WOMEN WILL TALK.

Can't Blame them for Telling each other about Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

THE GREAT REMEDY FOR WEAK NERVOUS WOMEN.

It's only natural that when a woman finds a remedy which cures her of nervousness and weakness, relieves her pains and aches, puts color in her cheek and vitality in her whole system, she should be anxious to let her suffering sisters know of it. Mrs. Hannah Holmes, St. James Street, St. John, N.B., relates her experience with this remedy as follows:—"For some years I have been troubled with fluttering of the heart and dizziness, accompanied by a smothering feeling which prevented me from resting. My appetite was poor and I was much run down and debilitated. "Since I started using Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, the smothering feeling has gone, my heart beat is now regular, the fluttering has disappeared, and I have been wonderfully built up through the tonic effect of the pills. I now feel stronger and better than for many years, and cannot say too much in praise of the remedy which restored my long lost health."

THE WORLD OVER.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Nov. 19.—The apparent suicide of the young wife of Rev. D. E. Stuart, a Baptist Minister, who died two weeks ago, turns out to be a murder according to the suspicion of the authorities, and a warrant is now out for the arrest of the husband.

CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—Mrs. Anna Mitchell this morning secured an injunction from Judge Chetlain, which forbids her husband from stopping or addressing her on the street, or standing around near her place of abode. She alleges in her bill that since a separation which occurred in April, he has annoyed her by stopping her on the street and holding her hands. He is also said to have held her by the arms so that she could not move, and then pinched and choked her. She also alleges that since the separation he has demanded small sums of money from her and enforced payment under public ridicule and shame if she refused.

CHARLESTON, N. H., Nov. 21.—Charles H. Hoyt, the well-known playwright, died at his residence at 7.15 o'clock last night, of paresis, from which he has been suffering for several months past. Ever since his return to Charleston, after his release from a private asylum in Hartford, by order of the court, early in August, it had been known by his attendants and dearest friends that his condition was serious, and that there was little or no chance of his recovery, but Mr. Hoyt apparently had seemed hopeful of ultimate recovery.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 21.—A special to the Herald by long distance telephone from Columbia, Tenn., says: A terrific cyclone moving in a westerly and north-westerly direction struck this place at 9.30 last night and left havoc in its path. The northern and western sections of the city, populated by negroes, were entirely swept away. Fifteen persons are known to have been killed and it is feared that this number will be largely increased by later reports.

The cyclone lasted for about five minutes and its path, about 1000 feet wide, was clearly marked by devastation. Many houses, including a large number of negro huts, were blown down and many others damaged.

LONDON, Nov. 21.—The Standard in a special edition this evening says. "Just as we are going to press news reached London that Lord Roberts had been thrown from his horse and received severe injuries."

A despatch to the Standard says Lord Roberts' body guard removed him after the accident to Government House, Johannesburg. He was badly shaken and bruised but it is expected he will be able to take the field again in the course of a few days. The daily telegraph learns that Lord Roberts has telegraphed privately to the Secretary of State for war that he felt no ill effects whatever of the accident.

LONDON, Nov. 21.—Panama advices say that the Colombian Government has seized the British steamship Tobago, put 600 men aboard with cannon, and sent her to Buena Ventura. The British Consul has appealed to the Home Government for a warship.

Thomas Farley, a tinsmith, and his wife were found dead in their rooms in a tenement house in New York on Thursday. Both had been shot through the temple. There is every reason to believe that the man murdered his wife and then killed himself.

It is said that the Duke and Duchess of York will visit Canada when they go to England from Australia.

Mrs. Florence Pullman Lowden, of Chicago, has taken out a policy on her life for $250,000, the largest ever issued to a woman. The husband has a policy for the same amount.

From the London Jewish World: A schoolboy was asked at an examination to give an account of the patriarch Abraham. He wrote: "He was the father of Lot and had two wives. One was called Ishmale and the other Hagar. He kept one at home and he turned the other into the desert, where she became a pillar of salt in the daytime and a pillar of fire by night."

LONDON, November 21.—It was stated in a cable to the Star several weeks ago that the Duke and Duchess of York were contemplating a trip to Canada, as a recognition of the valour of Canadian soldiers in South Africa. It is now definitely learned that their Royal Highnesses have finally decided upon a visit to the Dominion, but the date of their departure is not yet settled upon.

LONDON, Nov. 21.—It is credibly reported, says the Shanghai correspondent of the Daily Telegraph, under yesterday's date, "that the Empress Dowager has telegraphed a secret decree warning all governors and viceroys to prepare for immediate war against the allies everywhere."

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 21.—Three men entered the jewellery store of John J. Hubbard, this city, yesterday morning, assaulted the proprietor, left him for dead and literally gutted the place of its contents. The assault occurred within a block of police-headquarters, in one of the most frequented parts of the city, and within a stone's throw of the City Hall, shortly after 10 o'clock in the morning. Mr. Hubbard says the men came in, and asked to be shown some diamonds. As he turned to get them he received a blow on the head and fell senseless. An hour later he was discovered bound and gagged and lying in a coal bin at the rear of the shop. Every article of value had been removed from the shelves and show cases. It is thought Mr. Hubbard will die. No estimate of the loss can be made on account of his condition.

ELDERADO, Kas., Nov. 22.—Miss Jessie Morrison charged with killing Mrs. Olin Castle last June by cutting her throat with a razor, was placed on trial here yesterday. The case is one of the most remarkable in the history of Kansas crimes. Miss Morrison's alleged motive for the murder was jealousy, she having been a former sweetheart of Castle, who is a clerk in a store.

MARSEILLES, Nov. 22.—Paul Kruger, former president of the South African republic, landed here at 10.45 a. m. The weather was beautiful, and the Boer leader received a magnificent demonstration. The whole route from the landing place to his hotel was crowded with people. He appeared to be in good health, and repeatedly took off his silk hat in acknowledging the acclamations.

LONDON, Nov. 22.—Sir Arthur Sullivan the musical composer, is dead, the result of heart failure. His death was very sudden. It occurred at 9 o'clock this morning. While he was laughing and talking in a house here he fell down and died within a few minutes of heart failure. He had been ailing for some time, but it was not believed his heart was affected. Recently he had been in better health than for some weeks past.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Nov. 22.—Three desperate convicts escaped from the Kansas penitentiary Tuesday afternoon. One of them, Samuel Smith, a train robber and murderer under death sentence, is now in the hospital at the penitentiary with a bullet hole in his head, and the others, with guns in their hands, are surrounded in a strip of woods two miles from the prison. In a battle between the convicts and guards, Larentine Swartz was shot three times, but is not mortally wounded.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 23.—Rev. D. E. Stuart, the Wyoming, Pa. minister accused of having poisoned his seventeen-year old wife, was arrested in this city early yesterday morning on his way home from a prayer meeting he had addressed. The minister had disappeared from Wyoming two weeks ago.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 23.—A sensational breach of promise suit was put on trial before Judge Audenried in Common Pleas Court to-day. The plaintiff is Rosie Morris, a beautiful girl, and the defendant is her uncle, Jacob Blumenthal. Miss Morris is thirty years of age and the defendant is about thirty-five. It is alleged that in September, 1898, the plaintiff was induced to leave Montreal, Canada, and come to this city, upon the promise of her uncle that he would make her his wife.

Upon her arrival here the defendant was constant in his attentions to her until May 10, 1899, when he suddenly renounced any intention of marrying her, but about a week later he again agreed to marry her, and on May 19 they started out to procure a marriage license, but instead of going to the Clerk of the Orphans' Court he took her to the Philadelphia Hospital, where he had her committed upon the charge that she was insane.

BROOKVILLE, Ind., Nov. 23.—Miss Phoebe Meeks, eighty-six years old, is dead at her home in this city. With the death of Miss Meeks the last actor in a tragedy of love that took place more than half a century ago has passed away.

The Attorney-General at Washington recommended to the President a few days ago that the sentence of death passed upon James Hensen be commuted to imprisonment for life. Hensen is an Alaskan Indian, who, a year ago, with ten Indian companions, murdered Bart Horton and Florence Horton, a young bride and bridegroom, who were on a vacation trip near Skagway, Alaska.

St. PETERSBURG, Nov. 23.—The Betrothal of Prince Louis Napoleon Bonaparte to Grand Duchess Helen, daughter of Grand Duke Vladimir, is officially announced. Prince Louis, who served for the last fifteen years in the Russian army, is in the general cavalry at the head of a crack regiment of the Czarina's lancers of guard.

THE STOMACH RULES.

Cross and Cranky Mortals Who Suffer Untold Misery.

Have Only One Hope of Release and Health—That Hope is in Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets Which Always Cure.

"The stomach is the man—too often," says an eminent medical writer. The assertion is true. As the stomach is, so is the man. If the stomach is out of order, weak or overworked the man is cross, fretful, irritable, short tempered, "cranky" and miserable. He is wretched himself, and he makes all who come in contact with him wretched too. The stomach can't be out of order if the man will use Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Many troubles originate in the stomach, though their source is little suspected. We find headaches, giddiness, sleeplessness, palpitation of the heart, flushing of the face, cough, skin diseases and other affections are caused by dyspepsia. Each of these complaints is dangerous to life, inasmuch as it will lead to worse troubles—palpitation developing into heart disease for instance if Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets be not used.

Each of these troubles, being the result of dyspepsia, disappears as soon as the dyspepsia is removed. To remove dyspepsia is very easy if you know how. And nothing is easier than to learn how. If you can remember to take one or two of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal the thing is done.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are immediate in effect, permanent in their cure. They act on and strengthen the stomach and bowels, digest the food and bring health and ease to all who use them.

THE WORLD'S MOST FAMOUS PICTURE

In the Dresden Gallery in Germany hangs the most valuable picture in the world (worth $500,000), Raphael's "Sistine Madonna and Child." This great picture has, by permission, been specially copied and reproduced on heavy paper, size 22 x 30, in all the colors and beauty of the original, and is given with this year's Toronto Saturday Night's Christmas Number. "The Modern Madonnas," admittedly the most beautiful picture ever made by photography, has also been reproduced, size 16 x 21, and is given as another premium with the most beautiful book ever issued in Canada, full of stories, poems and artistic illustrations, some of the pictures occupying full pages. A boy's picture, "An Impromptu Speech," is also in colors, and "Don't Cry, Mama," is the most touching picture of the home of a missing Canadian soldier yet produced. The whole sixty pages are original, bright, clear and typical of Canada, as also is the title cover, which depicts, in six colors, an Indian boy plucking feathers from a king turkey of the forest which he has slain. Order at once, for nothing as good has ever before been offered in Canada, and last year's Saturday Night's Christmas was sold out within three days of its publication. Price 50 cents, in tubes ready for mailing. At all newsdealers, or from The Sheppard Publishing Company, Limited, Toronto.
