HOW TO BOIL CLOTHES.

The purpose of boiling clothes is to expand the fabrics by steam and thus to loosen the dirt and allow it to drop out.
There is no good, but actual harm, derived from "cooking" the clothes. They do not require "cooking," but cleansing and when they are cleansed that is sufficient. Hence, within half an hour after the water first begins to bubble they should be immediately removed and plunged into clear, cold water. While the clothes are boiling they may be turned with a clothes stick, but must not be punched or lifted in such a manner as to tear them.

The common custom in many households of putting the second boilerful of clothes into the boiling dirtied water from which the first boilerful has been taken is wholly opposed to good laundry work. When the cook wishes to keep the juice in the meat that is to be cooked by boiling, she plunges it into boiling water. When she wishes to extract the juice and have them in the water for soup, etc., she puts the meat on in cold water. If you wish to get the dirt out of the clothes instead of driving it into the fiber, put the clothes on in cold water, and do not allow them to remain in the boiling water soiled by them till they are died yellow.

THE SOOTHING, HEALING ANO- DYNE.

Cook's Anodyne Liniment, is the original Anodyne. It is composed of the most rare and costly drugs. Cook's Anodyne gives instant relief. It is for internal as well as external use. No family should be without a bottle in the house. Price 25 cents, large bottles. Sold by all dealers or to be had by mail by sending to Cook Chemical Co., Fredericton.

Prevention of Disease.

Mr Miles Menander Dawson, a consulting actuary and author of standard works on life insurance, says in an interview "From one-fifth to one-half of the deaths that occur in youth and middle age could be prevented by a decent regard for sanitary conditions and by common action of society for the benefit of all. It is not enough that a man should take care of himself. Disease is communicable, and protecting man against it is a social function."

"Fully one-fifth of the total number of deaths are caused by zymotic diseases which are as purely accidental as falling and breaking a leg. And one-fourth of the deaths in addition are from digestive and respiratory diseases, almost all of which are preventable.
About 17 per cent of the deaths among insured lives is from consumption and 5 per cent from nervous diseases, all of which are now believed to be preventable."

"This means that fully one-half of the deaths among young and middle aged persons could be prevented and the proportion could no doubt be greatly increased if parents paid a proper respect to the laws of heredity. It would certainly be a most important achievement for the human race if united action could be taken to secure that a larger proportion of persons would attain old age than at present."—Ainslee's Magazine.

He Did Not Have It.

William Lightfoot Vischer in The Woman's Home Companion tells this characteristic story of the Hon Isaac Parker, famous as the terrible judge at Fort Smith, Ark., who probably sentenced more men to be executed than any other judge that ever lived. This was not, however, because he was so unrelentingly severe, but because he had the hardest and most numerous lot of criminals to deal with that ever came within the jurisdiction of such an official. One day when there was an unusually large batch of culprits to be sentenced the judge looked compassionately over his spectacles at one young scamp and said:

"In consideration of the youth and inexperience of this prisoner I shall let him off with a fine of $50."

Before the judge had done speaking the very fresh young man coolly stretched his right leg and ran his hand into his trousers' pocket on the side, remarking nonchalantly as he did so:

"That's all hunky, judge. I've got that much right here in my jeans."

"And one year in the penitentiary," continued the judge. Then, looking over at the convict in a quizzical sort of way, he added, "Do you happen to have that in your jeans?"

Queer Thing, Chance.

"I was at Monte Carlo last year," said a New York turfman, "and was amused watching the gamblers in the casino playing systems. If red would win, say, four times hand running everybody would double up on black.
The more times one color showed in succession the bigger were the bets on the other, which was mathematically an error, although you couldn't convince a gambler of it. Once while I was there red won 12 times, and over 40, 000 francs were staked on black. One lone player had the nerve to put 50 francs on red. It won, and he let the bet lay, and it won again. Then everybody got a sudden idea it would win once more, and it was played to the limit. That time black showed."

"Did you ever hear about runs of color?" asked somebody.
"I did over there," replied the man who had been to Monte Carlo. "It is generally believed that when one color wins the odds are in favor of it winning twice more. There's no sense in it, but the records of the game do a good deal to confirm the superstition.
Queer thing, chance."

Couldn't Chill His Wit.

Mme Modjeska and her company were playing one winter in the extreme north, much to the discomfort of Count Bozenta, the Polish star's husband, who hates the chilly northern climate.
But at that time the show business was at a very low ebb in the south. One particularly cold day Mme Modjeska found the count shivering from head to foot in spite of the steam heat in the hotel.

"Oh, my dear, my dear!" he implored. "Let us go south for the rest of the season. This climate will kill us."
"But, my dear," replied madame.
"The south is dead."
"Yes, said the count, "but she is such a beautiful corpse."

Time to Wake.

Judge Wheaton A Gray was hearing a criminal case in Fresno, and on a warm day, at the end of a long harangue by the prosecuting counsel, he noticed one of the jurymen asleep. As soon as the argument was completed, the judge addressed the jury in this peculiar manner: "Gentlemen of the jury, the prosecuting attorney has completed his argument. Wake up and listen to the instructions of the court."
—Argonaut.

A New One or None.

Mrs Proudfoot—Yes, Mrs. Malaprop that's an heirloom. It's been in Mr Proudfoot's family over 100 years.
Mrs Malaprop—Do tell! I've been puzzling at John Henry to get an heirloom ever since we moved to the city but he can't find any, except second-hand ones and I won't have them.— Jewelers Weekly.

The Chinese government does all in its power to check the opium habit, the punishments common in the Chinese army for this habit being extreme. For the first offense a man may have his upper lip cut; for the second he may be decapitated.

In regard to longevity the clergy stand at the head of the professions and physicians near the bottom, below coal merchants, milkmen and grocers.

Mrs. James Constable, Seaforth, Ont., writes:—"Ever since I can remember I have suffered from weak action of the heart. For some time past it grew constantly worse. I frequently had sharp pains under my heart that I was fearful if I drew a long breath it would cause death. In going up-stairs I had to stop to rest and regain breath. When my children made a noise while playing I would be so overcome with nervousness and weakness that I could not do anything and had to sit down to regain composure. My limbs were unnaturally cold and I was subject to nervous headaches and dizziness. My memory became uncertain and sleep deserted me.
"I have been taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and as a result am very much better. I have improved in health and strength rapidly. The blessing of sleep is restored to me. My heart is much stronger, and the oppressive sensation has vanished. I can now go up-stairs without stopping and with the greatest of ease, and I no longer suffer from dizziness or headache. It seems to me the circulation of my blood has become normal, thereby removing the coldness from my limbs. I can truly say that Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have done me a world of good."

TOASTS BY FAMOUS MEN.

Here's a sigh to those who love me,
And a smile to those who hate me,
And whatever sky's above me, Here's a heart for every fate.

Were't the last drop in the well, As I gasped upon the brink, Ere my fainting spirit fell,
'Tis to thee that I would drink.

—LORD BYRON.

Here's to the maiden of bashful fifteen; Here's to the widow of fifty;
Here's to the flaunting, extravagant queen,
And here's to the housewife that's thrifty!
Let the torst pass;
Drink to the lass;
I'll warrant she'll prove an excuse for the glass.

—SHERIDAN.

I fill this cup to one made up Of loveliness alone,
A woman, of her gentler sex
The seeming paragon.
Her health! and would on earth there stood
Some more of such a frame, That life might be all poetry,
And weariness a name.

—EDWARD COATE PICKNEY

Our Country, may she always be in the right—but our Country, right or wrong.

—STEPHEN DECATUR.

Laugh at all things,
Great and small things, Sick or well, at sea or shore;
While we're quaffing, Let's have laughing,
Who the devil cares for more?

—BYRON.

'Ere's to the 'ealth of your Royal 'Igh-ness; hand may the skin of ha gooseberry be big enough for han humbrella to cover up all your enemies.

Caddie's Toast in "Erminie."

Sparkling and bright in the liquid light Does the wine our goblets gleam in;
With hue as red as the rosy bed Which a bee would choose to dream in.
Then fill to-night, with hearts as light, To loves as gay and fleeting As bubbles that swim on the beaker's brim, And break on the lips while meeting.

—CHAS. FENO HOFFMAN.

Drink to me only with thine eyes,
And I will pledge with mine;
Or leave a kiss but in the cup And I'll not look for wine.
The thirst that from the soul doth rise Doth ask a drink divine; But might I cf Jove's nectar sup, I would not change from thine.

—Ben Johnson.

Here's a woman, whose heart and soul Are the light and the life of each spell we pursue;
Whether sunn'd at the tropics or chilled at the pole,
If women be there, there is happiness too.

Thus circling the cup, hand in hand, ere we drink, Let sympathy pledge us, through pleasure, through pain,
That, fast as a feeling, but touches one link, Her magic shall send it direct through the chain.

—Ben Johnson.
