MOODY'S REMARKABLE LIFE.—We have received a book of much importance at the present time, from The Poole Publishing Company, Toronto, "The life of D. L. Moody." The book is attractive and is well printed on good white paper. Thirty-three pages of illustrations embellish its pages, covering the outstanding features in Mr. Moody's career, home life and religious experience. Its circulation will probably be very large, as Mr. Moody had a powerful influence in Canada, was known here quite as well as across the line, and his was a potent name in thousands of Christian households. The book is published at 25 cents in heavy paper cover, or 50 cents bound in cloth, is for sale at all book stores or will be sent post-paid by the publishers on receipt of price. Everyone will want to read the story of the life work of this remarkable man.

PTE. J. B. SCOTT KILLED.—Last Thursday night Police officer Edward Scott, of Moncton, received the following despatch from Fredericton:

FREDERICTON, March 1. "Regret to report that Pte. J. B. Scott was killed at Paardeberg on the 17th." (Signed) A. P. B. NAGLE, Adjutant.

Pte. J. B. Scott was a nephew of Officer Scott and previous to his enlistment with the first Canadian contingent, had been attending the military school at Fredericton. He went direct to Quebec from Fredericton and just before the departure of the Sardinian he fell over an embankment at Quebec, sustaining injuries which at first was thought would prevent his sailing with the troops.—Transcript. [Pte. Scott was also a nephew of Mr. John Scott, of Richibucto, and a native of Jardineville, Kent Co.—Ed. REVIEW.]

DEATH OF MISS JOSIE SUTTON, OF BUCTOUCHE.—The community at Buctouche was much saddened on learning of the death of Miss Josie Sutton, Buctouche's most popular young lady, which took place at her home in Buctouche on Friday morning, March 2nd. Miss Sutton was a school teacher, and received her common school education at Buctouche where she prepared herself for Normal school. She attended the Normal school at Fredericton having received there her license to teach. She has taught in several districts in Kent County as well as for a time in the Primary department of the Buctouche Superior school, and while there, as well as the other districts she has taught in, she won the confidence and love of the children in her school and also the parents of her pupils at their homes. About a year ago she was compelled on account of impaired health to give up her beloved work. At this time, and until a few days before her death no one ever imagined that her sickness would prove fatal. She was of a loving disposition, cheerful under all circumstances and ever seeking the welfare of others. She was devoted to her home and friends and was of most unselfish character. She was a faithful companion and a true friend. It was sweet to her and naturally she longed to the valued gift and never murmured nor complained at her sufferings. Many hearts go out in genuine sympathy to the sorrowing sisters and brother in their bereavement. All classes showed their respect for the deceased young woman by attending the funeral which was one of the largest ever seen in Buctouche.

(From another correspondent.)

The funeral of Miss Josie Sutton which took place on Sunday afternoon, was followed by a large concourse of sympathizing friends. The deceased was a universal favorite and always had a pleasant smile and kind word. She was especially beloved by the children. One little instance was brought to my notice, a little brother and sister stood beside the casket, the little girl said, "she will never make any more doll clothes for me," her small brother answered, "she is better off." Much regret was felt by all, that the three sisters who were away did not get home, owing to the severe storm, in time to see her alive. They have the sympathy of the whole village in their affliction, having been called upon to part with father, mother and sister in the short space of three years.

RICHIBUCTO'S LOYALTY

Grand Celebration of the Relief of Ladysmith.

Citizens Parade the Streets Headed by The Brass Band--Two Large Bonfires.

Richibucto has at last awakened to the fact that she is part of the British Empire and last Thursday when the news reached here of the relief of Ladysmith her loyalty was clearly manifested. About eight o'clock last Thursday morning a telegram was received announcing the glad news that Ladysmith had been relieved. The news spread about town like wild fire and before noon church bells were ringing and whistles were blowing and Queen street was lined with people rejoicing over the news of the victory. Flags were then raised all along Queen street, the first one being raised from the store of F. Ferguson & Co., the REVIEW office coming next in line by raising six different flags. By 12 o'clock Queen street was completely lined with flags, which showed that Richibucto was "not behind the times" in showing her loyalty. In the afternoon a band of school children, some fifty or more in number, paraded the streets, with cow bells, horse bells, fog horns and tin pans, showing that they too were going to take part in the celebration.

About seven o'clock in the evening a large crowd of people gathered at the Masonic hall to take part in the most important part of the celebration. After the band had played several choice selections, and "God Save the Queen" and "Soldiers of the Queen" were sung at the hall, the citizens, numbering about 200, and headed by Sheriff Leger and Mr. Frederick Ferguson holding large torches and followed by the brass band, paraded the streets, beginning at the Masonic hall and going down Queen street to Shedden St., across Shedden to Pagan, up Pagan to Court, across Court to Queen and down Queen street to the Masonic hall. During the parade a number of young men kept continually discharging guns which could be heard for several miles around. After returning to the hall "God Save the Queen" and "Soldiers of the Queen" were again sung and the band played three more selections. Three cheers were then given for General Buller and his army, as well as for the brave Canadian soldiers who gave up their lives for their Queen and country during the battle of the surrender of Cronje.

The immense crowd of people which had gathered there retired outside of the hall to witness two large bonfires which had been made by several of the boys. Kruger in effigy was held on top of one of the fires until it was all consumed. The fires burned until late that night, but the remains of Kruger could not be seen the next morning on account of the storm which had set in before the bonfires were started and had covered them over. Several of the houses around town were beautifully lighted during the parade, as many as sixteen different colored candles shining in each window of some of them. Altogether the celebration was a grand success, notwithstanding the storm which kept a large number of people from turning out.

The Ontario government will grant $100,000 a year for ten years to improve the roads of the province if a satisfactory system is found.

A Bright Life Ruined by Cocaine

Which he first took in a Catarrh Remedy—Ends his Life in an Insane Asylum.

The manager of a large manufacturing concern in Toronto tells the pathetic story of how one of their travellers, a young man of great promise, became addicted to the cocaine habit by using a catarrh remedy containing this deadly drug.

In a few months he became a wreck, mentally and physically, and is now ending his life in an insane asylum.

It is impossible to estimate the countless number of lives being sacrificed to this dreadful habit as a result of using cocaine in a remedy for catarrh.

As a guarantee that Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure is perfectly free from cocaine we publish the following certificate of purity from Dominion Analyst Thos. Heys, of Toronto:—"I have made a careful examination of Dr. A. W. Chase's Catarrh Cure for cocaine or any of its compounds from samples purchased in the open market and find none present." (Signed) Thos. Heys.

The efficiency of Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure in radically curing the worst cases of chronic catarrh is too well known to need further comment. See a box, blowers free, at all dealers, or EDMANSON, BATES & Co., Toronto.

For coughs and colds use Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine.
