PAROLES DE SIR ADOLPHE CARON

Il est difficile de dire ce que les Conservateurs dérivent dans nos relations politiques et commerciales avec l'Empire. Sir Charles Tupper le plus vieux et le plus grand Imperialiste du Canada, s'en va à Québec, dire aux Canadiens-Français qu'il ne veut plus d'Imperialisme, ni de tarif préférentiel pour l'Angleterre. Il ne veut pas de Fédération Impériale.

Quel que jours après, Sir Adolphe Caron, un chef tory de la Province de Québec, se lève en Chambre, et d'une voix ferme et forte, fait sa profession de foi imperialiste.

"Je suis en faveur de la Fédération Impériale!"

Ce qu'il y a de plus mystérieux, ou de plus drôle, c'est que Sir Adolphe Caron déclare qu'en cela, il ne fait que suivre ses chefs, Sir John McDonald autrefois, et Sir Charles Tupper aujourd'hui. Et les journaux Conservateurs de Québec ne cessent de dénigrer Sir Wilfrid Laurier comme le plus grand coupable et l'imperialiste par excellence.

LE MÉRITE REFUSÉ.

Les Conservateurs cherchent constamment à accuser Sir Wilfrid Laurier de tout crime, et à lui enlever tout mérite de ses actions. C'est ainsi que certains organes du parti Conservateur admettent que les Catholiques de Manitoba jouissent de précieux avantages touchant la question de leurs écoles, viennent ensuite dire: "Ce n'est pas Laurier qui a donné ces avantages aux Catholiques de Manitoba! Ces avantages ne sont pas dus au règlement de Laurier! Mais ils sont dus à l'avis du St. Père le Pape! Nous aurions pu avoir exactement les mêmes arrangements sous la loi de 1890, avant le soi-disant règlement de Laurier!"

Ces vieux Conservateurs ne peuvent rien attribuer de bon à Mr. Laurier. Tout le progrès du pays est attribué aux souverains, aux autorités des pays étrangers! Nos industries sont en pleine activité, nos ouvriers travaillent six jours dans la semaine, ils reçoivent de bons gages, mais ce n'est pas dû à Laurier. C'est le hasard c'est parce que cela s'adonne qu'il y a de l'activité dans le monde, disent les journaux Conservateurs.

Les taxes sont diminuées, mais ce n'est pas dû à Laurier, c'est parce que les revenus ont augmenté. A notre tour nous pourrions leur demander comment se fait-il que nos revenus ont augmenté.

Les Canadiens des Etats Unis reviennent au pays, mais ce n'est pas dû à Laurier. C'est parce qu'il y a des grèves aux Etats Unis.

Le commerce du Canada prend des proportions gigantesques, et dépasse de plusieurs millions de piastres celui des quatre dernières années, mais c'est parce que la population augmente.

Enfin toute la prospérité tout le progrès du pays est dû au hasard, à la chance. Et bien! Pourquoi Mr. Laurier apporte la chance au pays maintenant le donc au pouvoir. Sans son administration le pays prospère, le commerce s'étend, l'émigration diminue, et le Canada prend vis-à-vis des autres puissances une importance qu'il ne lui avait pas encore connue. Nous n'avons aucune raison de le renvoyer, de le déchoir du poste important qu'il est en train d'illustrer. Nous devrions être fiers d'avoir à la tête du pays un homme de la valeur de Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

PAROLES DE LORD SALISBURY.

Le discours de Lord Salisbury aux membres de la ligne Primrose, mercredi de la semaine dernière fait à peu près le seul sujet de la conversation en Angleterre depuis. Le moment semble mal choisi pour implorer tous ses compatriotes de s'éveiller aux dangers de toute sorte qui menacent le grand empire, et son existence, lorsqu'une longue période d'inquiétude vient d'être remplacée par la jubilation au sujet de l'heureuse avancée de Lord Roberts.

Tout le monde dans l'Empire, et surtout dans les Colonies, se réjouissait de la visite de la Reine en Irlande, et voyait d'heureux présages pour l'avenir de l'Irlande, ce seul coin de l'Empire, où la jouissance de la liberté politique ne vient pas vivifier le foyer domestique. Sans doute la Reine Victoria avait ses desseins, et la cordiale et affectueuse réception que lui fit la population Irlandaise, venait rencontrer ses desirs, et tout l'univers attendait avec assurance une amélioration sensible et prochaine dans la position politique et sociale de ce peuple tant persécuté. La bravoure, l'héroïsme des soldats Irlandais au Transvaal auraient dû suffire pour justifier une attente vaine jusqu'aujourd'hui. Pendant que les soldats Irlandais par milliers se sacrifient, versent leur sang, et donnent leur vie sur le champ de bataille contre l'ennemi le plus redoutable que l'Empire Britannique ait rencontré depuis un demi-siècle, Lord Salisbury compare les sou haits, les soupis et les prières de leurs soeurs, de leurs mères et de leurs enfants en Irlande pour leur liberté, aux conspirations et aux hostilités des Boers.

Au moment où nous écrivons ces lignes, nous n'avons encore d'autres renseignements que les dépêches télégraphiques. Toutefois nous sommes forcés de dire que Lord Salisbury tout en exprimant des sentiments d'ingratitude a, en même temps, manqué de discrétion, et commis une faute irréparable, qui fera tort à son gouvernement, et que ses amis ressentent vivement.

A Cheap Medicine Chest.

Mrs. D. Williams, Gooderham P. O., Ont., writes: "I have used Hayward's Yellow Oil for Burns, Scalds, Spains, Bruises, Sore Throat and pains in the Stomach and Bowels, and it has always given relief. My mother says it is a regular medicine chest in itself."

A Peanut Party.

A progressive peanut party is conducted exactly after the manner of jack straws. For this purpose small tables are arranged at different points of the room, according to the number of guests invited, allowing each table to four players. In the center of each table is piled up a pint of peanuts, and by its side a pair of bonbon tongs, which can be purchased for a few cents each. At a given signal or by the sounding of a gong the game is begun, and played on the same principle precisely as the old fashioned jack straws. The peanuts taking the place of the straws, while the tongs that of the hook. The time is called and the scores kept similar to any progressive game, when the winner for each table moves up on the next, and another game is begun. At the conclusion of the allotted time scores are compared and prizes awarded to the lucky ones, the same regularity being preserved as in cards. After the game is finished the peanuts become a part of the feast that follows and are devoured by the guests. In this home amusement one rule should be strictly kept, that small prizes are made or trifles purchased not exceeding 25 cents each.

LITTLE RIVER NOTES.

MAY 14.—Not seeing any notes from this place for a long time I thought I would write some.

Parties and mat hooking are the order of the day.

The people of this vicinity are going into the smoked fish business, as there are a large number of smoke houses going up. Among them being Mr. A. Gesner, O. Weldon, R. McFarland and James Dunlop.

Miss L. McKee has returned from St. John where she spent a few days with her cousins, the Misses Tweedie.

Mr. John McKee has finished his spring sawing and has a large amount of lumber ready for rafting.

The farmers are beginning to farm. The sound of whoa can be heard all over the place.

Mr. Wm. Gesner is able to be about again. He fell from a car some days ago and hurt himself quite badly.

Charles Smith, the one handed beggar has his clam wagon out. Any person with lung clams can have them for 10 cents a peck, for cash.

Among the visitors to Little River last week were Mr. W. Bateman and his sister Mabel, of Shediac.

Mrs. S. Allanach went to Richibucto Saturday, to spend Sunday with friends.

The young men of this place are all going to work with Mr. Barnes putting up telephone poles and wire. The place will be deserted.

Amateur Theatricals at Kimberley.

There was a good deal of punching of heads incident to amateur acting at Kimberley in those days. There was a well known dentist who sometimes trod the boards, and his enemy, probably a rival amateur, would sit in the front row of the stalls and laugh during all the pathetic scenes. At last the dentist would stand in no longer. He leaped over the heads of the orchestra, hit the laughter a violent blow, saying, "That will teach you to laugh in the wrong place," and then, much relieved, climbed back on to the stage and proceeded with his part. Queen Victoria's Protégés.

Queen Victoria looks after the children of her servants by educating and partially boarding and clothing them out of her private purse. There are about 180 boys and girls at the queen's schools at Windsor. The boys wear Scotch caps and suits of Scotch plaid, and learn farming and gardening in addition to ordinary school lessons, while the girls, who are dressed in plaid frocks, red cloaks and straw hats trimmed with blue ribbon, are taught sewing and various other domestic duties.

strengthen the kidneys and bladder, then all trouble is at an end.

Mrs. F. Kidner, a London, Ont., mother, living at 499 Grey St., says: "My little daughter, six years old, has had weak kidneys since birth. Last February I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Strong's drug store. Since taking them she has had no more kidney trouble of any kind. I gladly make this statement because of the benefit my child has received from this medicine."

Don't Chide the Children.

Don't scold the little ones if the bed is wet in the morning. It isn't the child's fault. It is suffering from a weakness of the kidneys and bladder, and weak kidneys need strengthening—that's all. You can't afford to risk delay. Neglect may entail a lifetime of suffering and misery.
