finally secured comfortable quarters. As the Kent Hotel has been duly licensed as such under the Liquor License Act, the lawyers think it should receive and entertain travellers.—World.

SUSSEX EXHIBITION.—The four days exhibition to be held at Sussex this year on Oct. 3rd, 4th, 5th, and 6th, will be open to the Province. Encouraged by the success of last year, the management are erecting another building 40 by 100 ft. in addition to the large one put up last year, which will permit a still better display of the products of the farm, and will leave more space in the main building for industrial exhibits. The formal opening will take place at 3 p. m. on Tuesday, Oct. 3rd. Hon. Andrew G. Blair having consented to be present and deliver the opening address. Wed., Oct. 4th, will be race day, when the splendid new half mile race track (three minutes walk from station) will be opened and purses aggregating $600 will be put up. There will be a 2.40, a 2.25 and a 2.37 as, which will bring out most of the best horses in the Maritime Provinces. On Thursday the cattle, sheep and swine will be shown, and on Friday, the horses. Special novel attractions are being arranged for. A demonstration of Prof. Robertson's chicken fattening system will be given in the poultry building and will be an interesting feature of the show, as will also be an unequalled agricultural display, for which the success fair is noted. Return fare from Kent Junction, good going Oct. 3rd good for return until the a. m. trains of the 5th will be $1.85. Any day from 3rd to 6th good for return until 7th, $2.75.
