A number of Canadians from all over the Dominion, but particularly from Ontario and Quebec, have gone through Buffalo and visited the Exposition grounds merely casually.

When George D. Cameron, commissioner for the Pan-American to the Dominion brings his Canadian friends here, his method of properly impressing them is to take them first to the Ellicott Square...

A man by the name of Remi Parise met with a sad and painful accident last week at Caraguet. He was employed by Messrs. Robin, Collas & Co., in hauling boats to their winter quarters.

CANADIANS BECOMING CONVINCED.

ERRONEOUS IDEAS OF THE PAN-AMERICAN EXPOSITION ARE BEING RAPIDLY CORRECTED BY VISITORS.

(Buffalo Engineer.)

Any number of visitors to Buffalo the past three months have visited the Pan-American grounds. Many have come with a very incomplete idea of the imminence of the Exposition...

METHOD IN USE.

When George D. Cameron, commissioner for the Pan-American to the Dominion brings his Canadian friends here, his method of properly impressing them is to take them first to the Ellicott Square...

This morning James C. Duffield, the president of the City Gas Company of London, Ontario, came to Buffalo with Commissioner Cameron and made his tour of investigation of the Pan-American.

'It's the biggest surprise I ever had,' he said to The Enquirer. 'Why, I'd supposed, as most of the people in Canada suppose, that you were to have a show something on a par with the Toronto Exposition. I was entirely unprepared for the immensity of this thing. We've heard something of the Pan-American, to be sure, but thought it was some Yankee scheme to corral Canadian money with the plea of being a show for all the Americans.'

TALK IN PROVINCE.

'To show you how the thing has been received in Canada, I can tell you of the talk that has been made throughout the province, of starting a counter attraction in the shape of an exposition in Toronto. For this exposition it was proposed to donate $100,000, a pretty big splurge, we thought. But goodness, here you're putting in $10,000,000.'

'I tell you, the Canadians don't appreciate in the slightest what you are going to have down here. Canadian manufacturers and others who could exhibit, particularly. I'm sure that about 90 per cent. of the people of Ontario will come to Buffalo next year. They can't help it when they realize, and they surely will, what a big show you've got. It will be the opportunity of a lifetime for anyone within several hundred miles of here. From 50 to 60 per cent. of the people of Quebec will come.'

'If Canadian manufacturers could only see what I've seen to-day, there would be a rush for space that you would not be able to cope with.'

'By exhibiting in Buffalo, the Canadian manufacturer will reach his own public as quick as he possibly could in his own country, and with the added advantage of all the superlative attractions of the Pan-American for most of the people of Quebec and Ontario and a large percentage from the other provinces are sure to attend.'

A RECORD OF SCANDAL.

HOW THE COUNTRY WAS ROBBED UNDER CONSERVATIVE REGIME.

(Montreal Herald)

The politicians who managed the affairs of Canada for so long, particularly Sir Charles Tupper, are asking for the confidence of the electors. We are, therefore, compelled to look at the record they spread upon the pages of Canadian history.

Charges of dishonesty, nepotism and fraud against Alexander Mackenzie, who is now acknowledged by these same men to have been a model of integrity and patriotism.

An anti-British policy of protection, which taxed British goods higher than goods from the United States, and which they said, if it hurt British connection, then "so much the worse for British connection."

A policy that drove Canadians out of the country and let all our immigrants slip through our fingers so that the census of 1891 showed a depleted population, and compelled a reduction in the parliamentary representation.

Unparalleled corruption, costing Canada many millions of dollars, and compelling one Conservative after the other to retire from public life, either by way of resignation, or the gaol.

About $1,500,000 were stolen from the public chest out of the total expenditure of $1,800,000 on the St. Charles branch of the Intercolonial Railway, only 14 miles long. Sir Charles Tupper communicated with the contributors to campaign funds at Quebec through his nephew Mr. Charles Tupper Hillson, who was a foreman on the Levis end of the road.

Between 1878 and 1891, during nearly the whole of which time Sir Charles Tupper was a member of the cabinet, one firm of contractors received $3,138,250 for which they did $2,000,000 worth of work, including a fair profit. They expended in bribery and corruption $170,447, according to entries in their own books. A man who had a "pull" on a colleague of Sir Charles Tupper's received $187,000. A cabinet minister received at least $10,000 for favors granted.

A parliamentary supporter and confidential political agent of the cabinet of which Sir Charles Tupper was a member received $130,000. He owned up to receiving $60,000, but an examination of the books showed the larger sum, which, it was said, was paid out to "carry the constituencies."

By letting a contract for dredging at an exorbitant rate the Conservative government received back from the beneficiaries $25,000 for the general election.

The firm of Larkin, Connolly & Co paid the agent of the cabinet $22,000 for a certain gravestone contract, the profit on which was $125,000.

For securing a cross-wall contract at Quebec for the political contractors the treasurer of the Conservative party in that district received $25,000.

For the building of the Esquimaux dock $207,168 was paid, over and above the amount of the tender. The contractors made $241,000 profits, not including $27,000 paid out in bribery and corruption and entered in the books as "donations."

An official list of expenditures in one general election campaign, 1887, showed that the sum of $112,700 was raised out of public contracts and spent in the constituencies on the orders of two cabinet ministers and the treasurer of the party funds.

A cabinet minister stated under oath that he secured $25,000 in bank bills from a railway president whose company was in receipt of subsidies from the Conservative government. He disbursed it in bribing the electors, and did not put a penny of it in his own pocket. He acted as agent of the party which is now marshalled under Sir Charles Tupper, and the culprit was shielded by Sir Mackenzie Bowell and his colleagues.

A public loss of hundreds of thousands of dollars was caused by the Curran bridge scandal or the Curran bridge steal in 1893.

Public situations were sold in Northumberland county, Ont., by the Conservative member of his election committee.

A sum of $300,000 was spent in constructing a lock which was officially estimated to cost $44,000, and which has never been used except by one boat. The contractor was a prominent party man, and immediately afterwards carried a seat for the government in the general election.

A work on the St. Lawrence canals estimated to cost $300,000 cost $900,000, and even then the minister of railways and canals, Mr. Haggart, stated in the House of Commons, in 1894, that the work was not used for the purpose intended, viz., navigation.

Frauds were discovered and exposed by investigation in the department in regard to immigration.

Frauds were detected in the inside department of railways and canals, and the secretary of the department they were forced to dismiss.

Frauds were exposed in the department of the interior, and detailed in evidence printed by order of parliament.

All these things were exposed by the Liberals when in opposition, and are on the official records of the Dominion.

One Hen One Day One Mill

It costs a mill a day—one cent every ten days—to make a hen a lively layer when eggs are high, with SHERRIDAN'S CONDITION POWDER. Calculate the profit. It helps young pullets to laying maturity; makes the plumage glossy; makes combs bright red.

The electors will hesitate before they put these men back in charge of the public exchequer in place of a man against whom not a single act of corruption has been proved.

SUFFERED 15 YEARS.

Mrs. Wm. Ireland, 170 Queen St. East, wife of the well known shoemaker suffered from indigestion and constipation for over 15 years. Nothing did her any good till she tried Laxa-Liver Pills, which cured her.

THE STRIKE SITUATION.

HAZLETON, Oct. 24.—President Mitchell to-night announced that he would to-morrow, probably late in the afternoon or evening, issue a statement defining the position of the united mine workers in the present situation of the strike. He also said that his statement would probably indicate whether the strike would be immediately declared off or be continued.

A TERRIBLE COUGH.

Mrs. Thos. Carter, North port, Ont., says: I caught a severe cold which settled on my throat and lungs and my friends thought it would send me to my grave, when other remedies failed, Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup completely cured me.
