

OATS WANTED.—The Review will pay the highest market price for oats in payment for subscriptions. The oats to be delivered to Messrs. J. & T. Jardine, Kingston.

THAT BOGUS TELEGRAM.—On Nomination Day John B. Goguen read a telegram purporting to be from Alphonse T. LeBlanc, an employe of the I. C. Railway, asking him to stand to his bargain. Mr. Goguen insinuated that in a previous communication Mr. LeBlanc had offered him a position worth one thousand dollars a year, if he (Goguen) would retire from the present contest. The general impression amongst the government supporters here was that either Mr. Goguen had been hoaxed or he was trying to humbug the electors. Mr. Alphonse T. LeBlanc was communicated with regard to the genuineness of the telegram read by Mr. Goguen, with the result that the following telegram was received here on Monday.

SHEDIAC, Feby. 14, 1899.
URBAIN JOHNSON, Esq.
Richibucto.
Never sent telegram Goguen read Nomination Day asking him to stand by his bargain. Never offered him one thousand dollars to back down.

ALPHONSE T. LEBLANC.
It is evident that the intimation of Mr. Goguen was without foundation and that he was making an effort to gain a point by deceiving the electors. If the telegram had been a bona fide one, it was evidence that Mr. Goguen had made a deal.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Mr. George McKinnon, who had been working in Chatham for the last eight months, arrived home Thursday.

Mr. Grear Jardine, of Kouchibouguac, is laid up with la grippe. Dr. Tozer is in attendance.

CHATHAM C. M. B. A. BALL.

The Grand Ball, under the auspices of the C. M. B. A., which has been the topic paramount interest in social circles for the past ten days, came off on Wednesday night and was a decided success.

The Masonic Hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The attendance was larger than at any similar event in the history of Chatham, and the several committees are to be congratulated on the manner in which their excellent arrangements were carried out.

Many most beautiful and costly costumes were worn by the Ladies present. Among them much admired, was Miss Conway of Kingston. Her costume being of black and white satin brocade, scarlet silk poppies, and brilliant ornaments.

Beaten at His Own Game.

"A few days since," relates a solicitor, "as I was sitting with my friend D. in his office a man came in and said:

"Mr. W., the livery stable keeper, tricked me shamefully yesterday, and I want to be even with him."

"State your case," said D.

"I asked him how much he'd charge me for a horse to go to Richmond. He said half a sovereign. I took the horse, and when I came back he said he wanted another half sovereign for coming back, and made me pay it."

"D. gave his client some legal advice, which he immediately acted upon, as follows: He went to the livery stable keeper and said, 'How much will you charge for a horse to Windsor?'"

"The man replied, 'A sovereign.'"

"Client accordingly went to Windsor, came back by rail and went to the livery stable keeper, saying:

"Here is your money, paying him a sovereign."

"Where is my horse?" said W.

"He's at Windsor," answered the client. "I hired him only to go to Windsor."—Pearson's Weekly.

Railroad Pronunciation.

"I regret to say," remarks a writer in the Boston Transcript, "that on the Providence railroad Wrentham has lately become 'Wren-tham' (a as in Sam) in the mouths of several brakemen. First we had Wal-tham, similarly twanged in the second syllable, and I fear that ultimately we have to submit to Ded-ham in the place of Deddum. Thus do English names suffer in the mouths of those who are quite ignorant of their history. Not merely because it is English, but because it is logical and historical, and because the word 'ham' has its meaning. Waltham should be Walthum and Wrentham Wrentum. A return to the colonial pronunciation to this extent would, of course, be too much to ask, but still for a little space, O arbiters of the railway, spare us that sharp a in the 'tham!'"

The D. & L. EMULSION

The D. & L. EMULSION is the best and most palatable preparation of Cod Liver Oil, agreeing with the most delicate stomachs.

The D. & L. EMULSION is prescribed by the leading physicians of Canada.

The D. & L. EMULSION is a marvelous flesh producer and will give you an appetite. 50c. & $1 per Bottle. Be sure you get the genuine DAVIS & LAWRENCE CO., Limited, Montreal.

CARD.

TO THE ELECTORS OF KENT:

The Provincial Government has again been dissolved, and the duty of electing your representatives for the next Parliament is imposed on you. At the solicitation of a large number of influential electors of the County of Kent, we have consented to again seek your support and trust that our record for the past three years may meet with your approval. We will in the future as in the past support this present administration in all good measures, not forgetting our former promises to you—the interest of the County first, party next.

We are gentlemen,
Your obedient servants,
U. JOHNSON,
JAMES BARNES,
P. H. LEGER.
RICHIBUCTO, N. B., February, 1st, 1899.

—Fresh Sausages every week at W. W. Short's, Richibucto.

—Vote for the Government ticket Barnes, Johnson and Leger.

—Bicycles made to order.—Any person wishing bicycles made to order should call on WALTER MITCHELL, Kingston.

—We have a full stock of lamp shades all sizes, and Lantern Globes at lowest prices. W. W. Short Richibucto.

—A grand entertainment will be given in the St. Nicholas River Hall, by D. J. Grant and others on Thursday evening, Feby. 23rd inst.

—The principal business portion of Bathurst was burned to the ground Tuesday. Digby, N. S. was also visited by a severe conflagration.

—Farmers like farmer representatives. Their interest are the people's interests. No provincial administration has ever done half as much for the farmers as has the Emmerson government.

—Auctioneer Jas. L. Hutchinson will conduct a sale of household furniture, etc. at the residence of Mr. Jas Brittain, Kingston, on Tuesday, 21st, inst. As sale is positive, bargains may be expected.

—At nine o'clock Thursday evening, Miss Annie Duncan, daughter of the late William Duncan, was married to Mr. James Hains, I. C. R. fireman of Moncton, Rev. Jas Spencer officiating a few friends of the contracting parties were present. Supper was served after the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Hains, will make Campbellton their home for the present.—Telephone.

—Tom Jerome, a Big Cove Indian, made his third matrimonial venture on Monday when he led to the Altar a dusky maiden of sixteen summers named Agnes Carter, a Nova Scotian. The groom is about forty-five years old. Being unable to procure a horse to bring them to town, the bridal couple hired a dog team, which gave out before they had covered half the distance. There was then nothing for them but to "tramp it." After the ceremony the newly married couple started to walk to Big Cove, ten miles distant.

—The people of Kent County have had their fill of opposition representatives. They want roads, bridges and other favors; and they will vote for the best ticket that ever represented them, Barnes, Leger and Johnson. No representatives ever interested themselves in the people's welfare as they have done. No nook of the county has been so remote that it has not been visited by these men, its wants noted and supplied.

—The following telegram was received on Friday last.

SHEDIAC, Feby. 10th, 1899.
Impossible to go to Richibucto tomorrow. Hope Urbain Johnson, Barnes and Legere will be elected. Government should be sustained.

FASCAL POIRIER.

As Senator Poirier has many warm personal friends in this County where he resided so long we feel sure they will renew their efforts in helping to carry out his wishes and sustain the Government by voting for U. Johnson, Barnes and Legere.

—Fire broke out in the Adams House, Chatham, about midnight Wednesday last having apparently been set from the furnace flue, and the building was burned down. The fire brigade extinguished the flames when they first appeared, but the fire had got in the walls and under the floors of the main building and broke out again and completely destroyed the building. Much of the furniture was destroyed and two steam fire engines kept the fire from spreading to other buildings, Insurance, $5,000. The Adams House which was owned and occupied by Mr. Thomas Flanagan, was insured for $2,600 in the Imperial and $1,000 in the Phoenix of Hartford.

—In his nomination speech, Mr. B. J. Johnson, referred to the small expenditure made on a certain road in Richibucto parish. He said that public money should not be used to help any man to make a road to his farm, and that Mr. Barnes had, in making that expenditure been guilty of a great wrong. The electors should not repose any power in Mr. Barnes or his colleagues by electing them, because if those gentlemen succeed in this election, any settler will be exposed to the danger of having a road made for him. Such injury may not even be afflicted or whole settlements! Bridges may even be made to mar the natural beauty of our sylvan streams! What Mr. Barnes has done in the past, he will do in the future if he gets the opportunity. These are terrible dangers, and should be avoided. A man of Mr. B. J. Johnson's calibre, who who would not be guilty of spending public money on public roads, should be elected.

IS THIS PLIAN ENOUGH?

If you have a nagging cough and are losing flesh, go to a drug store and get a bottle of Shiloh's Consumption Cure. Take two-thirds of it, and then, if you are not benefited, return the bottle to the druggist, and he will return your money. Isn't that fair. No one could ask more. 25 cts., 50 cts. and $1.00 a bottle.

Biliousness

Is caused by torpid liver, which prevents digestion and permits food to ferment and putrify in the stomach. Then follow dizziness, headache,

Hood's Pills
insomnia, nervousness, and, if not relieved, bilious fever or blood poisoning. Hood's Pills stimulate the stomach, rouse the liver, cure headache, dizziness, constipation, etc. 25 cents. Sold by all druggists. The only Pills to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Madam's Great Bargain.

It was in an auction store on Main street, just before the auctioneer mounted the box. Goods were being sold privately to those who desired to buy. A well dressed woman was examining a bit of jewelry.

"What is the price of this?" she asked.

"That will cost you $4, madam," replied the salesman.

"Can't you shade that figure a bit?"

"No; can't possibly take a cent less. But I'll tell you what I'll do—if you will wait a few moments the auction sale will be started, and I'll place the article under the hammer. You may then be able to buy it in for almost nothing."

The woman said she would wait.

Ten minutes later on the auctioneer began the sale. There were some half dozen people in the store. The bit of jewelry in question was placed on the counter and bids invited. Some one offered 50 cents, then $1 was bid, $2 followed and then $3. This last bid was made by the woman who had sought to buy the bit of jewelry before the sale. A gentleman came in, looked at the article and calmly said: "I like that. I'll give you $4." The woman quickly shouted "Five dollars!" Then the bidding ceased and the bit of jewelry was turned over to the last and best bidder. She had refused to pay $4 a few minutes before, but she forgot that and went home to tell hubby dear what a bargain she got at the auction store for a $5 bill.—Memphis Scimitar.

Joseph Jefferson.

Joseph Jefferson was playing a one night engagement in a small town, appearing in the part Rip Van Winkle, which he has so often and ably impersonated. At the hotel where he staid there was an Irishman who acted as general assistant. Judged by the great interest he manifested in the hotel, he might have been taken to be the proprietor. At about a quarter to 6 in the morning Mr. Jefferson was startled, not to say alarmed, by a violent thumping on his door. When he recollected that he had left no orders to be called so early, he was naturally indignant. His sleep was banished for that morning, however, so he arose and soon made his appearance before the clerk.

"Look here, I say," he demanded of this functionary, "why was I called at this unearthly hour?"

"I don't know, sir," replied the clerk, "but I'll ask Pat." Pat was summoned. Said the clerk: "Pat, there was no call for this gentleman. Why did you waken him?"

Pat led the clerk to one side and said in a mysterious whisper: "He wor snorin lolke a horse, sor, an Oi'd heard the bhoys sayin somethin about how he wor want afther shlapin for twenty years, so Oi says to meself, 'It's a-comin unto 'im ag'in, an it's yer juty to git the crayther out o' yer house at wast.'"—Ledger Monthly.

Snowball Showers.

More than one explorer in cold climates has noted the curious phenomenon of a "snowball shower." The balls, it is true, are not very big, the average being about the size of a hen's egg, but they are true snowballs for all that, compressed globes of snow, not little lumps of ice or hail.

A fall of the kind occurred in north London in March, 1859, and at the time it was observed that the balls seemed five times as dense and compressed as ordinary snow and in no way to be told from the usual handmade missiles. They had fallen during the night and were strewn many layers thick over a very large area.

No cause—except a doubtful electrical one—can be ascribed for the strange phenomenon, and mountaineers are apt to discredit the stories of snowball showers told them by the old guides till suddenly in the midst of an ordinary storm they find themselves assailed as though by myriads of mischievous schoolboys.—London Standard.

CHILDREN'S COUGHS QUICKLY CURED.

Hard to keep the children from catching cold—will run out of doors not properly wrapped—get wet feet—kick the bed clothes off at night.

What's mother going to do about it? Mustn't neglect the children's Coughs and Colds—might end in Croup—and Croup end fatally or weaken the lungs for life.

Most mothers now give their children Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. It's nice to take, and cures all kinds of Coughs and Colds more quickly and effectually than any remedy known.

Mrs. R. P. Leonard, Parry Sound, Ont., writes: "I have used Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup for Coughs and Colds of myself and also of my baby. I find it always cures a Cold quicker than any other Cough mixture I ever tried." Price 25c.

LAXA-LIVER PILLS—Cure constipation, biliousness sick headache and dyspepsia. Every pill guaranteed perfect and to act without any griping, weakening or sickening effects. 25c. at all druggists.
