PRESBYTERIAN SABBATH SCHOOL PUBLICATIONS.

That we have no need in Canada to look beyond our own country for Sunday School Helps and illustrated papers, is made evident by the recent issues of the Presbyterian Sabbath School publications now on our table, and of which Rev. R. Douglas Fraser, M. A., Toronto, is the Editor. The series of Lesson Helps, which comprises THE TEACHERS' MONTHLY, HOME STUDY QUARTERLY, PRIMARY QUARTERLY and LEAFLETS corresponding to the Quarterlies, seems quite complete, meeting the needs of teachers and scholars of the various grades. The illustrations in JEWELS, a paper for the little ones, and THE KING'S OWN, a paper for older scholars, are remarkably good, many of them from original photographs. There is some excellent work in the way of original stories in both of the papers, and the boys and girls are not allowed to forget that Canada is their home, and that they belong to the great Empire, whose ships are on every sea and the drum-beat of whose armies is heard the whole world round. We wish our Presbyterian friends continued success in their work of publication.

Tailors' Bad Backs.

The cramped up position in which a tailor works comes hard on his kidneys and hard on his back. Very few escape backache, pain in the side and urinary troubles of one kind and another. Oftentimes the first warnings of kidney disease are neglected—think it will be all right in a day or two—but sick kidneys won't get well without help.

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

Are the best friend of kidneys needing assistance. Read the proof from a tailor who has tried them. Mr. John Robertson, merchant tailor, Durham, Ont., gives his experience as follows: "I had been ailing with my kidneys for more than a year when I commenced taking Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at McFarlane's drug store, and am sincerely glad that I did so. The wrong action of my kidneys made me sick all over and caused me much inconvenience and pain. That is now a thing of the past, because Doan's Kidney Pills cured me. I have had no trouble or inconvenience with my kidneys or back since I took these remarkable pills, and you may be sure that I gladly recommend them to other sufferers."

LAXA-LIVER PILLS

are the ladies' favorite medicine. They do not purge, gripe, weaken or sicken. They act naturally on the stomach, liver and bowels, curing constipation, dyspepsia, sick headache and biliousness. Price 25c.

DOWIE DIDN'T WIN LONDON.

"FAITH HEALER AND ANTI-HAM AND-EGGS APOSTLE," ONE PAPER CALLS HIM.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—A fair idea of the effect of "Zionist" Dowie's extraordinary crusade in London is gained from the following paragraph in a leading journal to-day.

"Dowie, the faith healer and anti-ham-and-eggs apostle from Chicago has finished his crusade for the conversion of London to his peculiar tenants, has shaken the dust of the metropolis from his shoes and yesterday he left the King's Cross station to try his hand in Edinburgh. He finished his mission with a grand aquatic display on the previous evening in a large swimming bath at Islington, especially hired for the occasion. Dowie himself took a prominent part in the performance assisted by a number of persons who were described as converts and who would have been none the worse had some sponaceous compound been used to assist the water. The proceedings were enlivened with music. The crusade does not seem to have been a marked success. No ham and beef shop has been compelled to close its doors and bacon and eggs are still popular as ever for breakfast. Dowie was accompanied to the station by a few who state that they remain in London to further the building of the Chicago Zion by the collection of money.

UNANIMOUS OPINION.

"Candidly, Jane," said a September bridegroom to his bride in a spirit of self-abasement, "I can't perceive what you saw in me to make you willing to marry me."
"Never mind, dear," replied the bride; "that's what all my relatives say."—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

ONLY A DRUNKARD.

BY I. EDGAR JONES.

Only a drunkard! a pitiful thing, Whose rough, ragged raiment so closely doth cling To the rum-stricken form; while the wintry winds rave With the moans that will echo so soon 'round his grave. Yet pity him now, for the sake of the days When his feet followed free in the happiest ways, And the marks on the fine open features were not The skeleton brand of a sin-saddened sot. Think of the time, ere the world drove him wild, When he lovingly laughed as an innocent child; A mother prayed over him, over him wept, Taught him while waking and watched while he slept. To crown him with culture, toiled early and late, And dreamed of a manhood both honoured and great.

Somebody's darling, somebody's joy, Somebody's brother, somebody's boy, Somebody's hero, somebody's love, Worshipped as next to the Master above. College friends flattered him, happy and gay, Conquering obstacles day after day— Winning in wisdom the rich golden grain, Easy to him of the brilliant brain; Bright eyes grew brighter with love when he came, Fond of his fancies and proud of his fame, And wept with delight, and a worshipful pride, When he kissed her, and blessed her, and called her his bride.

'Twas then at the feast that he fell to his foe, As he drank to the day in the wine's ruddy glow. Little by little before it he fell, Following fate on the highway of hell; Deeper and deeper he followed it down, On to the damnable dens of the town, Torturing, starving, and cursing his wife, 'Till death gave release from her rum-ridden life; And the city authorities laid her to rest, In a pauper's poor tomb with her babe on her breast.

How it pursued him! The Demon, desire; With its horrible thirst and its fancies of fire. Forcing his feet to the terrible brink Of the pit in which rages the maelstrom of drink, Homeless, and hopeless, and loveless his lot, A whiskey-worn, rum-maddened, bottle-bound sot. Only a drunkard! And yet let us throw, Charity's cloak o'er his ways and his woes, Striving to lead him in love to the light, Piercing the gloom with the rays of the right.

WHAT DRINK DID.

"It was in the beautiful bar-room of the Taber Grand in Denver," said Eli Perkins. A group of handsome young men were laughing and drinking, when a poor, tottering tramp pushed open the door, and with sad eyes looked at them appealingly.

"Come in, senator, and drown your cares in the flowing bowl!" they said, jeeringly.

"I will come in, thank you," he said, "for I am cold and hungry."

"Take this brandy, senator," they said, mockingly, "and drink to our health."

"After swallowing the liquor the tramp gazed at them for an instant, and then, with a dignity and eloquence that showed how far he had fallen in the social scale, he began to speak:

"Gentlemen, he said, sadly, 'I wish you well. You and I complete a picture of my life. I was, alas! a senator. My bloated face was once young and handsome as yours. This shambling figure once walked as proud as yours. I, too, once had a home and friends and position. I had a wife as beautiful as an artist's dream, and I dropped the priceless pearl of honor and respect in the wine-cup, and, Cleopatra-like, saw it dissolve and quaffed it down. I had children, as sweet and lovely as the flowers of spring, and I saw them fade and die under the curse of a drunken father. I had a home where love lit the flame upon the altar and ministered to it, and put out the holy fire, and darkness and desolation reigned in its stead. I had aspirations and ambitions that soared as high as the morning star, and I broke and bruised their beautiful wings and at last strangled them, that I might be tortured with their cries no more. To-day I am a husband without a wife, a father without a child, a tramp without a home to call his own, a man in whom every good impulse is dead—all, all swallowed up in the maelstrom of drink.

CURED OF DYSPEPSIA.

In Two Weeks if You Use Dadd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Test Them if You Don't Believe It—These Paragraphs Tell How They Cure it, and Why They Cure it.

There's no need for you to say you don't know whether or not Dadd's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Sour Stomach, Biliousness, Heartburn, etc. Test them for yourself. It's the easiest thing in the world to do. Put a small (or large) quantity of food (such as you eat at breakfast, dinner or tea) into a glass bottle. Drop one or two of Dadd's Dyspepsia Tablets into it; heat the bottle to the temperature at which a healthy stomach works. Then watch. In a few minutes you will see the Tablets begin to dissolve and mingle with the food. The food is soon reduced to a pulp and then to a thin fluid. It is digested. This is the work a healthy stomach does. This is the work an unhealthy stomach doesn't do. This is the way Dadd's Dyspepsia Tablets cure Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Biliousness, Sour Stomach, Water-brash, Heartburn, Flatulence, Eructation, or "raising wind," Nausea, Acidity of the Stomach, Sick Headache, Giddiness, Foul Breath, and Coated Tongue.

All these complaints are caused by a disordered stomach that can't digest the food. Dadd's Dyspepsia Tablets digest the food, and tone and strengthen the stomach. They cure all diseases of the stomach. If you don't believe it—test them. They'll convince you by curing you.

"Young gentlemen," he said, as he passed out into the darkness, "whichever way you go—whether you follow your mothers', wives' and children's prayers, and enjoy their love on earth and dwell with them in heaven, or whether you become a saddened soul, forever lost, like me, I—I wish you well!" "I shall never forget that sad picture," continued the humorist. "It was wit and humor ending in pathos. Tears dimmed the eyes of the youth as they watched a despairing soul disappearing in the darkness."

THE USEFULNESS OF DIAMOND DYES In Country Homes is Beyond Calculation.

Diamond Dyes are great blessings to every farmer's wife. No other article brought into country homes can give such a return of profit, pleasure and happiness as the Diamond Dyes.

A ten cent package of the world-famed Diamond Dyes will give new life to any faded and dingy dress, skirt, jacket or cape. From ten to twenty cents expended on Diamond Dyes will enable any one to re-color a faded suit of clothes for any youth or man, and make them look like new clothes from the Tailor's hands.

To get the best results from your work of home dyeing, do not allow any dealer to sell you some make of dyes that he calls JUST AS GOOD. No other package dyes in the world equal the Diamond Dyes in purity, strength and brilliancy.

GOOD PAYING BUSINESS. "What is the best paying business you know of?" asked the idle inquirer. "Promoting," replied the state legislator promptly. "Promoting great enterprises?" "No; promoting certain kinds of legislative measures."—Chicago Post.
