AUTUMN BEAUTIES.

MAGGIE E. FRASER.

In the autumn, when the sunlight wraps the earth in splendour grand; When all nature whispers: "Beauty" In this fair Canadian land; If you wander to the woodland, Where is nature dressed so gay, You will say, "Earth holds naught fairer Than a glorious autumn day."

Maple trees in robes of crimson, Beech and poplar dressed in brown, While the birch tree gleams among them In a beautiful golden gown; With the evergreens around them, And the deep blue sky above, Here before you is a vision Which might teach all hearts to love.

Under foot the velvet masses Spring elastic from your tread, As you move toward the streamlet With its glistening pebbled bed; As you stand and gaze upon it Flowing freely, gently by, You can see man's life within it, From his born until he die.

Let us wander to the sea shore, Where the waters calm and blue Softly hold the hues of Heaven In their mirror deep and true! Gently do the breezes murmur, And they float on wings so free, Caressing ripples which remind us Of "the reading of the sea."

As the golden autumn sunlight, Gleams upon these scenes so fair, See't thou not mid earthly beauty Something nobler, holier there? If for happiness you're seeking, Go you to the woods around, Find there these "Autumn beauties," Then true happiness is found!

GOVERNMENT MUST ACT.

What ought not to be used as a beverage ought not to be used as such. What the good of the community requires us to expel no man has a moral right to supply. . . . Now, if it be true that a vast proportion of the crimes which government is instituted to prevent and repress have their origin in the use of ardent spirits; if our poor-houses, work-houses, jails and penitentiaries are tenanted in a great degree by those whose first and chief impulse to crime came from the distillery and the dram shops; if murder and theft, the most fearful outrages on property and life, are most frequently the issues and consummation of intemperance, is not government bound to restrain by legislation the vending of the stimulus to these terrible social wrongs? William Ellery Channing.

There is no duty of government that falls more clearly within its province than in laying its suppressing hand upon the saloon. In truth, among all the duties of government this stands prominent. It is idle to say that a people are protected by government, who are left exposed to these perils and burdens. Civil government is mighty to educate the people upward or downward, either in a right or wrong direction. So long as it licenses or protects the saloon, so long it is a mighty influence to reconcile the people to the saloon. The people will follow government even in its grossest inconsistencies. When it lets the saloon stand, it neglects to protect person and property at a point where they are far more fearfully exposed than at any other point; and in neglecting such protection, it neglects what all admit to be the chief duty in the province of government.—Garrit Smith in a speech in the House of Representatives in 1854.

Responsibility for the result of human actions, for what we say and do, is at the basis of all that is of worth in human society. To secure such ends are parliaments instituted. The design and essence of all law is protection, and the very basis of our civilization for the security of our liberties in justice enacted into law and effect, through parliament, for the protection of the people. Hence as Parliament is created and exists for the express purpose of protecting the interests of people, the Parliament that fails to protect a people against an enemy that has and is inflicting injuries, according to Parliament's own indictment, "so vast in magnitude, so wide in extent, and so destructive in effect, and to constitute a social peril, a national menace," is either a nullity or a treasonable conspiracy, and voters who will vote to perpetuate such a Parliament will share in, and be chiefly responsible for its treason, or its idiocy.

Dr. Parkhurst as the result of his experience used the following words:—"The humanly incarnated principles of this gospel were able in three centuries to charge the moral complexion of the whole Roman Empire, and there is nothing the matter with the Christianity here except that the incarnations of it are lazy and cowardly, and think more of personal comfort than they do of municipal decency, and more of their dollars than they do of a city that is governed by men who are not tricky and beastly.

Neither the devil nor any of his minions can be caught in a trap. You can hammer him, but you cannot snare him. Cajolery only lubricates the machinery of his iniquity. Petting him oils the bearings, minimizes the squeak, and maximizes the velocity.

You have got to fit your work to your theme. We do not handle charcoal with a silver ladel, nor carry garbage out to the dumping ground in a steam yacht."

The sooner lovers of truth and haters of iniquity speak out and act up to their speech the sooner will reform come. It won't come while we are cowards and hold our tongues. There is too much of this silence for policy's sake. Christians need to imitate Christ's use of the scourge to-day, and they are lubricating the machinery, oiling the bearings, minimizing the squeak, and maximizing the velocity of Hell's machinery by silence or soft speech, while seventy-five per cent. of the convicts in our prison are young men, and five per cent. of young men attend church; while seventy-five per cent. never attend church, despite the fact that sixty-three per cent. of them were in Sunday school in their childhood.

This is What They Say.

Those who take Hood's Sarsaparilla for scrofula, eczema, eruptions, catarrh, rheumatism or dyspepsia, say it cures promptly and permanently, even after all other preparations fail. You may take this medicine with the utmost confidence that it will do you good. What it has done for others you have every reason to believe it will do for you.

A LETTER FROM PRIVATE JOS. WOODS.

(Moncton Transcript)

Mr. James Woods, night clerk at the Brunswick, has received a letter, dated Warrenton, Aug. 20, from his brother, Pte. Jos. Woods, who went to South Africa with the second contingent. Private Woods says: "I have been into three or four battles since we left Capetown, but I think the war is very near a close. We are longing to get home and are all sick of this kind of life. I have had a chance to go on the mounted police force, but I don't like the country, so I guess I will go home after the war, that is if I come out all right. The salary paid to the mounted police is $2.50 per day. I have procured one of old Kruger's half sovereigns for you, but we are not allowed to send them now and I will take it to you, also a two-shilling piece. When we return to Capetown I will get some ostrich feathers which I will bring home."

FORTY INVALIDED CANADIANS SAILED FOR HOME.

LORD ROBERTS GIVES SOME DETAILS OF GEN. HART'S GOOD WORK.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—Lord Roberts has wired as follows to the war office: "Hart returned to Krugersdorp Oct. 1. He has been thirty-three days from his base, marched 310 miles, was in contact with the enemy 29 days, killed an unknown number and captured 96. The British lost, three killed, three prisoners and 24 wounded. Hart brought back 2,720 head of cattle and 3,281 sheep.

"Buller has returned to Lydenburg from Spitzkop with a thousand sheep.

"There are skirmishes with the Boers daily, but they are small affairs.

"The Dublin Fusiliers made a night assault with the bayonet on a Boer laager between Pretoria and Johannesburg and captured nine men, mostly important Boers, who have troubled the district.

"A party of Boers have penetrated the southern part of Orange River colony, entering Dewetsdorp and Wepener. Detachments are after them."

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 4.—A special to the Record from New Orleans says: The British army headquarters in this city are to be closed soon. Since English officers were sent here in August, 1899, to purchase supplies 15,000 horses and 12,000 mules have been shipped to Cape Town, as well as large quantities of forage and other supplies, the pay thereon being about $10,000,000 in English gold.

TORONTO, Oct. 4.—The Telegram's special cable from London says: Another lot of Canadians who for some time have been confined in English hospitals, having been invalided from South Africa, sailed to-day by steamship Vancouver for Montreal. There were forty in the party. Sergeant Major J. Widgery of A Squadron, R. C. D., first battalion, Canadian Mounted Rifles, is in charge of the men, among whom are Pte. J. H. Robertson, 62nd St. Fusiliers, F. Co., first contingent; Pte. Wm. McMullin, 8th Hussars, G Co., first contingent; Pte. W. Irwin, 93rd Cumberland battalion, Quebec Co., first contingent; Pte. D. Osborn, Nova Scotia Co., first contingent. Hon. Dr. Borden, minister of militia, sailed on the steamship Numidian to-day accompanied by Mrs. Borden. He expects to reach Canada in time to participate in the dominion election campaign.

Good News for our Readers.

Who have scrofula taints in their blood, and who have not? Scrofula in all its forms is cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla which thoroughly purifies the blood. This disease which frequently appears in children, is greatly to be dreaded. It is most likely to affect the glands of neck, which become enlarged, eruptions appear on the head and face, and the eyes are frequently affected. Upon its first appearance, perhaps in slight eruptions or pimples, scrofula should be entirely eradicated from the system by a thorough course of Hood's Sarsaparilla to prevent all the painful and sickening consequences of running scrofula sores which drain the system, sap the strength and make existence utterly wretched.

DUEL ON MOVING TRAIN.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 6.—On the top of a Chicago and Alton train, moving at forty miles an hour, Wm. Burke, of this city, and an unknown man fought a duel to the death yesterday. The two men were beating their way to Chicago. After the train left East St. Louis the stranger drew a revolver and demanded Burke's money. Burke refused to comply with the request and grappled with his antagonist. During the struggle which followed, the unknown man shot Burke in the side, but the latter finally managed to push him from the top of the coach. He was picked up with his skull crushed in and otherwise horribly injured and barely alive. Burke will recover.

WHY WE SHOULD VOTE LIBERAL.

Nations in perplexity find wide fulfillment to-day. Famine is scourging India, strife still lingers in South Africa, China still seething with passion and bloodshed, who can fortell the issue, all other nations are in perplexity, some because of friends and representatives, others in hurrying armies to the scene to be ready for emergencies. What a contrast when we look up and remember that God reigns and that out of our unrest He can further His grand purpose and bid from His eternal calm, "Peace be still," when, lo! strife shall cease and perplexity shall have lost its anxiety and we as a people shall remember that He who fashioned the stars can bring tranquility upon the chaotic state into which man by his inhumanity to man has pitched us. While in Canada peace reigns, we as a people, are prophesying the issue of the coming election—the Liberal and Conservative government. While the writer holds to the opinion that never before in Canada has there been an administration like the present, inasmuch as welling up the love in the mother heart for Canada and her people, in the foresight of Sir Wilfrid Laurier in sending out our first contingent of soldiers to assist the motherland in arranging for a speedy victory, which has brought honors to Canada which it never before boasted of, Sir Charles Tupper and his colleagues passed many uncalled for remarks concerning the way the Liberal government equipped her soldiers, etc. Laurier knew the love England had for this fair daughter and knew when she understood the fearlessness and stalwartness combined with vigor of those hardy Northern men that the action would bring forth the greater amount of love and she would fit them for the onset.

While at a convention held in Buctouche for the purpose of selecting a candidate to represent Kent County at the coming election, there were three men to choose from, all good upright and honorable men, but although O. J. LeBlanc was not anxious to accept the nomination still he was appointed to represent us. The constituents knew that he was a man tried and proven, a good honest farmer who upheld his principles and never once while in the political arena did he ever show himself to be but a man of the highest principles, and while as a speaker he may have his superiors, still for honor and integrity he has not his equal, nor for love and liberty which is the true sign of a loyal Canadian. In speaking to a friend concerning the war he remarked with pathos, "dear me, we are losing a lot of men and a lot of money but we will conquer in the end." Does not that speak loyalty? The country never was in a more prosperous condition than to-day, the farmer does not feel the strain like when under Conservative administration, for the tax is lessened on what he consumes which makes the farmer smile, and when the farmer smiles all smile in unison. So every Liberal gird ye for the coming election for the enemy will ride and circle to advantage gain.

THE MINER'S STRIKE.

STRIKE BELIEVED NEAR ITS END—ALLOWANCES MADE FOR "DEAD" WORK.

SCRANTON, Pa., Oct. 6.—In compliance with the agreement of the Individual coal operators' association covering the Lackawanna and Wyoming valleys, to give an increase in wages to their striking mine employes, the following notice, signed by each operator in the association and posted for himself at the mines controlled by him was issued this morning. "This Company makes the following announcement to its mine employes. It will adjust its rate of wages so as to pay to its mine employes on and after October 1, and until further notice a net increase of ten per cent on the wages heretofore received." Note—It is understood in the foregoing that the powder will be sold to miners for $1.50 per keg and that the difference between this rate and the old rate of $2.75 shall be taken into account in figuring the net advance of the price noted above for this class of work."

This is identical in form with the notice posted in the Hazelton region. This notice was put up at no less than sixty mine openings during the morning but nobody went to work.

Inquiry at the offices of several of the operators revealed the belief that the strike could not continue much longer, probably not over another week, as by that time the miners and laborers would probably understand the situation and realize just what the increase means.

It is figured out that the only in applied to every condition of earnings that held before the strike was declared and this meant that the allowance for "dead" work and hard places would stand.

It is figured out that the only inequalities which may arise will be the case where one man is able to get out more coal with a keg of powder than another, but the latter's allowances will about even this condition.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct. 6.—Nearly all the individual operators of the Wyoming region posted notices of a ten per cent increase in wages this morning. The Delaware and Hudson Co., will post a similar notice to-night. At the office of the Susquehanna Coal Co., it was stated that the company had not posted notices of an increase and it was not known if they would do so. This company operates all the mines at Nanticoke.

NOTICE OF SUSPENSION.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 6.—Calvin Pardee, of C. Pardee & Co., issued the following statement from the main office of the firm in this city to-day. "A mob of upwards of 2,000, many of its number armed with clubs, in the presence of Sheriff Harvey and a large force of deputy sheriffs drove off our men at Lattimer mines to-day from their work, and we have deemed it best to suspend work there until further notice and have posted the following at our mines.

"Notice—Governor of Pennsylvania and the general commanding the National Guards of this state, stationed at Shenandoah having failed to send troops to aid Sheriff Harvey in preventing the marching of mobs and the assaults on the intimidation of men pursuing their usual daily work in the mountains of Luzerne County, and the sheriff also having failed to do this with his numerous deputies, and it being impossible for us to prevent further injury and possible loss of life to our employes in their homes or going to and from their work, we deem it best to suspend work at our mines this day until further notice.
