

CORRECTION.—Those who announced in the last issue of THE REVIEW that there would be a picnic at Richibucto Cape on the 21st and 22nd inst., were not authorized to do so, and consequently there will be no picnic at said Cape or elsewhere within the limits of our religious parish, on the 21st and 22nd of August or at any other date.

C. A. HUDON, P. P. Richibucto Village, August 11th, 1899.

OBITUARY.—Mrs. Jane McInerney widow of the late Hon. Owen McInerney died suddenly at the home of her sister, Mrs. John Hayes, South Branch, on Saturday morning, Aug. 5th. Her death was a great shock to her family and many friends. She will be ever remembered as a kind, loving mother and a most estimable neighbor and friend. Her remains were brought from South Branch on Sunday afternoon to the home of her son, Edward, of Kingston, and interred on Monday afternoon in the Kingston R. C. Cemetery. Her children, who were all present at the funeral are John, Frank, Geo. V. and Edward, of Kingston; Dr. James P. McInerney, of St. John; William O. McInerney, of New York, and Mary, wife of John Sutton, Jr., Moncton. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Fr. Robichaud, priest; Rev. Fr. Hudon, deacon, and Mr. Louis O'Leary, sub-deacon. [The above which was written by a party in Kingston and which was intended to be published last week did not reach us until Sunday.]

PUBLIC TEMPERANCE MEETING.—A large and appreciative audience assembled in the Public Hall, Buctouche, Kent Co., on Thursday evening, Aug. 3rd, under the auspices of the Grand Lodge I. O. G. T. of New Brunswick. Mr. R. A. Irving, LL. B., Chief Templar of Buctouche Lodge, No. 352, occupied the chair, and after a few well chosen and appropriate remarks on the work, aims and principles of the Order, he introduced the various speakers. The following programme was successfully carried out:—Opening hymn, To the Work; Prayer, Rev. C. H. Manaton; Chorus, Rescue the Perishing; Address, by the Chairman, R. A. Irving, LL. B.; Address, Rev. J. Bennett Anderson, of London, Eng.; Solo, by Mrs. Campbell, Ottawa; Address, by Rev. R. Barry Smith, Grand Chief Templar; Solo, by Rev. R. G. Vans; Address, by H. H. James, Lodge Deputy; Solo, Home of the Soul, by Rev. J. Bennett Anderson; Address, by Rev. W. R. Robinson; Doxology and Benediction by Rev. R. G. Vans. Mrs. W. H. Irving and Mrs. H. H. James ably presided at the organ. This brought to a close one of the most interesting public temperance meetings ever held in New Brunswick. Buctouche Lodge of Good Templars now numbers about one hundred and sixty members, and has only been organized about four months. There is also a large and flourishing Juvenile Temple in connection with this Lodge, now under the superintendence of Mrs. Dr. W. G. King. Revs. J. B. Anderson, W. R. Robinson, P. G. C. T., and Grand Chief Templar Smith, will address meetings in Kingston and Richibucto, Kent Co., also in Sussex, St. John, Fredericton, Woodstock, etc.

AN APOLOGY.—When we pause a moment to listen to the various epithets that are being hurled at the head of the writer of the account of an ice cream party at the home of Miss Lide Flint as given in last week's issue we come to the conclusion that an explanation, or shall I say an apology, is necessary. With regard to that part which treats upon the discussion of certain topics, allow me to say, such a discussion did not take place. To my knowledge, (I speak frankly) not one of these subjects mentioned was spoken of. The only excuse the writer can give for having made an incorrect statement, is that he (I use the masculine for convenience) merely wished to exercise his love for the nonsensical, and there being no nonsense whatever in connection with the affair, he had to invent some, expecting at the same time that the matter would be taken more in the light of a joke and be forgotten in a few days. And although the writer in making the statement really expected it to have an effect, he stands aghast at the result. This is the only part the writer thinks which requires an explanation, the rest of the account being strictly correct. Now! the excuse given may be a poor one, nevertheless you have it as it is, and if those concerned do not wish to accept it as sufficient, in order to place things upon their old footing, and if they still wish to retain this fresh in their memories as something to be brought against him in the day of trouble, then let the friendship (if friendship there ever was) of former years be at an end, and let them meet in the future course of their future life, not as enemies but as strangers, and no doubt in time they shall grow accustomed to the existing state of things, and although they may never entirely forget it, it shall be marked in the book of their remembrance merely as a thing that was.

ATTACKED BY A ROOSTER.

HANOVER, Ont. Aug. 11.—A little child of scarcely two years, daughter of Mr. F. Wise, a farmer living near Allan Park, wandered off to the barnyard on Saturday and was attacked by a game rooster. When the child was found the rooster was standing over her and striking at her with his spurs. The poor little thing was covered with blood and so exhausted that it could not cry out. She was brought to Hanover and a physician found that the rooster had driven his spurs into her head in several places, one just above one of her eyes.

—The report comes from the west that a Missouri farmer mixed paris green and bran together and let a grasshopper eat it. He died. Twenty ate him up. Four hundred ate those 20, and they died. Eight thousand ate those 400, and they died. A hundred and sixty thousand ate those 8,000 and died, and the farmer was troubled no more. In its flight from the west the name of the statistician of this story has become separated from his figures, but the fact that the incident occurred in Missouri is regarded as evidence of its possibility.—Globe.

TEA TABLE TALK.

SOMETHING WORTHY OF THE ATTENTION OF THE THRIFTY HOUSEKEEPER.

The claim that Red Rose tea is the best medium priced tea on the market is backed up by the testimony of the people as shown in the ever increasing sales throughout the maritime provinces. If Red Rose were not of exceptional quality at the price, the demand for it would not increase, but would fall off. But it continues to increase.

Red Rose is a blend of China, Indian and Ceylon teas, and its characteristic strength and delicious flavor are due to careful experiment, blending the tea named, in different proportions until a quality was produced which met with instant favor. That quality is present in every pound of Red Rose tea. There is no guess work or hap-hazard about it. No other tea has exactly the same quality, and when others are represented to be just as good as Red Rose the buyer will at once perceive the compliment paid to the latter. Red Rose is a standard. It is immensely popular, and suits the taste of more people than any other tea offered. It is sold in bulk or in 1 lb. and 1/2 lb. lead packets, at 35cts. per lb.

THIN GIRLS GET PLUMP

while using Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food.

There comes a critical time in the life of every woman when the bud of girlhood is unfolding into the full blown flower of womanhood.
