MOTHER LODE OF THE KLON-DYKE?

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 25.—P. H. Miller has arrived in this city from Dawson, being commissioned by the owners of the quartz mine in which he is interested to purchase a stamp mill.

A ledge which is supposed to be the mother lode of the Klondyke is now being regularly worked. Ore from the vein runs from $500 to $2,600 a ton. The drift is in soft limestone, which is very easily worked, the miners making about six feet each twenty-four hours. A great quantity of ore has been taken out. There is plenty of food at Dawson to last all winter. The part of the town recently burned is being rapidly rebuilt.

A Thrilling Experience.

A STORY TOLD BY A WELL-KNOWN SALVATION ARMY CAPTAIN.

His Body Racked from Head to Foot with Rheumatic and Neuralgic Pains—Would Prefer Death to Undergoing Such Suffering Again.

From the Post, Lindsay, Ont.

It is the lot of but a limited number of people to enjoy the confidence of such an exceedingly large circle of friends and comrades as does Capt. John A. Brokenshire, who was recently interviewed by a Post reporter at the home of his parents at Rosedale, a pretty hamlet situated at the head of Balsam river in Victoria county, where the elder Mr. Brokenshire, who has reached the three-score years and ten has held the position of lockmaster for the past twenty-two years. Capt. Brokenshire, the subject of this article, is 34 years of age, is well-known and highly respected throughout many of the leading cities and towns of Ontario, where, during his seven years service in Salvation Army work he has come in contact with a large number of people. He has been stationed at Toronto, Montreal, Peterboro, Ottawa, Morrisburg and minor places, and at one time was a member of a travelling S. A. string band. The following is Capt. Brokenshire's own statement:—"I had been slightly troubled with rheumatic pains for several years, and had to give up the Army work on different occasions on account of my trouble. When stationed in Morrisburg, four years ago, I became completely unfitted for work, as I suffered terribly with pains in the back of my neck, down my shoulders and arms and through my body. In fact I had pains of a stinging muscular nature from the back of my head to my toes. I could not bend my head forward if I got the whole of Canada to do so, and when in bed the only slight rest I got was with a large pillow under my shoulder, thus letting my head hang backwards. I could not get up, but had to roll or twist myself out of bed, as my spine seemed to be affected. My medical adviser pronounced my trouble neuralgia and rheumatism combined, which he said had gone through my whole system. He prescribed for me, but the medicine gave me no relief. I tried various other remedies but they were of no avail. Believing my case to be hopeless I determined to start for my home in Rosedale, but the jarring of the train caused such terrible agony I was compelled to abandon the trip at Peterboro, where I was laid up for three weeks, when I finally made a herculean effort and reached home. As my mother says, "I looked like an old man of 90 years of age when she saw me struggling with the aid of two heavy canes to walk from the carriage to the house." At home I received every possible attention and all the treatments that kind friends suggested, but I was constantly going from bad to worse. In January, 1896, after many months of untold agony, I determined to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, having read so much in the newspapers of the great benefits received by others from their use. To make sure of getting the genuine article I sent direct to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., at Brockville, for the pills. After taking two boxes I noticed a slight improvement in my condition which gave me some encouragement and I kept on until I had taken twelve boxes, although before I got through with the sixth I could go to bed and enjoy a good night's rest such as I had not done for years. I never at any time enjoyed better health than I am doing at present. Since my recovery I have induced several friends to take Pink Pills for various troubles and in each case they have effected cures.

The above is a voluntary and correct statement of the facts of my case and I trust that many others may be reading this, receive the blessing that I have. If necessary I would make an affidavit to the above facts at any time.

A WESTERN CLERGYMAN AND HIS MARRIAGE IDEAS.
VANCOUVER, B. C., Dec. 24.—Rev. Amor Fair, who achieved notoriety by baptizing people in the Pacific last summer, had further attention directed to him last Sunday, when he married a couple and told the woman that there was no need to promise to obey her husband. His words were criticized and he now writes to the press as follows:—

The Word of God does not say "obey your husbands," but it does say "obey your husbands in the Lord," and that makes all the difference in the world. I purpose to speak more dogmatically than ever against Christians marrying sinners, if I make every devil in town mad."

The attendants say that they had to deal with a madman, and tried to get him to leave quietly. The man insisted that he must see the Prince and he was only stopped when he was threatened with a loaded rifle. Then he became violent. The police was summoned, and it took eight of them to bind the intruder, who fought desperately. After he was bound he was placed in an ambulance and conveyed to a police station. Physicians pronounced him a lunatic.

KENTUCKY BELLE'S REVENGE.

REFUSED THE GERMAN BARON WHO JILTED HER YEARS AGO.

This is a story of an international marriage that didn't take place. It failed twice—the first time for reasons of the man in the affair, or his family, and the second time for reasons of revenge on the part of the once young woman, now three times married. It is safe to say that the German baron will not dally long again with a blue grass belle, says the New York Press.

It was half a century ago that Miss Marie Goodloe, one of the most beautiful girls in that State, world famous for three beautiful products—girls, horses and whiskey—went abroad and formed the acquaintance of Baron Von Nordde of Berlin, nephew of the late Prince Bismarck. They became engaged and everything seemed to be going on smoothly, when the parents of the young man announced that it could not be, and the affair was broken off.

Miss Goodloe recovered, and in time became successively Mrs. Shreeve, Mrs. Ransom and Mrs. Cuihbert Bullitt. The first two husbands died and divorce separated her from the last one.

Perhaps the old flame lingered in the heart of the baron, and it certainly burned with a vengeance in the heart of the lady. Last summer they met in Chicago, and again he asked her to be his. The long-awaited hour had come. At last the proud Kentuckian had a chance to show the baron what sort of a woman the blue grass country produces.

She told the baron that she would consider the matter and give him an answer in person at her home on November 1st. He came in advance of the date and found Louisville society wide open. She gave a reception in his honor at Fountain Ferry Park and for two weeks showed him every attention.

On the first of this month he knelt with the becoming baronial grace at the feet of the beauty and offered to share his castle on the Rhine with her.
With an arise sir-knight air she bade him regain his feet, and when he was sufficiently braced, she remarked that she preferred a cabin in Kentucky to a castle in Germany. The baron quit America and Mrs. Bullitt gave out this story. Thus was she avenged.

Mrs. D. E. Lasalle, Canal Street, Dunville, Ont., whose husband keeps a jewellery store, and is one of the best known and most progressive citizens of Dunville, Ont., gives the following description of her recent experience in the use of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills:

"I took Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills for weak nerves, dizziness, palpitation of the heart, smothering spells at night and sleeplessness. Before I used them I could not get restful sleep and my nerves were often so unstrung that I would start in alarm at the least noise, and easily worried.

"Last February I commenced taking this valuable medicine, and it proved the right remedy for my weak and shattered nervous system. Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills restored my nerves to a strong and healthy condition, gave regular and normal action of the heart.

"I sleep well now, and am better in every way, and I recommend them heartily to all who suffer as I did." Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, 50c. a box, or 3 for $1.25, at all druggists. T. MILBURN & CO., Toronto, Ont.

SOME OBSERVATIONS.

Troubles are like babies; they grow larger by nursing.

A sucker is born every minute; give the babies a chance.

The majority of the rising young men of to-day run elevators.

No one ever heard of a messenger boy being touched by the quick.

Children cry for the moon: when they grow up they want the earth.

The busy little boot-black never fails to improve each shining hour.

A messenger boy may possess plenty of sand—but it is not quick-sand.

The easiest thing for a boy to catch with a bent pin is the school teacher.

It takes about four generations of riches to produce a boy without freckles.

The more aimless the boy is the better he likes to run around with a shot-gun.

Kissing a fashionable young lady on the cheek is one way to remove paint.

A man never has real trouble until he has a son big enough to wear his clothes.

Blessings are like children; to be appreciated they should be few and far between.

It is the little things that count—especially when they come as twins and triplets.

The trouble with a great many young men is they don't like to work between meals.

A bad boy seldom gets his badness from his father. The old man usually hangs on to all he has.

Children and fools always tell the truth they generally have an undisputed monopoly of it.

Some teachers who have taught the young idea how to shoot, apparently did not know it was loaded.

When a young man is sowing his wild oats, he hopes that something will happen to destroy the crop.

The young man who would take life easy, should be careful to select a wealthy and influential father.

The youthful graduate is the only person who knows exactly how this country should be run successfully.
