

WEST BRANCH NOTES.

MARCH 31—Work and weather are progressing favourably.
Mr. J. Murray is hustling out the lumber for the public wharf, and has ten men and four span of horses employed.
Cheerfulness also prevails, although the exit of some of "the favoured ones" has cast a shade in various directions.
Messrs G. & J. Robertson have returned to Newburyport, Mass., for an indefinite period, and are greatly missed in our social gatherings.
Mr. Keswick and son Bert, of Mortimore passed through our town on a business tour Friday.
A few of our elite attended the Nicholas River concert and pronounced it grand.
I would recommend to public notice those patent bird window-locks, as a benighted traveller of our vicinity failing to awaken the inmates of one of our homes either by calling or rapping, gave a window locked by one of those, a desperate shove and to his great joy found it went, letting him safely inside without disturbing or alarming the household.
Miss Mary McMurray is doing as well as can be expected. Mrs. J. Murray has quite recovered from her recent illness.
Gossip Alley is still thronged, and has almost as many admirers as "there are leaves in Valambrosa."

Mr. Jonsson Murray has returned from Moncton.
Our girls and boys were very wrathful on reading "Ut Prosim's" criticism, but have concluded that the information was obtained from a very unreliable source, and like Daven's "handful of mud" spoken of in the Moncton Times, such criticism is not to be taken in earnest. Indeed many of the learned and eloquent sentiments depicted, were not endorsed even by "The Chosen Few."
Caterpillars have made their appearance here.
There is a wolf in sheep's clothing prowling round, but up to date "The Animal" has done no material harm.
Butter is scarce, eggs plentiful.
Miss Nina Haines was visiting friends here Saturday, and we were all pleased to see her.
We were thinking of importing a teacher to teach us the Art of Dancing, but have concluded to organize a latin class instead. Your fertile brains will guess to whom we will give the preference as teacher. Some of our pious friends remind me of the Perthshire minister and the Deacon.
We are pleased to know that our Mail Driver gets his share of the good roads.
Another party has been added to the list and the Bon-Ton were entertained in elegant style. I can't say whether they tripped the light fantastic or not, but I do know that both adults and children enjoyed themselves immensely.

AU REVOIR.
Haygard's Yellow Oil relieves pain, reduces swelling, takes out inflammation, cures Rheumatism, Croup, and Kidney Complaint. Can be used externally or internally. Price 25c.
A commission to be appointed by the Dominion Government will start for Alberta and Saskatchewan on May 1 to pay out scrip to the Metis.

ST. VITUS CURED.

THE STORY OF A BRIGHT YOUNG GIRL'S RECOVERY.

She was First Attacked With La Grippe, the After Effects Resulting in St. Vitus' Dance—Friends Despaired of Her Recovery.

From the Acadien, Wolfville, N. S.
The mails from Wolfville to Gaspereau are carried every day by an official who is noted for his willingness to accommodate and the punctuality with which he discharges his duties. His name is Mr. Meriner Cleveland and his home is in Gaspereau, where he resides with his wife and grand-daughter, Miss Lizzie May Cleveland, a bright girl of fifteen years. A few months ago the health of their grand-daughter was a source of very great anxiety to Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland, and the neighbors who learned of the physical condition of the little girl gravely shook their heads and said to themselves that the fears of the fond grandparents were by no means groundless. When the news reached the ears of an Acadien man, a short time ago, that the health of Miss Cleveland had been restored, he hastened to interview Mr. Cleveland as to the facts of the case. When he explained his errand both Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland appeared only too eager to give him the information sought, and it is in accordance with their wishes that we give to the public the facts of this remarkable cure. Early in December, 1898, Miss Cleveland was taken ill with a severe attack of la grippe and fears of her recovery were entertained. Careful nursing, however, brought her through this malady, but it left her system in a completely run-down condition. This showed itself principally in a weakness of the nerves. In January symptoms of St. Vitus' dance began to show themselves. At first these were not very prominent, but it was not long before she was rendered altogether helpless by this terrible malady. In a short time she lost all control over the movements of her hands and feet. For weeks she had to be carried from room to room and was unable to feed herself. Her grandparents naturally became very much alarmed and having tried other remedies without effect, determined to give Mr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial. Developments showed that their confidence was not misplaced. When three boxes had been used the condition of the patient had improved considerably. Then Mr. Cleveland bought six boxes more and continued their use as before. The sufferer rapidly began to recover. When she had consumed the fifth box Mrs. Cleveland reduced the dose to one pill a day and by the time the sixth box was gone a complete cure was effected. Miss Cleveland is now as vigorous and healthy as could be desired. Her grand-parents are persuaded that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are alone responsible for her cure and are devoutly thankful for the results, which, under Providence, they have produced.

Sold by all dealers or sent post paid at 50c. a box or six boxes for $2.50, by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont. Do not be persuaded to try something else said to be "just as good."
PEABODY, MASS.
Not having seen any notes from this town for the past few weeks, I thought I would write a few lines to say that I am still alive, although I have just recovered from the la grippe.
We are having very pleasant weather here and it looks now as though the robins will soon be back again.
There seems to be great attraction in Peabody of late for some of the members of the Provincial Lodge of Salem. We are sorry they have the misfortune to make all their engagements on stormy nights. But cheer up boys, faint hearts never won fair ladies.
Mr. Albert Barnes, accompanied by Mr. Mackay a brother of James Mackay, of this town, made a short visit here last week.
Miss Minnie Baldwin is visiting friends in town.
Mr. and Mrs. J. Baldwin, of Cambridge, Mass., spent Sunday in town visiting relatives.
A very pretty home wedding took place at the home of Mrs. H. Spencer, Ispwich, Mass., Mar. 14th, when her son Crawford P., was united in marriage to Miss Mary McDonald, of that town, but formerly of Nova Scotia. The bride was attended by her sister, the best man being Mr. Edward McNeill, of Lynn. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends and the young couple were well remembered with many handsome presents.
Miss Jessie Ward, of Malden, Mass., has been spending the past week with her brother Mr. Elliott Ward, of Auburn St. MAN ABOUT TOWN.

It JUST HITS THE RIGHT SPOT, is what people say who have used The Baird Company's Wine of Tar Holey and Wild Cherry. This perfection Cough and Throat remedy contains no deleterious drugs of any kind whatever.
Be sure you get Kendrick's Liniment if your horse is run down, give Granger Condition Powders, a true tonic and blood purifier.

Chest Feels Tight.
You seem all choked up and stuffed up with the cold—find it hard to breathe. Cough that rasps and tears you—but little phlegm got up.
Now's the time to take Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup before things get too serious. There is no remedy equal to it for making the breathing easy, loosening the phlegm and removing all the alarming symptoms of a severe cold.
"I caught a severe cold which settled on my chest, making it feel raw and tight. Seeing Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup advertised I procured a bottle, which greatly relieved me. It loosened the phlegm, healed the lungs, and soon had me perfectly well."
NEIL MCKAY, RIPLEY, ONT.
