

LOVE CONQUERS ALL.

A STUDY FROM LIFE. CHAPTER XXIII.-Continued.

"My dear, my darling mother," pleaded Walter, "why are you thus agitated? What is there between you and the best friend I have in the world, next to you, which causes this appearance of dismay on both your parts? Will you not tell me, | live with us. Please say you will, mammother dear?"

"He-he is your father." she stammered, "and I, not knowing it, have told him that I can never forgive him."

"My father!" cried Walter, springing to his feet. "Surely the hand of God has been with us all since the beginning." The rector slowly rose to his feet.

"The hand of God has indeed been with us, Mabel," he said, in a voice choking with emotion. "It has been with you guiding your footsteps and leading them. after many years, here. It has been with me rearing my own son, though I knew it not. Our hearts have been sundered, yet they meet again in Walter, our child, our offspring For his sake, Mabel, if not for mine, will you forgive me?"

"For his sake, mother, as well as mine," pleaded Walter, taking his father by the hand and leading him to the sofa.

The countess rose to her feet. Her re sentment was gone, the old love swept into her heart in a mighty flood and, sink ing into the rector's arms, she pillowed her head on his shoulder, murmuring: "My husband!"

CHAPTER XXIV. LOVE CONQUERS ALL.

didn't give a snap for my rank in England, that I positively hated England and would never go back there again. And I mean what I say, mamma. Harola and I are going to live here in New York; we've arranged all that. And you're going to

BY J. R. ABARBANELL.

"I will, my dear," replied the countess with deep emotion. "I, too, will never go back to England again. But I must introduce you to Walter's-""

She paused and looked helplessly at the rector. He came to her rescue.

"His father," he said. "You are so beautiful and good. I shall love you as learly as I love my own daughter."

"Walter has spoken to me so much and so highly of you," said Mabel, as she received his kiss, "that I should be delight. ed to be regarded as your daughter. Then his sister Mabel will be my sister How happy that will make me "

"If you please," interrupted Harold "I don't want to be left out in the cold. want to be a member of the family, too." "That you shall," said Walter. "Now I propose that you four proceed to the rectory and get through with all your explanations, while I go to interview my friend and quondam client, Van Rensselaer. I dare say I shall be able to join you within an hour."

Lady Buford was soon ready; and Walter, baving seen the party into a carriage, took the car down town for Mr. Van Rensselaer's office.

He found the millionaire stock broker

THE REVIEW RICHIBUCTO N. B. JULY 5, 1900.

veal. I hope, however, it is the only secret here." a storate the "It is," said Blanche. "We know all. We love, admire and reverence your father and mother. Our happiness is complete."

"Let me see," said the rector, with a sly wink at Mabel and Frank, "isn't there still one pair of sundered hearts here? We mustn't allow that, you know. Come, come Fiank, speak out. You have only your left hand to offer Mabel, but I'm sure she will accept it, not only because it is nearest the heart, but also because the right has been in jured in her behalf." "This-this happiness is too much," stammered Frank. "If Mabel does not think me utterly wicked, if----" Mabel stopped his further self-depreciation with a kiss of love.

"My children," said the good rector, as with moist eyes, he gazed at the happy pairs clustered around him and the countess, "my children. It is not given to man to be perfect, that is an attribute of Divinity alone. According as we strive toward that ideal so shall our reward be Much shall be forgiven to them who love much. It is love which has drawn our sundered hearts together. Love is mighty -it conquers all."

THE END

FIVE YEARS.

Quebee Man Gets Cured o Bright's Disease After Long Suffering.

Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Him-The Only Remedy for Bright's Disease In existence-Four Boxes was Sufficient.

QUEBEC, July 2 .- Nothwithstanding the number of cases that have occurred in recovers from Bright's Disease.

"Deride Not Any Man's Infirmities."

Tell him, rather, how to get rid of them. Most infirmities come from bad blood and are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. Every person who has scrofula, salt theum, humors, catarrh, dyspepsia or rheumatism should at once begin taking this medicine that the infirmity may be removed.

Weakness -" I have given Hood's Sarsaparilla to my boy whose blood was poor. He was very weak, could not keep warm, and suffered from pains in his stomach. Hood's Sarsaparilla made him strong and well." Mrs. W. C. Stratton, Thomas St., Deseronto, Ont.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Never Disappoints

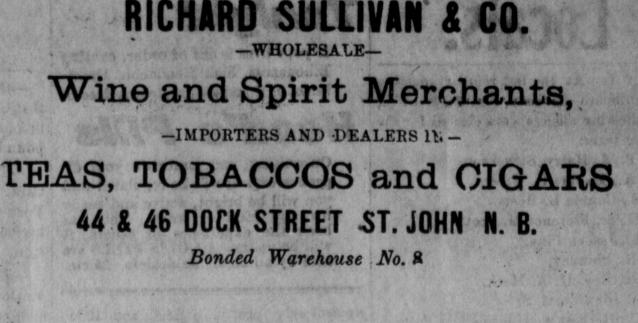

tive committee to state that it is with much pleasure that they accept Mr. Buchanan's very handsome contribution. The amount will be awarded as prizes in the grand aggregate match, which will this year be known as the "Buchanan Grand Aggregate Match" and the match is the most important of the aggregate matches on the programme.

Will you kindly communicate this proposal to Mr. Buchanan and obtain his approval to the match, and at the same time assure him of the appreciation by the association of his generosity?

Will you kindly, when the amount of the contribution is received from Mr. Buchanap, forward the same to the treasurer of the D. R. A?

Yours truly. W. E. HODGINS, Lt Col., (Sgd)Secy D. R. A. Lt Col. H. H. McLean, St. John, N. B.

this city of recent years, it never ceases to ST. JOHN, N. B., May 25, 1900. cause wonder and surprise when somebody Dear Mr. Buchanan-Enclosed please find letter from the secretary of the Do-The disease was so long considered in- minion Rifle Association. You will note curable, there being absolutely no other that the association has decided to have medicine than Dodd's Kidney Pills that the "Grand Aggregate" match called will cure it even at the present day, that "The Buchanan Grand Aggregate Match," it is natural, perhaps, for people to ex- and that your contribution of 100 guineas claim and hold up their hands, when they | will be awarded as prizes in that match. hear of the disease being positively cured. The match is, as stated by the secretary, Bright's Disease is a local disease of the one of the most important matches on the kidneys. Those organs get out of order, programme. I was in Ottawa last week and allow the life giving parts of the blood and the members of the Dominion Rifle to escape in the urine, while retaining Association fully appreciate your generthose impurities which they should filter osity in offering such a large sum. The out. Gradually the kidneys decay until offer is specially appropriate this time, finally they are utterly unable to do their when rifle shooting has become of vital work, and the sufferer dies. importance. It is a remarkable thing that no medi-I remain, yours faithfully, cine had been discovered that would cure (Sgd.) HUGH H. MCLEAN. this disease until the discovery of Dodd's James Buchanan, E-q. Kidney Pills. Bright's Disease and Diabetes, now also invariably curable by How can I get rid Dodd's Kidney Pills, were until recently Of my tormenting corns; get rid of them on a par with Consumption. Dodd's Kidwithout pain; get rid of them quickly and ney Pills in conquering the first two, have effectually, without possibility of return? removed two-thirds of the commonest The answer is, use Putnam's Painless danger to the life of mankind. Corn and Wart Cure, the great corn cure. "I have endured Bright's Disease for Always sure, safe and painless. Putnam's over five years. Doctors told me I would Extractor Use it and no other. Frauds never get well. I thought my time had are in the market. Don't run the risk of come. A friend told me to try Dcdd's ruining you feet with such caustic appli-Kidney Pills. I have just finished the cations. fourth box, and am cured. "I remain, yours, etc., E. G. Siggers, Patent Lawyer, Wash-"NARCISSE MANGY, ington, D. C., U. S. A., reports the fol-"109 St. Anne Street, lowing patents granted by the U.S. "Quebec." Patent Office, June 19, 1900, to Inventors residing in the Dominion of Canada. He A GENEROUS GIFT. will mail copy of specification and draw-We have been requested by Mr. M. A ings of any patent for 10 cents. Postage stamps will not be accepted.

IF INTENDING to build or repair, it will pay you to get our prices before buying elsewhere. We have now in store our use spring stock of

White Lead. Boiled and Raw Linseed Oil, Turpentine, Varnish. Shellac, Kalsomine. Ready Mixed Paints, all sizes of Nails. Spikes and Glass, Putty, Sheathing Paper, Zinc, Sheet Lead. in fact everything in the builders line can be found at our store and at prices as low as the lowest

SEEDS! SEEDS!! SEEDS!!!

Timothy Seed, Alsike and Red Clover, Tare, Millet, Corn, Peas, and all Garden Flower Seeds.

2,500 Rolls WALL PAPER with Borders to match.

Dry Goods, Groceries, Men's and Boy's Ready Made Clothing, Boots, Shoes, Rubbers, Hats and Caps, Ladies' Blouses, Dress Goods. Prints, Sateens, Furniture Covering, Ladies' and Men's Underwear, Men's and Boy's Fancy Shirts, Top Shirts, Lace Curtains, Curtain Poles and Fixtures, Spring Blinds, Portiers.

There are some things too sacred for even the pen of a narrator to describe. Such was the consultation between Walter and his parents in Lady Buford's rooms, which was held as soon as their emotion had quieted down sufficiently to permit their adjourning from the hotel parlor.

Harold Henshawe had taken Ethel off in a carriage to visit his parents and introduce his bride to them, and thus they were alone.

As a result of their deliberation it was determined that the secret, which, as yet, they three alone shared, should be revealed to the ones most directly concerned -that is to say to Ethel and Mabel, to Harold, Blanche and Frank. It was nobody else's affair.

To avoid any talk the marriage ceremony between the rector and the countess was to be performed again. Lady which she was entitled, sell her estates in England and, of course, make her home in the rectory.

Having satisfactorily arranged these matters, Walter was naturally anxious to hear about Blanche. The rector told him all that had occurred since he left New York.

"So Harvey Van Rensselaer wants to force her to become his wife, does he?" of his power."

young lawyer, with a peculiar smile. "I do not anticipate any difficulty with him. But what a rascal that prospective silently handed him the check. brother-in-law of mine is, to be sure. I never suspected it of him."

rector, with a gentle pressure of his wife's a glad heart, left the office. hand. "We must forgive him too. I bebeen very near death's door; and the act he arrived at his destination. of heroism which made him suffer so much true metal. The selfish dross has been he has gone, and revealed the pure gold | planations. beneath. Besides, if my observations do a true and noble man of him."

"You mean Mabel?"

in his private office poring over the quotations on a tape of a stock indicator.

"Ah, Wainwright," exclaimed Harvey. rising and shaking hands with him. "back from Europe. I'm glad you've come. need your services just now in a pinch." "My legal services?" "Exactly."

"Does he want to engage me to prosecute my prospective brother-in-law, I wouder?" thought Walter, as he took a

"I'm on the point of getting married," said the broker. "And I'm rather afraid of being bothered by that girl's-you know whom I mean. You helped me out of the scrape last year, and if you will see

"I will," replied Walter. "I will see her," he sternly continued, "to instruct her as to her rights. She can prevent your marrying anybody, more particu-Buford would then assume the name to larly the young lady, Miss Blanche Barton, who happens to be my affianced wife as well as yours."

Harvey Van Rensselaer's face blanched. He sprang to his feet.

"Good Heavens, you will ruin me, make me the laughing stock of the clubs," he exclaimed. 'Drive me out of society

"I'm sorry," coolly interrupted Walter, "you should not have meddled with my exclaimed Walter, when his father had own love affairs. However, I'm willing concluded. "Well, I guess I can obtain to let matters rest as they are, if you'll that check from him, if that is the source hand me that check which Frank Barton signed in your presence and with your

"Do you know him?" asked his mother. consent, and not intrude your unwelcome "He's a client of mine," replied the person again on his sister."

> The degenerate scion of the Knickerbockers breathed a deep sign of relief, and

Walter carefully tore off the signature and then, placing the check in his pocket. "We are in a forgiving mood," said the bade the broker good-morning and, with

The car that he took for the rectory lieve he is honestly repentant and really did not go half quick enough for his eager means to turn over a new leaf. He has spirits. It seemed an age to him before

The time he had taken in accomplish. pain shows that his heart is, after all, of ing this, his last mission, had been sufficient for the party assembled at the recburned away in the ordeal through which tory to make the necessary mutual ex-

They were all very happy, and only not deceive me, there is an angel guarding awaited Walter's arrival, with the glad over him who will, by her influence, make tidings they hoped he would bring, to born, has not forgotten his native land. form an ideal happy family, consisting of a father and mother, three daughters and

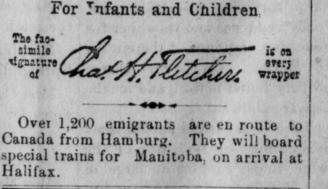

Finn, St. John, to publish the following which is self-explanatory :---

Mr. James Buchanan, of London, England, has made a very generous gift of one hundred guineas to the Dominion Rifle Association and the money will be distributed in the grand aggregate prizes at Ottawa this year, and in honor of the donor the aggregate will be called the Buchanan Grand Aggregate. This gift was secured through the instrumentality of Mr. M. A. Finn, Canadian agent of Mr. Buchanan, who, when Colonel McLean went to England last year as commandant of the Bisley team, gave him a letter of introduction to Mr. Buchanan, by whom he was very generously entertained. The gift is one of the largest ever made to the association, and shows that Mr. Buchanan, who is a Canadian by birth, his parents having arrived in Toronto a year before and leaving a year after he was

E. Best, London, Car-replacer; W. H. Goodwin, Toronto, Chart blank; D. Mc-Pherson, Montreal, Railway 'Switch; A. McNair, Vancouver, Friction-clutch.

CASTORIA

CARPETS, OIL CLOTHS AND MATTINGS.

Flour, Corn and Oatmeal, Pork, Fish Ham, Iron and Steel, Plows and Plow Castings.

ESTABLISHED 1889.

The Review,

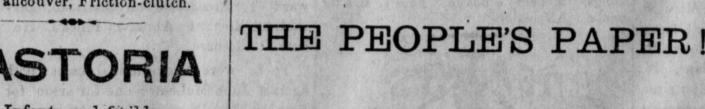

RICHIBUCTO, NEW BRUNSWICK,

Published every Thursday at $1.00 per year in advance; $1.50 if not paid within three months.

THE PEOPLE'S FRIEND

SUBSCRIBE NOW

All Kinds of Printing.

"Yes. Her heart has gone out to him three sons. with the purest, most devoted woman's love."

"And he?"

"He fairly worships her, but despairs through a sense of his unworthiness. We must give the poor fellow hope."

"I see," laughed Walter, "he's bound to until they got into the room. be my brother-in-law in a double sense of the word. I must, perforce, be lenient to bim."

"There comes Ethel and Harold back," by the others exclaimed Lady Buford, who was glancstepping out of the carriage."

A few moments later the young couple entered the room radiant with happiness.

"Oh, mamma," exclaimed Ethel, as she. handing him the check and simply say. kissed her mother. "I've seen Harold's ing: parents. They are such dear, delightful simple folks? They were so embarrassed at the thought of their son marrying a countess' daughter. But I put them at

Blanche was the first to espy him as he stepped out of the car, and rushed out of the room to open the door for him. Of course they had to embrace in the hall. It would be expecting too much from human nature to ask them to wait

They did enter, very tightly and lovingly clasping each other around the waist, and they were at once surrounded

Frank still bore his wounded arm in ing out of the window. They are just sling, but was otherwise entirely recover ed from his injuries.

He began to stammer an apology to Walter, but the latter cut him short by

> "Don't do it again." "It is a marvel how quickly you got Buchanan, of London, England, through the cheque," said the rector.

"That's a professional secret," laughed to the prize list of the Dominion Rifle their ease, indeed I did. I told them I Walter, "which, of course, I cannot re- Association, I am directed by the execu-

Mr. Buchanan is head of the house of Jas. Buchanan & Co., London and Glasgow, and takes a great interest in anything pertaining to colonial affairs, and told Col. McLean that he would take great pleasure in offering a prize for the annual volunteer shooting competition to be arranged in whatever way he and the Dominion Rifle Association desired. On Tuesday Mr. Finn received a check from Mr. Buchanan for one hundred guineas, with a letter stating how much pleasure it gave him, in view of the stand Canada has taken in the South African war Mr. Finn forwarded the cheque to Col. Mc-Pherson, treasurer of the D. R. A., Ottawa.

OTTAWA, May 22, 1900. Dear Col. McLean-With reference to the very generous offer made by James HARVEY MEDICINE CO. you, to contribute the sum of 100 guineas 424 ST. PAUL STREET, MONTREAL,

WHY? Because the public know that Dr. HARVEY'S SOUTHERN is the best and safest cough medicine in Canada or U.S.

Largest sales yet!

Honest 25c. bottles.

Sold everywhere.

Good Work---Low Rates.

Address Labels, Books, Bill-Heads, Bills of Lading, Blanks all kinds Bonds, Blotters, Bills of Fare, Business Cards, Ball Invitations, Ball Programmes, Catalogues, Circulars, Calendars, Checks, Certificates, Counter Bills, Charters for Societies, Dodgers, Drafts, Druggist's Printing, Folders, Gang Saw Bills, Hangers, Hotel Registers, Invoices, Insurance Printing, Letter Heads, Labels, Magistrate's Blanks, Memorandums, Menu Cards, Note Heads, Note of Hand, Orders, Posters, Programmes, Pamphlets, Price Lists, Receipts, Reports, Statements, Show Cards, ShippingTags, Tickets, Visiting Cards, Wedding Cards, Wedding

Invitations, executed with neatness and despatch.