Hale Old Age.

Sad to see people advanced in years suffering from Backache, Lame Back, Urinary Troubles and Kidney Weakness. A hale old age, free from pains and aches, can only be attained by keeping the kidneys right and the blood pure.

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

befriend the aged by freeing them from pain and correcting all Disorders of the Kidneys and Urinary System.

Mr. Thomas Ash, an old resident of Renfrew, Ont., spoke as follows: "I am 72 years of age, and have been troubled for a number of years with pains across my back. When I would stoop over it gave agonizing pain to straighten up. I was so bad that I could scarcely walk. I have taken many kinds of medicines, but got nothing to help me. Being recommended to try Doan's Kidney Pills I got a box. After taking three doses I noticed a great change for the better, and I can now get around as smart as a cricket. I can split my own wood and am, in fact, just like a new man."

FOUR STORIES ABOUT MOODY.

(Ladies Home Journal.)

As is well known Mr. Moody had wonderful faculty for getting money whether it be a simple collection to meet some current expenses of some large subscriptions with which to erect a new school building. Asked once as to the secret of his success in this particular line the great preacher replied, "I urge people to give until they feel it, and then to keep on giving until they don't feel it."

A few years ago, while Mr. Moody was preaching in a New England city conspicuous for its affiliation with the American Protective Association—a secret order that flourished some years ago, having for its avowed purpose antagonism to everything calculated to promote the interests of the Roman Catholic Church or any of its supporters—he was asked when he was going to preach against the Catholics.

"Just as soon as all the Protestants are converted," was the evangelist's characteristic reply.

Not long ago a man who claimed perfection went to Mr. Moody and commiserated him on his low level of Christian experience. Mr. Moody, in a kind manner, asked his caller if he never sinned nor did any wrong.

"No. I have not sinned for years, neither have I done anything that was wrong," was the prompt reply.

"Well, I'm glad to know it," said Mr. Moody, "but before I am convinced I would like to ask your wife."

When Mr. Moody was asked to conduct his first mission in London, in 1874, it was a comparatively new thing to hold union meetings, and he was asked to meet a committee of ministers to explain his method. Everything went smoothly until a minister of the Church of England asked Mr. Moody for his creed. Mr. Moody's reply was that his creed was already in print. A number of the clergymen seized pencil and paper, asking where it could be found. "In the fifty-third chapter of Isaiah," Mr. Moody answered.

KICKED HIS PHYSICIAN.

"Never Leave His Bed Alive," Said the Doctor—South American Rheumatic Cure Does the Miracle.

Mr. Granville Haight, of Sparta, Ont., says his father, who is a very old man, was very low from a severe attack of rheumatism. His physician assured the family that he would never leave his bed alive. A friend took a bottle of South American Rheumatic Cure to him. A few days later upon receiving a visit from the doctor, he ran across the room and playfully administered a hearty kick. He is now up and as well as ever. Sold at Est. W. W. Snort.

Conquerors Conquered.

It is a remarkable and instructive fact that the career of four of the most renowned characters that ever lived closed with a violent or mournful death.

Alexander, after looking down from the dizzy heights of his ambition upon a conquered world and weeping that there were no more to conquer, died of intoxication in a scene of debauch, or, as some suppose, by poison mingled in his wine.

Hannibal, whose name carried terror to the heart of Rome itself, after having crossed the Alps and put to flight the armies of the mistress of the world, was driven from his country and died at last of poison administered by his own hands in a foreign land, unlamented and unwept.

Caesar, the conqueror of 800 cities, and his temples bound with chaplets dipped in the blood of a million of his foes, was miserably assassinated by those he considered his nearest friends.

Bonaparte, whose mandate kings and emperors obeyed, after filling the earth with the terror of his name, closed his days in lonely banishment upon a barren rock in the midst of the Atlantic ocean.

Such the four men who may be considered representatives of all whom the world calls great, and such their end—intoxication, or poison, suicide, murdered by friends, lonely exile!

Queer Signs Abroad.

When I was in Aix-les-Bains last summer, I saw a stout German woman sitting at another table eating from an enormous pile of plates. I thought at first she was carving or doing something of that kind, but as the meal progressed and the pile became no less I made inquiry and found out that she was extremely nearsighted, and the pile of plates—exactly 19 in number—was necessary to raise her food to a point where it would come within her range of vision. She was no less a personage than the Duchess of Sleswick-Holstein.

In Italy they do not use glass in the windows on account of the expense and replace it with wood or other material. In order to relieve the monotony, I suppose, they have a habit of painting household scenes on these blank spaces. In one window you will see an old chap reading his paper and in another a young miss doing up her hair. There are also other scenes of even more intimate family character, which I will leave to your imagination.

In Athens one day I went out to buy something or other, which I remember, cost 5 drachmae. For it I tendered a 10 drachma note in payment, and in order to make change the storekeeper tore it neatly in two and returned one-half to me. Convenient, wasn't it?—New York Tribune.

Showed Her Teeth.

One of the last things people like to admit usually is that their teeth are not their own in the sense of not having grown in their mouths. A single member from a porcelain factory is not objectionable. The need of it might be caused by an accident or for a good many reasons, but when it comes to several and a plate, then the subject becomes a delicate one.

But there was a woman in the street cars the other day who apparently had a brand new set of teeth and she was strangely proud of them. She first attracted the attention of passengers by the smiles that she lavished upon them indiscriminately. Every smile brought the new teeth into view more prominently and the evidence that they were false and the people began to smile quietly themselves. But even then the woman was not sure that her new treasures were properly observed, and, drawing in her lower lip, she brought her upper teeth down upon it and tapped them carefully with her finger, looking off into vacancy meanwhile with a conscious air of unconsciousness.

Not the Same Genesis.

A well known divinity professor, a grave and learned man, had five daughters, whom his students irreverently named "Genesis," "Exodus," "Numbers," "Leviticus" and "Deuteronomy."

Beginning his lecture one day, the professor said, "Gentlemen, I wish to speak to you about the age of Genesis."

Roars of laughter came from the students.

"Genesis is not so old as you suppose," continued the professor.

More roars—so long continued, indeed, that the worthy man had time to think before he made the next remark. He said timidly—and he managed to hit the mark this time:

"I may not be thinking of the same Genesis as you are!"

A Hopeless Case.

The Senior Partner—I guess we will have to give up trying to get that money from Sharpe.

The Junior Partner—Really?

"It looks that way. His office is in the second floor of his place, you know, and he threw our last collector out of the window, where the man fell through an awning, you remember."

"Yes."

Laughed Till He Cried.

"Did yer?" said Tommy.

"Yes," replied Willie. "Papa caught me laughing."—Philadelphia Record.

Past Record of Life Saving.

Paine's Celery Compound

Is Now and Will Ever Be the Great Home Medicine.

The past record of Paine's Celery Compound will live long in the hearts of tens of thousands of our Canadian men and women.

They can never forget the fact that it was Paine's Celery Compound that brought back strength, health and new vigorous life after failures with the many common advertised remedies, as well as with physicians and hospital treatment.

Amongst the most notable and marvelous records of cures effected by Paine's Celery Compound in the year just closed are the cases of thousands who had been given up by physicians as hopeless.

These hopeless cases were men and women suffering from kidney and liver diseases, stomach troubles, rheumatism, nervous prostration and long standing dyspepsia—all on the brink of the dark grave.

At the eleventh hour, when hope had fled, and deep, black despondency reigned supreme, Paine's Celery Compound was recommended by some good friend as a last resort.

It did not require weeks or months for Paine's Celery Compound to show its powers and virtues. A few hours or days sufficed to convince every sufferer that or she had in truth found a medicine that he could cope with disease and death.

This past record of life saving is maintained and fortified by thousands of the strongest testimonials written by men and women now enjoying the full blessings of good health.

This glorious past record of Paine's Celery Compound as a disease banisher has given the wondrous medicine a place in the majority of the homes of Canada, where it is known as "The home physician," "The home protector against disease."

Are you a sufferer from any of the troubles mentioned above? Are you weak and nervous? Are you sleepless, despondent or morose? Have you periodical headache, poor appetite or faulty digestion? If so, try what Paine's Celery Compound can do for you. A bottle or two will give you satisfaction and delight.

THE WAR.

GATACRE FORCES THE ENEMY.

STERKSTROOM, Jan. 3.—Gen. Gatacre met to-day the evading forces at Cyphergat near the British advance camp at Bushman's Hoek. The Boers retired hurriedly soon after the British artillery opened fire. The enemy occupied Motteno and Cyphergat to-day, but the latter place is now reoccupied by the British.

BOERS LOSE ABOUT 100 MEN.

RENSBURG, Cape Colony, Jan. 4 (evening).—Colesburg has not yet been occupied. The Boers unexpectedly attacked the British left at daybreak this morning but were repulsed. They occupied the hills to the north of the town, but were eventually driven out of their positions after an hour's shelling by our guns. They still hold the hills immediately surrounding the town and thus prevent the British from advancing along the railway. The British loss in to-day's engagement was light while the Boers are reported to have lost 100 including twenty prisoners who were taken by the mounted infantry about noon.

BULLER IS NOW READY TO STRIKE

LONDON, Jan. 5.—The clubs were crowded until midnight by the frequenters who were expecting to hear of a big battle on the Tugela river. This feeling of expectancy was enhanced by the earlier bulletins telling of how the British were vigorously shelling the Boer trenches. It is believed that General Buller is ready to strike.

LONDON, Jan. 6.—In military circles it is believed Gen. Buller having received all the reinforcements possible for some weeks he has begun an attack on the Boer position at Tugela and that the attack is now proceeding, the war office withholding news of engagement until after it is over. Nothing has been received from Natal to confirm this view.

MORE FIGHTING.

CAPE TOWN, Jan. 5.—The Cape Times prints the following despatch, dated Rensburg, Jan. 4: "About daybreak 1,000 Boers, supposed to be reinforcements, advanced on the left from Norval's Pont and came in contact with the pickets of the Inniskilling dragoons. Our men retired at first but rallied and charged on the Boers, killing several and wounding many. The enemy fled to sheltered kopjes and opened a terrible fire. The Berkshires and Suffolks replied, and there was a lengthy fusillade. The horse artillery then advanced with four guns and opened a deadly fire on the Boer riflemen, who retired. Then there was an artillery duel, the Boers using four guns and two Maxims. The 10th Hussars then advanced supported by a section of the horse artillery. The Boers on the right retired, leaving 300 men to hold the hill and protect their retreat. Our artillery thoroughly searched the hill, while 150 mounted infantry dismounted and advanced under cover of the fire of the guns. They stormed and carried the hill, killing and wounding 50, while 19 were taken prisoners. We suffered no losses.

"The Boers appear to fear that their retreat is being cut off. The road towards the bridges across the Orange river is commanded by three British guns."

DEATH FROM STOLEN KISS.

CHICAGO PUZZLED OVER A CASE OF A GIRL WHOM A SHOCK DROVE TO INSANITY AND GRAVE.

CHICAGO, Jan. 4.—The funeral of Stella F. Owens, who was driven to insanity and death by the shock of a stolen kiss, was held to-day.

The case is a puzzle to physicians, relatives and acquaintances. Miss Owens was nineteen years of age, a brunette of pleasing appearance and attractive manner. She was of a super-sensitive organization and of a highly nervous temperament. For six months she has had charge of the confectionary department in a Milwaukee avenue department store.

Ten days ago she entered the stock room to inspect the stock. The room was but dimly lighted, and she was under the impression she was alone. Without a moment's warning, she was seized about the waist, and the next instant was kissed and released. She screamed and became hysterical. The man, who is believed to be employed in the store, walked off unconcerned.

When assistance reached Miss Owens she was found weeping violently, pale and weak. She was sent home and a physician summoned. He prescribed a mild sedative and said that she was suffering from a nervous shock, but would be well the next day.

Within twenty-four hours the girl was suffering from nervous prostration in the most acute form. Her mind remained clear for two days then delirium set in. Insanity quickly followed. The patient was violent, and her parents decided to have her committed to a private ward to the Elgin Asylum. The moment her mind became clouded her physical condition improved.

She was taken to the detention hospital five days ago, and there a legal inquiry was made into her mental condition. Insanity was obvious, and she was taken to Elgin. Her mental condition continued to grow worse, and this was followed by a physical relapse. She died in the asylum Friday night.

No effort has yet been made to bring the man to account for his conduct—in fact, his name has not so far been made public by the family of the girl's employers.

The physician who first attended the girl believes the shock brought about a collapse of the nervous organism, and to this the insanity and death was due.

RICKS HAS TWELVE WIVES.

The man who is pointed out as the father of the largest family on the American continent lives in the valley of Snake River, south of the Yellowstone National Park, and in the extreme western part of Wyoming, and his name is Heber Ricks. He is gray-haired, and would not attract unusual attention were it not for his reputation as a much-married man.

He is a Mormon, and it is said that he is the husband of twelve wives. Sixty-six children have been born in his family. His grandchildren at latest reports numbered 218, with several precincts yet to be heard from. The valley of the Snake is pretty well settled up with members of the Ricks family and a town called Ricksville has been established, named after the venerable pioneer.

It is openly asserted that polygamy is practiced by the Mormons in the back or mountain districts of Idaho, Utah and Western Wyoming. The wives live on different farms at a distance from the husband every few days, he making his home with the youngest and prettiest woman, as a rule.

The younger Mormons, even in these districts, are not in favor of the plurality of wives and the younger women are decidedly against the practice of polygamy.

ANOTHER CASE.

New Brunswick is being Cleared of Backache by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Zealand Man Reported Cured—All over the Province the good work goes on—Dodd's Kidney Pills are Conquering Everywhere.

ZEALAND, N. B., Jan. 8.—Since the days when St. Patrick banished reptiles out of Ireland nothing has been seen like the wholesale operations of a certain remedy in this Province. It has banished disease in hundreds of districts, and is steadily increasing its influence and popularity. The medicine referred to is Dodd's Kidney Pills, the greatest kidney remedy ever discovered.

All kinds of Kidney Diseases are fleeing from New Brunswick before Dodd's Kidney Pills. Bright's Disease and Diabetes, the two formerly invincible destroyers, have lost their power the instant that Dodd's Kidney Pills came on the scene. Backache is conquered and flying from all parts of the Province. Last week it was reported routed in Antigonish, where H. M. Speas was rescued. Now it is Frank P. Mills of Zealand.

Similarly the other forms and allies of Kidney Disease are being ousted—Rheumatism, Heart Disease, Dropsy, Lumbago, Sciatica, Urinary and Bladder Troubles, Women's Weakness and Blood Impurities. Frank P. Mills, of Zealand, says about his case of Backache:—

"I tried everything I could think of to no purpose. I had given up hope of getting rid of my misery when I thought I would try once more. This time I bought a box of Dodd's Kidney Pills. I have only taken one box and feel like a new man. The lameness has all left my back and I think I am entirely cured and would recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills to all persons suffering with like trouble."

HOW THE DATE DEC. 25 CAME TO BE ESTABLISHED.

There is some disagreement as to the origin of Christmas day. The legend runs that in the earliest period of the Christian Church some communities of Christians celebrated the festival of Christmas on Jan. 1, others observing it on the 6th of that month. In some of the eastern churches it was kept about the time of the Jewish Passover, near the end of March. There is also some evidence of its having been observed on Sept. 29, being the Feast of Tabernacles. In the year A. D. 325, when the Emperor Constantine legally established Christianity in the Roman empire, Christmas was observed at the beginning of the new year, while in the eastern church it was celebrated on Jan. 6. Pope Julius eventually effected a compromise, and the 25th day of December was established. These historical statements have been called in question by some, but John Chrysostom, the eloquent preacher at Constantinople, in the fourth century confirms them.

It is a curious circumstance that some difficulty has been found in accepting the date of Dec. 25th as the probable day on which Christ was born, because, the close of December being usually the height of the rainy season in Judea, it is said that neither flocks nor shepherds could have been at night in the fields of Bethlehem. This strange objection is considered of such importance that it is incorporated in almost every encyclopedia and dictionary which treats of Christmas. It is one of the curiosities of literature. The present writer has been in those parts at this season of the year and has found no difficulty in "keeping watch by night" in the open fields of Palestine. What is possible for a western traveller, unused to living in the open air, in the nineteenth century must have been far easier for a band of eastern shepherds at the beginning of the Christian era.

COULDN'T WORK.

Mrs. Jos. Currier, Victoria Harbour, Ont., had Rheumatism in the knees, feet and elbows. Two boxes of Milburn's Rheumatic Pills cured him.

It is learned that the Bank of Nova Scotia, which within a year, has opened branches in Toronto, Alymer, and Berlin, in Ontario, and several places in the Northwest, is considering the advisability of removing its head office from Halifax to Toronto. General manager McLeod has been in Toronto regarding the matter.
