NOTES OF INTEREST FROM THE CANADIAN PATENT OFFICE.

The work of the Canadian Patent office has been considerably delayed owing to recent changes in the corps of Examiners.

Examiner Bailey has been granted six months leave of absence owing to impaired eyesight, and Examiner Farmer has resigned.

Messrs. Campbell, McGill, Richard and Thompson, have been appointed Examiners to take the places of the absentees, and they may be relied upon to bring the work up to date, as they become more and more familiar with their duties.

Few people have any conception of the responsibilities of an Examiner of the Patent Office; their duties necessitating not only an education of a superior order but an intimate knowledge of the vast fields of modern invention, which can only be acquired by actual experience and hard work.

The following is a list of patents recently granted to clients of Messrs. Marion & Marion, Solicitors of patents and Experts, New York Life building, Montreal. 63,080—Julius Otto Zwarg, Freiberg, Germany, Microphones. 63,996—John D. Oligny, Montreal, P. Children Cry for CASTORIA.

Mrs. James Constable, Seaford, Ont., writes:—"Ever since I can remember I have suffered from weak action of the heart. For some time past it grew constantly worse. I frequently had sharp pains under my heart that I was fearful if I drew a long breath it would cause death. In going up-stairs I had to stop to rest and regain breath. When my children made a noise while playing I would be so overcome with nervousness and weakness that I could not do anything and had to sit down to regain composure. My limbs were unnaturally cold and I was subject to nervous headaches and dizziness. My memory became uncertain and sleep deserted me. "I have been taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and as a result am very much better. I have improved in health and strength rapidly. The blessing of sleep is restored to me. My heart is much stronger, and the oppressive sensation has vanished. I can now go up-stairs without stopping and with the greatest of ease, and I no longer suffer from dizziness or headache. It seems to me the circulation of my blood has become normal, thereby removing the coldness from my limbs. I can truly say that Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have done me a world of good."

AN ALL-NIGHT SITTING.

CONSERVATIVES DEMANDED INFORMATION

OTTAWA, June 8.—There has been continuous sitting of the House of Commons since three o'clock on Wednesday, due to the determination of the opposition to resist the passage through committee of the agreement with the Grand Trunk Railway for the extension of the Intercolonial into Montreal. The opposition contend that information and reports referred to by the Minister of Railways in his speech on the second reading of the bill are not in any official shape before the House and that they are, therefore, justified in resisting committing the country to a contract regarding which the facts are not fully known. The answer of the government is that all the information in their hands is before the House and that it is not possible to do more than has been done. Between midnight and two o'clock this morning there was a great deal of acrimonious discussion, but since that time good humor has prevailed. Both parties are divided into three divisions, so that there may be always a quorum, each one of which will take eight hours of the day, and the intention of the opposition is to stave off any result until the adjournment on Saturday night. The matter will then go over until Tuesday. Of course, all that can be achieved is delay. The talking is carried on entirely from the opposition side of the House. Some of the members who sat up all night looked somewhat seedy this morning, but as the day came on the House presented its usual appearance. Nobody listens to what is being said, except when there is a sally of wit, which is always well received. Mr. Bell, of Picton, took the floor at 8 o'clock and held it until half-past ten o'clock. At that hour he was succeeded by Dr. Montague, who is now addressing the committee.

SOME DETAILS OF THE SITTING.

OTTAWA, June 8.—At 2 o'clock an all night session was apparent. Messrs. Blair Fielding, Sifton and Mulock remained all night. Mr. Clarke Wallace did heavy work for the opposition. Mr. Foster left at four o'clock. Dr. Montague held the fort all night and was sound asleep in his seat when Sir Hibbert Tupper returned this morning.

Sir Charles Tupper went home early and did not return until 11.30 to-day.

All the talking was of course on the opposition side, and with very little reference to what was before the chair.

Mr. McDonald, P. E. I., was talking in the early hours of the morning, when someone dropped a remark in French. "Mr. Frenchy," retorted Mr. McDonald, in his rich Gaelic voice, "you better close up at once, or if I get my Scotch up I will keep you here all day."

About six o'clock Mr. Marcotte gave a speech in French.

Among the speakers of this forenoon were Dr. Montague, Sir Hibbert Tupper and Messrs. Davin and Sproule.

At noon Mr. Davin had the floor.

At ten o'clock Sir Wilfrid Laurier relieved Mr. Blair. Along with the Premier came Mr. Sifton. A little later Mr. Paterson arrived. Mr. Blair was only away for an hour or so, when he returned, between 11 and 12 o'clock.

Mr. Davin sat down at 12.15 and Mr. Mills, of Annapolis, followed. He asked the opposition to stand by their guns.

The burden of all the speakers was "more information." Mr. Mills could not vote intelligently, he said, without more information.

LATER.

OTTAWA, June 8.—Shortly after one o'clock this afternoon the premier walked over to the leader of the opposition and immediately Gillies, who was killing time for the opposition, brought his remarks to a close.

Mr. Blair then said he had obtained from the Grand Trunk authorities by wire some of the information which had been asked and which was not in the possession of the Intercolonial at Moncton. The statement showed that the Intercolonial wheelage percentage on the G. T. R. was 27.7 per cent., that the percentage of maintenance and repairs was 23.41, and the percentage of operating stations, salaries, etc., was 31.91. The two latter combined made a percentage of a little over 25.

Sir Charles Tupper said that when he left for home he had a conversation with Mr. Foster, who told him that he expected an agreement would be through committee at midnight. He was not aware of what took place until he returned this morning. He thought after what Mr. Blair had said the information asked not being in possession of the minister or the Intercolonial there should be no delay in settling matters.

Sir W. Laurier said that the leader of the opposition had agreed to let the agreement through after one hour's consideration, and he proposed that the committee would take recess until six o'clock.

Mr. Clarke Wallace demanded more information.

Sir Charles Tupper sat on him unmercifully and stood by the arrangement with the first minister.

The committee then took recess until three o'clock.

UNKNOWN MAN KILLED.

RUN OVER BY THE TRAIN NEAR NEWCASTLE.

An unknown young man was run over and killed on the I. C. R. about five miles above Newcastle, on Wednesday, by the accommodation going up. The unfortunate was a young man about 18 or 20 years of age, and from his appearances was of unsound mind. Driver McGinty saw the man walking on the track with his back to the engine and gave the usual danger signal, and when he saw that he paid no attention to the whistle, or made no effort to get out of the way, the brakes were applied and the train brought to a standstill as quickly as possible. Before this could be done, however, the man had been struck and killed. The engine and four cars passed over the body which was horribly mutilated. The remains were gathered up and carried to Beaver Brook, the next station, and afterwards brought back to Newcastle. The victim was apparently a stranger and nothing was found on the body by which he could be identified. It was found that the young man wore three vests and two shirts in the way of superfluous clothing, but he had no money. In his vest pocket was found a small bottle full of gravel, and in another pocket some small pieces of paper, while a small spoon, on which were the words "Mamie," was also found on the body.

The deceased was about 5 feet 7 inches in height, light complexioned, and it was quite evident from his actions, he was either deaf and dumb or demented.

An inquest is being held on the body at Newcastle.

THE NAKED MAN'S PRAYER.

Hastings, England, has a free circus every day at noon. At that hour an old gentleman parades in the front garden of his fine residence, perfectly naked, except for a loin cloth, a turban and sandals. The turban and sandals blaze with jewels. He prostrates himself before a little pagoda, wherein squats an ugly idol with diamond eyes. There is always a crowd to watch these devotions. If one questions the old gentleman he answers testily: "What am I doing, eh? I'm praying for the conversion of this benighted land to Buddhism. That's what I'm doing."

GOD'S LULLABY.

BY ANNIE CAMPBELL HUESTIS.

Hushaby! hushaby!
Who shall make a lullaby?
Who shall sing a quiet song our weary eyes to close?
Grief and pain and fretfulness,—
Oh, to find forgetfulness!
Oh, to feel again the charm the tired baby knows!

Hushaby! hushaby!
Who shall make a lullaby?
Night has known our restlessness, and day has pressed us sore;
Bitter are the years and long,—
Oh, to hear a mother-song!
Oh, to hide away, and sleep, till Time can vex no more!

Patently, quietly,
Let your time of waiting be,
The twilight throws about your feet its shadows cool and gray.
Here's a hand upon your eyes
Light and sweet with lullabies,
Here's the strangest song of all to hush your cares away!

Hushaby! hushaby!
Here's a bed where you shall lie.
Death shall be your mother, she shall sing from you your pain.

Hushaby! for, safe and deep,
You shall hide away and sleep,—
Sleep untroubled through the dark, a little child again!

Hushaby! hushaby!
Beautiful it is to die;

The turning of the silent world shall be your cradle swing,
Oh, full sweet and motherly,
Death shall lift her voice for thee!
God hath taught her from His heart a lullaby to sing.

NOVEL TEMPERANCE SCHEME.

(Cleveland leader.)

A manufacturer at Three Oaks, Ind., has just inaugurated a temperance reform in that town that is at once novel and apparently practicable. This man, who has several hundred employees, recently offered to pay into the village treasury annually an amount equal to the license fees derived from the saloons if the authorities would abolish the saloons and make the town "dry." If the offer was refused he threatened to remove his factory to another town.

The proposition was submitted to the town, and it in turn referred the matter to the people at a special election. The result was an overwhelming victory for temperance. The saloons will be closed, the village treasury will receive the annual payment promised and the factory will not be removed.

Of course it is not difficult to understand why this manufacturer desired the closing of the saloons. He probably realized that he could get better work done by his employees if they were always sober, and he will doubtless discover that the money paid for the closing of the saloons is well invested.

AN INTERESTING CASE

Mr. W. G. Phyll, proprietor Bodega Hotel, 36 Wellington Street East Toronto, says:—"While living in Chicago I was in a terrible shape with itching and bleeding piles. I tried several of the best physicians and was burnt and tortured in various ways by their treatments to no avail, besides spending a mint of money to no purpose. Since coming to Toronto I learned of Dr. Chase's Ointment, I used but one box and have not been troubled with piles in any shape or form since."

BRIEF HISTORY OF A COURTSHIP.

Met him—met him again—in love with him. Met him again—no longer in love with him, but he is in love with me because I am so beautiful. Met him again—he is still in love with me, not only because I am so beautiful, but because I am also good. Sorry for him. Again I met him—he is colder than he was. Think he has forgotten my beauty and my goodness. I, however, am inclined to think that I am in love with him after all. How lucky he is, and how angry mamma will be. Mamma proved to be strangely pleased. Makes me angry, for I know she is not a good judge of a young girl's heart. Flirted with him outrageously to make mamma angry—didn't succeed. Engaged to him—glad. Married to him—sorry.
