RICHIBUCTO, N. B. NOV. 15, 1900

KENT IS REDEEMED.

One of the noticeable features of last week's contest was the defeat of every one of the Conservative members from New Brunswick who opposed the extension of the I. C. R. to Montreal and the development of that great national highway. The people have administered a fitting rebuke to the men who dared so to misrepresent them on the floors of parliament. That this was not a snap verdict is proven by the enormous majorities recorded against the members in question. Foster, Powell, McAllister and McInerney were all beaten by adverse majorities ranging from 500 to 1000. Even the potent influence of the great C. P. Ry. aided by generous financial assistance availed nothing against the just resentment of an outraged electorate. In this County the defeat of Mr. McInerney is the more humiliating to him from his open sneers at the gentleman who has beaten him so badly at the polls. We have ever maintained that the people of Kent preferred the honest man of action to the brilliant but useless politician who had entirely neglected his opportunities to serve his constituency. The betrayal of a dead man's confidence shown by Mr. McInerney's publication of the late Mr. Weldon's confidential letter no doubt had a powerful effect in increasing the Liberal vote in the English districts. The ex-member for Kent has discovered that honesty is the best policy.

The people of this County are to be congratulated upon the splendid majority recorded in favor of the Hon. O. J. LeBlanc. The English districts are to be particularly congratulated upon their ability to rise above the appeals to race prejudice. Kent is to day in line with the rest of the Province in strengthening the hands of the Minister of Railways who has shown in the past four years a fearless determination to advance New Brunswick's interests.

THE REVIEW has done its utmost to bring about this desirable result, but Mr. LeBlanc's victory is especially due to the unity of effort and unselfish zeal of the Liberal workers in every district in the County. No more earnest effort was put forth for the triumph of Liberal principles in any part of Canada than was manifested by one and all of the party friends in this constituency. Where all were so zealous it would perhaps be invidious to make special mention even of those who bore the heat and burden of the fray. The Liberal party may well be proud of its band of workers and on behalf of Mr. LeBlanc we desire to thank one and all for their unselfish service in the recent campaign.

THE ELECTION RESULTS.

The elections of last Wednesday resulted in a sweeping majority for the Liberal party throughout Canada.

In Nova Scotia the Liberals made substantial gains and in place of Sir Charles sweeping them out of existence in that province the Liberals succeeded in retiring Sir Charles from public life.

Nova Scotia at present stands fifteen Liberals to five Conservatives. In New Brunswick the Liberals also made gains. After the election of 1896 the Conservatives held nine seats while the Liberals had five; this year the result is reversed. The Liberals captured from their opponents, Restigouche, Gloucester, Kent, Westmorland and York, while the Conservatives on the other hand succeeded in electing Wilmot and Fowler in Queens-Sunbury and Kings respectively. On Prince Edward Island the contests were all very close except that of West Queens where the Hon. L. H. Davies was elected by over 700 majority. In 1896 the province stood three Conservatives to two Liberals; to day that is reversed and there may possibly be four Liberals in the Garden of the Gulf. In Quebec the Liberals swept everything before them defeating all the tory leaders as Bergeron, Caron, Taillon and Quinn by large majorities. Casgrain alone escaped with a majority of twenty-nine in Montmorency, where his opponent was a young man entering his first political fight. In Quebec the Liberals nearly carried Sherbrooke and St. Antoine which have always returned Conservatives, the majorities in these constituencies being 32 and 57 respectively. Quebec stands at present fifty-six Liberals to eight Conservatives. In 1896 it was 49 to 16.

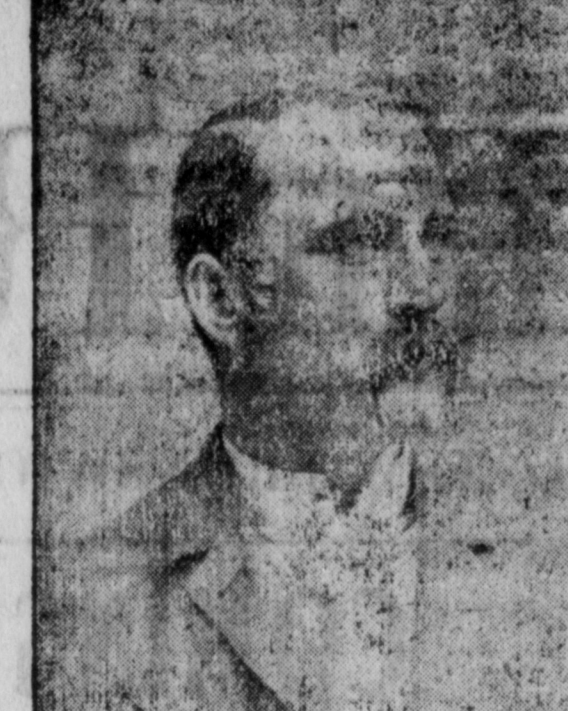

In Ontario the Liberals lost ground due entirely to the race cry used against the Liberal candidate which was effectually employed in the proper districts not only publicly but quietly canvassed. The Cabinet Ministers from Ontario were all elected by good majorities but some prominent members of the rank and file suffered defeat. Among them were McMullen, Gibson, McMillan and Frost. In striking contrast to Montreal, Toronto returned all Conservatives, as did Hamilton, while Hyman, the Liberal candidate, captured London after many battles. Toronto returned to the former parliament one Liberal, while Hamilton returned two Liberals. The Liberals also lost a seat in Ottawa. On the Conservative side such prominent figures as Montague and White were defeated.

Manitoba and the West which was going straight Conservative according to the tory press stood in 1896 five Conservatives to four Liberals and to-day stands just reversed. The most prominent feature was the defeat by Sifton of Hugh John McDonald in Brandon by a large majority and also the defeat of Davin in the territories. So far only four seats have been contested in British Columbia; two which were Conservative in the last House remain in the same fold, while Morrison (Lib.) and Smith (Ind. Lib.) have been elected in the two other districts. The result throughout the Dominion has been a great victory for Laurier and the Liberal cause notwithstanding the diabolical canvasses employed against the Liberals. The first division in the next house should stand about 130 Liberals to 84 Conservatives or a majority of about 46.

SNAP SHOTS.

We thank the ex-member for Kent for his many complimentary references to THE REVIEW and the part it played in his defeat. We shall endeavour to prove worthy of them.

That portfolio of Minister of Marine and Fisheries is almost in sight still, but one needs to go to the lower end of the County to catch a view of the Garden of the Gulf where its occupant dwells.

Hugh John's story of the man and the bear applies pretty well to its tellers. Some of them must feel like pulling the hole in after them.

Its "sore" Hugh Graham instead of Sir Hugh Graham.

"What are your needs" wired the proprietor of the Montreal "Star." A number of political coffins will do, thank you.

It is now Hon. Oliver J. LeBlanc, M. P., if you please.

"New Brunswick's interests are safe in the hands of the Minister of Railways." It seems to us we published that before the elections.

THE REVIEW's forecast of the election results were not far astray. Wednesday, Nov. 7th, was the coldest day in the history of the Conservative party.

Fosterism is dead in New Brunswick.

We congratulate the Montreal Star, Moncton Times and St. John Sun on their efficient service to the Liberal party.

The remnant of the "nest of traitors" will probably decide the question of Conservative leadership before their absent member, Mr. Foster, gets a seat in parliament.

Why not run Foster for Kings, Carleton, Charlotte or Sunbury-Queens. We would like to pay him our final regards.

The Conservative leaders are still mystified at the blind backwardness of the people of Canada.

"Laurierism is like the measles" wires Geo. E. Foster to the Montreal Star. Well it is very catching, Mr. Foster.

We congratulate Sir Charles Tupper on his retirement from politics and trust this is positively his last appearance. How nice it will be for the old man to read all the pretty things that the papers on both sides are printing as his political obituary notices.

AFTER CLAPS.

There is no doubt that the defeat of the Conservatives at the polls can in large part be attributed to the scandalous, lying and deceitful campaign which was carried on by the tory machine directed in Montreal by Mr. Henry Dalby and Mr. Hugh Graham of the Montreal Star. Their appeals to the racial passions and religious prejudices of the people of Canada were the most disgraceful ever known in the history of political battles in this country, and were strongly resented by all respectable people irrespective of their political faith. The methods which the Tories employed to regain power disgusted the intelligent electors of Canada and unless new managers and respectable methods are used the Conservative party can entertain little hope of again being entrusted with the confidence of our people.

Probably no newspaper rendered more valuable assistance to the Liberal cause than the Montreal Star. Its vicious and savage attacks on the individual members of the cabinet, the disgraceful appeals which it made to the English speaking people of Canada, the extravagant and exaggerated statements it made, the forged circular letter, the bogus Globe, and its many false statements and contemptible actions only had the effect of causing the readers to distrust everything which it printed and of rendering it absolutely worthless as a campaign organ to the tory party.

We have frequently heard leading Liberals of Montreal state that it paid to have the "Star" in opposition. Truly after the result of Wednesday, everyone must conclude that it has very little influence in the Montreal district. With us, down by the sea, its influence is nil and in the future the people will not trust anything they read in a paper which publishes fake cable telegrams from South Africa, bogus Globes and forged circular letters.

(Sir) Hugh Graham, the proprietor, will require to wait for the title as the "children's testimonial" to the Queen upon which he hoped to ground his appeal backed by the expected tory government will now be of no avail and the racial agitator can scarcely hope for any favor at the hands of Her Majesty:—"What are your needs? Reply by letter" Hugh Graham. It is knighthood with a senatorship thrown in. Mr. H. Dalby can now return to the editorship from which he never actually retired and think over what has happened to the "nucleus." Mr Dalby's visit to St. John was of a fortunate nature as the "dust" made its appearance shortly afterwards.

It is a pleasant duty to thank

THROAT REST

You can cough yourself into bronchitis, pneumonia, and consumption. Bandaging and bundling your throat will do no good. You must give your throat and lungs rest and allow the cough wounds to heal. There is nothing so bad for a cough as coughing. Stop it by using

Cherry
Pectoral

Even the cough of early consumption is cured. And, later on, when the disease is firmly fixed, you can bring rest and comfort in every case. A 25 cent bottle will cure new coughs and colds; the 50 cent size is better for settled coughs of bronchitis and weak lungs; the one dollar size is more economical for chronic cases and consumption. It's the size you should keep on hand.

"All families ought to be on the watch for sudden attacks of croup or acute lung troubles. Every country home in the land should keep Ayer's Cherry Pectoral constantly on hand to provide against an emergency."

our contemporary, "Le Soleil" of Quebec, for the valuable assistance rendered the Liberal party of Kent during the recent campaign. It was an excellent campaign newspaper. The cartoons were bright and to the point and the questions of the day well handled.

As predicted in our last issue Mr George V. McInerney was one of the pall bearers at the burial of the Hon. George E. Foster by the electors of the City of St. John. We do not know what further private correspondence Mr. McInerney may have in his possession, but would suggest that as the tory party are now defeated he might publish the letters which he received urging him to send the letter of the late Mr Weldon to the tory machine in St. John.

The defeat of Mr. Bergeron in Beauharnois, a purely French (Canadian constituency, by Mr. Loye, an English protestant, speaks well for the French-Canadians of Quebec. There the people were appealed to by the Conservatives to elect Mr. Bergeron because he was a French-Canadian and defeat Mr. Loye because he was an Englishman. In a like manner the French-Canadian voters of Missisquoi were appealed to vote for Mr. Comeau against Mr. Meigs, but they refused to be swayed by such an appeal and elected Mr. Meigs by a good majority. Similar results were seen in Quebec West where the Hon. R. R. Dobell received almost the entire French vote, also in Richmond and Wolfe, notwithstanding the appeals of Mr. Crepeau, the Conservative candidate and Mr. Chicoyne the M. P. P. for the County to the French electors of the constituency to vote against Mr. Tobin because he was an Englishman, the French-Canadians not only strongly supported Mr. Tobin but elected him by the largest majority on record in that constituency. This shows that the French-Canadians were not influenced by the racial appeals which were made to them by the Conservatives, but rather endorsed the general policy of the Government irrespective of the men.

Never in the political history of Canada has there been such a slaughter of leaders as occurred on Wednesday last. Among the defeated Conservative leaders were Sir Charles Tupper, Foster, Hugh John Macdonald, Caron, Bergeron, Taillon, Montague, Quinn, White, McNeill and men of lesser light such as Powell and McInerney. On the Government side the entire cabinet was elected by large majorities but some old members of the party sustained defeat, such as McMullin, Landerkin, McMillan, Gibson, Frost and Domville.

The logical deductions of Sir Charles Tupper were even more faulty than his prophecies of 1896. He deduced from interviews on his private car with Mr. Pepler, Mr. Powell and others that he was going to carry every seat in the Maritime Provinces and that Blair, Fielding and Davies would be retired to private life. The retirement has been on the other side and Sir Charles has announced to the public of Canada that he is going to the bosom of his family and abandons Canadian politics. As a political leader Sir Charles Tupper has been a failure. His egotistical statements and the conceit, which he possessed of his own ability and power not only disgusted but discouraged the rank and file of the party of which he was the leader. The question of the leadership of the Conservative party is still open. Of those elected on Wednesday last none is acceptable to the Conservative party as a whole. There remains only Haggart, Wallace, Hibber Tupper, Casgrain and Prior of any force. Haggart and Tupper, as members of "the nest of traitors" are not acceptable to Sir MacKenzie Bowell and his friends. Wallace is scarcely capable of leading the party and is utterly unacceptable to Quebec and the Catholics of the Conservative party. Casgrain is just as unacceptable to Ontario as Wallace is to Quebec, besides his political record as attorney general of the Province of Quebec is not such as would fit him for the higher sphere of Dominion politics. With the retirement of Sir Charles Tupper there must be an entire re-construction of the Conservative party if they hope within the next five years to be in a position to meet the people with a united front.
