Crops in general look well in this part. Strawberries are reported very plentiful. The public half yearly examination was held in the school house here on June 30th. Thirty-five pupils were in attendance and acquitted themselves creditably in the various branches taught in common schools. Special mention might be made of the readings and recitations which were of a choice selection and were particularly well rendered. At the close of the examination Miss Haines treated the pupils and visitors to a good supply of candy. Miss Haines is well liked by the pupils and parents in general and will again take charge of school after vacation.

CAMPERS Should take with them a supply of Dr. Fowler's Ext. of Wild Strawberry.

Those who intend going camping this summer should take with them Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. Getting wet, catching cold, drinking water that is not always pure, or eating food that disagrees, may bring on an attack of Colic, Cramps and Diarrhoea. Prompt treatment with Dr. Fowler's Strawberry in such cases relieves the pain, checks the diarrhoea and prevents serious consequences. Don't take chances of spoiling a whole summer's outing through neglect of putting a bottle of this great diarrhoea doctor in with your supplies. But see that it's the genuine Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, as most of the imitations are highly dangerous.

WALKER'S ANODYNE LINIMENT. CARAQUET, N. B.

JULY 8.—Mr. Louis Parisee, aged 80, a most respectable citizen, committed suicide with a razor this week by cutting his throat. Mr. Parisee, who was at work as usual about his farm on the day previous, was held in high esteem by all, young and old, who knew him. It appears he got up early on Wednesday morning as usual, but at breakfast his daughter-in-law, with whom he resided, missed him and on search saw his feet protruding from under his bed and seeing a lot of blood on the floor raised the alarm. Neighbours rushed to the house and found the unfortunate man dead, his throat clean cut from ear to ear. Before the deed, he carefully made a pillow of his coat and placed it under his head on the floor underneath the bed. When found, life was extinct. He leaves a respectable family of 3 sons and 4 daughters, all married. He was a widower. He has one brother Dominique, who resides in Richibucto.

The above cast a gloom over the country, but hardly had the surprise begun to abate, when the next startling intelligence was, Father Gaynon is dead! This could hardly be realized, as the Rev. Father was amongst us but a few days ago in the best of health. And the query on every lip was, what was the cause? But the fact was he was dead, and hard it was to realize, as each felt in admitting it that he was stricken with sorrow deep, as if one of his own family had suddenly died. That one so young, so kind, so thoughtful for the welfare of others, so full of promise, was so suddenly cut off in the prime of life and manhood was hard indeed to be admitted, but such was the case. Truly, "In the midst of life we are in death."

The Rev. Father, who outside of his pastoral duties, took a great interest in the work of his parishioners and by kind advice instructing and assisting them in their farm work, was himself a lover of the farm and of the garden, and a few days before his death in examining some gooseberry bushes in his garden he either pricked his hand on a barb of the bush or was bitten by a poisonous fly. However, he did not heed it much as no mark was left, but the next day a sharp pain was felt in the arm and shortly followed by a fit of vomiting. Dr. Duncan was called by wire from Bathurst, but on his arrival a few hours after found the unfortunate priest past all help of earthly assistance, and on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock passed away.

Rev. Father was a native of Madawaska, aged 36 years and ordained priest at Caraquet 8 years ago. His death was so sudden, no member of his family was with him at the time, but on Friday his mother and other members of the family arrived by train. He will be interred on Tuesday next, but as yet not decided as to place of interment. Rarely had a death occurred in our County which carried with it such a deep, a true, a profound sorrow as the young man who was so suddenly called away. Nations mourn for great men, but the sorrow in the hearts of the poor for one who was indeed kind to them, is in itself a greater tribute of respect.
