BUCTOUCHE NOTES.

Oct. 3rd.—The land is rapidly assuming its autumn garb. Already the grass is withering, and red leaves show on the branches of the maples. The frosty nights and damp, dreary days surely herald the rapid approach of winter.

The potatoe crop, which is now being taken in, shows a yield of somewhat more than the average. All grain crops, with the exception of buckwheat, are much above the ordinary. The fruit crop in this section is very light.

Miss Maud Snarr and Mr. Fred Snarr, lately of Boston, who were called home by the death of their father, Mr. Wm. Snarr, of Shediac, spent a few days with friends here.

Mr. Arthur Smith received a letter from his father, Mr. Bowen Smith, who is in Stewart River settlement, Alaska. He and his two sons are well and are prospering financially. They say that winter is almost on in Alaska. They believe that Harris and Murray, of Moncton, are coming home this fall. Fred Doherty, of Kingston, is coming back, having had very poor health while there.

Mr. Jas. Irving has just received a cargo of salt—between four and five thousand bags.

The oyster raking is being carried on with great zeal.

Smelt fishing with hook and line is now in order.

You will all please go to see the baby. It is a boy. Next.

The I. O. G. T. lately organized in this place by the Rev. W. Robinson, is growing to immense proportions, and bids fair to be the banner lodge of the Province. It has in its membership the Rev. B. Barry Smith, Grand Chief Templar, and many women and men of marked talent and great ability; and, best of all, no politician of whatever party has a pull with them if he is not one of them, and an advocate of National Prohibition.
