THE RETIRING POLICE MAGISTRATE OF MONTREAL ON THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC.

AFTER EIGHTEEN YEARS' EXPERIENCE HE ESTIMATES THAT IT CAUSES 5,900 CRIMES EACH YEAR IN MONTREAL.

(Montreal Star, June 3rd.)

Mr. de Montigny, the retiring police magistrate of Montreal, has this to say of the abuse of liquor:—

For the past eighteen years I have been acting as recorder of the city of Montreal, and therefore I have been in a position to ascertain the principal causes of the disorder existing in said city. I am quite willing to admit that the state of affairs which prevails here, in this connection, is not worse than in other large cities, but, in my opinion, the same could be improved by preventative measures wisely enforced.

I contend that the abuse of liquor is the direct or indirect cause of nearly all the crimes. Without that unfortunate passion for alcohol, we would have a model population. Out of the 6,000 persons who appear before the recorder every year three-quarters of them are brought there by such abuse. And how many profound miseries are secretly suffered, and latently undermine the individuals, families and society. What serious consequences result from that vice, which ruins the constitutions and fills up the jails and asylums. How many afflictions are to a large extent soothed by our benevolent institutions and especially by our communities, which are always willing to succor all unfortunate beings, without calculating and without enquiring as to the reason why the children are weeping and the women are suffering.

The jails are, nevertheless, overcrowded to such a degree as to hold back the arm of the judge, who, besides, must often tolerate, sometimes forgive, and always endeavor to correct.

Moreover, the asylums are so crowded that they have to be continually enlarged, and the orphanages, industrial schools, and reformatories have a population of several thousands.

On the other hand, the superior tribunals resound with the echoes of separations and horrible crimes, which may be attributed, in most cases, to drunkenness.

Therefore, last year, I deemed it my duty to draw the attention of the government to the necessity of confining habitual drunkards in a special institution, and of subjecting them to a treatment, inasmuch as I felt confident that this would be the means of preventing numerous suits and coroner's inquests, and of saving from irretrievable ruin a large number of persons maintained, at a great cost, in the asylums, jails and penitentiaries.

Could not the city contribute to the establishment of such an institution?

One of the principal addresses in "Tent Whistons" was by the Rev. C. N. Howard, of Rochester, N. Y., entitled "Our country's greatest peril." He said, "The American people are face to face with a mighty problem. It is not, 'What shall be done with Cuba or the Philippines?' but 'How shall we restore to the people the right of self-government in the United States?'" It would seem that democracy has given place to anarchy. The American people have abdicated the throne of government to the saloon. Red hand Anarchy spits upon our laws, insults our flag, robs our houses, curses our motherhood and damns our children, which we are pouring out the nation's treasure, and offering our sons to the god of war to shoot the declaration of independence into the hearts of the insurgents at Manila.

The immoral condition of our great cities is a blot upon our civilization. The saloon runs the caucus, names the candidate, robs the public, and spits on the law. The saloon is the nation's greatest foe, because it murders its citizens in cold blood. Because it destroys the character of its citizens, the units upon which the national structure rests. Because it fosters ignorance, immorality and crime, which sap the vitals of the nation and means death to democracy founded upon the virtue and intelligence of its subjects. Because it defies the ballot, entrenches the boss, debases the law, and impoverishes the people. It is a crime against the state a crime against humanity, a crime against God. It has opened dens of anarchy; schooled our young manhood to a life of sensual indulgence, personal impurity and profanity; sickened the public conscience with its daily horrible tales of debauchery, devilry and crime; blocked the wheels of every righteous reform; paralyzed industry; crucified labor, defeated the Church; outraged the heathen and blasphemed the Almighty.

There are, no doubt, more than a thousand preachers at this convention. No other profession can gather together into one convention a body of men that will equal the brains, culture, personal integrity, and moral power of a thousand American preachers, who are ministers of the gospel of the Son of God; and if they only knew their power and used it without fear or favor, to glorify God in the service of the people; they could build a railway to hell and send the rum power home on the first train. Daniel Webster said:—"There is not a monarch on earth whose throne cannot be shaken," and a hundred thousand preachers, backed up, as they would be, by two million men from the pews, could whip up into life a public opinion that would demolish the throne of the rum power inside of ten years. God wake them up to their divine opportunity and their awful responsibility.—Witness.

EXHIBITION NOTES.

The Canadian Pacific Railway is arranging to make a display at the St. John Exhibition of the products of the various parts of the Dominion through which their line runs, and as it will be planned and carried out in this Corporation's thorough going style, a very large and complete display is assured.

Special efforts are this year being made to bring the restaurant service at the St. John Exhibition up to the highest level of efficiency, so that visitors to the Exhibition need have no fear of getting other than good food, well cooked and cleanly served.

The amusement features will be especially good. Among the attractions will be Prof. Sutherland's wonderful trained animals, including horses, dogs and goats. The performance will be given in a ring in the open grounds visible to all any afternoon and evening.

Among the acts will be,
1. The Wrestling Horse,
2. Horse in the Swing,
3. Horse Walking a cable,
4. High Diving Dog—diving 60 feet into a net,
5. Dog sliding for life by teeth.

Then there will be races,
1. Trapeze race vs. Horse and Rider,
2. Double Roman Chair race,
3. Driving four horses over hurdles against horse and rider,
4. Roman standing races,
5. Flat races, Hurdle races, Wheelbarrow races, Gymkana races,
6. Exhibition of high jumping.

There will also be other attractions for the grounds, beside an excellent programme for the Amusement Hall.

NIP IT AT THE BUD.

The time to put out a fire is when it starts. Consumption is like fire. In the beginning it is to cure. The longer it goes on the more it destroys. At the first sign—when the cough begins and when flesh is lost—cure it with Shiloh's Cough and Consumption Cure. 25 cts., 50 cts. and $1.00 a bottle. Money refunded if it fails to cure.

Miss Maude Penner, of Leeds, Eng., has broken her engagement with George Arundel, a young engineer, and secured $250 damages in a breach of promise suit because her lover returned her letter with the errors in spelling and grammar corrected in ink.

CAMPERS

Should take with them a supply of Dr. Fowler's Ext. of Wild Strawberry.

Those who intend going camping this summer should take with them Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. Getting wet, catching cold, drinking water that is not always pure, or eating food that disagrees, may bring on an attack of Colic, Cramps and Diarrhoea. Prompt treatment with Dr. Fowler's Strawberry in such cases relieves the pain, checks the diarrhoea and prevents serious consequences. Don't take chances of spoiling a whole summer's outing through neglect of putting a bottle of this great diarrhoea doctor in with your supplies. But see that it's the genuine Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, as most of the imitations are highly dangerous.

A WOMAN'S SUFFERING.

Was Troubled With Palpitation of the Heart, Extreme Weakness and Nervous Headaches.

In the little Hamlet of Montrose, Welling County, resides a lady who gives much praise to the curative power of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The subject of this testimony is Mrs. Richard Hanna, an estimable lady who has resided in that locality for many years. A reporter seeking an interview with Mrs. Hanna found her willing to give full details, which are given in her own words. Five years ago I was taken ill. I attributed the trouble at the time to an injury sustained by a fall. Time went on and I did not get better. The symptoms of my complaint was palpitation of the heart, extreme weakness, stomach troubles and terrible headaches. I was very nervous, had no appetite and experienced much wakefulness at night. Finally I was compelled to take to my bed, being too weak to sit up any longer. In this condition I was treated different times by three doctors, and took a great quantity of medicine but realized no benefit. Not one of my neighbors thought I would get well. In the meantime I thought myself that death would soon end my sufferings. One day Mrs. Smith, of Port Robinson, came to see me and persuaded my husband to procure for me some of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and he purchased six boxes. After taking the six boxes I had improved very much and was able to be up, though yet too weak to walk. I sent for another six boxes and as a result consider my cure complete. I can relish food better, sleep soundly, and stand more fatigue than I could for years previous. Although I have passed meridian of life I feel as healthy as when I was in my twenties. With great pleasure and a grateful heart I give this testimony.

The public is cautioned against numerous pink colored imitations of these famous pills. The genuine are sold only in boxes, the wrapper around which bears the words "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. If your dealer does not have them they will be sent post-paid at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

COCAGNE, N. B.

Aug. 14th.—Considerable excitement was occasioned here a few days ago by the unexpected arrival at the Bay View Hotel of two Kissing Bugs. Their bug-ships announced their advent by flying with the force of a thrown pebble against a workman and against a window. Shortly after one of them alighted on one of Mr. Elliott's children, and was probably enjoying in anticipation the bliss of a meditated osculation when it was brushed off and slightly wounded. The size and appearance of the insect excited Mr. Elliott's interest and suspicions of its identity, he captured it and confined it in a small box after taking the precaution of decapitating it. A little later the other was captured in a more or less entire state. While confined, the notorious and much-dreaded insects showed a most refractory disposition and so remarkable a tenacity of life that the decapitated one lived for many hours after its head was cut off. It is strange what almost incredible tales of ferocity are eagerly believed of these poor insects whose greatest misfortune was an osculatory propensity too highly developed to please our staid and anti-frivolous society.

Newspaper reports have caused the old inhabitants of this place to dread the kissing-bug, although the male kissing-bug that wears pants is so much approved of by the young ladies.

PARLIAMENT PROROGUED.

OTTAWA, Aug. 12.—In the House of Commons yesterday the minister of finance had not finished his speech when the black rod arrived to summon the commons to the senate chamber. They answered the call and Lord Minto prorogued parliament in the presence of a fair attendance at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The speech from the throne, a brief one, was as follows:

Honorable gentlemen of the senate; Gentlemen of the house of commons—Relieving you of your duties during this protracted session, I desire to thank you for the diligent attention you have given to the many important measures which have been submitted for your consideration. I am glad to observe that the action of Canada in deciding to unite with the mother country and the Australian colonies in the construction of a Pacific cable has met with general result. I congratulate you on the evidence of the continued prosperity that prevails in all parts of the dominion, and which has stimulated the formation of so many companies having for their object the development of enterprises that must tend to increase the wealth of the country.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons:—I thank you in her majesty's name for the supplies you have granted for the public service.

Honorable Gentlemen of the Senate, Gentlemen of the House of Commons:—In bidding you farewell I desire to express the hope that Canada may long continue to enjoy the prosperity that at present prevails.
