A BIRTHDAY SURPRISE.—A very pleas-ant surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Scott on Monday night. A number of their young friends called at their residence on Queen St., and on being admitted said they intended to celebrate Mr. Scott's birthday, which was on that day, and which they did most royally. Cards, crochets and other amusements were indulged in until a late hour, after which cake and ice cream was served. The company dispersed about half past one o'clock, after have spent a most enjoyable evening.

W. F. M. S. MEETING.—The members of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist church held their annual meeting in the Methodist Church on Tuesday evening and was very largely attended. The meeting was a success in every way and was enjoyed by those present. A silvers collection was taken up during the evening which will go towards helping along the society. The following program was successfully carried out during the evening: Singing by Congregation—"Hail to the Lord's Anointed." Prayer by Pastor. Responsive Scripture reading. Chorus by Choir—"Ring Happy Bells." Treasurer's Report, Miss Beers. Secy's Report, Mrs. G. W. Robertson. President's Address. Duet—"Hark the Voice of Jesus Call- ing," Mr. and Miss Lawson. Recitation—"The King's Message," Miss Robertson. Address on Africa, Rev. H. A. Meek. Chorus by Choir—"Gather in the Sheaves." Recitation—"Aunt Dinah's Prayer," Miss Lawson. Missionary Exercise—"The Light of the World is Jesus," (with lighted candles) Collection. Chorus by Choir—"Go Work To-day." Closing remarks by Pastor. Benediction.

EASTER MEETING.—The usual Easter meeting of the parishioners of St. Mary's Church was held in the parish church Monday afternoon when the following of- ficers were duly elected for the ensuing year: Wardens—Wm. Hudson and Wm. Dickinson. Vestrymen—John Stevenson, Robert Cochrane, John Weston, Jonathan Forster, Thomas G. Dickinson, Joseph Michaud, Wm. Curwin, D. Percy, David Thompson, Fred S. Sayre, Allen Haines, Jr., and Thos. Forster. Lay Delegates—John Stevenson and Jonathan Forster. Sqb.—Robert Cochrane and Wm. Dickinson. Vestry Clerk and Treas- urer—Fred S. Sayre. Organists, Richi- bucto—Miss Hudson; Kingston, Miss Maggie Dickinson. A vote of thanks was tendered to the many friends who in various ways assist in the conducting of church affairs. Also to THE REVIEW for its kind- ness in publishing from time to time the church notices, free of cost. The finances were reported as being in better shape than for many years past, the handsome balance on hand being $54.68. Much encouragement should be taken from this and other efforts put forth the coming year. Some needed improvements were spoken of being made in the interior of the church which if carried out will add much to the already comfortable fix- ings of the same. The system known as "the envelope system" is now in good working order and it is urged that all friends kindly endeavor to use this plan in giving of their means to carry on the work of the church as it is largely owing to this method that the finances are in such good shape.

DEATH AT WEST BRANCH.—A corre- spondent from that place writes: We re- gret to have to report the sudden death of Mr. John Robertson, one of our finest and most enterprising young men, which occurred at Newburyport, Mass., a few days ago at the age of 24 years. Deceased, who had been visiting his parents a short time ago returned to the U. S. with his brother, and was only there a few days when he was stricken with Pneumonia, which proved fatal. Two of the most eminent physicians were in attendance and he was also given the best of nursing which proved of no avail. He was per- fectly sensible to the last and bid his bro- ther farewell and told him to bid his friends good-bye. His remains were brought to West Branch for burial, and his funeral which was very largely attend- ed, took place on Good Friday morning,

Headache
Is often a warning that the liver is torpid or inactive. More serious troubles may follow. For a prompt, efficient cure of Headache and all liver troubles, take
Hood's Pills
While they rouse the liver, restore full, regular action of the bowels, they do not gripe or pain, do not irritate or inflame the internal organs, but have a positive tonic effect. 25c. at all druggists or by mail of C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Rev. W. M. Townsend officiating. The pall bearers were: Messrs. Johnson Mur- ray, Ross Hannah, Kenzie McMichael and Moody McMichael. The floral offerings from friends at home and abroad were both expensive and beautiful. A wreath of beautiful Easter lilies and roses and also a bouquet of Easter lilies were really handsome and were silent monitors of the high esteem in which he was held. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved parents, sister and brothers.
"A precious one from them is gone, A voice they loved is stilled; A place is vacant in their home Which never can be filled.
God in his wisdom has recalled, The boon his love had given, And though the body slumbers here, The soul is safe in heaven."

—Read the new advt. of J. & W. Brait on page 4 of this issue.
—The best production of the best pro- ducers, Union Blend Teas, a key in every pound package.
—The river is fast opening up. Open water can be seen as far up as Marsh point. Several more hot days will see the river clear of ice.
—Geo. S. deForest & Sons will give $400, in cash to purchasers of Union Blend Teas who present the proper keys in November next.
—Mr. Hans Olsen, of Port Elgin, has been employed by Mr. G. W. Robertson as engineer of his tug Calluna, and is at work fitting her up for the coming season.
—The streets around town are almost bare and wagons are being used. A few more fine days will take all the snow off and will soon makes the roads in a fit state for wheeling.
—Special sermons were preached in the various churches on Sunday in commem- oration of Easter. The churches were decorated with Easter lilies and other house plants and special hymns were sung.
—The last horse to cross the ice here was Dr. Bourque's which crossed last Friday morning. Although the ice was hardly safe for travelling on the doctor had no difficulty in getting across. He returned in the evening.
—Wild geese were very scarce last week on account of the recent Northeast storm, but they are reported very plentiful just now. Several of our shooters returned yesterday morning from a trip to the gully with a large number of birds.
—Easter Sunday evening an offering was taken up in Chalmer's Presbyterian church for the Indian Famine Fund, which amounted to $16.57. The C. E. Society also contributed $7.63, making in all $24.20 from the church in Richibucto.
—Attention is called to the new advt. of O. K. Black on page 6 of this issue, and also to his Notice on the 3rd page. Mr. Black has just received a large assortment of Furniture for spring trade and invites the public to call and examine his goods before purchasing elsewhere.
—We have just received from New York a copy of The Home Magazine con- taining a number of interesting and in- structive articles among which we notice is "A Neglected Land of Plenty." This article is the most important one in the Magazine and is very interesting to those desirous of good reading.
—The undersigned wishes to say that he has just returned from Montreal and St. John, N. B., with a large stock of goods, some of them being bankrupt stock, which he intends to sell cheap for cash, as he wishes to dispose of them as quickly as possible. These goods consist principally of Ladies' and Gent's summer wear. A. B. BELLAR SAYRE.
—We very much regret to say that we were unable to publish the last batch of notes from our correspondent in Kingston in the issue which they should have been published in, on account of being pressed for space and time, but trust he will still continue sending any items of news which may come before his notice, as we will be pleased to publish them if possible.
—We are in receipt of the March num- ber of the Educational Review Supple- mentary Readings published by G. U. Hay, St. John, N. B., which are very in- structive and contains facts about our history which everybody should read. Among the many subjects in this number are "Newfoundland as it is," by Rev. M. Harvey, LL. D., "The Return of the Acadians," by J. Vroom, besides a number of other interesting subjects.
—All predictions indicate a great rush this spring and summer to the new gold fields at Cape Nome. Here, for the first time in the history of mankind, gold is being washed from the beach sand. Mr. C. Edgar Lewis writes on this subject in the April Magazine Number of The Out- look, with very full information, and with some new and extremely interesting pho- tographs of Cape Nome scenes, streets and miners. ($3 a year. The Outlook Company, New York.)
—Several boys and young men from Kingston, namely, Frederick Malley, James Faulkner, Charles Robichaud, Fred- erick Robichaud, Joseph Gallant, John Gallant, Jr., and Henry Quinn were be- fore Justice John T. Caie, Tuesday, charged with snowballing the store and residence of Mr. John Taylor and break- ing his windows. It appears that these boys have been for some time indulging in snowballing around the streets of King- ston and Mr. Taylor decided it was about time to have a stop put to the practice. The boys pleaded guilty to the charge and a fine of five dollars and costs was entered against each, the costs to be paid forthwith and the fines to stand for the future good behaviour of the boys. Mr. Taylor waived all personal costs and dam- ages and the boys were allowed to go after paying the constable and Justice's fees and promising to avoid such practices in the future.

STRENGTHENS WEAK LUNGS.
Many persons are in a condition to invite Pneumonia or Consumption by reason of inherited tendency or other causes. They catch cold easily—find it difficult to get rid of an ordinary cough or cold. We would advise all such people to use Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.
It is a wonderful strengthener and healer of the breathing organs, and fortifies the lungs against serious pulmonary diseases.
Miss Clara Marshall, Moore, Ont., writes: "I have suffered several years with weak lungs and could get no cure, so became discouraged. If I caught cold it was hard to get rid of it. I started using Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and as a result my cough has been cured and my lungs greatly strengthened."
