Blood Disorders

are simply kidney disorders. The kidneys filter the blood of all that shouldn't be there. The blood passes through the kidneys every three minutes. If the kidneys do their work no impurity or cause of disorder can remain in the circulation longer than that time. Therefore if your blood is out of order your kidneys have failed in their work. They are in need of stimulation, strengthening or doctoring. One medicine will do all three, the finest and most imitated blood medicine there is

The pride of the life of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Skene of London was that she was the mother of six policemen.

Miss Helen Gould has read law and, did she desire, could pass the examination for entrance to the New York bar.

Most of the chairs in Mme. Patti's boudoir at Craig-y-Nos are draped with ribbons taken from the numberless bouquets thrown to her.

Mrs. Sheridan and Mrs. Logan are among the largest women pensioners of this country. They receive respectively $2,500 and $2,000 a year.

Mrs. Charlotte Roulez Charlier of Roselle, N. J., left an estate worth about $20,000, practically all of which, it said, was made by telling fortunes.

Queen Victoria has conferred on Lady Curzon, vice reine of India, the decoration of the Imperial Order of the Crown of India. This is exclusively a woman's order, and Lady Curzon is the sixty-fifth to receive the honor.

Lady Thompson of Toronto waited upon the Ontario cabinet recently with some friends and asked that the sale of cigarettes to boys under 18 years of age be prohibited. She was promised that the matter would be given immediate attention.

Lillian Russell was born on Dec. 4, 1861, in Clinton, Ia. She made her first appearance on the stage as a professional in the chorus of the Park theater, Brooklyn, and joined Rice's "Evangeline" company in the fall of 1878 as a principal singer.

Adele Marie Rickey, in a lecture in New York recently, said colors in every apparel have a decided effect on health and disposition. Green, for instance, is bad for people with nervous maladies, and royal purple is beneficial for people having a tendency to sore throat.

Miss Ellen Terry's favorite hobby is one which is probably not followed by any other leading actress or otherwise. She has quite a passion for collecting the eyeglasses of celebrities, and whenever she begs a pair she invariably gets the wearer of them to write his or her autograph upon them.

Mme. Modjeska, the famous actress, is one of the few people who can do two entirely opposite things at the same moment. She will sit upon the stage apparently writing a letter that causes her the greatest grief and agony—the tears running down her cheeks and the sobbing shaking her whole frame—and on the paper that lies before her she draws funny caricatures of persons she knows.

OVER THE OCEAN.

Street refuse in Italy is sold by public auction.

Hypnotism is scientifically studied in some of the French medical colleges.

The lifeboats round the British coast during the last year rescued 682 people.

More than 2,000 people earn a living in Paris by fortune telling, and their total yearly earnings are estimated at £400,000.

A prisoner about to be executed in France does not know the day. He is informed just 15 minutes before the ax falls.

Munich restaurants are becoming more and more international. Some of them now have American bars and English grillrooms.

The shepherds of Germany predict the weather by observing the wool on the backs of their sheep. When it is very curly, fine weather will prevail.

In every city or town in the Netherlands you will find a Rosemary street. In olden days many undertakers lived in them, the rosemary being, in the language of flowers, specially dedicated to the dead.

Many of the tall old houses in the residential streets and even squares of the inner belt of London, which less than a century ago were the houses of the well to do, have been cut up into tenements in the perpetual search for rooms to live.

PERT PERSONALS.

Rostand may have matter for a bright farce comedy before he gets through with an American lawsuit.—Tacoma Ledger.

Hobson has kissed a bride in Japan. The young man simply can't resist the temptation.—Philadelphia North American.

It is now said that Mr. Roberts of Utah cannot make a speech. Having three wives, he has learned to listen.—Pittsburg News.

Edison is becoming a very lazy and indolent man. In fact, he himself admits that he sleeps 5 hours out of the 24.—Kansas City Times.

The effort of the Hon Bill Sterrett to introduce the dress suit at breakfast in Texas has very properly been scolded by the Indians.—Memphis Commercial Appeal.

Old sayings are being wrecked daily. Queen Victoria now finds great difficulty in keeping awake notwithstanding the statement that uneasy lies the head that wears a crown.—Philadelphia Times.

Sir Thomas Lipton continues to give evidence that he has got money to burn. A little thing like the purchase of a $400,000 steam yacht by him will have to be set down as one of the incidental expenses of the next international yacht race.—Boston Herald.

JEWELRY JOTTINGS.

A watch guard of sporting character carries out in gold and aluminium a curb chain and snaffle bit design.

Buckles and slides for shoulder straps, ribbon bow centers and throat bands represent all shapes, being square, round, oval or oblong, as well as assuming many fanciful variations of these outlines.

The pendant fad seems to threaten in rings, in which, however, it appears a precarious and inconvenient indulgence. In this case the ring should be a slender band to which the pendant gem or gems are attached.

The favor in which richly colored stones are held extends this season to the engagement ring. While the diamond, of course, continues to be the standard stone many women prefer something more individual in character, and accordingly the now fashionable emerald, the ruby and the sapphire serve as very chic emblems of betrothal.—Jewelers' Circular.

UPPER CUTS.

Fitzsimmons and Sharkey are now engaged in an unlimited round contest to see which can escape fighting the other.—Memphis Commercial Appeal.

Judging by the caution and evasion indulged in by Sharkey, Fitzsimmons and Jeffries the trio of pugilists believe the old prize ring adage, "A match well made is half won."—Boston Traveler.
