MORRIS' BODY FOUND.

His father contends that he was murdered.

St. John, June 17.—Shortly after one o'clock yesterday afternoon some men working on Robertson's wharf were startled to see the body of a man floating in the slip between Robertson's upper and lower wharves.

Mr. Michael Morris, the father, strongly and emphatically declares his belief that his son met with foul play at the hands of Noseworthy, the man who was on the bridge with him on May 17th when the tragedy occurred.

Mr. Morris is firm, however, in his belief and will have it that his son was pushed over the bridge. No marks which could be sworn to as the result of violence were to be seen on the body in a casual search.

Pimples on the Face

Can all be permanently removed by B. R. dock Blood Bitters. Mr. E. P. Barnaby, Merchant Tailor, Shelburne, N. S., says: "After paying out money to doctors and not getting cured, I tried B. R. B. After using it for a time the pimples all went off and have never troubled me since."

A boy of twelve years named Craikshanks was lost by his father in Halifax yesterday, and search high and low has so far failed to locate the lad. A suggestion has been made to the police that the boy was kidnapped.

Dr. Low's Pleasant Worm Syrup is the safest and most effectual remedy to give children for worms of all kinds. No need of Castor Oil afterwards as it contains its own Cathartic.

A New Departure.

Dr. Marchand, the celebrated French physician, has at last opened his magnificently equipped laboratory in Windsor, Ont. There is a large staff of chemists and physicians at his command, and the men and women of Canada may now procure the advice of this famous specialist free of charge.

Dr. Marchand has a world-wide reputation for successfully treating all nervous diseases of men and women, and you have but to write the doctor to be convinced that your answer, when received, is from a man who is entitled to the high position he holds in the medical fraternity.

Why suffer in silence when you can secure the advice of this eminent physician free of charge.

All correspondence is strictly confidential and names are held as sacred. Answers to correspondents are mailed in plain envelopes.

You are not asked to pay any exorbitant price for his services, in fact it rarely happens that a patient has expended over 50 cents to one dollar before he or she becomes a firm friend and admirer of the doctor.

A special staff of lady physicians advise Dr. Marchand in his treatment of female cases. Always include a three-cent stamp when you write and address The Dr. Marchand Chemical Co., Detroit, Mich., U. S. A.

Vanity in Somaliland.

If you wish to make a Somali woman absolutely happy, you give her a looking glass. She will never before have seen one, but feminine instinct will teach her how to use it.

On the morning of the third day the fame of the looking glass had spread through the country, and a row of 40 Somali women, collected from far and near, was engaged in taking an admiring turn at the magic mirror.

Why He Liked Him.

The barber was perhaps a trifle more talkative than usual, and the customer was scarcely in a good humor. The portly gentleman had come straight from the dentist's.

"Where's that assistant of yours, the one with the red hair?"

"He's left me, sir. We parted last week—on friendly terms, you know and all that, but—"

"Pity," growled the portly gentleman. "I liked that young fellow. There was something about his conversation I thoroughly enjoyed. He was one of the most sensible talkers I ever met, but—"

"You'll excuse me, sir, and there must be some mistake," gasped the astonished barber. "If you remember poor Jim was deaf and dumb."

"Just so. Just so," was the curt rejoinder. "That's why I liked him."

And the barber went on shaving.—Pearson's Weekly

Rewarded For His Honesty.

An English farm laborer recently went to a small store kept by an old woman and asked for "a pahnd o' bacon."

She produced the bacon and cut a piece off, but could not find the pound weight.

"Oh, never mind t' pahnd weight," said he. "Ma fist just weighs a pahnd. So put ther bacon in t' scales."

The woman confidently placed the bacon into one side of the scales while the man put his fist into the other side, and, of course, took good care to have good weight.

While the woman was wrapping the bacon up the pound weight was found, and, on seeing it, the man said:

"Nah, you see if my fist don't just weigh a pahnd."

The pound weight was accordingly put into one scale and the man's fist into the other, this time only just to balance.

The old woman, on seeing this, said: "Wha, I niver seed aught so near afore! Here's a red herring for thy honesty, ma lad!"—New York Tribune.

Had to Get Up.

Some years ago Dr. Oscar Blumenthal, the director of the Lessing theater in Berlin, had an unpleasant experience of the vigilance with which the authorities carry out their duties.

In his comedy, the "Orient Reise," one of the characters was afflicted with a mother-in-law of the most objectionable kind. This lady died and, according to the belief of her relatives, went to heaven. The prospect of a fresh acquaintance with his dreaded mother-in-law so terrified her son-in-law that he announced that, if this should be his fate, "when the resurrection comes I shan't get up."

This was sufficient for the authorities. Twenty-four hours after the production of the piece an ominous blue envelope arrived at the Lessing theater containing a peremptory order from the president of police that the lines in question should be immediately suppressed. "As being calculated to wound the religious feelings of the laiges."—Paris Herald.

Some Fifteens.

In The Courant of March 16, 1784 we printed the following queer story which our readers will pardon us for repeating. Some of them may have forgotten it.

Hemors, Feb. 15, 1784.—This day departed this life Mrs. Lydia Peters, the wife of Colonel John Peters and second daughter of Joseph Phelps, Esq. She was married at the age of 15 and lived with her consort three times 15 years and had 15 living children, 13 now alive and the youngest 15 years old. She hath had three times 15 grandchildren. She was sick 15 months and died on the 15th day of the month, aged four times 15 years.—Hartford Courant.

Pathetic and Practical.

Here is a "personal" that appeared not long ago in a London newspaper.

"Willie, return to your distracted wife and frantic children! Do you want to hear of your old mother's suicide? You will if you do not let us know where you are. Anyway, send back your father's colored meerschaum."

And yet we say the Briton has no very lively sense of humor.

One Qualification.

Mrs. Mann—You can't wash and iron nor make the fire (satirically). Perhaps you might be able to sit in the parlor and read the morning paper after my husband has got through with it.

RHEUMATISM CAN'T EXIST

With salves, suppositories and ointments and dreading a surgical operation, scores and hundreds have turned to Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment and found in it an absolute cure for piles. The first application brings relief from the terrible itching and it is very seldom that more than one box is required to effect a permanent cure.

RESULT OF A STRIKE.

DENVER, Col., June 15.—Thirty thousand men in Colorado will be out of work within the next ten days unless steps are taken to end the strike of the smelter employees. The Omaha and Grant and the Globe, in Denver; the Bi-metallic and the Arkansas Valley, in Leadville; the Eiters and the Colorado Smelters, at Pueblo, are closed. The closed works are under guard, but nowhere have the men made any demonstration.

The Porter Fuel Co., at Durango, has closed, throwing 150 men out of work. From all parts of the State come reports that mines are reducing forces. At Leadville 90 men have been discharged, should the mines close all over the State, 5,000 rail road men will be thrown out of employment. Four mines of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Co., three near Canon City, and one in Pitkin County, have been shut down on account of wage differences.

THIN GIRLS GET PLUMP

while using Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food.

There comes a critical time in the life of every woman when the bud of girlhood is unfolding into the full blown flower of womanhood.

Loss of flesh, headaches, pains in back and side, nervousness, irritability, dull eyes and a pale, sallow complexion, these are the symptoms that warn you to use Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food.

The blood is impoverished and the nerves require nutrition. Nature must have assistance and there is no better way to help nature than by using Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food. It is a food for blood and nerves, and creates rich red blood, solid flesh and new nervous tissue.

Crutches Thrown Away.

THE REMARKABLE CASE OF A YOUNG GIRL IN WALKERTON

For Three Years She Could Only Go About With the Aid of Crutches—Had to be Helped In and Out of Bed—Her Restoration to Health Was Unlooked For.

From the Walkerton Telescope.

A couple of Walkerton ladies were recently discussing the case of a mutual friend who, owing to the sudden development of a bad attack of sciatica, had been compelled to take to her bed, when a third lady present, but who was a stranger to the young woman in question, made the remark, "I would advise your friend to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills." Asked to give her reasons for making this recommendation she proceeded to give the details of a most remarkable cure that had been effected by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills on the daughter of her nearest neighbor, a Miss Rebecca Greenhow, and the story as told by this lady, having subsequently been repeated in the hearing of the editor of this paper, we decided to investigate and find out from personal inquiry all the circumstances of this seeming remarkable instance of the power of medicine over disease.

"Rebecca is now seventeen years of age. When she was eleven she was attacked with tonsillitis and following this for the next three years she never had a moment free from pain. She began to complain of pains all over her body but chiefly in her back. She became so weak and run down that she was unable to walk without the assistance of a crutch. The doctor said she was suffering from inflammatory rheumatism brought on by an impoverished condition of the system. He prescribed various remedies but nothing seemed to do her any good and finally we decided to try another doctor. He also pronounced the trouble to be rheumatism but though he gave her bottle after bottle of medicine, she still continued to grow weaker. By the end of the second year she was unable to leave the house and could only move from one room to another by the use of her crutches. We were advised to get her an electric belt and did so, but though she wore it for a long time it did her no good whatever. During the third winter she became so bad that she had to be assisted into and out of bed, and could not even raise from a chair without assistance. We had given up all hope of her recovery when a Mr. John Allan, who had himself been similarly afflicted, but who had been cured by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, advised us to give them a trial. We had tried so many things without success that we hesitated to accept his advice, but he insisted so strongly that we finally yielded. The first five boxes seemed to produce no change, but before she had finished the sixth box we were sure we could notice some improvement, and we felt encouraged to continue their use. From that on she continued to improve steadily, and by the time she had taken eighteen boxes every trace of pain had left her. She threw away her crutches and soon forgot that she had ever needed them. For months past she has been filling a position in the rattan factory and can work as well as anyone. Indeed I do not believe that there is to-day a healthier girl in Walkerton."

Such is Mrs. Greenhow's story of the cure of her daughter through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills after years of great suffering. We may add that a day or two later the writer called once more at the Greenhow home in hope of seeing the young lady herself. This time she was at home and she came into the room. She presented an appearance of the most perfect health. She repeated the story of her sufferings in substantially the same terms as her mother had done, and, like her mother, gives all the credit to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Rheumatism, sciatica, neuralgia, partial paralysis, locomotor ataxia, nervous headache, nervous prostration, and diseases depending upon humors in the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc., all disappear before a fair treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They give a healthy glow to pale and sallow complexions. Sold by all dealers and post paid at 50c a box or six boxes for $2 50 by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont. Do not be persuaded to take some substitute.

BRITISH YACHT SEIZED.

MADRID, June 17.—Official information has been received of the seizure of the British yacht Firefly at Anacaban, France, with four thousand rifles, said to have been intended for the Caristas. It is claimed the Firefly belongs to Lord Ashburton, who is looked upon as the representative in England of Don Carlos, the Spanish pretender.

SUBURBAN DAY RACES.

NEW YORK, June 17.—This is Suburban Day and Coney Island Jockey club is even more fortunate for its great race than was the Brooklyn jockey club for its handicap. It was clear and gold this morning and the track was in good condition, and the horses all fitted to run for their lives. The consensus of opinion to-day was that Banastar would be the first horse to put to his credit both the Brooklyn and Suburban handicaps in one year. He won the Brooklyn handicap a few days ago.
