

CHEAP SALE.—I will sell goods on Friday and Saturday of each week at cost. J. C. VAUTOUR, Richibucto.

ENTERTAINMENT.—The pupils of St. Louis Convent will give a musical and literary entertainment on Tuesday the 20th inst. The performance begins at 7 p. m. The Convent School closes a week earlier than usual this year, as an addition is to be built to the house during vacation for the comfort of the large number of boarders in attendance.

GARDEN PARTY.—On Wednesday evening, July 5th, the Roman Catholics of Richibucto will hold a Garden Party on the beautiful grounds adjoining the Presbytery. Supper and refreshments will be served on the grounds. A splendid programme of music may be expected. The Committee will also do all in its power to supply amusements of every description. Proceeds to be devoted to the liquidation of the debt on St. Aloysius Church. All are cordially invited.

THREE YEARS IN DORCHESTER PENITENTIARY.—Joseph Maurice, the sailor who broke into the barber shop of W. D. Clarke, Harcourt, on the 22nd of May last, was arranged before Judge Wells of the County Court Monday. He pleaded guilty of the charge. Another charge was preferred against him for stealing a sleigh robe from one Lucien Daigle, of St. Louis. To this charge he pleaded not guilty but on trial was found guilty. Judge Wells then sentenced him to two years for the first offence and one year for the second offence in Dorchester penitentiary to which he was taken by the sheriff, Tuesday.

DEATH OF BESSIE ISABELLA GRAHAM.—We regret to have to record the death of Bessie Graham, which took place at Galloway, on Wednesday last, after a lingering illness of consumption. Deceased young lady was highly esteemed by all who knew her, and was the only daughter of William Graham. The funeral which took place on Friday was largely attended. The pall bearers were, Messrs. Robert Bell, William McLean, Robert Parkhill, William Bell, Edward Scott, and Fred Kennedy. Rev. D. Fraser conducted the services at the house and grave. She left surviving her father and two little brothers to mourn their sad loss.

IN MEMORIAM.—Lines on the death of Miss Bessie I. Graham, who died in Galloway on June 1st, aged 16 yrs. and 7 months. A precious one from us has gone, A voice we loved is stilled; A place is vacant in our home, Which never can be filled.

God in his wisdom has recalled, The boon His love had given; And though the body moulders here, The soul is safe in Heaven. MAGGIE M. KENNEDY, Galloway, N. B.

JUNE WEDDINGS.

COATES-STOCKFORD.—At the residence of Mr. Isaac T. Stockford, Westmorland Road, St. John, on Wednesday night, 7th inst., Miss Bertha Stockford was united in marriage to Mr. Albert E. Coates, accountant with W. Frank Hatheway. The nuptial knot was tied by the Rev. Mr. Stewart, of Coburg St. church. Miss Maud Gibson acted as bridesmaid and Mr. Charles Robertson was best man. None but the relatives of the contracting parties were present at the ceremony. The bride received a lot of valuable presents. [Mr. Coates is the eldest son of Mr. Geo. A. Coates who was Principal of the Superior school in Kingston, Kent Co. for a number of years and later moved to Bass River.]

GULLAM-HYSLOP.

The Everett, Mass., Herold of a recent date contains the following: William A. Gullam and Abbie E. Hyslop were married at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. E. C. Jones, 12 Thurman St., on Wednesday evening. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by Rev. W. I. Sweet, of the First Congregational church. The groomsmen were John Macdonald and the bridesmaid Alma T. Hyslop, sister of the bride. The bride was very prettily attired in white. The attendance of friends and relatives was large coming from Newton Centre, Boston, South Boston, Roxbury, Malden and Everett. The presents were numerous and valuable, bespeaking the esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. Gullam are held. After the ceremony refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Jones. Mr. and Mrs. Gullam will take up their residence at 3 Jacobs place in this city. [Mrs. Gullam is a daughter of Mr. Robert C. Hyslop, Little River, Kent Co., N. B.]

O'LEARY-MCLAUGHLAN.

Another pretty wedding, which takes away one of Winchendon's fair daughters, was held on Wednesday morning at the Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Church of the I. H. of M., the contracting parties being Mr. John O'Leary, of Barre, Vt., and Miss Margaret Agatha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McLaughlan, Goodrich street.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father John J. Conway, the accompanying music, which was entirely instrumental, being given by Miss Fannie McCabe. The ushers were Messrs. Martin J. McLaughlan and James F. Farrell. The best man was L. J. Good of Barre, Vt., and the bridesmaid was Miss Bridget Agnes McLaughlan, sister of the bride.

The bride wore white muslin trimmed with satin Ribbon, tulle veil, and carried an ivory prayer-book. The bridesmaid was prettily gowned in white muslin.

After the ceremony the party was driven to the home of the bride where a wedding breakfast was served to immediate family friends, and a reception held from one until two.

In the afternoon the couple left for a trip to New Brunswick and Montreal. They were accompanied to the station by a gay bevy of friends and received the usual parting gift in the way of rice. The going away gown was of blue cloth with hat to match, enlivened with trimmings of corn color.

The pair was the recipients of many gifts, including both use and ornament. Silver, Glass, China, pictures, linen and the usual assortment were included in the number.

The groom's gift to the bride was a check for a handsome figure, and to his groomsmen a pretty stick-pin. The bride's gift to the bridesmaid was a dainty ring.

On their return from their tour, Mr. and Mrs. O'Leary will reside in Barre, Vt., where the gentleman is a head-stonecutter and a nicely equipped home awaits their arrival.—Winchendon, Mass., Courier.
