Permanent Cure of Salt Rheum.

The permanent cure after permanent cure that is being published week by week has placed Burdock Blood Bitters far above all other remedies in the estimation of the sick and suffering.

Even the severest and most chronic diseases that other remedies fail to relieve yield to the blood purifying, blood enriching properties of B.B.B.

Salt Rheum or Eczema—that most stubborn of skin diseases, which causes such torture and is so difficult to cure with ordinary remedies—cannot withstand B.B.B.'s healing, soothing power.

The case of Mrs. Jas. Sanderson, Emerson, Man., shows how effective B.B.B. is in curing Salt Rheum at its worst, and curing it to stay cured.

This is what she wrote:

"Burdock Blood Bitters cured me of a bad attack of Salt Rheum three years ago.
It was so severe that my finger nails came off. I can truly say that I know of no more valuable medicine in the world than B.B.B. It cured me completely and permanently, as I have never had a touch of Salt Rheum since."

SOURCES OF RUBBER SUPPLY.

The total amount of rubber that was brought to the markets in the year ending June 30 last was 46,750 tons. Of this amount Brazil produced 24,750 tons, or a little more than half the entire supply.
Africa's share was 19,800 tons, leaving only 2,200 tons to be supplied by the rest of the world. India furnished 495 tons, and the balance of the supply 1,705 tons, came from Central America and parts of South America outside of Brazil. When the export of rubber from Brazil began about fifty years ago the quantity shipped in a year was only 495 tons. The British Minister in Brazil estimates that the area of rubber producing territory in Brazil that is still untouched amounts to 961,000 square miles, or nearly a third of the area of the United States, exclusive of Alaska.
The great difficulty in developing these rubber regions is the scarcity of population, and the consequent necessity of carrying food supplies everywhere. In all the vast rubber regions of Brazil it is estimated that there are only 140,000 inhabitants.
The rubber districts that thus far have furnished the supply are becoming exhausted and the total production last year was less than in the preceding year. In Africa there was until recently only one region which had been very conspicuous as a rubber producer. This was the Portuguese colony of Angola, which in 1889 sent to the market 1,728 tons, while the Gold Coast and Lagos together furnished only 912 tons. In that year the Congo Basin appeared in the market as a source of supply. Its progress since then has been rapid, and in 1897, 1,600 tons were exported from the upper Congo though the rubber had to be carried on the heads of porters. The present prospects are that the Congo will some day be Brazil's nearest rival in the production of rubber.

GO WEST, YOUNG WOMAN.

(Fredericton Farmer.)

Horace Greeley's advice to the young man may be even more readily accepted by the maiden, if all the newspapers say about the scarcity of femininity in the occidental portion of this dominion is correct. In British Columbia especially is there a great demand for the daughters of Eve. One paper says that if "a couple of hundred good smart girls from the overcrowded eastern cities would find no difficulty in securing employment at a respectable remuneration, in the homes of our citizens or in hotels." The trouble out west seems to be not in getting the girls, but in keeping them. Some other men need them for wives, for there is a large number of eligible young men out there only awaiting the advent of buxom lassies to start housekeeping on their own account. Youth and beauty and a good dowry do not appear to be absolutely essential, but there is no great necessity of starting early to avoid the rush.

cine chest in itself. Cures Cuts, Burns,

FINANCE AT VASSAR.

First Student—I don't see why it is not a good thing to have plenty of Government bonds issued. Papa has lots of bonds and they say he knows a good thing when he sees it.

Second Student—Yes; but I suppose if they issued too many bonds they would become so dreadfully common.—Puck.

COOK'S SURE COUGH CURE.

SHE CAN'T COOK.

My wife cannot cook, though she studies a book Of recipes day after day; But what do I care? She is charming and fair,
And as sweet as the blossoms of May.

She tries all her might, but her bread isn't light,
For she never can get it to rise;
But then you should see, as she breakfasts with me,
The light that illumines her eyes!

No skill can she boast in preparing a roast,
And in pies her successes are few,
And ill she fares when soup she prepares, For she is sure to get into a stew.

But no fault do I find, for she's loving and kind;
And when bachelorship I forsook 'Twas to have a sweet wife, a companion for life—
It wasn't to marry a cook.

PRESIDENT FAURE'S FUNERAL.

THE PROCESSION WITNESSED BY LARGE CROWDS.

PARIS, Feb. 23.—The funeral of the late President Faure took place to-day.
Crowds of people anxious to witness the procession which was to bear the remains of the late President from the palace where they have been lying in state since Friday, began to assemble at an early hour along the line of route to be followed from the palace to the cathedral.

PARIS, Feb. 24.—About 6 30 last night a crowd assembled in front of the office of the Libre Parole and started shouting "Panama" and "Down with Loubet." Several persons prominent in the affair were arrested and Deputy Millemere (National Republican) who attempted to rescue them, was also arrested, while a friend of his was captured and taken to the police station. A sergeant of the police was seriously injured with a sword stick while making an arrest. The rioters then began violent and factional fighting, whereupon the police charged the mob and dispersed it. Some more rioting occurred, but at 1.30 this Friday morning the city is perfectly quiet.

Madam and Mademoiselle Faure who had been praying the greater part of the night beside the remains, attended mass at 8 o'clock in the chapel of the palace.
They then retired to their own apartments and did not take part in the procession or in the funeral ceremonies. The hearse, drawn by six horses, each led by a footman, entered the courtyard of the palace at 9 o'clock. It was a magnificent car, with huge black plumes and having a dome decorated with silver stars. The funeral car was hung with the tri color of France tied with crepe.

The procession was preceded by detachments of cavalry, marines and cadets, while strong bodies of troops were interspersed throughout the funeral cortege.
The whole route was lined with troops of all arms and was also guarded by police.

A QUEBECER'S CONFIDENCE IN DR. CHASE'S CATARRH CURE— GIVES RELIEF AT ONCE.

WHY SHE DIDN'T FALL OUT.

A young lady from the country was suing her ex-sweetheart for breach of promise, and the lawyers were, as usual, making all sorts of inquisitive inquiries.
"You say," remarked one, "that the defendant sat very close to you?"

"Yes sir," was the reply, with a hectic flush.
"How close?"
"Close enough so's one chair was all the seetin' room we needed."

"And you say he put his arm around you?"
"No, I didn't."

"What did you say, then?"
"I said he put both arms around me."

"Then what?"
"He hugged me."

"Very hard?"
"Yes, he did; so hard that I came purty near hollerin' out."

"Why didn't you holler?"
"Cause—"

"That's no reason. Be explicit, please.
Because why?"

"Cause I was afraid he'd stop." The court fell off the bench, and had to be carried and put under the pump for the purpose of resuscitation.—Golden Penny.

SIX WEEKS IN PAIN DUNGEON. A Confirmed Invalid From Acute Rheumatism—South American Rheumatic Cure Gives Him His Liberty.

Geo. England, of Chatham, N. B., is a carpenter and ship-builder by trade.
Through exposure to all kinds of weather he contracted a most acute form of rheumatism. His joints swelled and stiffened, and he was laid up in his bed for six weeks. After doctors had failed to relieve him he tried South American Rheumatic Cure, and to use his own words: "In 24 hours after I had commenced taking the remedy the pain all left me, the swelling subsided and to-day I am a cured man."

AN ENGLISH VIEW.

NEW YORK, February, 22.—The London correspondent of the Evening Post cables as follows:

Inquiries in official circles this morning justify the following statement of the view taken of the adjournment until August 2, of the Anglo-American Joint High Commission.

There is, of course, disappointment that the hopes raised in the preliminary discussions with the United States and Canadian Ministers have not been realized, and there is a tendency to ascribe this failure in part to the personnel of the Commission.

But seeing the impossibility of substantial agreement at this stage, there is a general opinion that the Commission have taken the wisest course in adjourning, so as to enable ministerial and public opinion here, in Canada, and in the United States to make its influence felt upon the specific questions still in dispute.

There seems to be no doubt that the Commission might at once have reported substantial agreement on practically all outstanding matters except two. These two are the Alaskan boundary and trade reciprocity.

As regards the Alaskan boundary the official belief is that before the Commission resumes work the respective Governments will have agreed to a commission of Arbitration. On the trade question hopes of agreement are small, but as one authority put it to-day: "We shall be none the less friendly for that. We simply agree to differ on that point, and after all if the United States does not want Canadian trade, we in England do."

A Woman's Opinion

After An Experience of Twenty Years.

Mrs. McGregor says: "Diamond Dyes Are Reliable and Never-fading."

I have used the Diamond Dyes for over twenty years and have never yet failed to get good results when I followed the directions. I would not use other makes of dyes even if they were given me free of cost. Diamond Dyes are reliable and never fading.

A DEAN'S REPORTEE.

If I had the faculty of a Boswell I should have much work narrating of many charming little dinner parties at one or the other of our houses, when Huxley and Dean Stanley were the principal talkers. I remember a characteristic recenter between them which took place on one of the ballot nights at the Athenaeum. A well-known popular preacher of the Scotch Presbyterian church, who had made himself famous by predictions of the speedy coming of the end of the world, was up for election. I was standing by Huxley when the Dean, coming straight from the ballot boxes, turned toward us. "Well," said Huxley, have you been voting for C?" "Yes, indeed, I have," replied the Dean, with that well-known twinkle in his eye, and the sweetest of smiles. "But you see! I do not believe in his prophecies, and some people say I am not much of a priest."—North
