DEATH OF FRANK J. RICHARD.—The death occurred at Richibucto Village on Thursday, 12th, inst., of Mr. Frank, (Little) Richard, aged 72 years, of paralysis. Mr. Richard was born at Richibucto Cape, his parents being the first settler in that district. He was married 50 years ago to Margaret Richard, who survives him, and by whom he had two sons and two daughters, John F. Richard, of Brockton, Mass., Coun. Joseph Richard, and Mrs. Reuben S. Myers, Richibucto Village and Mrs. Phileas Boudreau, of Black River, Buctouche. The funeral took place on Saturday morning and was very largely attended. Requim High Mass being celebrated by Rev. Father Hudon. The interment was made in the R. C. cemetery at the village. The pallbearers were Messrs. Alex. S. Richard, Salem, Mass., Jas. M. Richard, St. Ann, Philierome Blanchard, Stephen Leger and Belonie Leger, Village, and Phileas Boudreau, Black River. Mr. Richard's eldest son, John F., had been in the United States for the last eight years but his people here had never received any word from him. Richard takes this opportunity of thanking his many friends and neighbors and particularly the members of the Municipal Council for their kind sympathy during his bereavement.

"PEACHY" CARROL KILLED.

REPORT THAT HE WAS SHOT DEAD IN DAWSON CITY.

A resident of Maccau, N. S., in the city yesterday, stated that word has been received at Amherst announcing the fatal shooting of "Peechy" Carrol in Dawson City. The facts concerning the tragedy are meagre and the shooting is ascribed to two different circumstances. One report is that Carrol was inveigled into a tough resort by a brother of Buck Olsen, who was hanged at Dorchester for the murder of Officer Steadman. A fake fight was started and in the melee Carrol was riddled with bullets by Olsen. Another report says that Carrol and Archie Madden, of Amherst, who accompanied him to the Klondike, got into an altercation in a saloon and that Carrol shot Madden, inflicting a painful flesh wound. This rumor says that after shooting Madden, Carrol flourished his revolver and made threats at others in the party. Revolvers were drawn and Carrol was fatally shot. Carrol and Madden only left here last spring.—Transcript.

THE NEWS FROM OTTAWA.

CANADIANS CAN TENDER FOR IMPERIAL NAVY SUPPLIES.

OTTAWA, Jan. 16.—A communication was received from the office of high commissioner to-day stating that admiralty had consented to allow Canadians to tender for some classes of supplies for imperial navy supplies, including salt beef in cases, dried and evaporated vegetables in tins and preserved meat or mutton in tins. Persons desiring to tender must first obtain the consent of admiralty. It is thought that for squadrons on both Atlantic and Pacific coasts Canadians could furnish good portions of supplies now sent from England.

SHIPWRECKED SAILORS.

HALIFAX, Jan. 17.—On the Allan liner Austrian at this port from Liverpool, were three shipwrecked sailors, who were heartily glad to sight once more the shores of their native land. They were Simon Coprong, Philip Cotereas and Sam Doucett, who were picked up on December 1 from the waterlogged and dismantled Yarmouth schooner Annie G which was wrecked in the big November gale. They were rescued by the Allan liner Sarmatian and carried to Glasgow, whence they were sent home by the Austrian. They had been five days on the schooner suffering great hardships from hunger and cold. Capt. Ben Robinson, of the Annie G. was washed overboard, and Job Porter, a seaman had been drowned in the cabin.

That the owners of cattle roaming at large in prohibited districts were liable to fine and could be proceeded against under the Summary Convictions Act. Also that a pound keeper could use his barn or any other building as a pound. Or any person, on whose property such cattle may have been found trespassing, can, in case a hogreeve refuse to act after having been notified, impound such cattle in his own barn or other building and proceed against the owner as above.

BUCTOUCHE NOTES.

The weather here is very changeable; cold, fair, rain and snow following one or the other with remarkable quickness.

Some smelts are now being caught by those having stations in the bay. Mr. Jos. Crossman brought in a half-ton this morning. They sell at 2 1/2c. a pound.

Mr. Thos. Gamble is home again. He spent some time at Bayfield with Rev. Mr. Ramsay.

It is apparent that the post offices are experiencing difficulty in adjusting themselves to the new rate. They have sold out their one cent stamps and the new two cent stamps, and now have on hand a number of old three cent ones, which they cannot return and must sell at the former rate. Now it would certainly be a piece of imposition to make customers pay three cents for what is worth two, market value; and the outcome of this will be watched with interest and amusement by all.

In anticipation of a duty on teas, our merchants are laying in large stocks of that article.

Mrs. Bowen Smith has at last received word from her son Walter, in the Klondyke. The young man writes from Stewart River, and is in good health. He has been prospecting for some time and has laid out several claims, which he values at the modest figure of $20,000. He worked this summer on the tramway between Skaguay and Lake Bennett, at $1.00 per hour. He is with Harris, of Moncton, who also is in good health. They walked nearly 100 miles in three days with the temperature at 60 below zero, and were about to set out on another 100 mile tramp. He quotes prices of groceries as follows: Tobacco, $8 per lb., Flour, $32 per hundred weight, Sugar, $1 per pound. There seems to be something wrong with the postal service there, as he did not receive one of about two dozen letters sent him; and although he wrote three times, his people got only this letter.

Mr. Miles Wheaton, station master here, is ill with the "grip," we believe. His office is cared for by Mr. Wm. Coughlan.

ALIEN MINING LAW.

VANCOUVER, Jan. 14.—The second reading of the alien mining law, which compels Americans to take the oath of allegiance before going north, thus hoping to bring the outfitting trade to Canada, passed its second reading without opposition. Seattle papers are excited over the action of the Legislature and are making strenuous efforts to show that the act is unpopular in Canada, securing hundreds of interviews to give color to that claim. It is learned, however, that this attempt of the Legislature to bring Americans to terms will be abortive. Semi-official information comes from Ottawa that Sir Wilfrid Laurier will ask British Columbia to rescind the bill as soon as passed as an act unfriendly to the United States and dangerous at this time, when international negotiations are progressing.
