A Bill Poster's Trick.

"Of course we used to put up small bills wherever they'd catch the eye." said a bill poster who traveled with a circus making one day stands, "and one thing we used to do that always pleased folks was to hang a bill from a ceiling. You had to have a wooden ceiling, to start with, and then all you wanted, besides the bills, was a tack and a silver dollar. It took practice to do it, but when you'd got the knack it was very simple and easy.

"You attached two bills together, one at the foot of the other so that it would hang down when the first one was attached to the ceiling. Then you folded the bills up, with a tack, thrust point upward through the top fold of the upper bill, with a silver dollar under it, up against its head and between it and the other folds of paper under it.

"Then, some time when the room was full of people-this might be a botel oftice or perhaps a barroom-you tossed the bills up, and there was weight enough in the dollar to drive the tack into the ceiling far enough to hold. Then the weight of the paper itself and of the dollar would open the bills out, and the coin would drop and you'd catch it as it fell, and the chances are that not one man in five would see it fall. The bills would be seen, fastened up there somehow, most of the people wouldn't know how, and opening out with the lower bill, hanging so you could read it. "This was not the greatest thing in bill posting ever was, but, as I said before, always pleased folks."-New York Sun.

Very Curious Weather.

At Alto Crucero water freezes every night of the year and the thermometer frequently falls to 6, 8 and 10 degrees below zero. There are no facilities for artificial heat-not even a fireplaceand people keep themselves warm by putting on ponchos and other extra wraps.

At noonday the sun is intensely hot, because of the elevation and the rarity of the atmosphere, and blisters the flesh of those who are not accustomed to it. There is a difference of 20 and sometimes 30 degrees in the temperature of the shade and the sunshine. Water will freeze in the shade while 20 feet away men may be working in their shirt

The natives seem to be entirely inured to cold and go about barefooted and barelegged over the ice and the stones indifferently without regard to the temperature; but they have a way of heaping the blankets on their heads and wrapping up their faces to keep the pure air out of their throats and nostrils. The women who herd the flocks are often out on the mountains for weeks at a time without shelter or anything to eat except parched corn, strips of dried meat and coca leaves, which are the most powerful of nerve

THE MOTHER OF IMPROVEMENT.

No farmer now days would try to harvest a 5000 acre field of wheat with a sickle. He simply could not do it. It is worthy of note that the best methods of agriculture, in fact the best plans for doing any kind of work are brought to the notice of the people who use them at fairs, exhibitions, etc. The agricultural fair is the mother of agricultural improvement. A farmer sees there a machine which does his work better than his old one. He discards the old one, and adopts the new

BRITISH FLAG FLOATS OVER BLO EMFONTEIN.

L. NDON, March 14.—The following is the text of Lord Roberts' despatch to the war office announcing the occupation of Bloemfontein:-

"Bloemfontein, Tuesday, March 13, 8 p. m .- By the help of God and by the bravery of Her Majesty's soldiers the troops under my command have taken possession of Bloemfontein. The British flag now flies over the presidency evacuated last evening by Mr. Steyn, late president of the Orange Free State. Mr. Fraser, member of the late executive government, the mayor, the secretary to the late government, the landroost and other officers met me two miles from the town and presented me with the keys of the public offices. The enemy have withdrawn from the neighborhood and all seems quiet. The inhabitants of Bloemfontein gave the troops a cordial wel-

BLOEMFENTEIN SURRENDERS.

"Bloemfontein surrendered at 10 on Tuesday. It was occupied at noon. President Steyn, with a majority of the fighting burghers, has fled northward." A Bloemfontein despatch on Tuesday says of the place at 5 o'clock Monday afternoon. He sent a summons into the town. threatening to bombard unless it surrendered by 4 a. m. Tuesday. A white flag was hoisted Tuesday morning, and a deputation of the town council, with Mayer Kellner came out to meet Lord Roberts at Spitz Kop, five miles south of the town making a formal surrender of the place.

"Lord Roberts made a state entry at tion. After visiting the public buildings, our army is noted. he went to the official residence of the president, followed by a cheering crowd, who waved the British flag and sang the British National Anthem. They were in a condition of frenzied excitement.

"On Monday afternoon, previous to the surrender, there had been a little sniping and shelling, but the enemy then retired.

"Lord Roberts has his headquarters at the president's house, and there are many of the British wounded in the building. The railway is not unjured.

CANADIANS CAPTURE TWO LOCO-MOTIVES.

MONTREAL, March 15 .- W. R. Smith cables to the Star:-Blomfontein, Orange Free State, Mar 15-The Canadian troops together with the other sections of the ninth division of Lord Roberts' army, are encamped at Lenaberg, four miles south of the city of Bloemfontein. The remainder of the entire British army at this point are encamped about town, while Lord Roberts himself with a portion of his headquarters staff occupied the house lately, the residence of President Steyn in Bloemfontein. yesterday morning. The cavalry under French had first seized the railway station and a number of Kopjes on the outskirts thus effectually surrounding the town. No serious resistence was offered by the Boers and the landoorst and other officials came out to meet the British bearing flags of truce and tendering to Lord Roberts the keys of the town. The Free Staters seemed quite resigned and even appeared to be relieved that it was all over, so far as they were concerned. The British troops received an ovation as they marched in, the enthusiasm of the foreign residents being very great There have been no casualties to the Canadians who are in good health and excellent spirits. Our men distinguished themselves in the advance yesterday by capturing two locomotives at Boshow. The capture was of consideaable value as the fleeing Boers were endeavoring to remove all the railway rolling stock and as large a quantity of supplies as possible. The capture of two locomotives by the Canadians was therefore a considerable feat and had received a special recommendation of the General commanding. Our next move is not known but we expect to start northward on the march towards Pretoria with out delay. The rapidity with which things have moved since Roberts took command of the army leads to an assurance that no time will be lost."

WHAT "PATROL" MEANS.

The war correspondent of the London Daily Mail writes :- "Of the word 'patrol," if you look it up in the dictionary, you will find a simple explanation; but the average Englishman at home has no idea of its real meaning as exhibited in warthat General French was within five miles fare-especially war against an enemy like the Boer. It requires more courage, more real pluck, to patrol the kopjes around about our camp than to make a charge in company with thousands of your fellows in the teeth of a deadly fire. In the latter case, the excitement, the spirit of the military display, the confidence in yourself and officer, the anxiety to get at the enemy, all these combine to impel the men in noon. He received a tremendous ova- that brilliant dash and pluck for which

But the patrolling-that is quite a different matter. Two or three mounted men walk their horses in a leisurely way up to the kopjes scattered all over the veldt, and examine them for signs of the enemy. Finding none, the next cover is examined, and so on. The patrols are on the open, the Boers lurking behind boulders, hidden from sight. Probably the first notice the unlucky man has of the enemy is a volley fired at close range, and then it is a race for life. I have watched these patrols from a distance, with nerves all on the quiver.

I have been with them and have experienced the weird feeling that, in spite of every effort, creeps over you as you proceed closer and closer to some isolated kopje. Are the Boers there or not? The tension grows keener, until one feels it would be a relief were the enemy to open fire. From one kopje to another the patrol has to go-taking his life in his hands -doing the work which, if necessary, is one of the most dangerous, arduous and trying in the service.

And if you are shot down there is no glory attached to your memory. 'So-andso was shot while on patrol; ' a few simple words which convey a great deal, but only to the initiated. I have been there, and know, and can say without exaggeration that I was glad when the enemy opened fire. The whizzing of the bullets all round, the rush for life, and the end of the suspense-the excitement of it was glorious.
