WILL BE OUT IN ABOUT A WEEK.—We are advised by the publishers that the "Shoppers' Economist" gotten up by the dry goods firm of Daniel & Robertson, "London House," St. John, will be out of press in about a week. It is principally a concise catalogue telling of the newest things in dry goods and ladies' finery generally with the prices. This catalogue will be sent free to all those sending in their names at once. Drop a card to Daniel and Robertson, St. John, asking that the new spring "Shoppers' Economist" be sent to you and to your friends mentioning the names.

FIRE AT SWEENEYVILLE.—Mr. Alex. Legere, farmer of Sweeneyville, (Bishop Land) Kent County, met with quite a severe loss on Saturday, when his house was totally destroyed by fire together with all his seed grain, wheat, oats and buckwheat which had been stored in the attic. The potatoes in the cellar were saved as the fire did not get below the floor. Only a few articles of furniture were got out. The fire caught in the roof, probably from a defect in the flue, and was not noticed until it had spread over the greater part of the roof. The barn was saved. Mr. Legere is an old man and as he had no insurance the loss is a serious one for him.

EASTER MEETING.—The regular Easter meeting of the Parishioners of St. Mary's Church was held in the parish church on Monday, when the following officers were duly elected for the ensuing year:—Wardens—Wm. Hudson and Jonathan Forster. Vestrymen—R. Cochrane, John Weston, Fred S. Sayre, Joseph Michaud, John Stevenson, David Thompson, Bliss Stewart, Wm. Shadrick, Thomas Forster, D. Percy, W. A. P. Rhodes and Allan Haines, Jr. Lay Delegates to Synod—John Stevenson and Jonathan Forster. Substitutes—R. Cochrane and John Weston. Vestry Clerk—Fred S. Sayre. Organists—Miss Hudson and Miss Fannie Sayre. The finances were found to be in a better state than at any time heretofore, largely owing to the use of the Eaveloge system, which system the congregation are urgently requested to more generally adopt. Vote of thanks tendered Mr. and Mrs. Hudson for their untiring efforts in connection with the Sunday school work. To Master Herb Hudson for his good work in doing sexton duty, gratis. To Fred S. Sayre for his like work. To R. R. Cochrane for fuel &c. To Jonathan Forster for his work at Kingston. To the people of Buctouche for their financial aid, and also to the Rev. H. A. Meek and Mrs. Meek for their zealous labors in behalf of the spirit welfare of the congregations and their earnest work for the up-building of the Church in Christ. The new financial year is entered upon with an outlook most encouraging and all friends are specially urged, 'not to grow weary in well-doing,' but to push on to better things.

On Saturday while Mrs. Wm. Parker and two daughters of J. P. Mowat of Campbellton were driving, and endeavoring to cross the I. C. R. track, as the accommodation was coming in, the horse took fright and backed into the cars, killing Mrs. Parker and horribly mangled the body beyond recognition. The young ladies escaped by jumping from the front seat. This was impossible for the deceased as she occupied the back one. The town was thrown into a state of excitement as the sad news was heralded abroad.

Cardinal Gibbons, in answer to the question, Is the face of Christ as depicted in art a strong one? says, "(as reported in The Outlook.) "The face of our Lord which I am most accustomed to see expresses both strength and kindness." Bishop Potter, on the contrary, thinks the art portraits "weak and inadequate," while Dr. Parkhurst says that they are "not only disappointing but repulsive." Rabbi Gottheil declares: "I have never seen a picture of the being called Saviour of the world in which strength was a marked feature, or even indicated. Naturally so, because the being was not a man of flesh and blood, but the creation of theological fancy and dogmatic construction." Many other clergymen of note join in the discussion of this question in the April Magazine Number of The Outlook.
