CHEAP READING.

THE REVIEW has arranged with the St. John Telegraph a combination offer to cover the subscription to this paper and the Semi-Weekly Telegraph.

The St. John Semi-Weekly Telegraph

AND

The Richibucto Review

will be sent to subscribers for one year for $1.00

The Semi-Weekly Telegraph is a 16-page paper published twice a week, containing all the news of this Province as well as the latest and most reliable news from the Transvaal war. To families in districts not supplied with a daily mail service the Semi-Weekly Telegraph is preferable to either a St. John or Montreal Daily.

No family on the North Shore need be without good, up-to-date reading matter at the price quoted.

$1.00 A YEAR FOR THE TWO PAPERS.

A GREAT VOLUNTEER ARMY.

Volunteer service is always the best service. A drafted soldier has no heart in his work. A soldier who is prompted by a genuine love of country is worth forty soldiers who are fighting for pay. The largest volunteer army of soldiers in the world are those who are yielding the sword of the Spirit, commonly known as the Word of God. It is not generally known that one million, three hundred thousand men and women go out every Sabbath day with Bible under arm to teach the children of our great country the principles of morality and the golden rule. If this vast army would be paid the mere pittance of one dollar per week for their services, it would amount to nearly one hundred millions of dollars, annually, and yet without pay, they go forth week after week, in storm and sunshine to teach your children and mine how to be better citizens. These figures are furnished to us by the International Sunday School Convention, which has a fostering care over all the Sunday schools of the country. This organization gives us the International Lesson System, and is the mother of all Sunday school improvement. B. F. Jacobs, Atwood Building, Chicago, is the Chairman of the Committee having this great work in charge.

A TERRIBLE COUGH.

I had a terrible cough and cold, and not getting anything to help me, I tried Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and am glad to say it cured me at once.

MISS CARRIE BOWMAN,
Peepabun P. O., Ont.

Two severe cases that were completely cured by the Great Blood Purifier and Healer, Suffered For over eleven years I 11 Years. suffered with Dyspepsia and tried everything I could think of, but was unable to get relief until I took Burdock Blood Bitters. I had only taken one bottle when I commenced to feel better, and after taking five or six bottles was entirely well, and have remained so ever since, and feel as though B.B.B. had saved my life.—Mrs. T. G. Joyce, Stanhope, P. Q.

Covered My little boy, aged 10 With Sores. years, was a complete mass of sores, caused, the doctor said, by bad blood. His head and body were entirely covered with sores, and we could find no cure. Finally I got a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, and before one-half the bottle was gone he began to improve and by the time it was finished there was not a sore on him.

I used the B.B.B. as a wash as well as internally, and it seemed to give great relief as soon as it was put on.—Mrs. Philip Mitchell, St. Mary's, Ont.

THE WAR.

THE WAR SITUATION.

LONDON, April 4.—General Colville and Gen. French have given up the move against the Boers east of Bloemfontein and have rejoined the main army. It doubtless seemed to Lord Roberts a vain thing to send from ten to twelve thousand of his best troops into the wilderness with a field transport in direction of a right angle with his chosen line of advance. The Boers have probably moved elsewhere and if to the southwest Gen. Colville could as easily strike them from Bloemfontein as by following them up across the plains. These inferences still leave the situation bewildering for the time being. The enormously superior British forces appear inactive in every part of the war field, waiting probably for the accumulation of material for a swift advance on the Transvaal frontier.

The London military commentators and the public also to some extent are irritated and confused by the situation. Details received of the scenes on Green Market Square, Capetown, Tuesday, when Premier Schreiner encountered an English demonstration, show the premier, fearing personal violence, sought refuge in a restaurant. He was hooted and tried to reach parliament house protected by police. The people shouted "Traitor," but he succeeded in reaching the house.

Lord Roberts did not meet his wife at Cape Town. She will proceed to Bloemfontein.

The permanent bridge at the Modder River station has been finished the first train passed over it Tuesday.

The British garrison at Springfontein was roused at midnight Monday by the information that Boers in force were about to make an attack, but not a burgher appeared.

PRETORIA WELL DEFENDED.

NEW YORK, April 4.—Interviewed by the Washington correspondent of the Herald ex-assistant secretary Webster Davies said, in part, with reference to his visit to Pretoria.—"I viewed the defences of Pretoria, and I consider them impregnable. The line of hills surrounding the town bristle with high power Krupp and Creusot guns. "Pretoria lies in a basin surrounded by a ridge of rugged hills, affording most admirable opportunities for defence. While there I learned enough to know that the city is on vast storehouse of food stuffs and ammunition."

THE QUEEN AT DUBLIN.

HER MAJESTY GIVEN A VERY WARM WELCOME.

DUBLIN, April 4, 11.45 a. m.—Queen Victoria landed in Ireland this morning for the first time in thirty-nine years. The disembarkation from the royal yacht was accomplished at 11.30. The commander of the forces in Ireland, the Duke of Connaught; the Lord Lieut., Earl Cadogan, and staffs, greeted Her Majesty, and the ride from Kingstown to Dublin commenced in splendid weather and before huge good-natured crowds.

The Queen's progress from Kingstown to the vice regal lodge was marked with great enthusiasm. There were no untoward incidents. At the entrance to the city she received an address of welcome and handed the Lord Mayor a reply, in which she said she had come to Ireland for rest and quiet and that it gave her great gladness to return to the land of so many happy associations, whose soldiers had recently fought so gallantly. The following was Her Majesty's reply in full:

"I thank you heartily for the loyal welcome and good wishes which you have tendered me on behalf of yourself and your fellow citizens on my arrival in the ancient capital of my Irish dominion. I came to this fair country to seek a change and rest and to revisit scenes which recall to my mind the warm welcome given to both myself and my beloved husband. I am deeply gratified that I have been able at this time to see again the motherland of those brave sons who have recently distinguished themselves in the defence of my crown and empire with cheerful valor as conspicuous now as ever, in their glorious past. I pray that the Almighty God may ever bless and direct you in the high functions which you exercise for the benefit of your fellow citizens."

The Queen appeared to be much affected by the warmth of her welcome. Mr. Burke, a son of the former city sword bearer, took the place of Mr. Jas. Egan, the sword bearer, who had refused to officiate, but the lord mayor himself handed the sword and keys to Her Majesty, who touched them. The ceremonies at the city gate were most picturesque. London's jubilee lord mayor, Sir George Faudel Philips, declared that the reception and ceremonies were the finest he had ever seen, far surpassing those of the great jubilee.

In reply to the address of welcome of the township commissioners of Kingstown the Queen handed the following to the chairman:

"Chairman: I thank you for your loyal and dutiful address and for the warm welcome with which you have greeted me. On setting foot again on Irish soil I receive with great satisfaction your assurances of affection and devotion towards me. I am looking forward with much pleasure to my visit to this part of my dominion and I pray may God bless Ireland with increasing welfare and prosperity."

As this written reply was handed to the chairman Her Majesty said: "I am very pleased to find myself in Ireland again."

DUBLIN, April 2.—The corporation of the city of Dublin, at its meeting to-day, by a vote of 49 to 9, passed this resolution, moved by Timothy Harrington.

"That inasmuch as a section of the unionist press of Great Britain and Ireland has interpreted the vote of this council to present an address of welcome to Her Majesty as an abandonment of our claim to national self-government this council, assembled on the centenary of the passing of the act of union, hereby declares that that act was obtained by fraud and shameful corruption.

"That the people of this country never can give a system of government so established their loyal support, and that, as far as the vast body of the people is concerned, there can be neither contentment nor loyalty in this country until the national parliament is restored."

All the nationalist members of the corporation, including those who had been favorable to the presentation of the address to the Queen, voted for the resolution. The Tories alone opposed it.

WORKED BOTH WAYS.

"It's a fine morning, Biddy," said the squire.

"It's a foine morning, your honor and ladyship; and sure I had a foine dream last night!"

"What did you dream, Biddy!" inquired the lady.

"Shure, I drimt his honor gave me a pound of bacey and your ladyship gave me a pound of tay."

"Oh," laughingly replied the squire, "but you know, Biddy, dreams go by contraries."

"Sure, then, your honor can give me the pound of tay and her ladyship can give me the pound of bacey."
