A BEGGAR'S DODGE.—A woman is now soliciting help by a house to house canvass. Her story, a touching one, is that she has a sick daughter in Nova Scotia, and wishes to go over to her. Unfortunately, she is twenty cents short of the amount needed to buy her ticket. Would the kind lady of the house furnish the necessary twenty cents? The kind lady generally does, and the good work goes on. About two years ago a woman, similar in appearance, with a similar story, was short thirty-five cents for her trip. The sympathies of all should go out to one who has been able in two years to raise for such a purpose only fifteen cents.—St. John Star.

DIED IN MICHIGAN.—The death occurred at Mercy Hospital, Bay City, Mich., on Thursday, Nov. 1st, of James McDermott, son of the late Patrick McDermott, of Main River, Kent Co. Death was due to sarcoma. After the death of his parents James decided to go to Bay City where his only brother was. In 1889 he accepted a position as clerk and book-keeper for Mr. Joseph Turgeon, who runs a hotel at that city. He remained in Mr. Turgeon's employ until the affliction which caused his death weighed too heavily upon him and he was forced to give up work, and six months afterwards he was laid to rest. Mr. McDermott was a young man of exemplary habits, and beloved by all who knew him. He had hosts of friends in Bay City as well as in Kent Co., N. B., who sympathize with his relatives in their sad affliction but who hope to meet him in that better land where there will be no parting and where no farewell tears are shed. Mr. McDermott leaves one brother, John McDermott, who resides in Bay City, and three sisters, Mrs. Frank Doyle, of Bay City; Mrs. Sands Van Wagner, of Duluth, Minn., and Mrs. James Warren, of New Brunswick, all of whom were at the bedside of their brother to the last. THE REVIEW joins in sympathizing with his sorrowing relatives.

I could not take much food as it hurt me to eat. My friends said, 'Why don't you try B.B.B.' CORRESPONDENCE

To the Editor of The Review:

DEAR SIR.—Allow me space in your valuable paper to contradict a statement made by Geo. V. McInerney at a public meeting held in the parish of Carleton during the recent political campaign.

As I understand he made the assertion that I had told that I heard Mr. Milligan say that he could buy all the votes in the parish of Carleton for three dollars apiece. Now, I say that such a statement is untrue. I never heard Mr. Milligan say so, neither did I tell Mr. McInerney or any other person that I heard Mr. Milligan say so, and wish to know from whom or what source Mr. McInerney got his information. Wishing to hear from Mr. Geo. V. McInerney as soon as time will allow, I remain

Yours truly,
J. D. MURPHY.
