ATTENTION.—An Apron Fair will be held in the Masonic Hall, Richibucto, under the auspices of the ladies of St. Mary's church, to-morrow evening, commencing at 7 o'clock, p. m. Refreshments will be served.

FUNERAL OF MRS. DR. BOWSER.—The funeral of the late Mrs. Bowser, wife of Dr. Bowser, took place at Kingston on Friday last and was largely attended by friends of the deceased from different parts of the County. The remains arrived by train on Thursday from Kingston, N. Y., accompanied by the Dr. and Mrs. Hodge, of Cornwall, Ont., sister of the deceased, and were taken to the residence of Mrs. Bowser, where they were received by a large number of friends and sympathizers. The Rev. D. Fraser officiated at the funeral, assisted by Rev. J. D. Murray, of Red Bank, and the following acted as pall-bearers: Dr. R. P. Doherty, Jas. L. Hutchinson, H. M. Ferguson, Ed. Hannay, Wm. Dickinson, and Thos. Stohart, of St. John.

DIED FROM SPINAL TROUBLE.—Jarvis Dibblee, the ten year old son of Mr. James Thompson, died last Friday morning after a short illness from spinal trouble. The little fellow who had only been sick about 24 hours, suffered intensely from the time he took sick until he died. He had been playing around with his playmates until within a short time before he took sick and his death was quite a surprise. He had always been a favourite among his playmates as was shown on Sunday by the large number of boys and girls who followed the remains to the grave. The funeral was at 3.30 o'clock and was conducted by Rev. H. A. Meek. Six small boys acted as pallbearers. Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved family for their sad loss.

GARDEN PARTY.—The garden party which was held by the R. C. congregation on the grounds in front of the manse on Tuesday afternoon and evening was a grand success financially and otherwise. Although the number of people was not very large during the afternoon, it increased enormously in the evening. The weather was fine and the grounds were in a fine condition, notwithstanding the large amount of rain which fell on Monday. An excellent supper was served at five o'clock and was enjoyed by those who sat down to the tables. The most important feature of the evening was a competition between two of our clerks, Mr. John Flanagan and Mr. Fred O'Connors, to ascertain which was the most popular. Mr. Flanagan won, having taken in over $50.00. Several lotteries were also drawn. The following are the winners: Writing desk, Miss Sadie O'Leary; Dressing Case, Edith Bourque; Ladies' gold ring, Wm. Funcheon; Fancy horn, D. McDermott. The proceeds amounted to $334.40. Dancing was kept up until a late hour. Altogether the party came off most successful.

THE LATE MR. GRADY.—On the morning of Sunday, August 12th, death closed the mortal career of Martin Grady, of Cocagne, one of the most prominent and highly respected citizens of the county. The deceased, who for eighteen months, had been suffering from an incurable form of Bright's disease, met death peacefully, surrounded by his family and strengthened by all the consolations that religion and a well spent christian life could afford. The funeral took place on Tuesday at 9 o'clock a. m. and, through the drizzling rain the remains were followed to their last resting place in the R. C. cemetery at Notre Dame, by a large procession of growing relatives and friends. Several large and handsome floral tributes adorned the casket. Rev. Paul Dufour, parish priest, conducted the burial services. The pall-bearers were, William Johnston, Maurice O'Neill, James Johnston, Peter Richard, Meleme Sonier and Alex. McDonald.

Mr. Grady's life was a long and active one. Born in the county of Waterford, Ireland, he spent many of his childhood days with the present illustrious Lord Roberts, on whose family's estates Mr. Grady's father was a large tenant. The many tales of his life in Waterford, and especially of the days of boyish mirth spent with the then future military hero, proved always full of interest to young and old. Leaving his native town when 23 years of age, Mr. Grady immigrated to the United States, and soon engaged in railroad building. This occupation led him to New Brunswick where he was employed in completing the St. John-Shediac line. Later he engaged in the milling business in Shediac where he married Miss Matilda Warren of that town, and shortly after settled near Notre Dame, Kent Co., on the farm which has now become the Grady homestead. Mr. Grady soon became prominent and for nine years represented his parish at the county council board. In politics he was a staunch and unyielding Liberal of weighty influence. He was ever an able supporter of the public schools and a strong advocate of advancement and reform. By all with whom he ever came in contact, and especially by those who knew him best, Mr. Grady was regarded as a man whose character possessed those traits which are rightly called noble—rigid honesty, truthfulness, broad-mindedness and religiousness. He was withal of a very kindly disposition and warm heart and was very popular among all classes of people. He is survived by his wife and twelve children—four sons and eight daughters. The sons are, John, of Cocagne; Thomas, of Boston; William, of Portland, Me.; Joseph, of Cocagne. The daughters are Mrs. John Carroll, of Cocagne; Mrs. Frank Marston, of Boston; Misses Annie, of Cocagne; Anastacia, of Boston; Alpha, of Portland; Maggie, of Portland; and Rosetta and Blanche, of Cocagne.
